

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

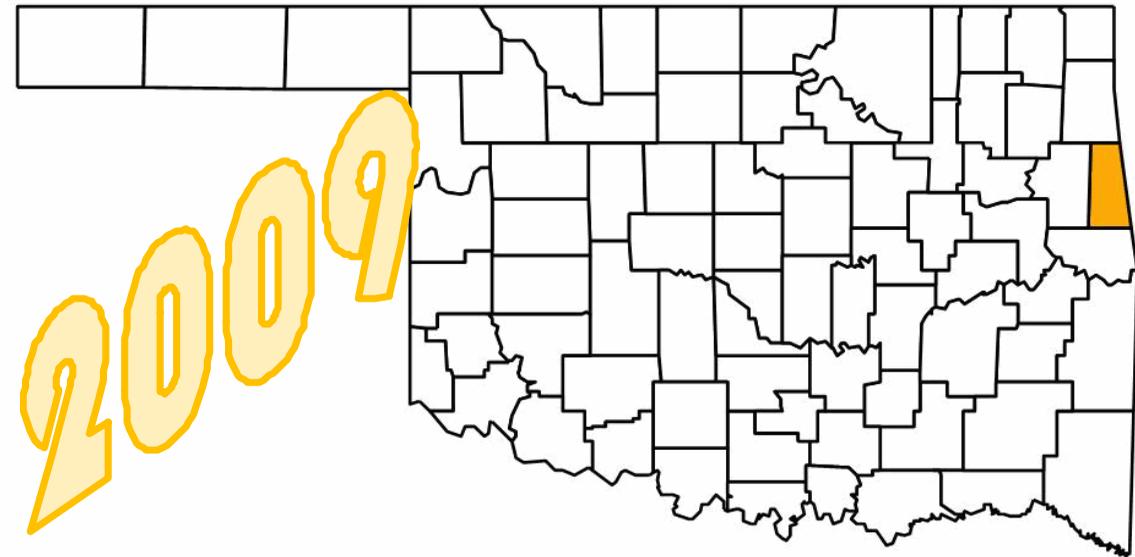

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Adair County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Adair County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

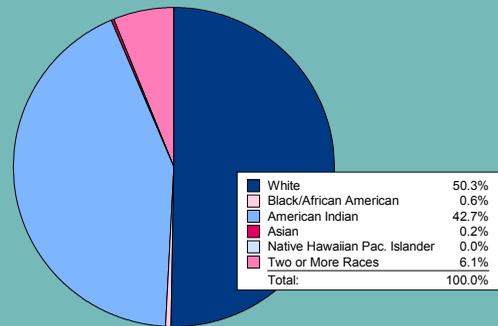

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

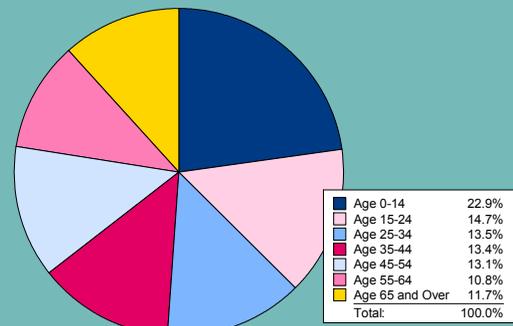

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 21,902 individuals lived in Adair County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Adair County had an estimated population density of 36.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Adair County, 49.5% of all residents were male and 50.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Adair

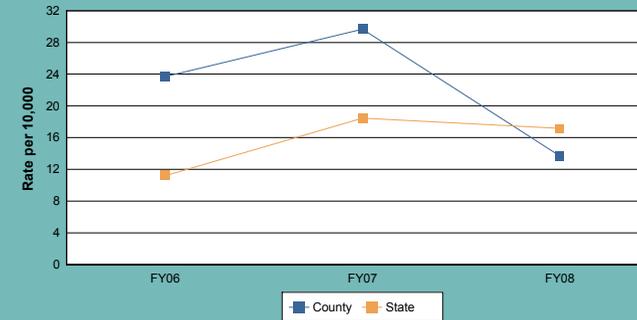

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Adair

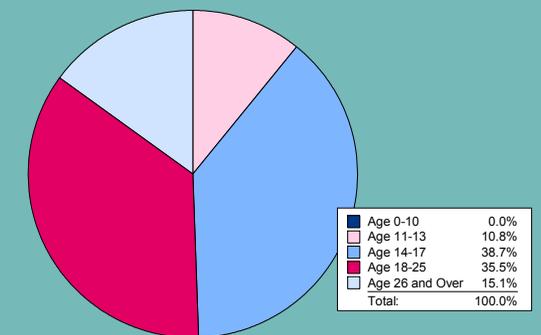

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Adair County ranked #14 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Adair County rate was 4.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Adair County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Adair County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.7 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.5% (2.4%) of the Adair County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 12.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Adair

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Adair

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

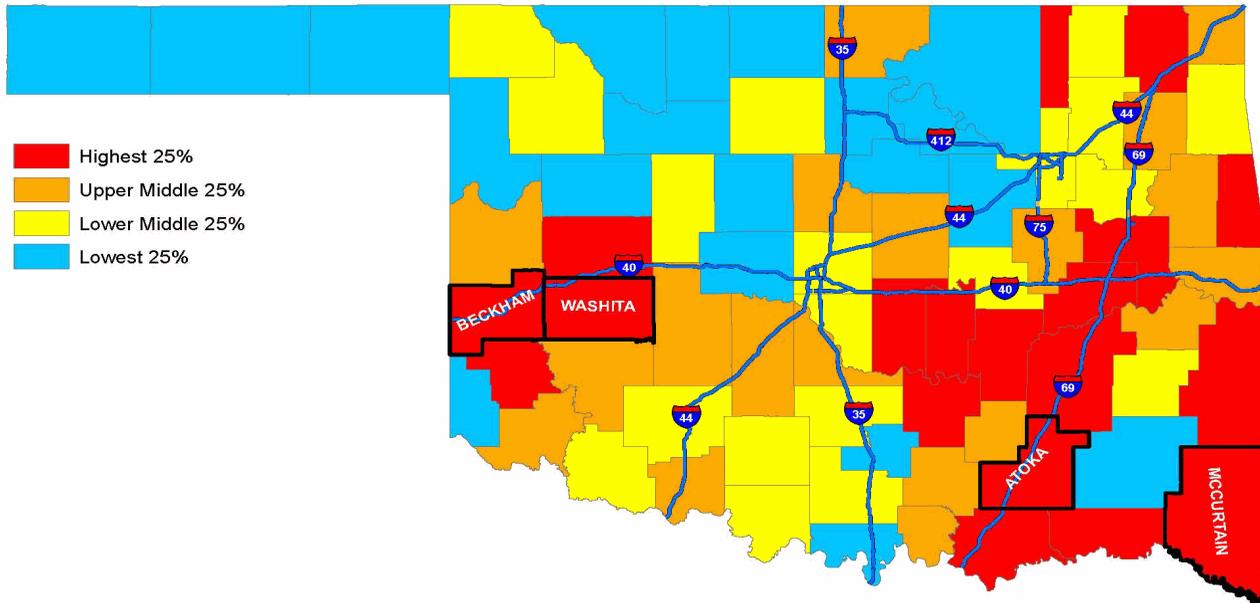

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Adair County residents over age 25, 66.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 9.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Adair County was $30,668 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Adair County living in poverty was 25.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Adair County was 55.5 (46.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Adair County was 9.1% (5.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Adair County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 7.3 (12.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Adair County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 40.2 (238.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Adair County was 6.5 (56.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Adair County during 2007 was 240.2 (127.4), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Adair County during 2007 was 21.9 (11.9), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Adair County during 2007 was 46.1 (21.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Adair County during 2007 was 1.8 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

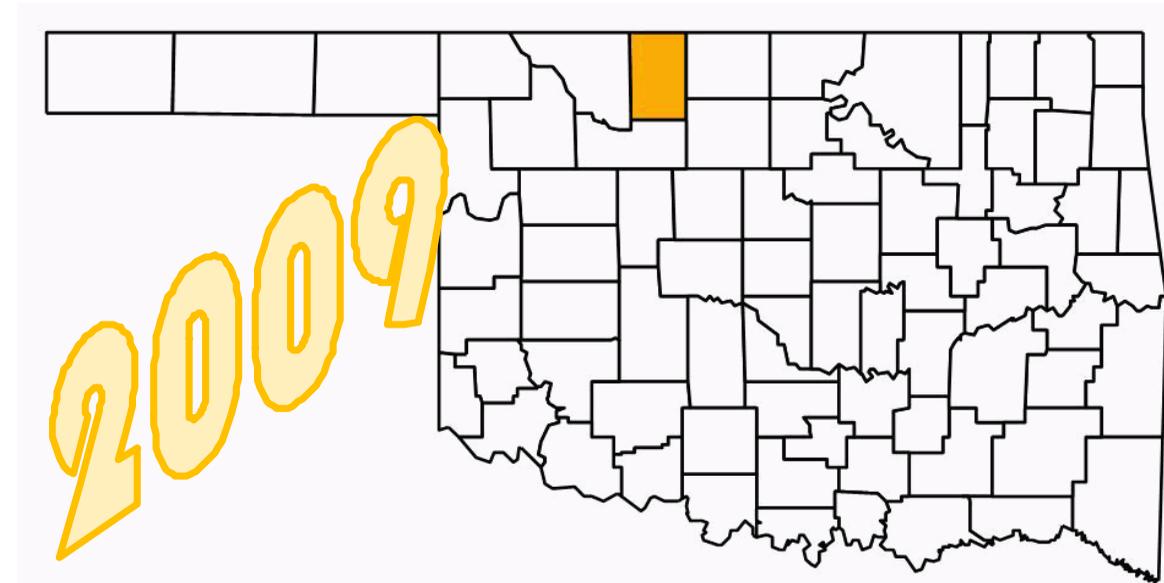

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Alfalfa County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Alfalfa County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

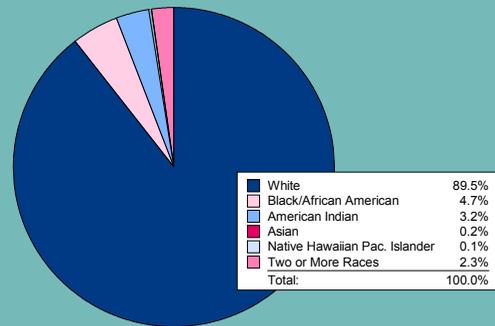

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

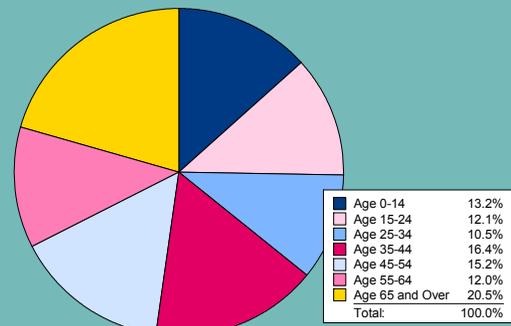

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 5,593 individuals lived in Alfalfa County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Alfalfa County had an estimated population density of 7.0 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Alfalfa County, 58.3% of all residents were male and 41.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Alfalfa

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Alfalfa

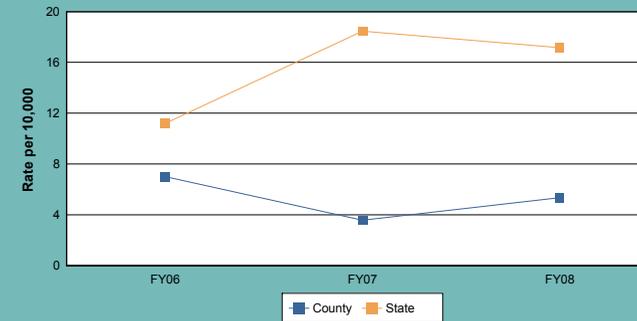

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Alfalfa County ranked #68 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Alfalfa County rate was 3.6 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Alfalfa County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Alfalfa County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.1% (0.0%) of the Alfalfa County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 8.7% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

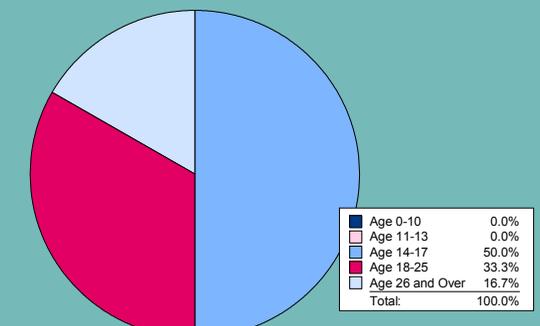

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Alfalfa County residents over age 25, 81.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Alfalfa County was $38,470 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Alfalfa County living in poverty was 15.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Alfalfa County was 7.1 (3.6) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Alfalfa County was 4.3% (4.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Alfalfa

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Alfalfa

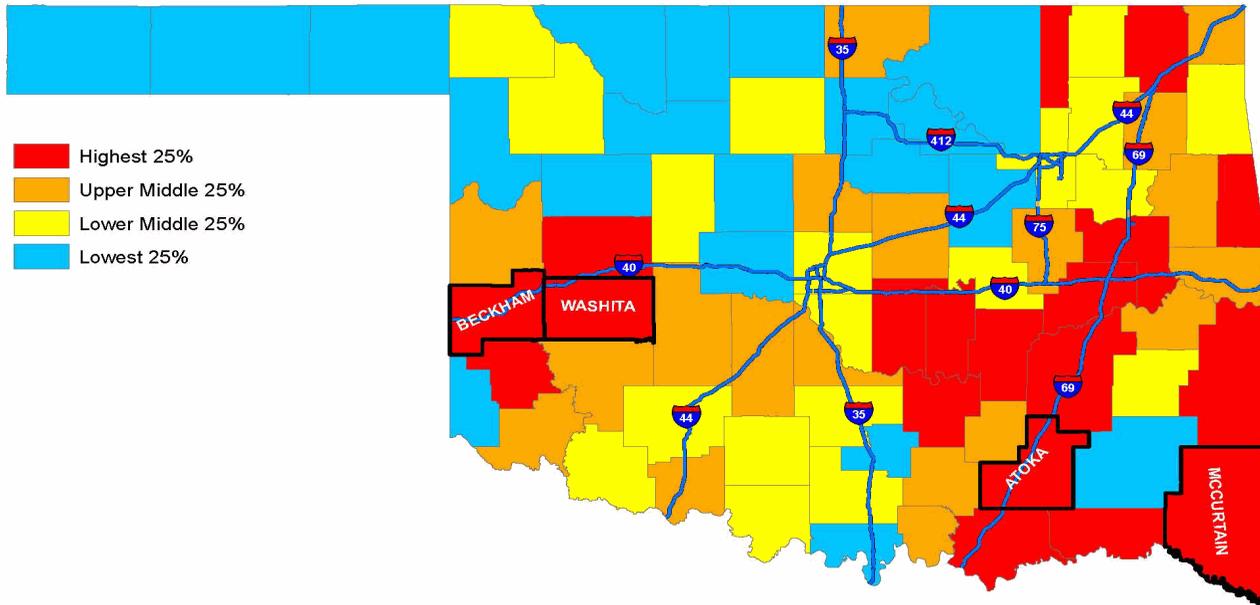

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Alfalfa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.8 (20.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Alfalfa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 16.1 (186.3), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Alfalfa County was 3.8 (33.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Alfalfa County during 2007 was 41.1 (62.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Alfalfa County during 2007 was 28.6 (21.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Alfalfa County during 2007 was 14.3 (17.9) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Alfalfa County during 2007 was 0.0 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

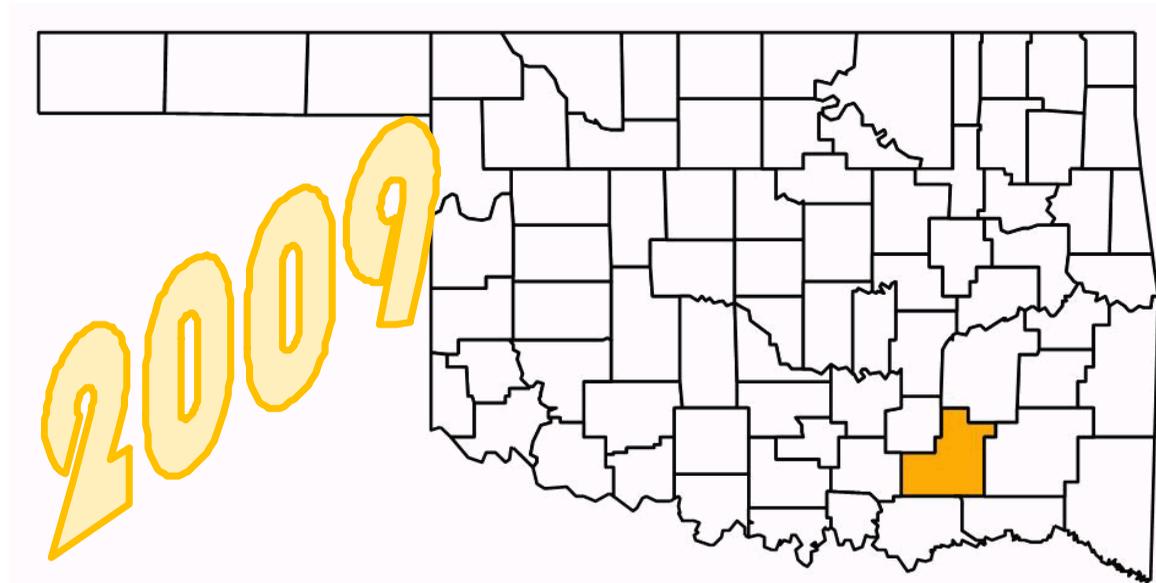

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Atoka County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Atoka County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

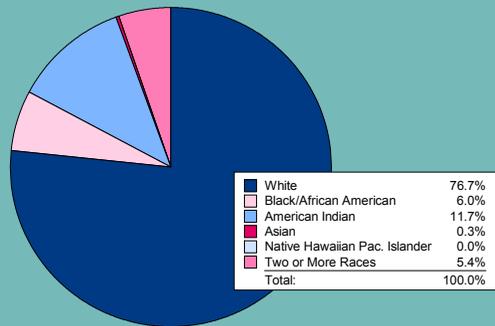

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

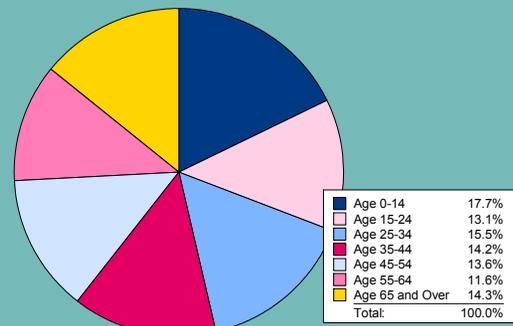

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 14,512 individuals lived in Atoka County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Atoka County had an estimated population density of 14.2 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Atoka County, 54.3% of all residents were male and 45.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Atoka

