

Practical Strategies for Supporting Parents with Disabilities

2 Locations — Same Training    Max Capacity: 100 per site
Check in Time: 8:30 a.m. Conference: 9 a.m.—4 p.m. each day

No cost, but registration is required

June 20 & 21, 2016—Enid, OK

At the Autry Technology Center - 1201 W Willow Rd, Enid, OK 73703

Register for Enid training at: <http://supportingpwenid.eventbrite.com>

June 23 & 24, 2016—Shawnee, OK

At the Gordon Cooper Technology Center—1 John C Bruton Dr, Shawnee, OK 74804

Register for Shawnee training at:

<http://supportingpwdshawnee.eventbrite.com>

Funding provided by

Conference Highlights

1. Why this matters—legal implications for professionals.
2. How to support parents with disabilities.
3. Utilizing adaptive equipment to support infant care.
4. Working with parents who have cognitive disabilities.
5. Effective strategies for home based programs.
6. How to use Person-Centered Tools with families.
7. Parent and child trauma and coping strategies when an infant is removed from his/her parent.
8. Supporting parents with disabilities in Native American communities.

Sponsored by

Who Should Attend:

- Self-advocates
- Parent education staff
- Head Start and early intervention staff
- School staff
- Allied Health professionals (OT, PT, SLP)
- DHS staff (all sectors)
- Independent living center staff
- Family court and legal service staff
- Community resource and referral staff
- Native community members
- Healthcare service providers
- Behavioral health service providers
- Assistive Technology staff

Breakfast provided by:

Certificate of Participation provided for participants. Lunch on your own each day.