Top Honor Goes to Oklahoma County District Attorney's Office Employee

Oklahoma City- Oklahoma County District Attorney employee Jayne Adkisson was recently recognized by the Oklahoma District Attorneys Association (ODAA) as being the Outstanding Secretary, respectively, for the entire state. The awards were presented at an awards dinner in Oklahoma City on July 22nd.

Jayne Adkisson started her career with the District Attorney's office in 1979. Through her thirty seven years, she has worked in many different positions throughout the office. Not only does she know the inner workings of the Oklahoma County DA's office, she has worked under four different elected District Attorneys.

ODAA Membership is approximately 1100 statewide. Each year the ODAA presents awards for outstanding achievement in various employee categories.

Congratulations to Jayne Adkisson!