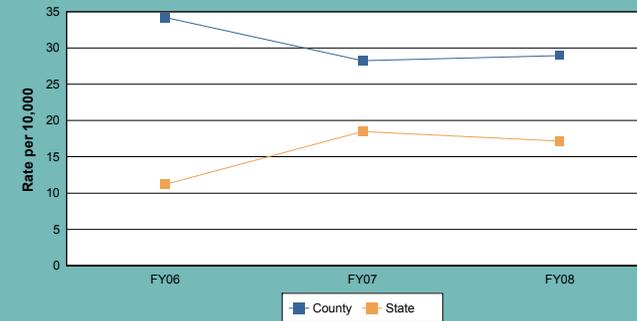

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Atoka

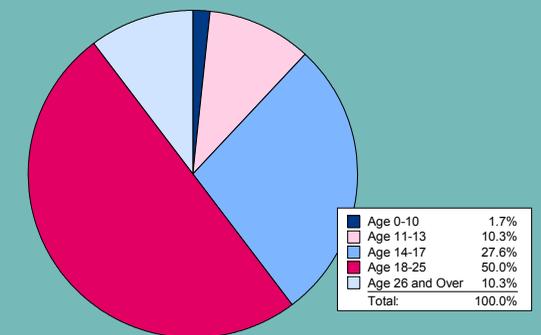

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Atoka County ranked #9 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Atoka County rate was 10.3 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Atoka County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Atoka County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.3% (0.0%) of the Atoka County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Atoka

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Atoka

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

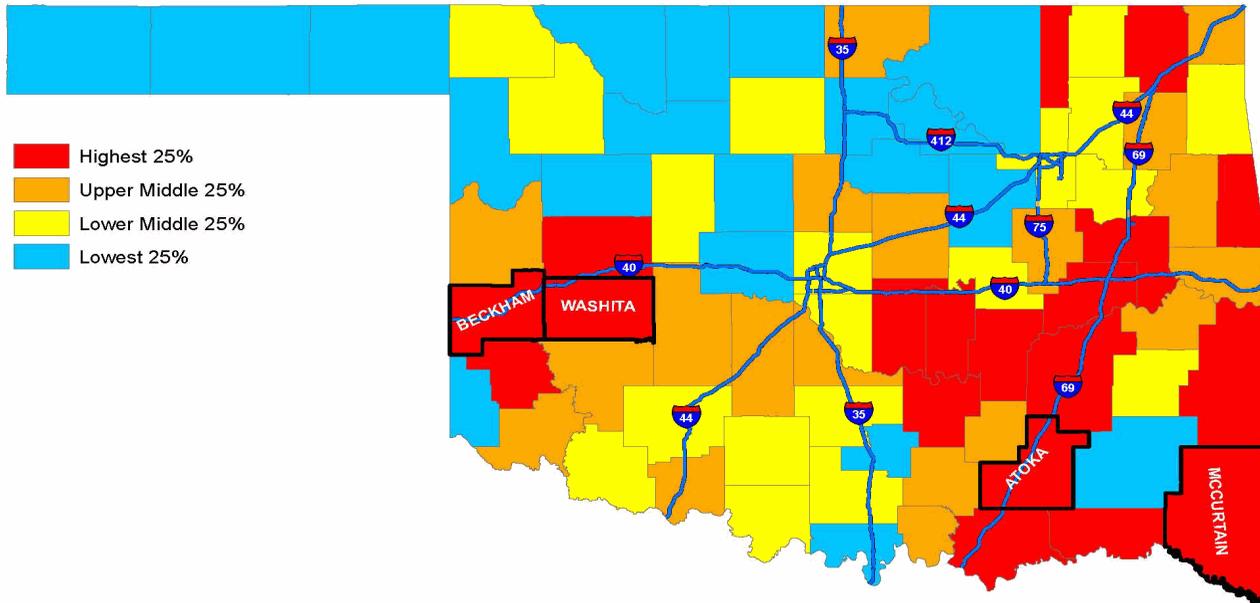

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Atoka County residents over age 25, 69.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Atoka County was $29,810 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Atoka County living in poverty was 23.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Atoka County was 33.4 (41.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Atoka County was 7.7% (4.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Atoka County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 6.9 (31.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Atoka County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 33.8 (188.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Atoka County was 4.3 (41.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Atoka County during 2007 was 66.2 (62.7), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Atoka County during 2007 was 50.3 (51.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Atoka County during 2007 was 24.1 (28.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Atoka County during 2007 was 0.7 (3.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

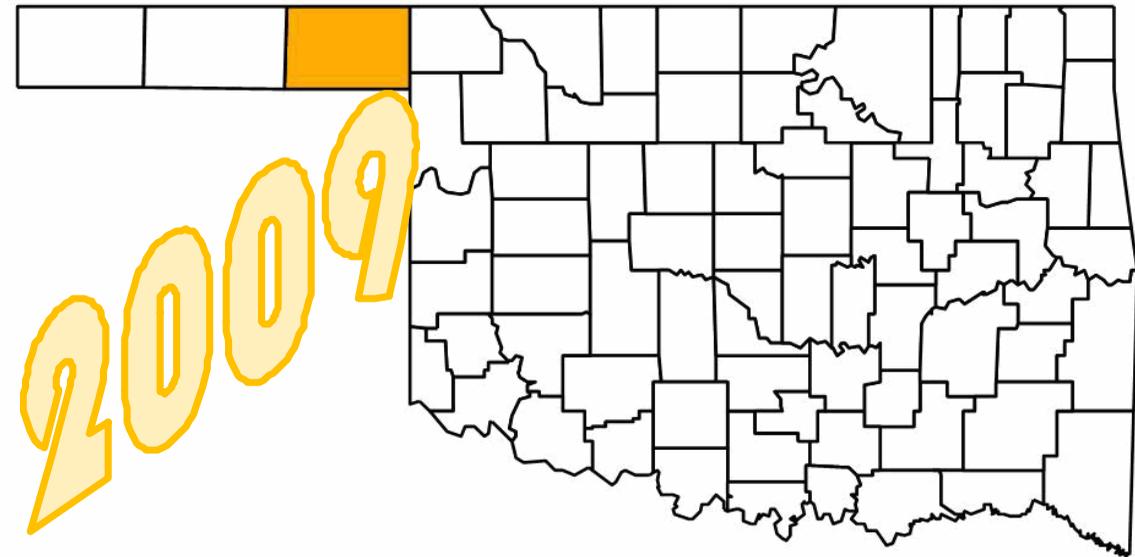

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Beaver County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Beaver County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

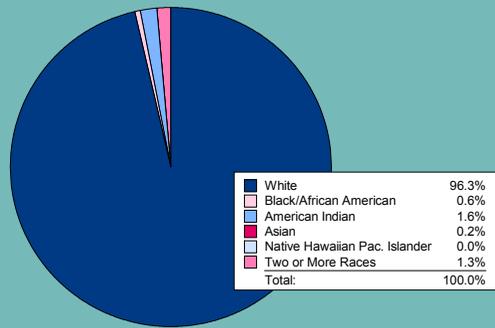

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

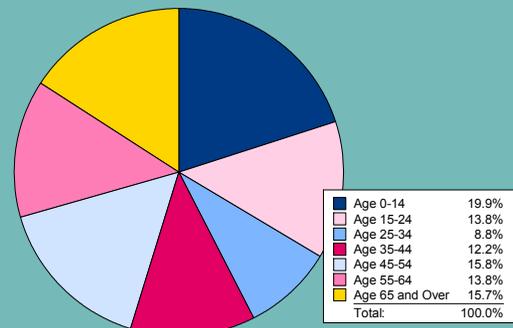

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 5,380 individuals lived in Beaver County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Beaver County had an estimated population density of 3.2 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Beaver County, 50.9% of all residents were male and 49.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Beaver

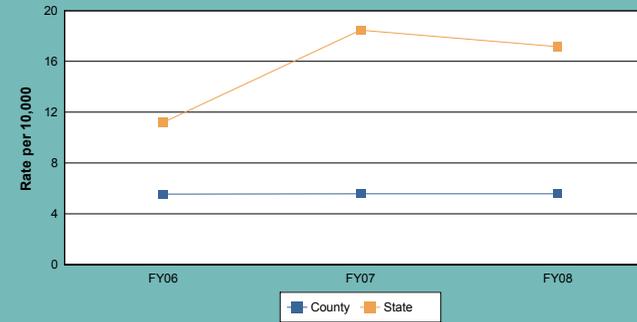

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Beaver

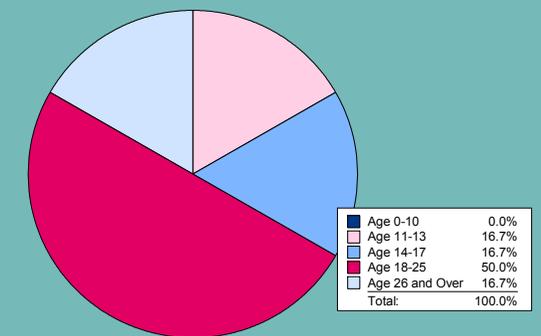

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Beaver County ranked #67 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Beaver County rate was 1.9 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Beaver County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Beaver County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 9.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.9% (0.7%) of the Beaver County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 13.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Beaver

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Beaver

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

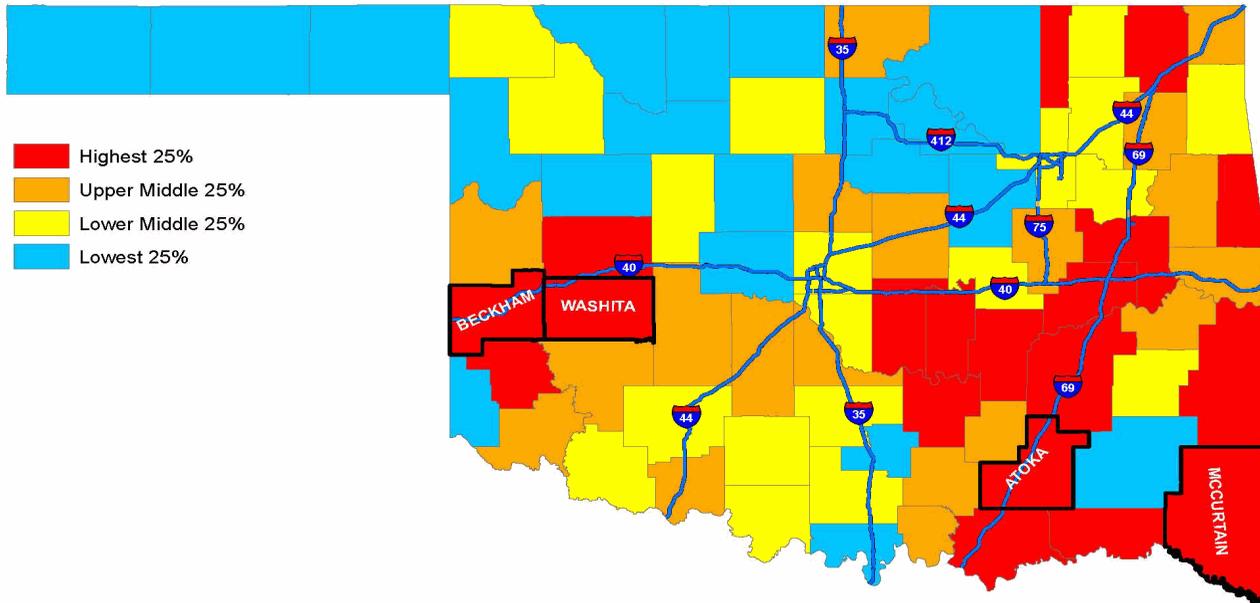

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Beaver County residents over age 25, 81.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 17.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Beaver County was $44,529 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Beaver County living in poverty was 12.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Beaver County was 21.0 (14.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Beaver County was 3.3% (2.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Beaver County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.0 (7.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Beaver County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 18.6 (86.6), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Beaver County was 3.5 (33.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Beaver County during 2007 was 48.3 (120.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Beaver County during 2007 was 26.0 (29.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Beaver County during 2007 was 46.5 (35.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Beaver County during 2007 was 7.4 (11.2), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

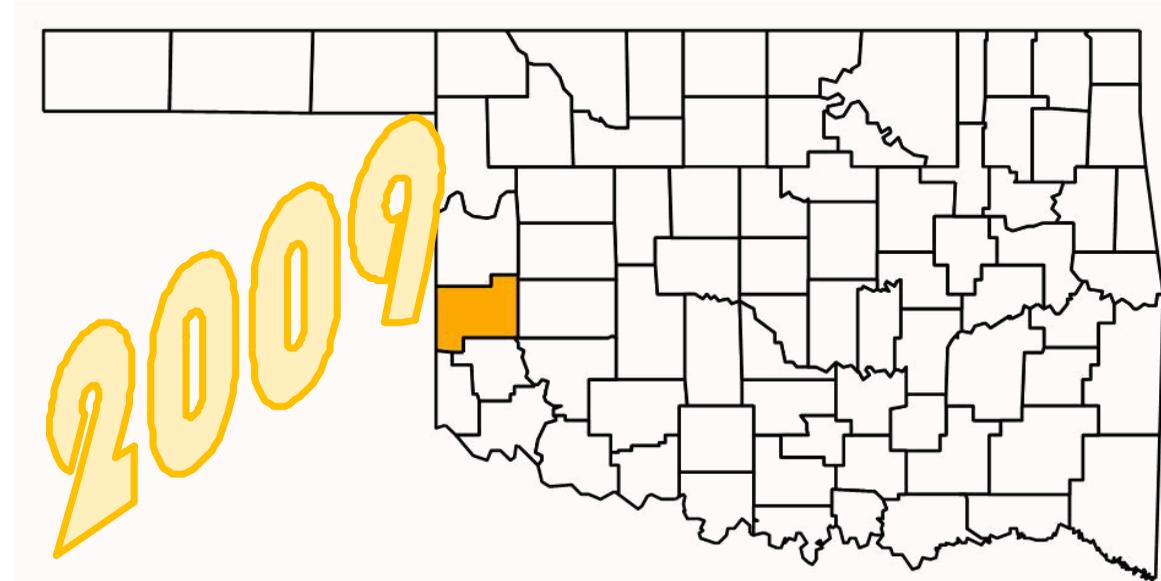

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Beckham County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Beckham County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

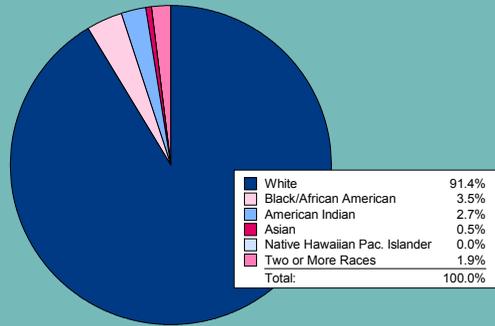

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

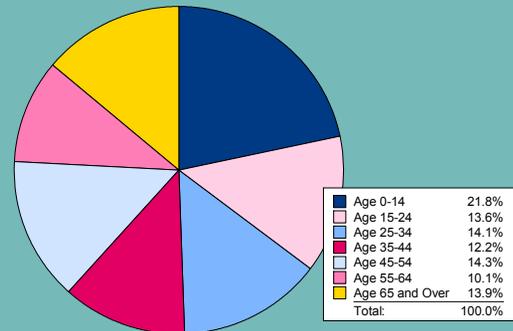

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 19,700 individuals lived in Beckham County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Beckham County had an estimated population density of 22.0 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Beckham County, 49.8% of all residents were male and 50.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Beckham

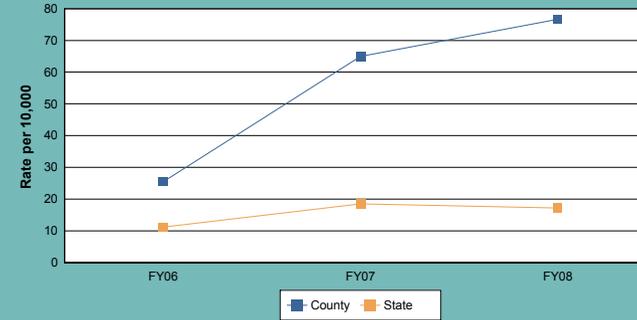

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Beckham

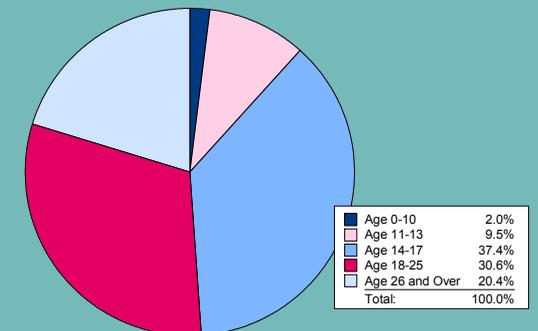

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Beckham County ranked #2 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Beckham County rate was 34.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Methamphetamine was the number one drug of choice among Beckham County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Alcohol was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Beckham County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 7.8 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.6% (2.2%) of the Beckham County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 19.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Beckham

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Beckham

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

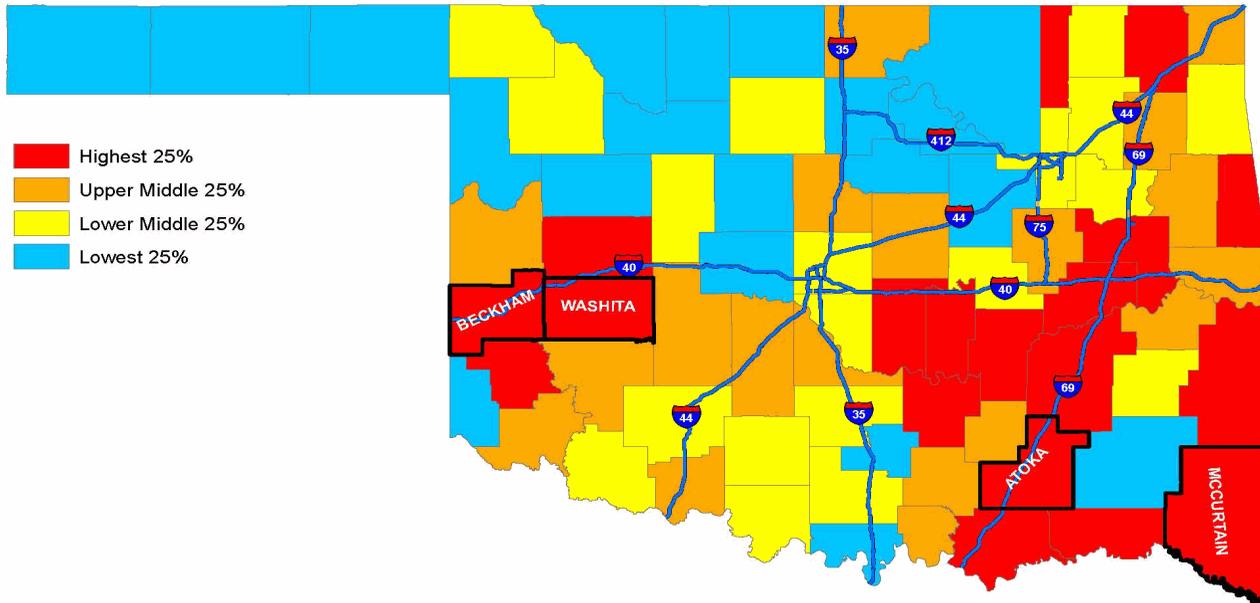

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Beckham County residents over age 25, 75.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.5% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Beckham County was $40,947 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Beckham County living in poverty was 15.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Beckham County was 71.0 (67.5) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Beckham County was 3.7% (2.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Beckham County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.6 (12.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Beckham County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 35.0 (265.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Beckham County was 7.7 (60.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Beckham County during 2007 was 256.9 (256.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Beckham County during 2007 was 85.3 (78.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Beckham County during 2007 was 52.3 (41.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Beckham County during 2007 was 30.5 (35.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

