HON Office Furniture Program Highlights

HON is the most recognizable name in office furniture, for all the right reasons. Invested in the success of their partners', HON develops products to meet real-world needs, and strives to provide the brand their dealers are compelled to sell and customers aspire to buy. Equalis Group Members leveraging this publicly procured contract vehicle can expect the following:

- A comprehensive offering of high-quality, commercial-grade furniture solutions including: desks, desks, workstations, office chairs, tables, storage solutions, and classroom furniture.
- Competitive pricing for Equalis Group Members, with discounts ranging from 50% – 60%+ off list.
- Nationwide access to HON's full catalog of products. From Monowi, Nebraska, to New York City, HON has you covered.
- All HON line products are backed by the HON Full Lifetime Warranty.
- Turn key solutions with value-added offerings including design services, project management, installation, storage, and logistics capabilities.

Who is HON?

Guided by timeless values, a culture of membership, and a commitment to service, The HON Company is a leading designer and manufacturer of workplace furniture for the government, public sector, and non-profits. HON has a wide breadth of education and workplace furniture including seating, lounge, storage, classroom solutions, workstations, tables, desking and casegoods since 1982. The 70-year success of HON has grown the company to become a leader in the office furniture industry. Adhering to ethical and legal business practices, HON operates in a way that sustains the well-being of society, the environment, and the economy in which we live and work.

Through internally managed logistics capabilities and a nationwide network of authorized dealers, including numerous minority and women business enterprises (M/WBE), small and/or disadvantaged business enterprises, disabled veteran's business enterprises, historically utilized business (HUB) and other diversity recognized businesses, HON can reach any Equalis member in any area.
