State of Oklahoma Launches Interactive Mapping System with State, County and Local Resources at <http://www.OK.gov>

OKLAHOMA CITY – July 14, 2009 – Oklahoma Maps is an interactive mapping system designed to help users find relevant state, county, and local information. The new mapping service is available at <http://www.okmaps.ok.gov>. Visitors can search up to three local resources at a time by zip code or county. Currently, Oklahoma Maps enables visitors to search for:

- Chambers of Commerce
- Fire Stations
- Health Care Facilities
- Libraries
- Police Stations
- Post Offices
- Schools
- State Parks
- Tag Agencies

Visitors can also view county information, state agency information, and view a list of other state maps available online.

“Our goal is to offer users a fully functioning map as a one-stop resource for state, county and local data in the state of Oklahoma,” said Mark Mitchell, General Manager of OK.gov. “We look forward to expanding the maps information in the future with more data and new features, so we encourage users to come back often.”