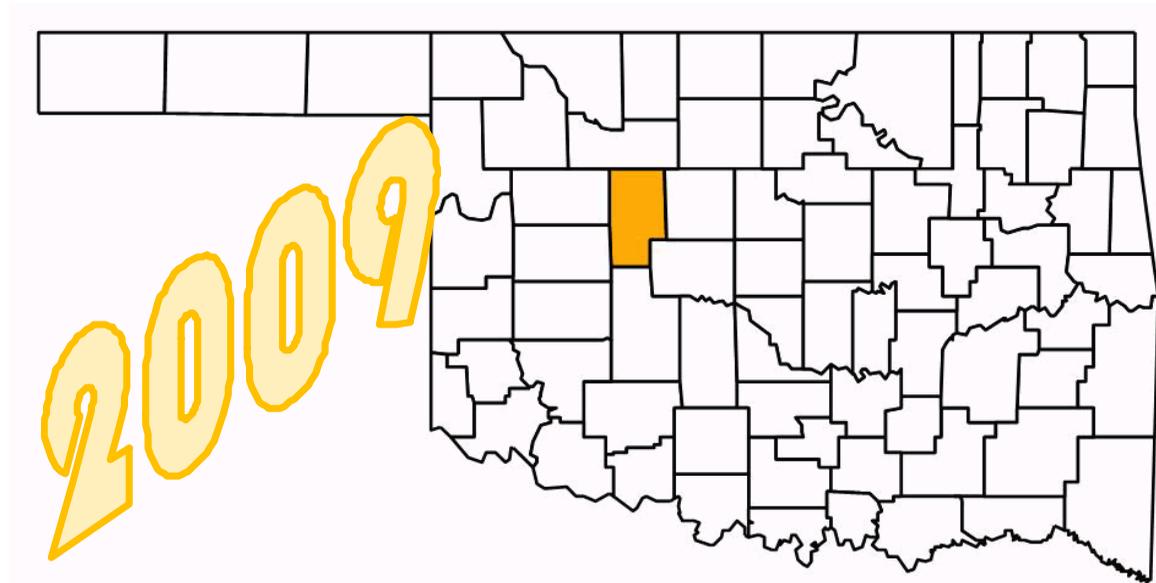

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Blaine County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Blaine County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

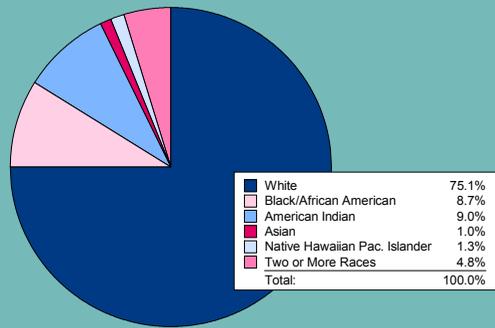

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

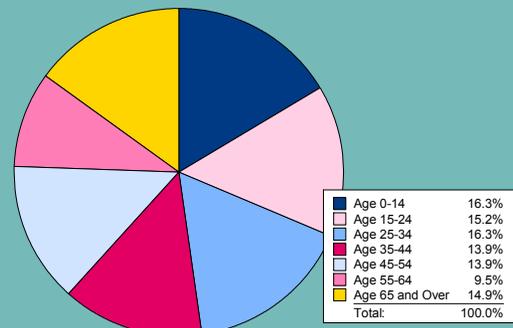

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 12,475 individuals lived in Blaine County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Blaine County had an estimated population density of 12.9 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Blaine County, 58.4% of all residents were male and 41.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Blaine

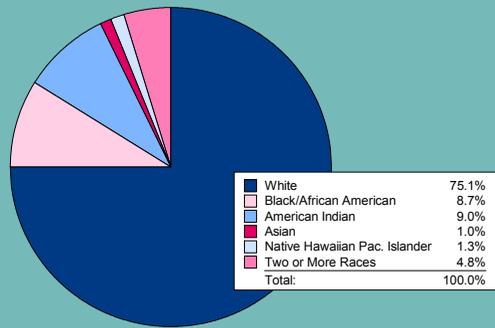

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Blaine

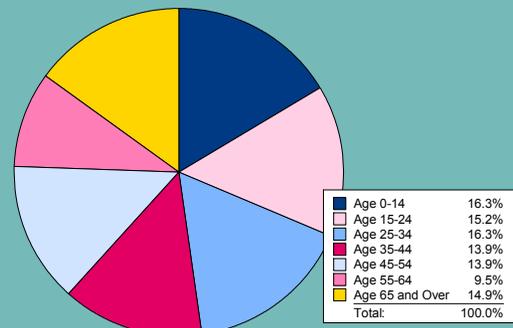

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Blaine County ranked #45 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Blaine County rate was 12.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Blaine County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Cocaine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Blaine County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 4.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.0% (2.3%) of the Blaine County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 17.6% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

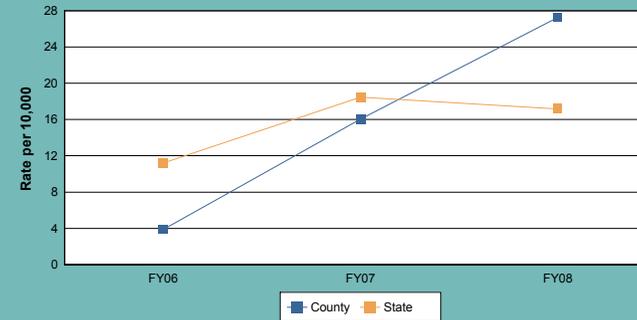

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Blaine

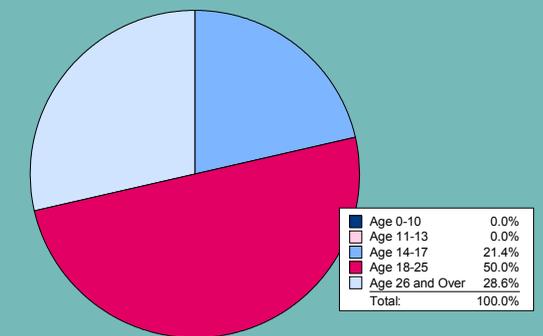

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Blaine

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Blaine

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Blaine

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

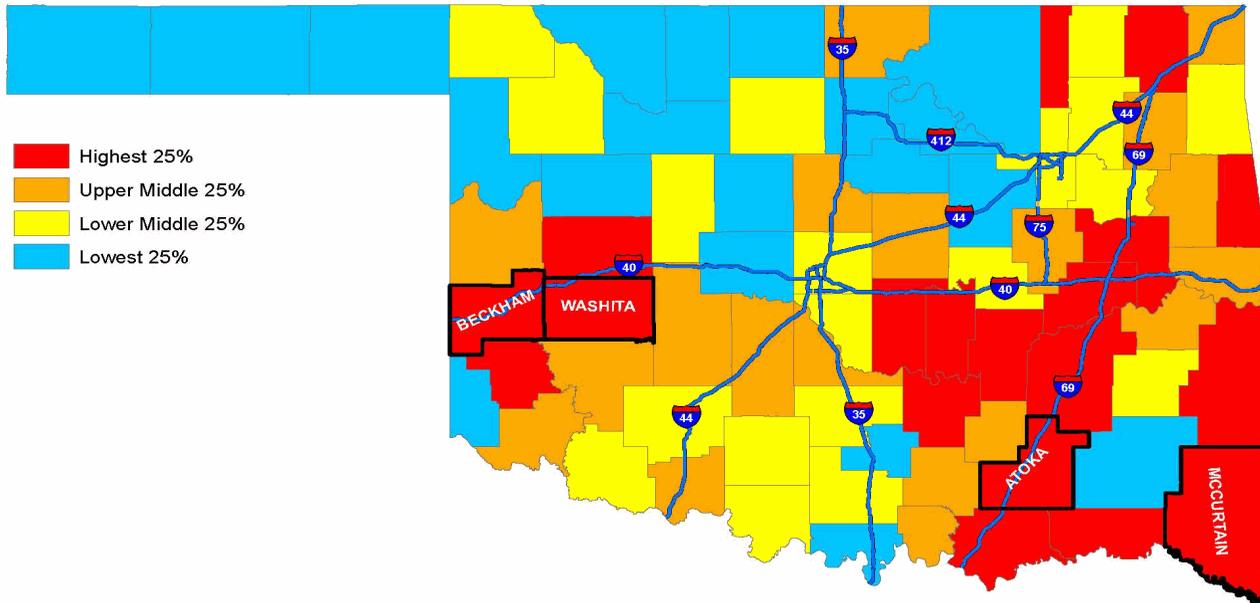

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Blaine County residents over age 25, 75.5% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.0% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Blaine County was $35,117 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Blaine County living in poverty was 19.0%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Blaine County was 52.1 (55.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Blaine County was 5.0% (4.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Blaine County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 5.6 (15.3), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Blaine County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 39.3 (225.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Blaine County was 2.6 (23.6) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Blaine County during 2007 was 146.7 (180.4), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Blaine County during 2007 was 24.0 (38.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Blaine County during 2007 was 20.0 (14.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Blaine County during 2007 was 0.0 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

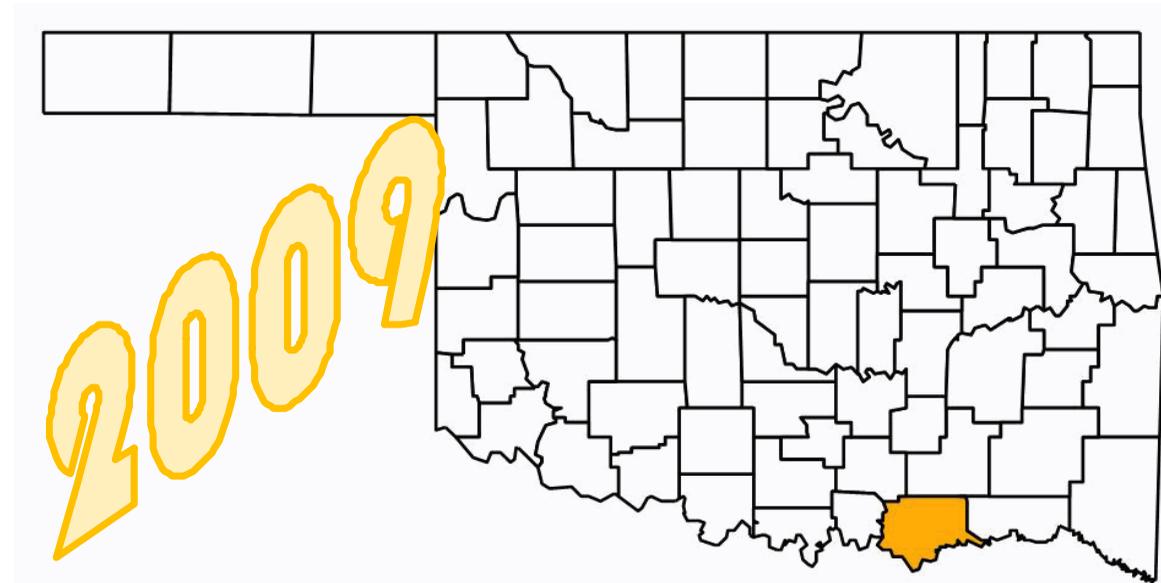

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Bryan County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Bryan County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

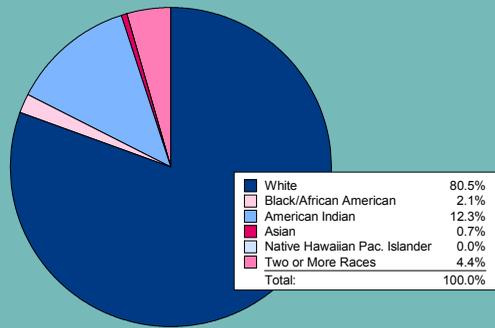

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

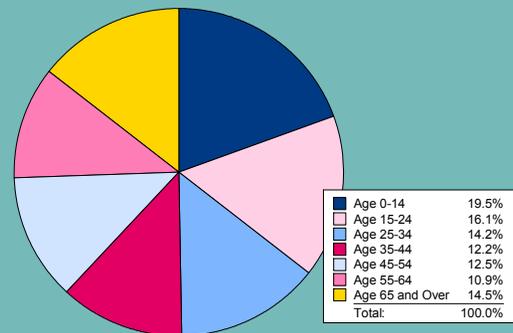

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 39,563 individuals lived in Bryan County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Bryan County had an estimated population density of 40.2 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Bryan County, 49.3% of all residents were male and 50.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Bryan

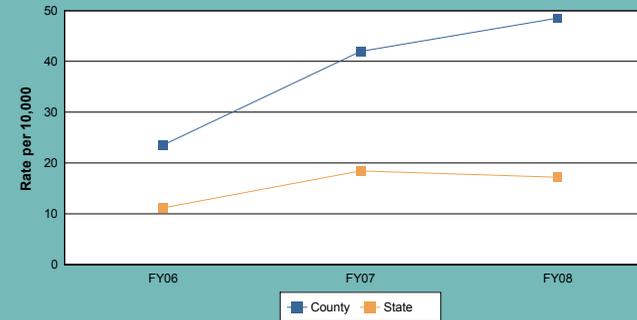

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Bryan

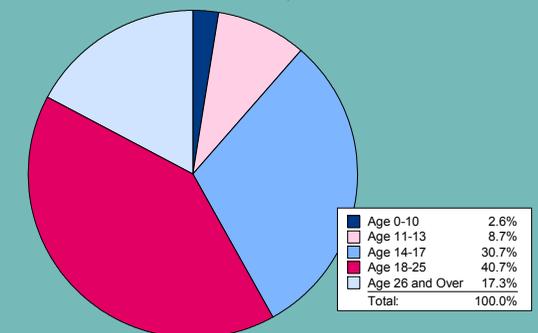

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Bryan County ranked #7 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Bryan County rate was 21.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Bryan County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Bryan County was 0.5 in 2008, compared to 7.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.7% (%) of the Bryan County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.6% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Bryan

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Bryan

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

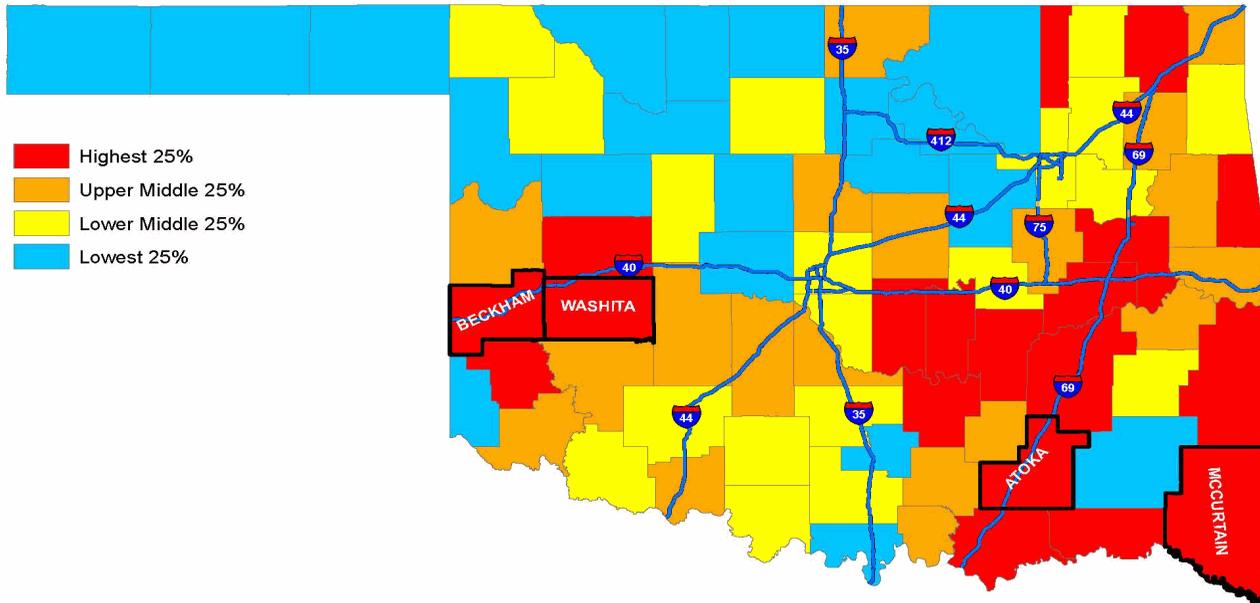

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Bryan County residents over age 25, 74.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 17.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Bryan County was $33,584 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Bryan County living in poverty was 21.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Bryan County was 32.4 (34.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Bryan County was 4.9% (3.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Bryan County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 6.8 (13.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Bryan County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 37.9 (282.7), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Bryan County was 5.6 (60.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Bryan County during 2007 was 232.3 (223.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Bryan County during 2007 was 71.3 (101.4), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Bryan County during 2007 was 53.6 (40.9) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Bryan County during 2007 was 17.7 (18.8), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

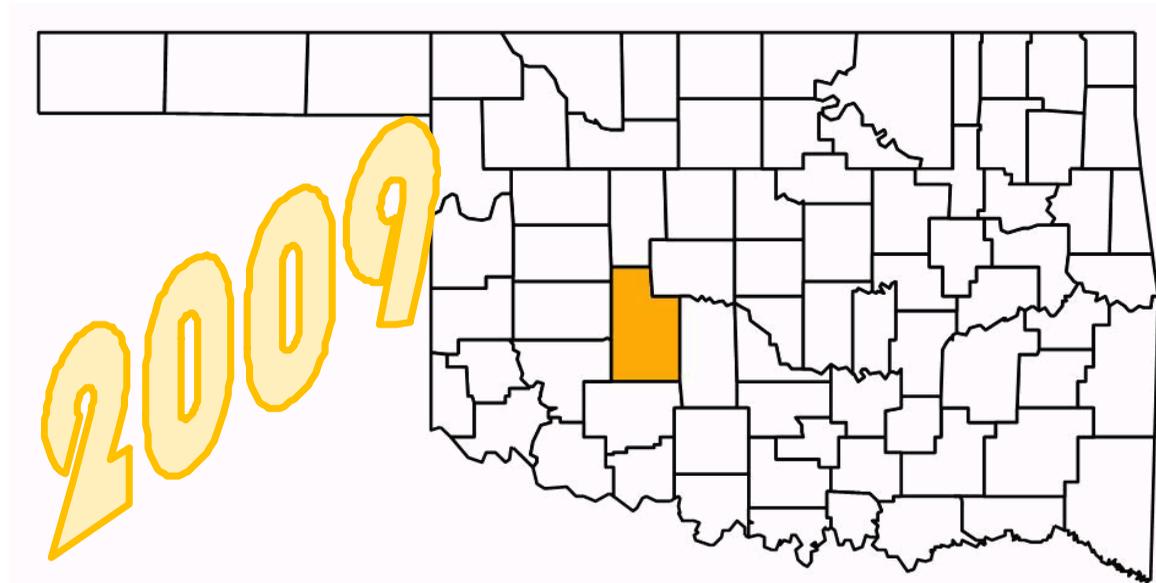

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Caddo County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Caddo County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

