Officer/Deputy _____

Case # _____ Agency _____

As a victim of a violent crime, you have certain rights. These rights are as follows:

1. The right to request that charges be pressed against your assailant.
2. The right to request protection from any harm or threat of harm arising out of your cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts, as far as facilities are available, and to be provided with information on the level of protection available.
3. The right to be informed of financial assistance and other social services available as a result of being a victim, including information on how to apply for the assistance and services.
4. Victims of domestic abuse have the right to file a petition for a Protective Order, or when the domestic violence occurs when the Court is not open for business, to request and Emergency Temporary Ex-Parte Protective Order.
5. Victims of sexual assault, rape, or forcible sodomy have the right to a free examination for the procurement of evidence to aid in the prosecution of your assailant.
6. The right to be informed by the District Attorney of other victim's rights available pursuant to Section 215.33 of Title 19 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

Does the person you love...

- * Threaten to hurt you or your children?
- * Abuse you when using alcohol or drugs?
- * Blame you for everything?
- * Promise not to abuse you again, but does?
- * Put you down in public or keep you from contacting family/friends?
- * Force you to have sex when you don't want to?
- * Make you feel bad about yourself or tell you no one else wants you?
- * Make you justify everything you do, every place you go and everyone you see to avoid his/her temper?
- * Throw you down, push, hit, choke, kick or slap you?

Just one "yes" answer means you're involved in an abusive relationship.
But you're not alone, and you do have choices.
No one deserves to be abused...