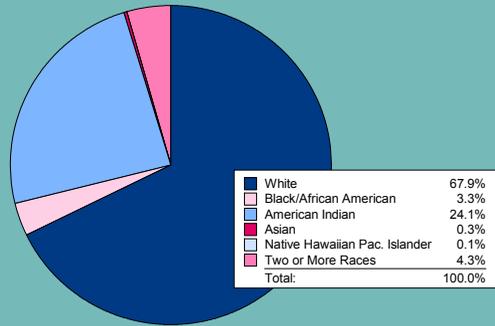

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

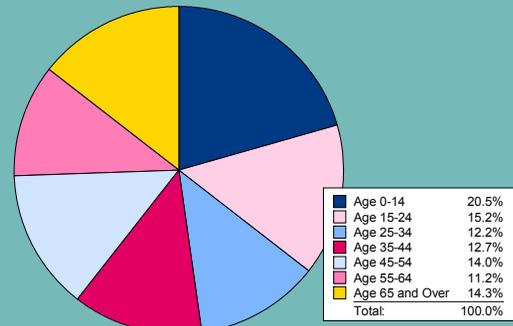

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 29,296 individuals lived in Caddo County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Caddo County had an estimated population density of 23.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Caddo County, 49.8% of all residents were male and 50.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Caddo

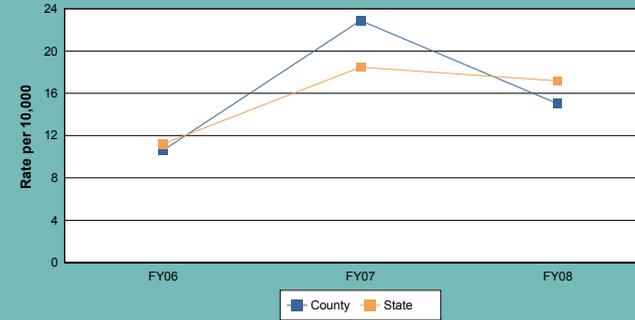

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Caddo

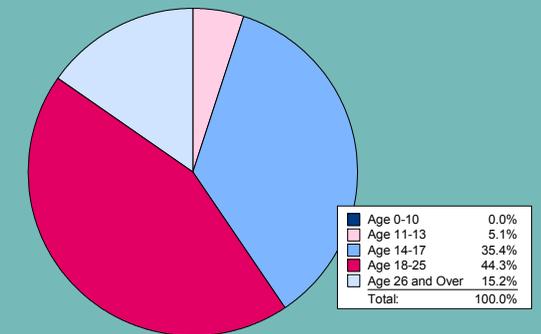

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Caddo County ranked #35 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Caddo County rate was 6.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Caddo County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Caddo County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 4.3% (4.0%) of the Caddo County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 22.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Caddo

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Caddo

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

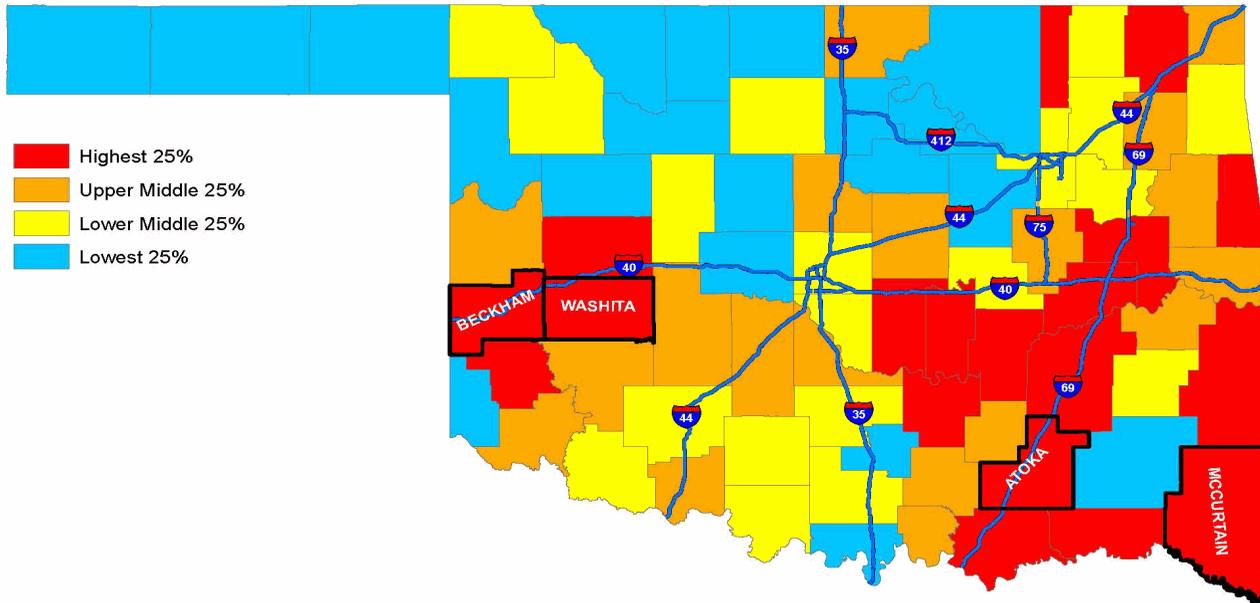

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Caddo County residents over age 25, 75.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Caddo County was $34,378 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Caddo County living in poverty was 19.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Caddo County was 73.7 (85.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Caddo County was 6.2% (4.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Caddo County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.4 (7.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Caddo County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 22.5 (89.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Caddo County was 3.4 (26.6) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Caddo County during 2007 was 270.7 (252.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Caddo County during 2007 was 59.4 (46.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Caddo County during 2007 was 55.3 (60.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Caddo County during 2007 was 15.4 (9.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

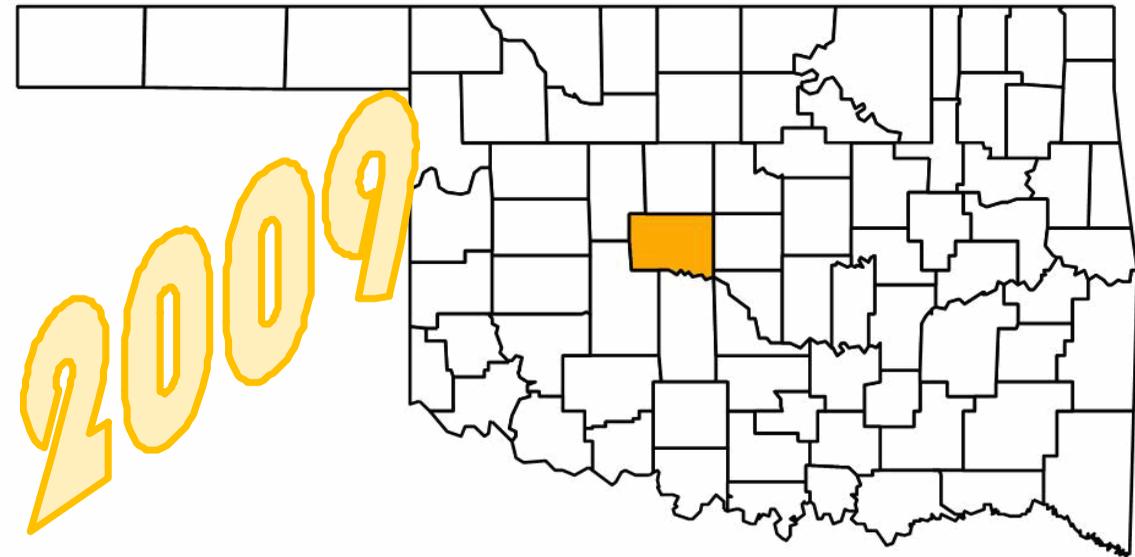

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Canadian County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Canadian County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

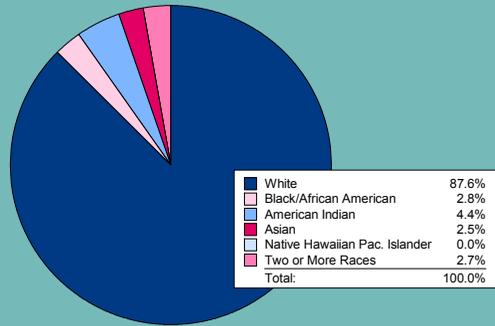

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

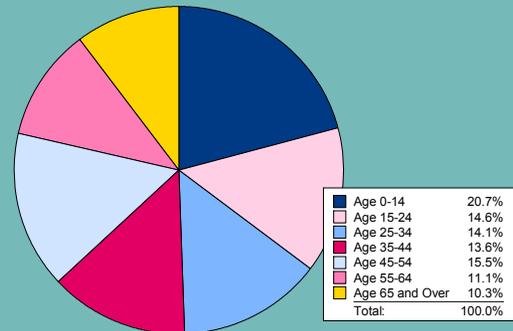

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 103,559 individuals lived in Canadian County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Canadian County had an estimated population density of 97.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Canadian County, 50.0% of all residents were male and 50.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Canadian

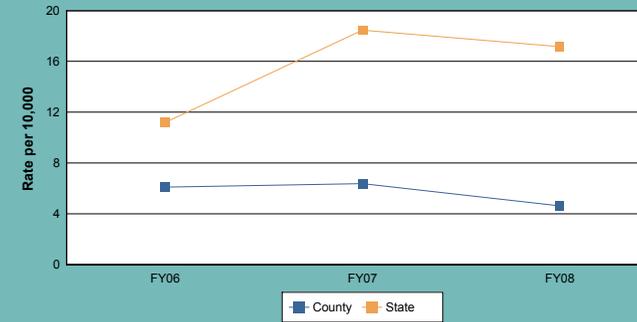

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Canadian

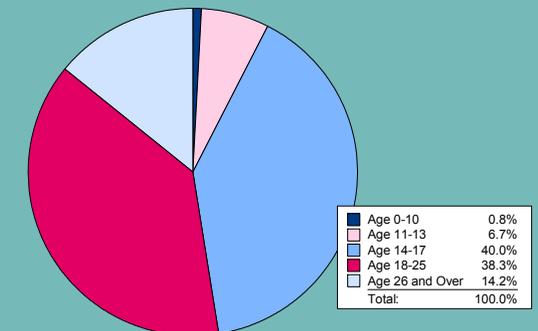

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Canadian County ranked #66 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Canadian County rate was 1.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Canadian County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Amphetamines/Other Stimulants (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Canadian County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 4.2 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.8% (2.4%) of the Canadian County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Canadian

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Canadian

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

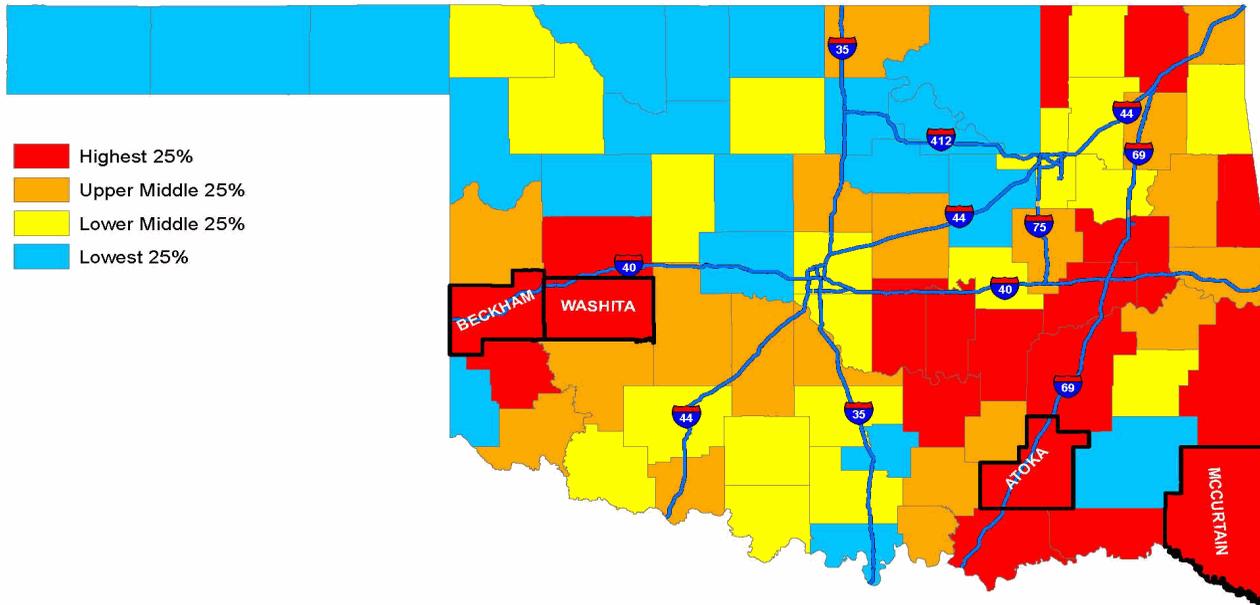

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Canadian County residents over age 25, 87.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 20.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Canadian County was $58,044 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Canadian County living in poverty was 8.0%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Canadian County was 34.8 (41.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Canadian County was 5.3% (3.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Canadian County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.0 (11.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Canadian County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 22.8 (125.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Canadian County was 5.6 (51.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Canadian County during 2007 was 66.8 (57.0), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Canadian County during 2007 was 33.9 (33.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Canadian County during 2007 was 23.7 (27.7) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Canadian County during 2007 was 7.5 (7.7), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

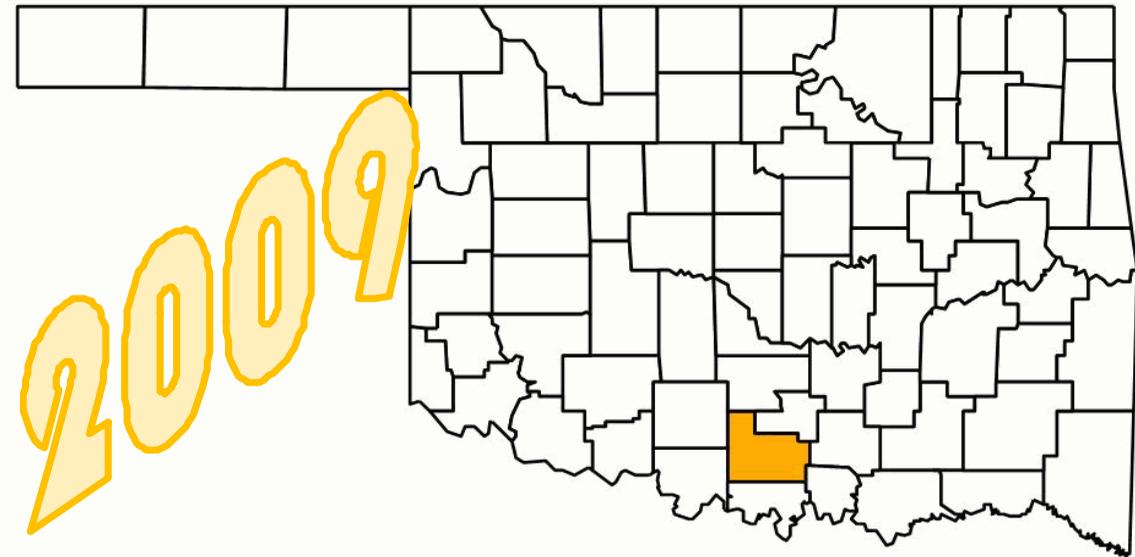

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Carter County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Carter County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

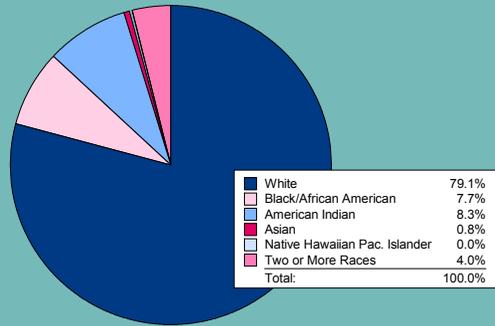

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

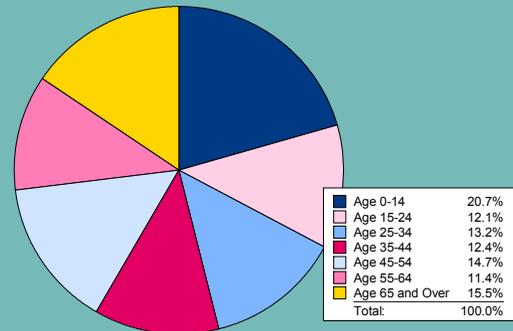

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 47,582 individuals lived in Carter County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Carter County had an estimated population density of 55.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Carter County, 48.4% of all residents were male and 51.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Carter

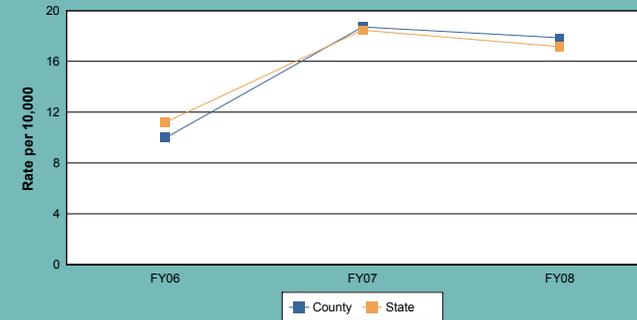

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Carter

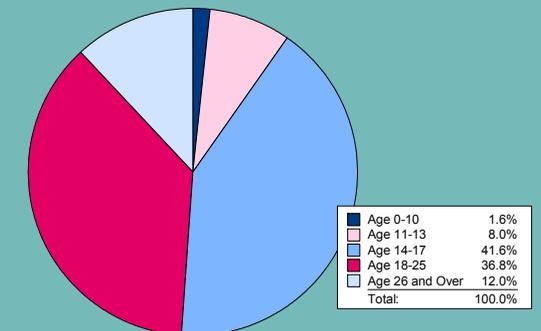

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Carter County ranked #37 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Carter County rate was 8.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Carter County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Cocaine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Carter County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.9% (1.8%) of the Carter County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 17.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Carter

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Carter

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

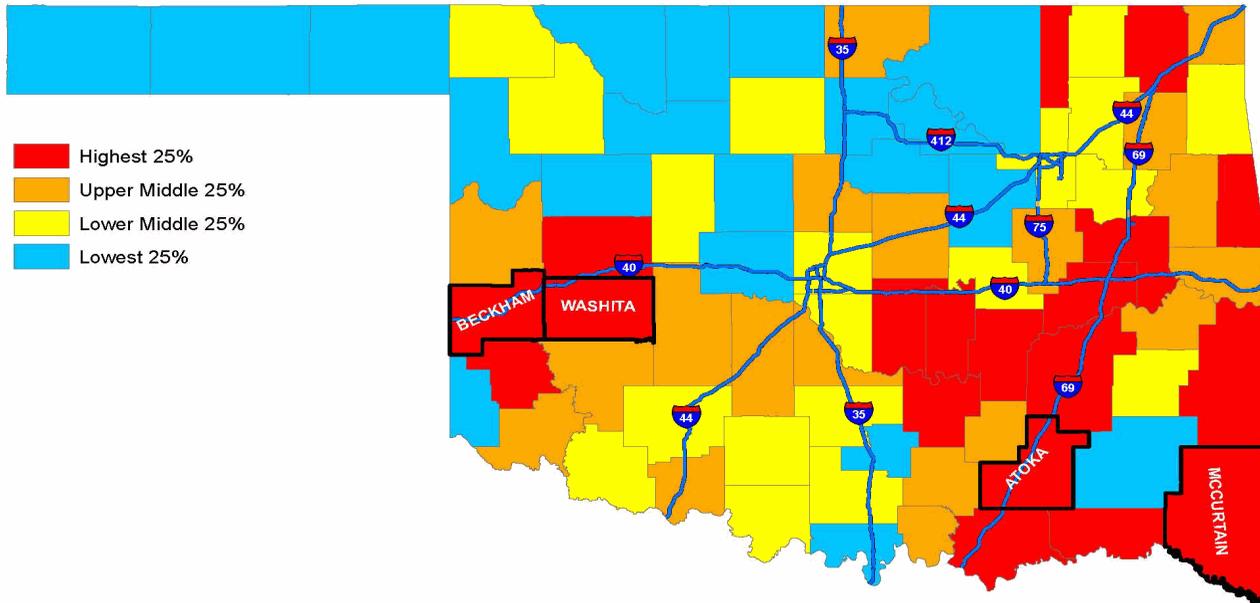

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Carter County residents over age 25, 77.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Carter County was $36,379 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Carter County living in poverty was 16.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Carter County was 45.2 (46.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Carter County was 6.0% (3.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Carter County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.0 (28.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Carter County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 36.4 (217.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Carter County was 4.4 (42.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Carter County during 2007 was 302.4 (254.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Carter County during 2007 was 84.3 (88.1), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Carter County during 2007 was 109.3 (108.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Carter County during 2007 was 5.7 (16.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

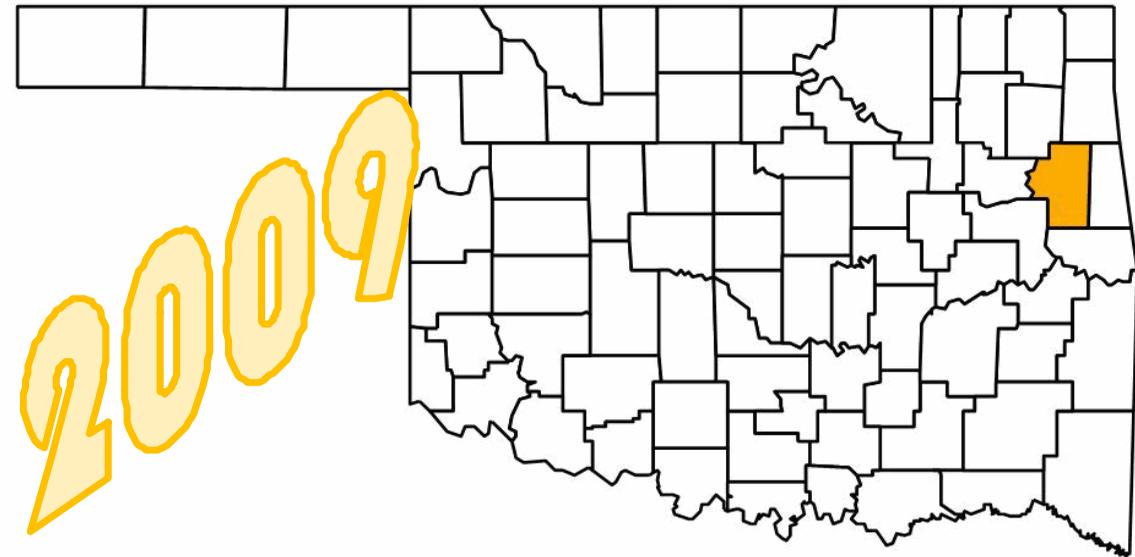

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Cherokee County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Cherokee County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

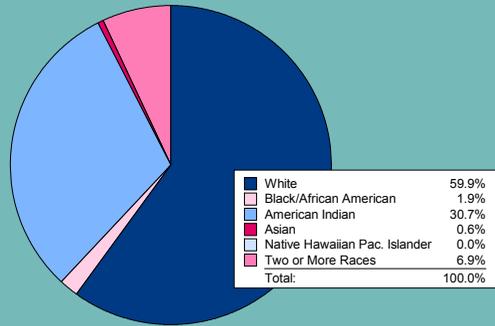

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

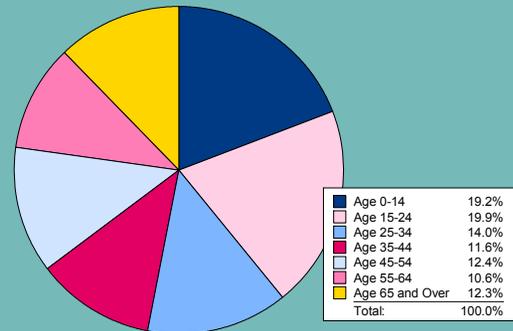

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 45,393 individuals lived in Cherokee County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Cherokee County had an estimated population density of 56.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Cherokee County, 49.3% of all residents were male and 50.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Cherokee

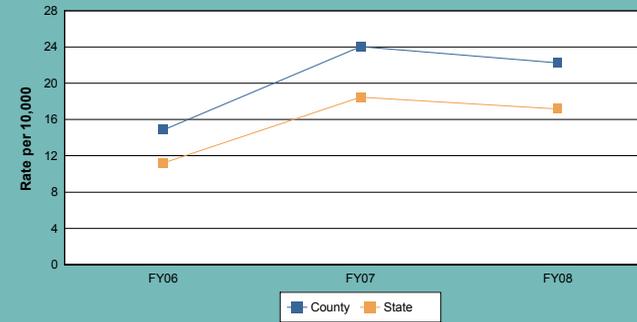

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Cherokee

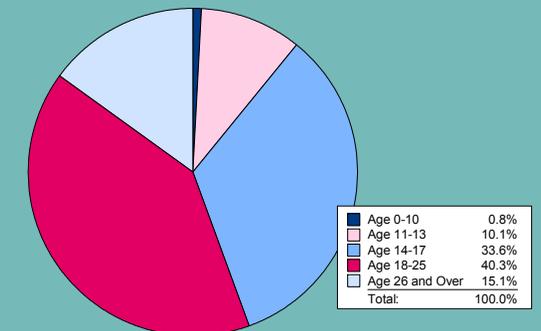

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Cherokee County ranked #36 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Cherokee County rate was 7.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Cherokee County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Cherokee County was 0.2 in 2008, compared to 5.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.5% (4.2%) of the Cherokee County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 13.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Cherokee

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Cherokee

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

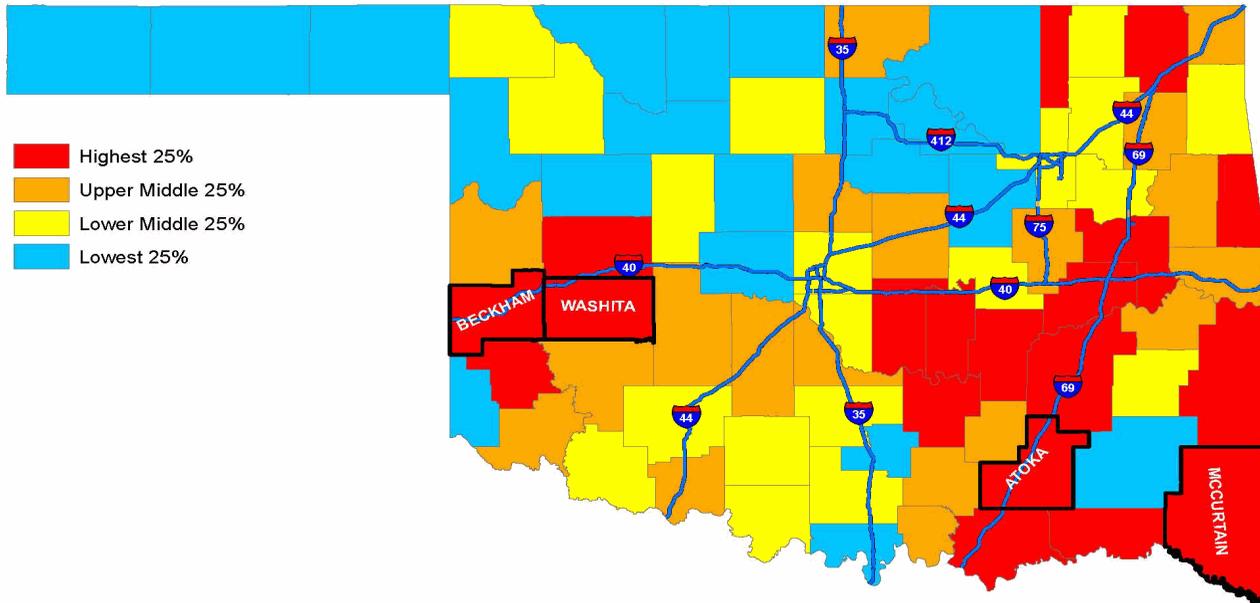

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Cherokee County residents over age 25, 76.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 22.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Cherokee County was $30,535 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Cherokee County living in poverty was 31.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Cherokee County was 38.7 (40.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Cherokee County was 5.9% (4.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Cherokee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.6 (11.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Cherokee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 19.4 (153.7), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Cherokee County was 3.5 (41.6) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Cherokee County during 2007 was 122.9 (123.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Cherokee County during 2007 was 45.6 (31.1), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Cherokee County during 2007 was 43.2 (30.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Cherokee County during 2007 was 0.7 (0.2), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

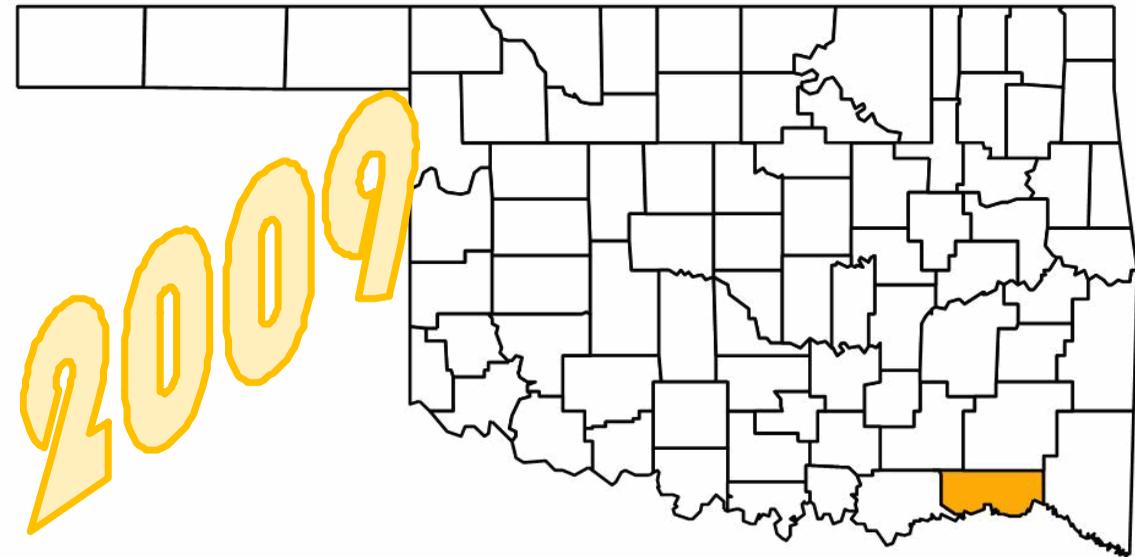

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Choctaw County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Choctaw County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

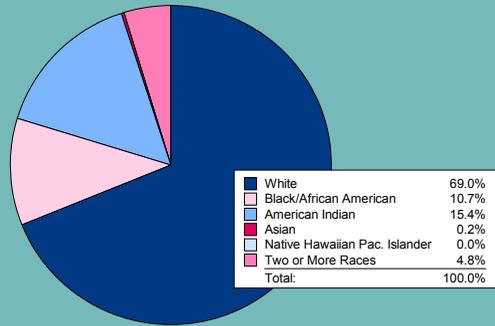

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

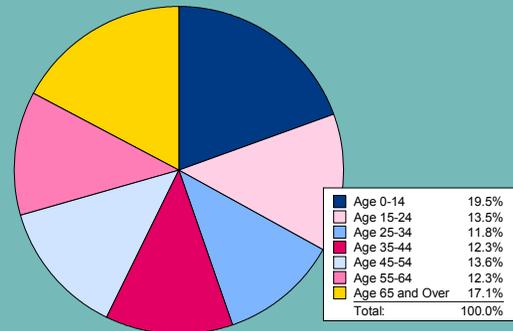

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 15,011 individuals lived in Choctaw County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Choctaw County had an estimated population density of 19.8 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Choctaw County, 47.5% of all residents were male and 52.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Choctaw

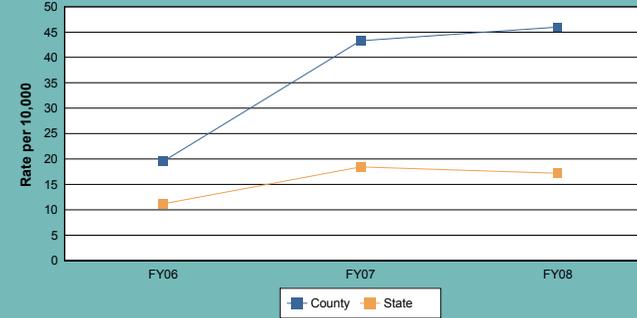

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Choctaw

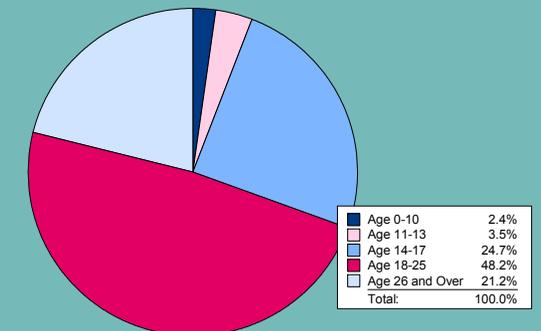

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Choctaw County ranked #8 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Choctaw County rate was 21.3 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Choctaw County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Choctaw County was 0.7 in 2008, compared to 2.6 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.4% (1.9%) of the Choctaw County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 24.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Choctaw

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Choctaw

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

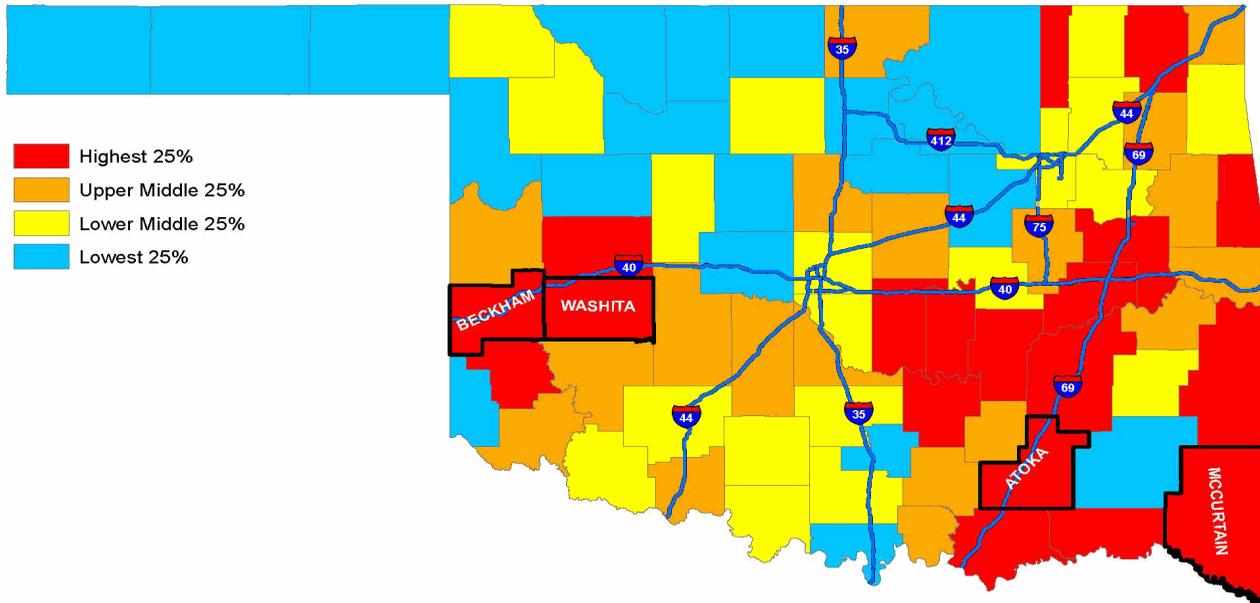

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Choctaw County residents over age 25, 69.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 9.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Choctaw County was $28,392 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Choctaw County living in poverty was 26.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Choctaw County was 96.0 (90.6) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Choctaw County was 7.0% (5.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Choctaw County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.3 (15.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Choctaw County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 40.0 (128.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Choctaw County was 5.9 (51.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Choctaw County during 2007 was 123.2 (70.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Choctaw County during 2007 was 40.0 (56.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Choctaw County during 2007 was 29.3 (44.6) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Choctaw County during 2007 was 20.7 (33.9), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

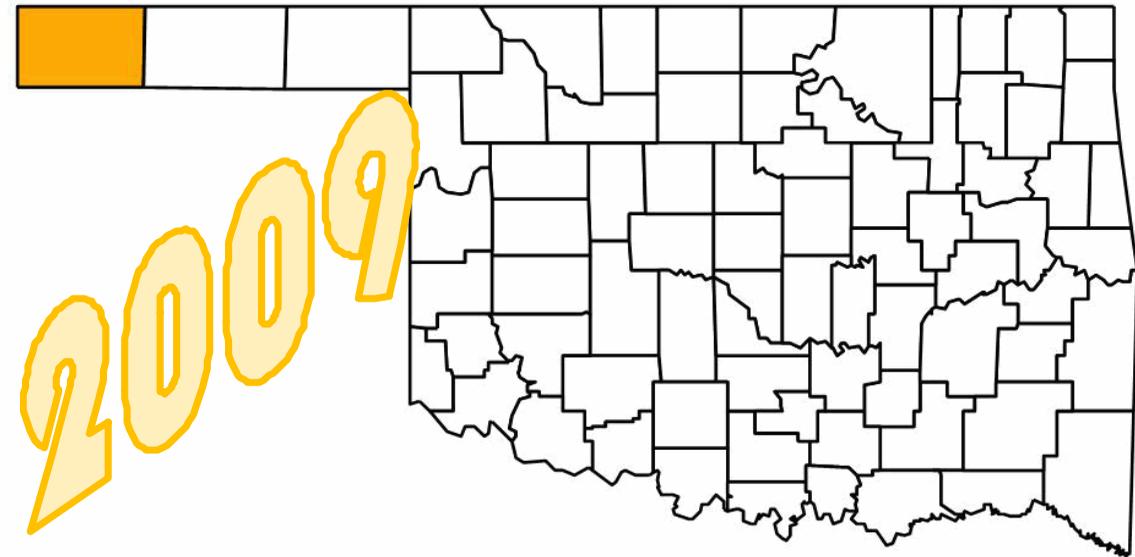

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Cimarron County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Cimarron County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

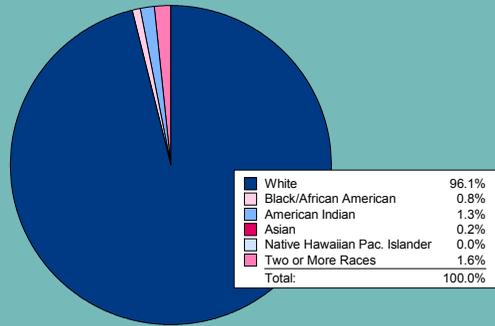

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

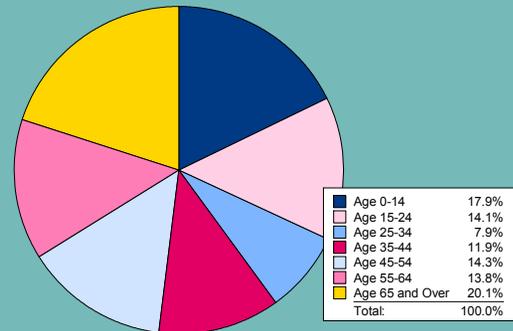

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 2,664 individuals lived in Cimarron County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Cimarron County had an estimated population density of 1.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Cimarron County, 49.9% of all residents were male and 50.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Cimarron

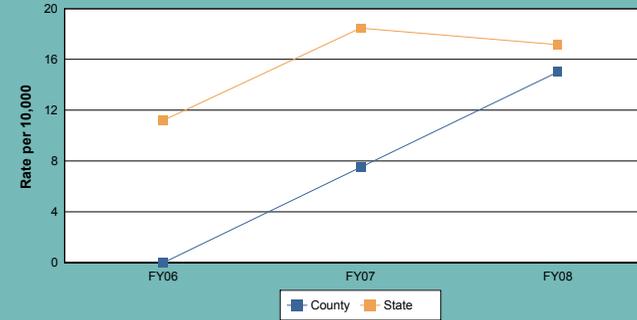

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Cimarron

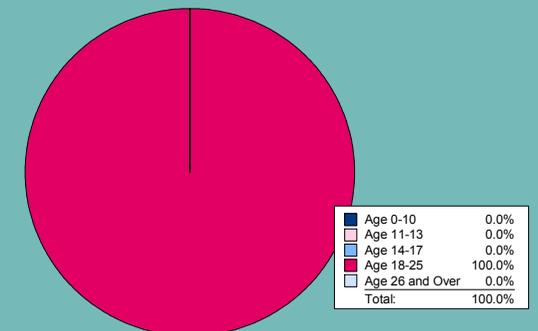

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Cimarron County ranked #74 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Cimarron County rate was 3.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Cimarron County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while N/A was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Cimarron County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.3% (4.2%) of the Cimarron County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 11.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Cimarron

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Cimarron

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

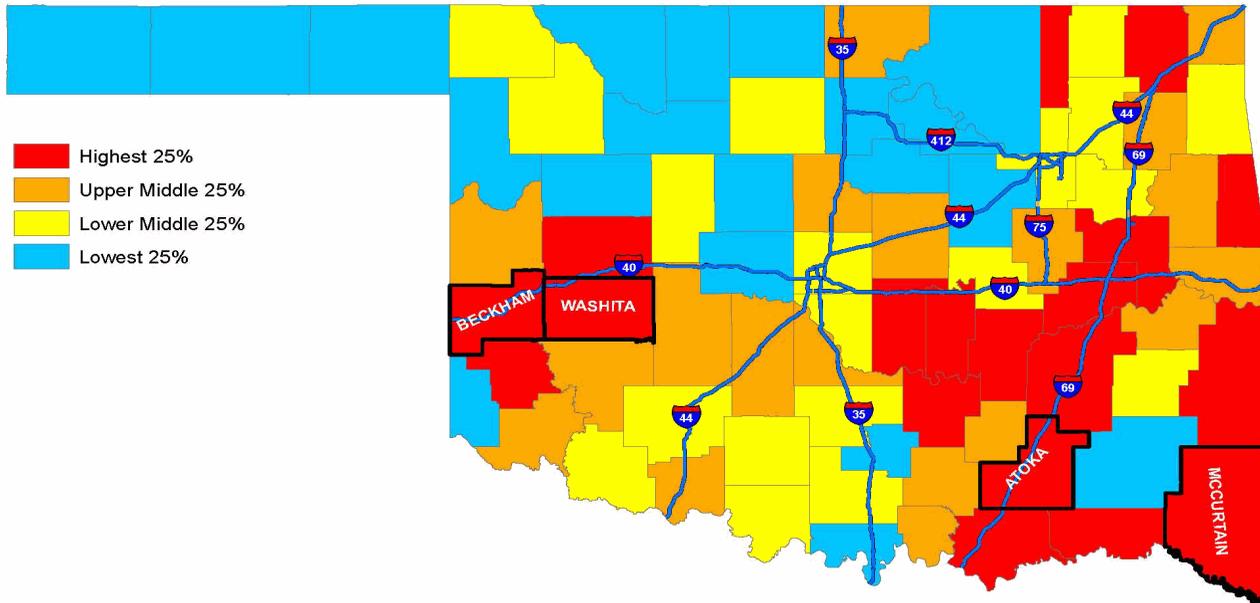

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Cimarron County residents over age 25, 76.6% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 17.7% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Cimarron County was $33,233 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Cimarron County living in poverty was 15.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Cimarron County was 11.7 (18.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Cimarron County was 4.2% (4.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Cimarron County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.0 (14.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Cimarron County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 11.3 (97.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Cimarron County was 3.8 (39.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Cimarron County during 2007 was 146.4 (63.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Cimarron County during 2007 was 26.3 (18.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Cimarron County during 2007 was 7.5 (22.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Cimarron County during 2007 was 3.8 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

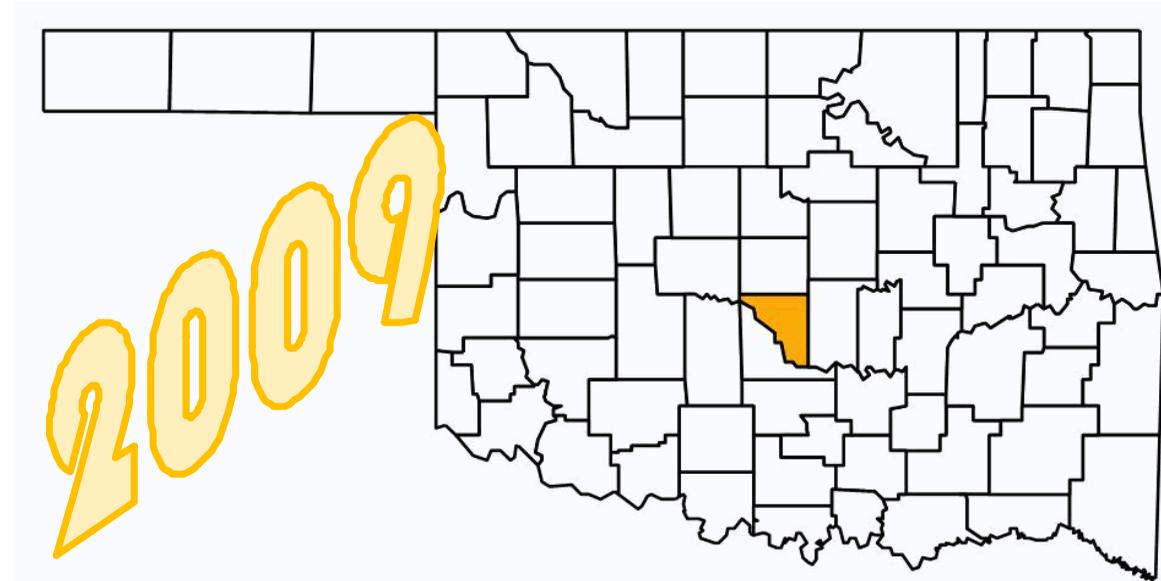

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Cleveland County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Cleveland County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

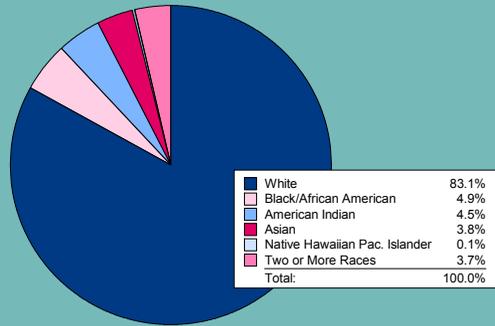

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

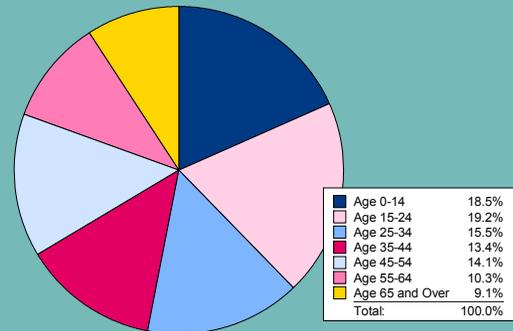

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 236,452 individuals lived in Cleveland County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Cleveland County had an estimated population density of 388.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Cleveland County, 50.4% of all residents were male and 49.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Cleveland

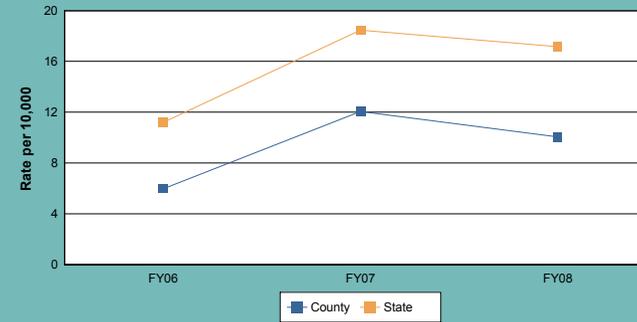

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Cleveland

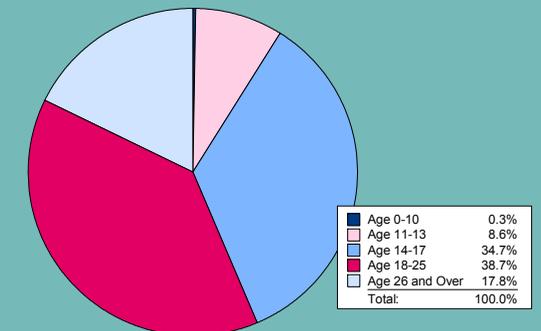

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Cleveland County ranked #55 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Cleveland County rate was 4.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Cleveland County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Cleveland County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.2 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.6% (3.9%) of the Cleveland County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 11.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Cleveland

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Cleveland

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

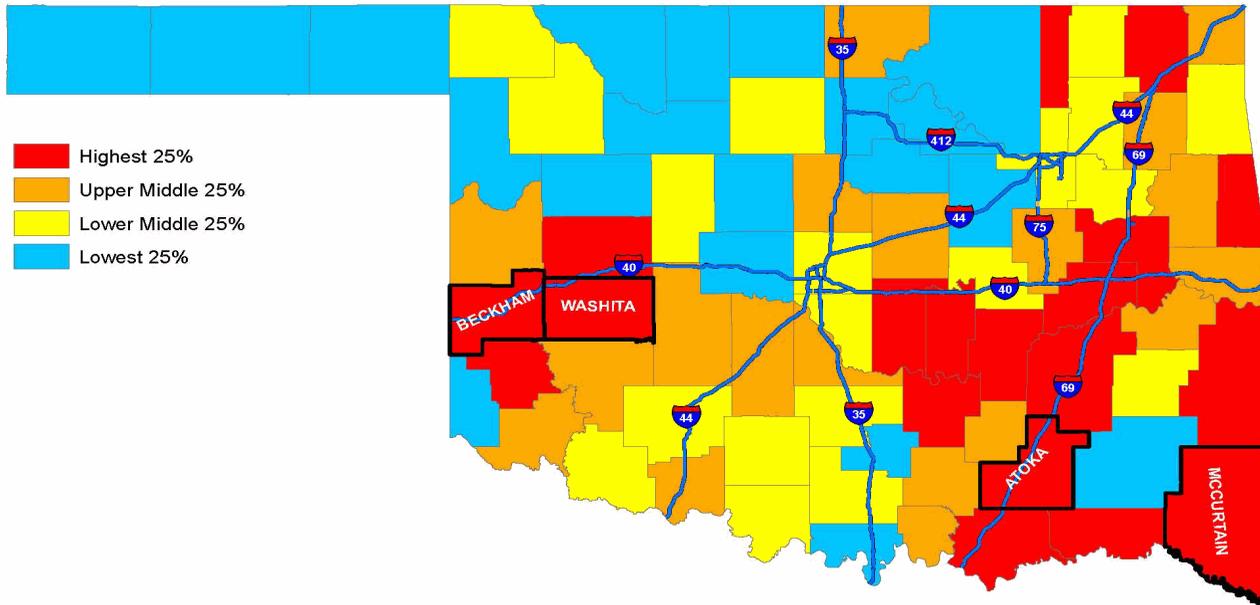

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Cleveland County residents over age 25, 88.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 28.0% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Cleveland County was $51,052 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Cleveland County living in poverty was 10.0%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Cleveland County was 30.5 (32.4) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Cleveland County was 4.7% (3.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Cleveland County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.6 (9.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Cleveland County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 9.4 (58.3), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Cleveland County was 5.3 (56.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Cleveland County during 2007 was 128.7 (137.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Cleveland County during 2007 was 50.9 (43.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Cleveland County during 2007 was 45.1 (31.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Cleveland County during 2007 was 8.0 (5.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

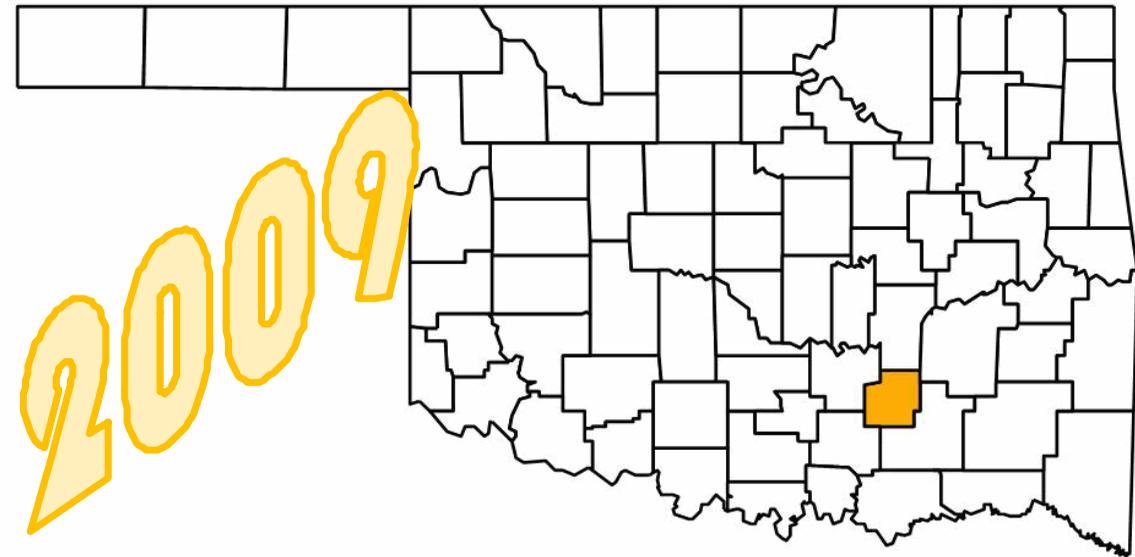

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Coal County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Coal County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

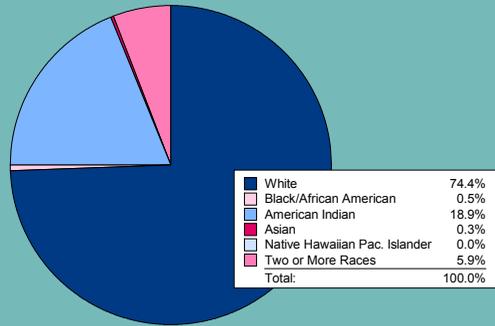

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

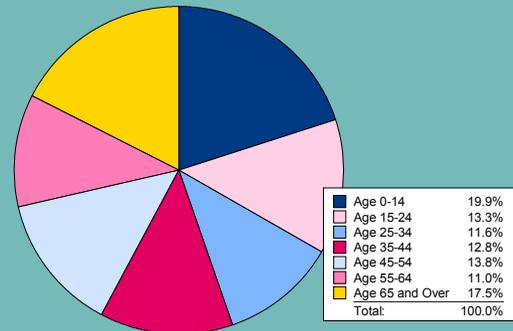

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 5,709 individuals lived in Coal County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Coal County had an estimated population density of 11.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Coal County, 49.4% of all residents were male and 50.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Coal

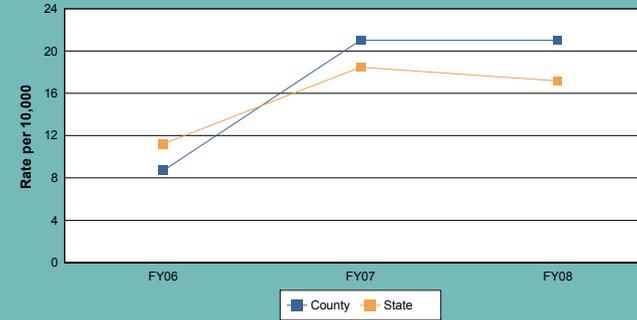

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Coal

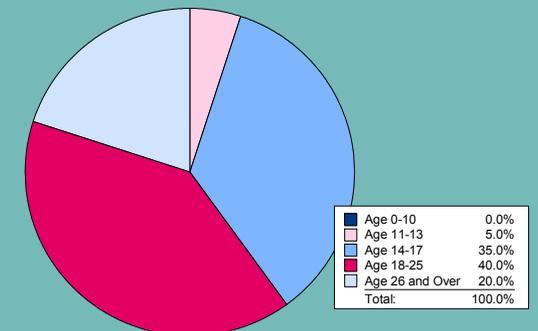

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Coal County ranked #18 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Coal County rate was 12.3 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Methamphetamine was the number one drug of choice among Coal County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Alcohol was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Heroin & Marijuana/Hashish (Tie) (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Coal County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 0.8% (0.0%) of the Coal County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Coal

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Coal

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

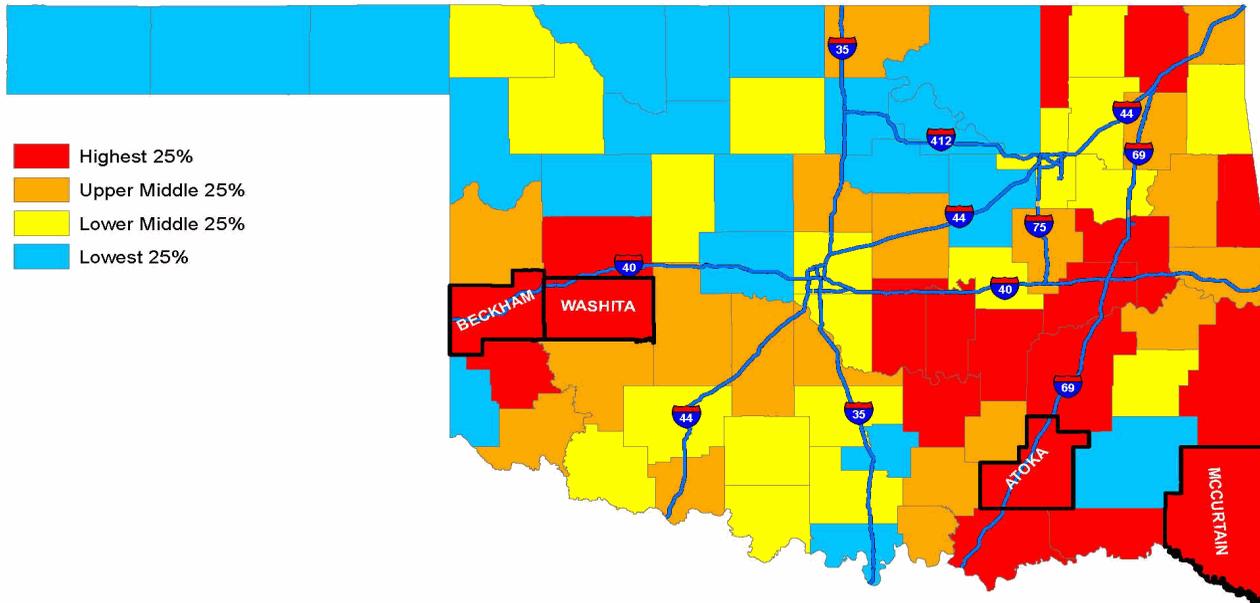

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Coal County residents over age 25, 68.6% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Coal County was $30,241 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Coal County living in poverty was 24.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Coal County was 54.2 (54.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Coal County was 8.5% (6.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Coal County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.8 (35.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Coal County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 54.3 (200.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Coal County was 4.7 (76.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Coal County during 2007 was 70.1 (49.0), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Coal County during 2007 was 103.3 (77.1), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Coal County during 2007 was 24.5 (14.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Coal County during 2007 was 0.0 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

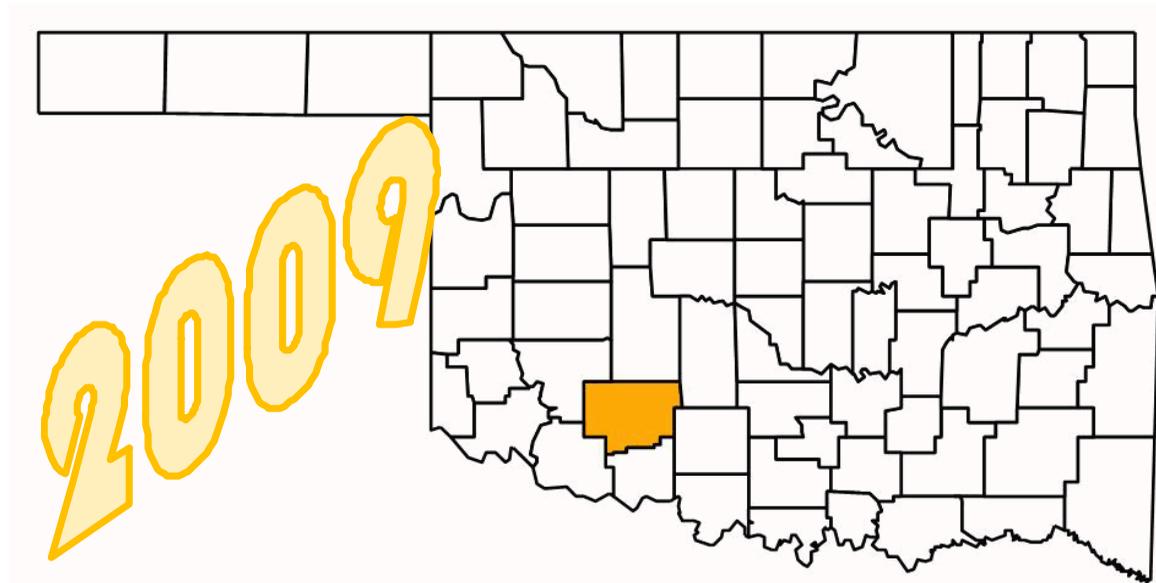

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Comanche County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Comanche County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

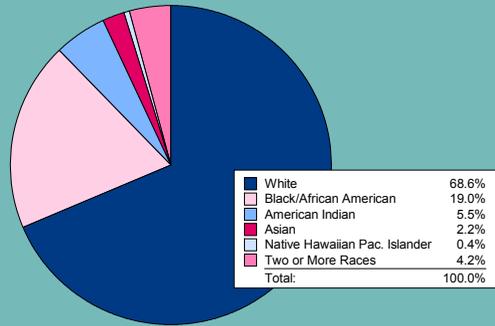

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

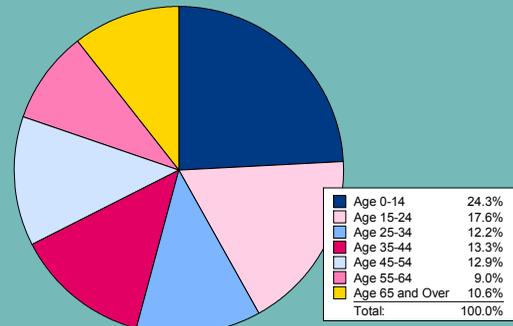

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 113,811 individuals lived in Comanche County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Comanche County had an estimated population density of 107.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Comanche County, 51.1% of all residents were male and 48.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Comanche

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Comanche

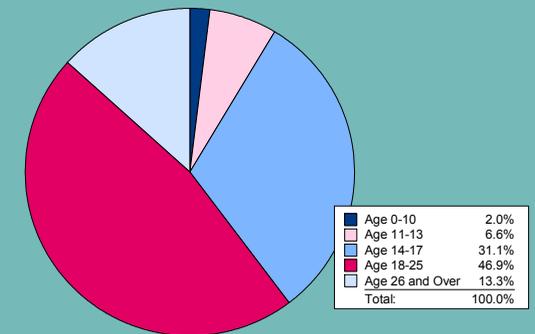

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Comanche County ranked #52 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Comanche County rate was 4.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Comanche County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Cocaine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Comanche County was 0.8 in 2008, compared to 0.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.5% (1.3%) of the Comanche County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 20.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Comanche

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Comanche

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

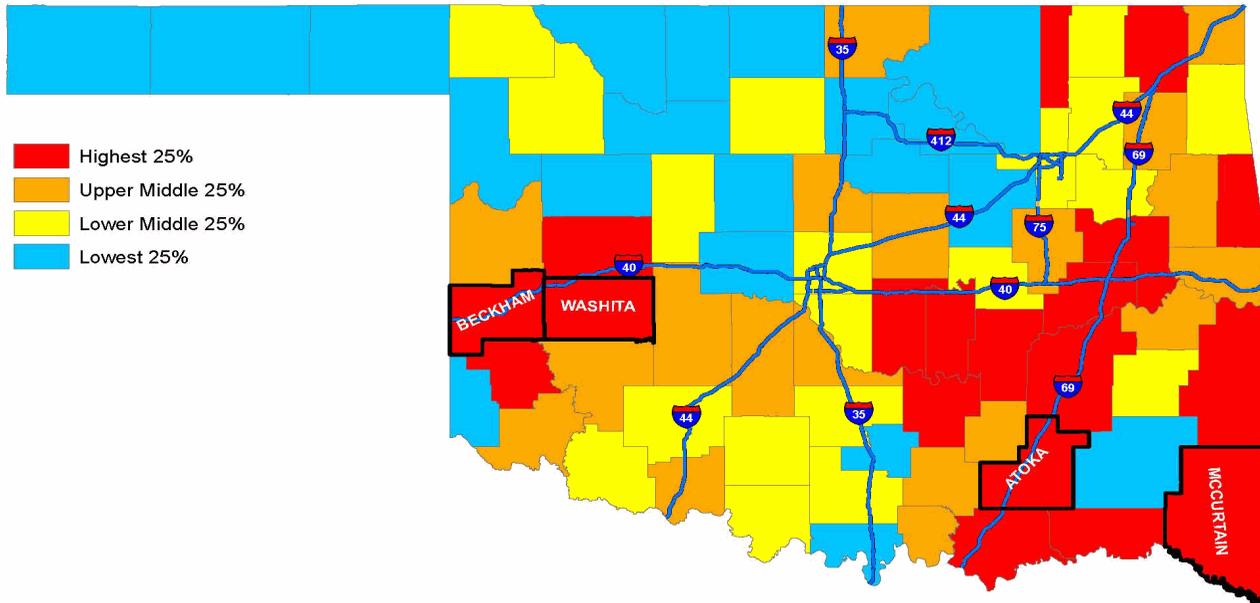

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Comanche County residents over age 25, 85.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 19.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Comanche County was $42,972 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Comanche County living in poverty was 18.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Comanche County was 43.9 (50.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Comanche County was 5.0% (4.2%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Comanche County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.1 (8.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Comanche County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 23.2 (61.5), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Comanche County was 7.8 (80.1) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Comanche County during 2007 was 49.5 (49.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Comanche County during 2007 was 59.0 (63.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Comanche County during 2007 was 84.7 (77.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Comanche County during 2007 was 14.4 (17.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

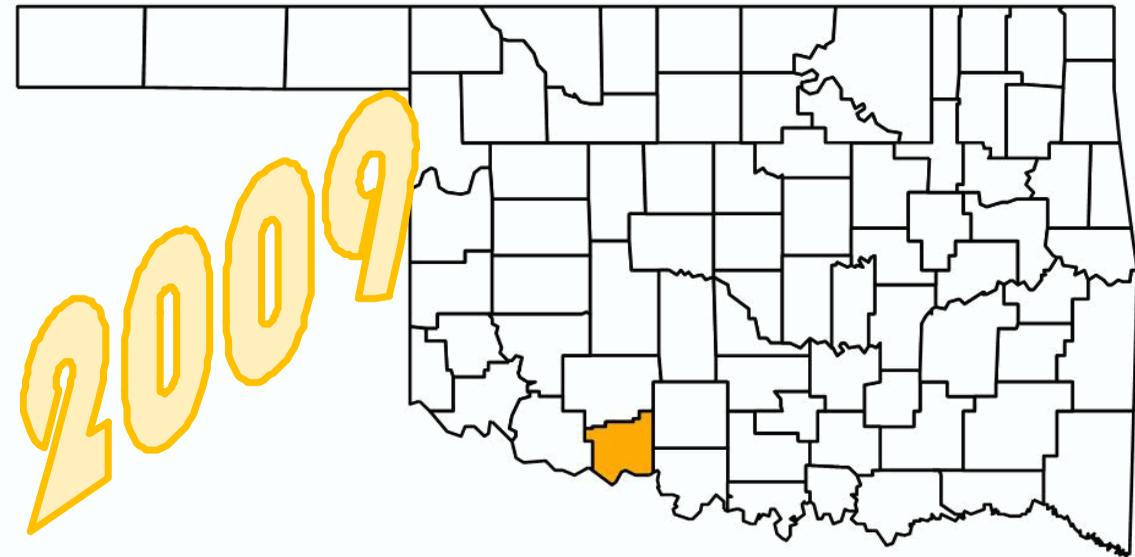

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Cotton County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Cotton County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

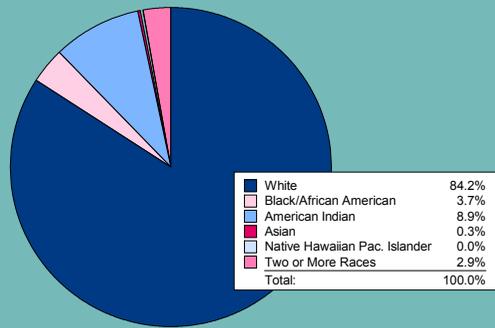

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

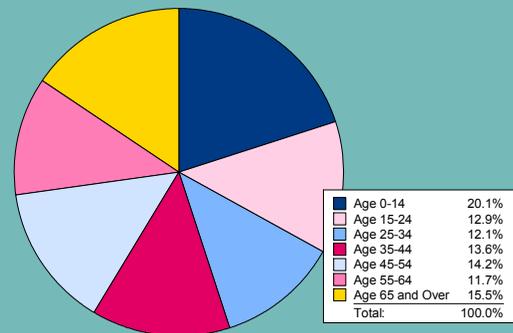

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 6,299 individuals lived in Cotton County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Cotton County had an estimated population density of 10.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Cotton County, 49.8% of all residents were male and 50.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Cotton

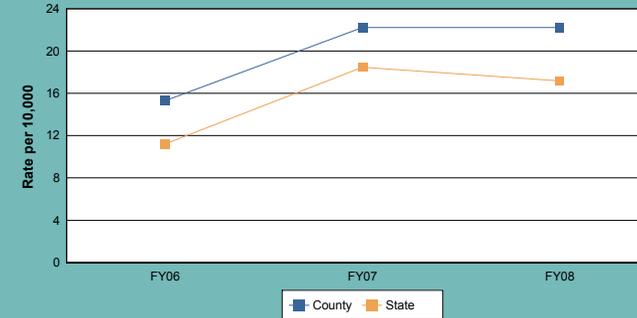

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Cotton

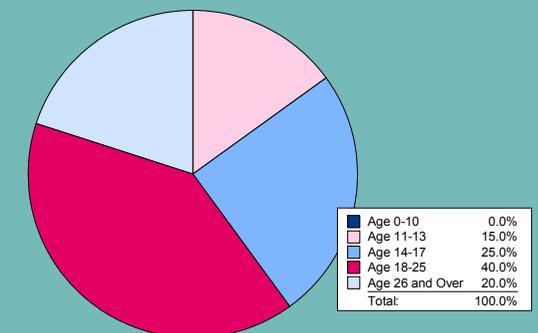

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Cotton County ranked #19 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Cotton County rate was 12.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Methamphetamine was the number one drug of choice among Cotton County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Alcohol (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Cotton County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 3.3% (2.8%) of the Cotton County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 20.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Cotton

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Cotton

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

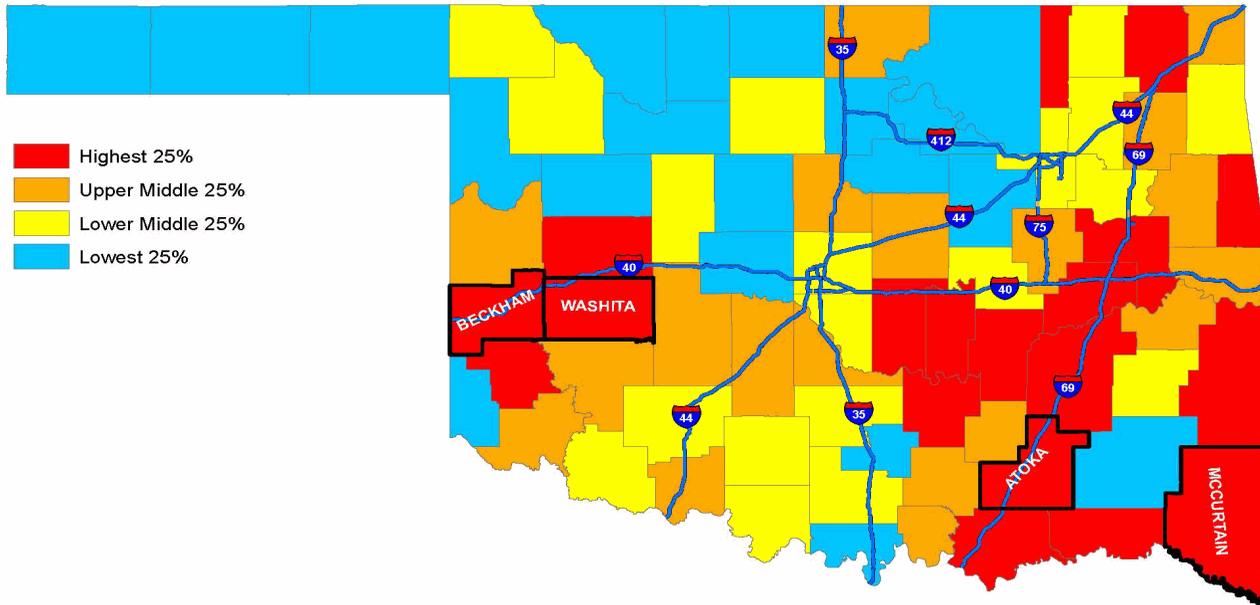

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Cotton County residents over age 25, 77.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.0% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Cotton County was $36,718 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Cotton County living in poverty was 14.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Cotton County was 30.7 (33.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Cotton County was 3.7% (2.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Cotton County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.2 (18.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Cotton County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 34.9 (163.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Cotton County was 5.6 (43.1) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Cotton County during 2007 was 193.7 (138.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Cotton County during 2007 was 120.7 (125.4), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Cotton County during 2007 was 14.3 (17.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Cotton County during 2007 was 1.6 (3.1), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

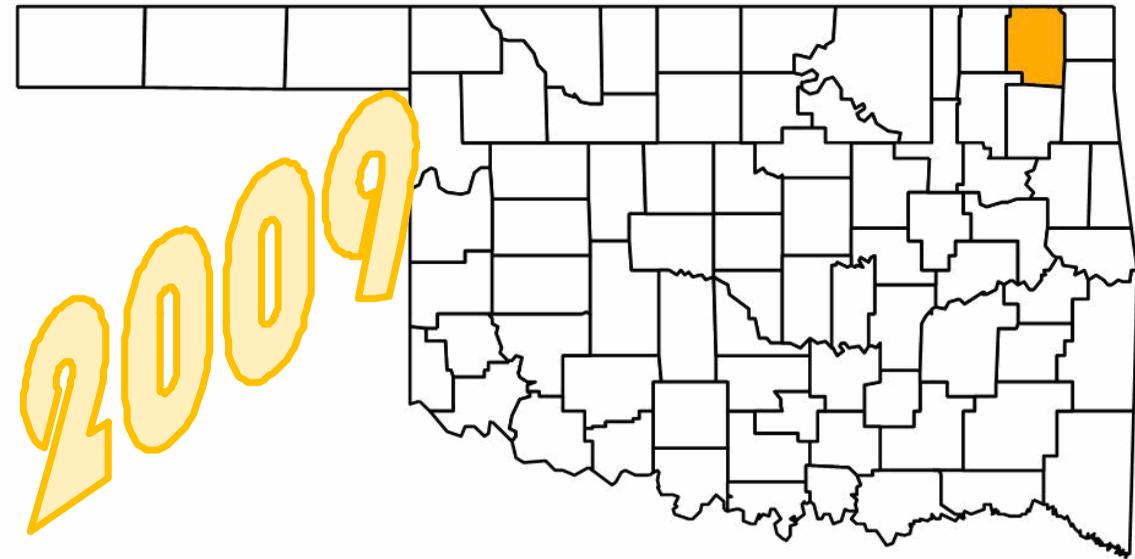

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Craig County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Craig County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

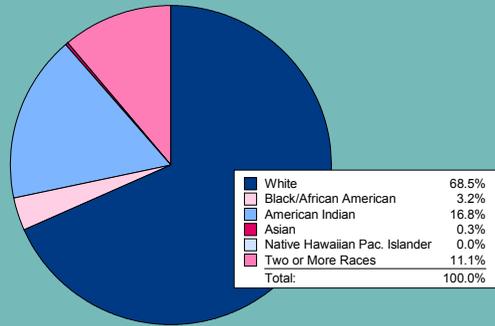

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

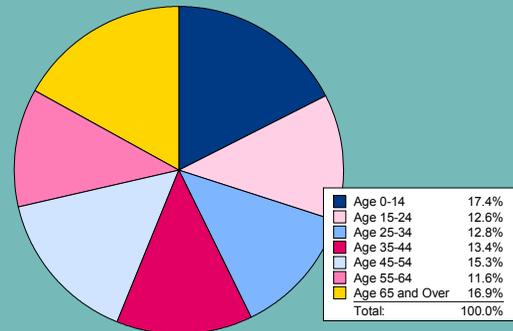

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 15,195 individuals lived in Craig County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Craig County had an estimated population density of 19.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Craig County, 50.4% of all residents were male and 49.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Craig

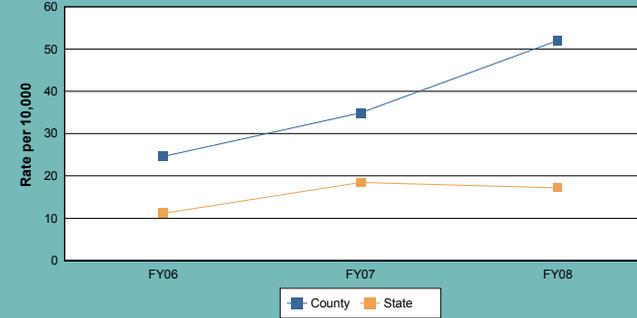

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Craig

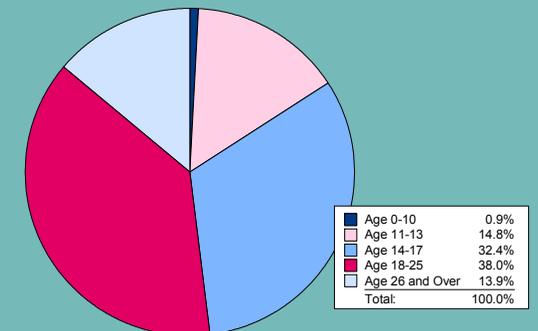

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Craig County ranked #3 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Craig County rate was 25.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Craig County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Craig County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.7 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.3% (2.7%) of the Craig County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Craig

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Craig

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

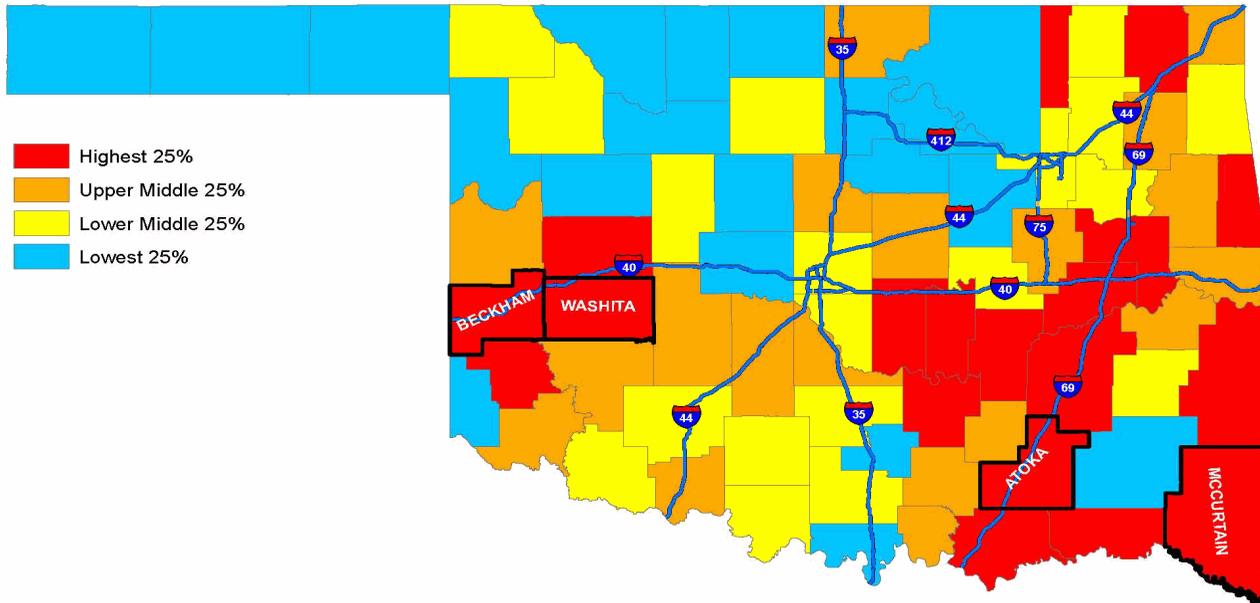

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Craig County residents over age 25, 76.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.5% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Craig County was $36,260 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Craig County living in poverty was 21.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Craig County was 44.3 (42.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Craig County was 5.6% (5.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Craig County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.3 (9.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Craig County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 36.9 (147.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Craig County was 6.6 (71.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Craig County during 2007 was 140.2 (104.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Craig County during 2007 was 114.5 (115.2), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Craig County during 2007 was 51.3 (38.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Craig County during 2007 was 34.2 (24.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

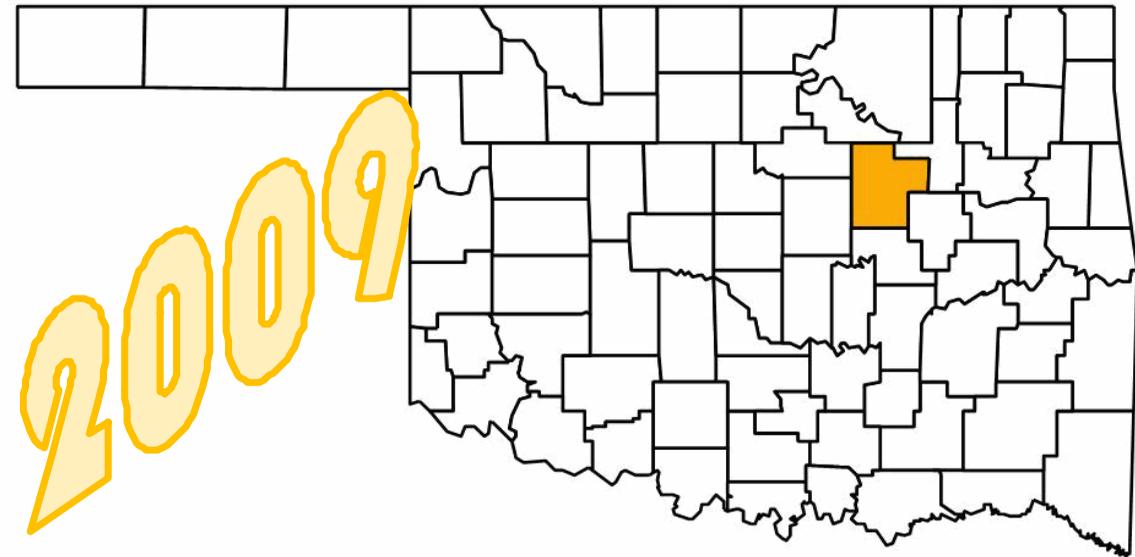

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Creek County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Creek County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

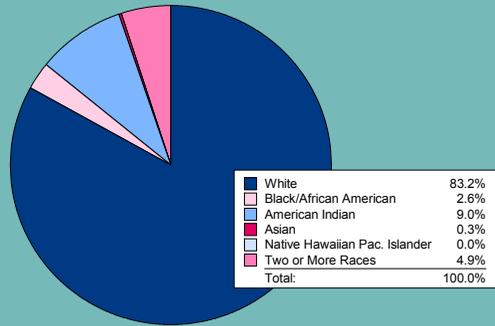

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

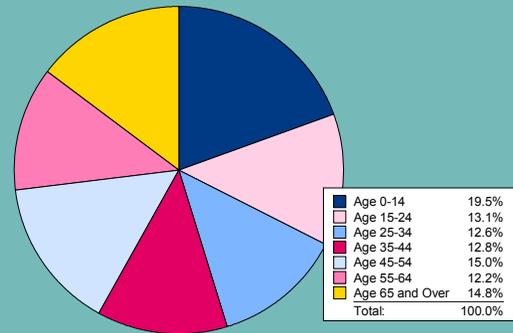

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 69,073 individuals lived in Creek County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Creek County had an estimated population density of 70.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Creek County, 49.0% of all residents were male and 51.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Creek

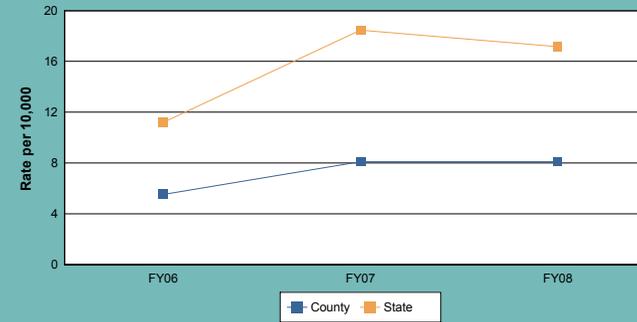

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Creek

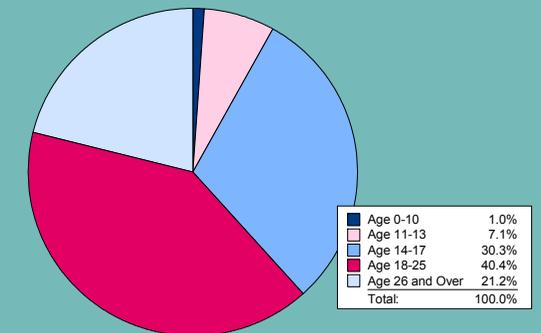

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Creek County ranked #58 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Creek County rate was 4.2 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Marijuana/Hashish was the number one drug of choice among Creek County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Alcohol was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Creek County was 0.1 in 2008, compared to 3.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.5% (2.8%) of the Creek County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 19.7% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Creek

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Creek

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

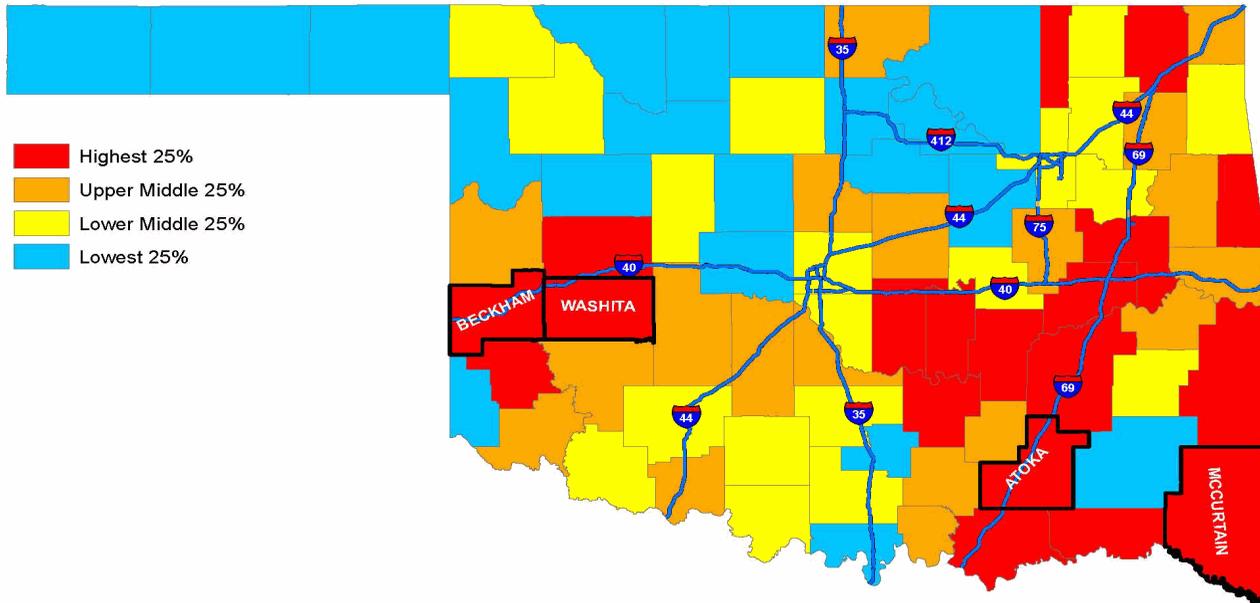

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Creek County residents over age 25, 77.6% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 11.7% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Creek County was $41,745 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Creek County living in poverty was 16.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Creek County was 13.2 (12.5) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Creek County was 7.0% (4.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Creek County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.5 (17.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Creek County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 10.1 (91.7), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Creek County was 4.6 (49.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Creek County during 2007 was 121.3 (134.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Creek County during 2007 was 32.0 (32.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Creek County during 2007 was 31.3 (34.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Creek County during 2007 was 5.6 (8.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

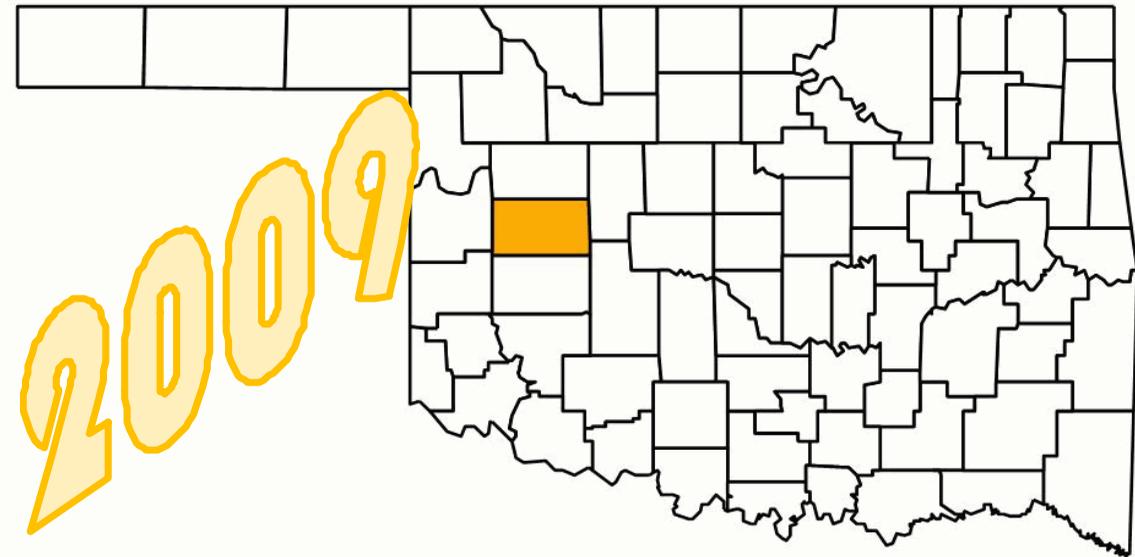

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Custer County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Custer County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

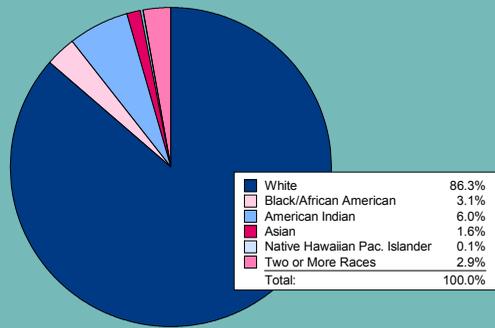

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

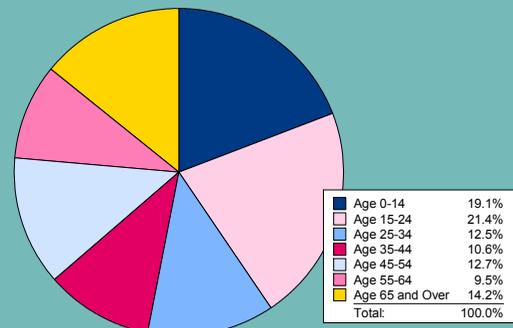

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 26,111 individuals lived in Custer County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Custer County had an estimated population density of 26.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Custer County, 48.7% of all residents were male and 51.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Custer

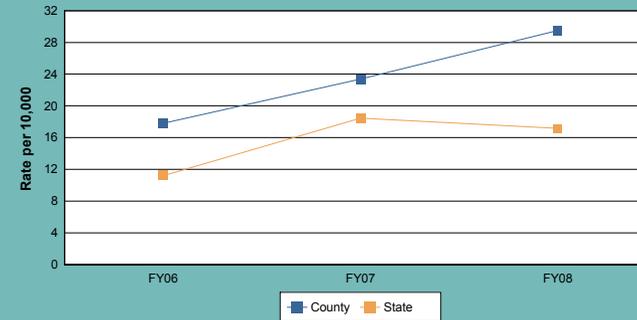

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Custer

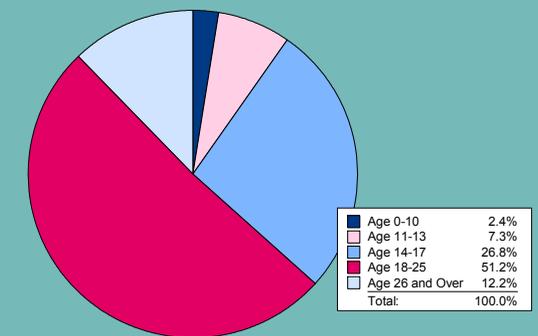

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Custer County ranked #22 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Custer County rate was 8.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Custer County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Custer County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.6 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.4% (2.2%) of the Custer County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Custer

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Custer

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

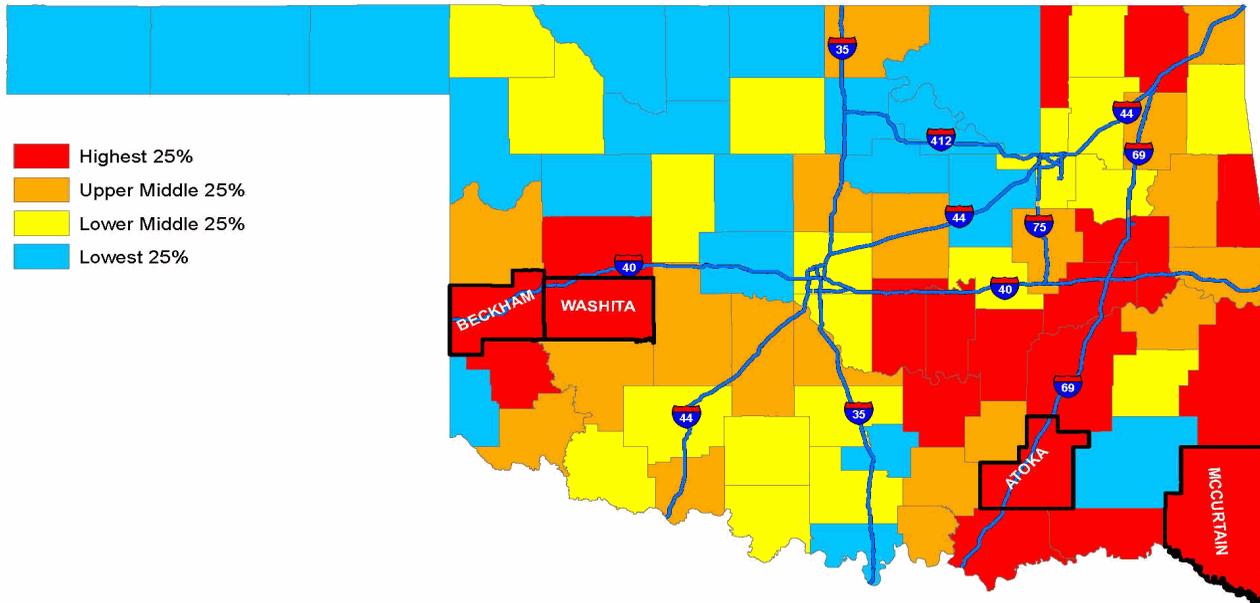

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Custer County residents over age 25, 81.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 22.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Custer County was $40,287 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Custer County living in poverty was 19.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Custer County was 48.1 (64.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Custer County was 3.6% (3.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Custer County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 5.7 (17.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Custer County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 28.7 (140.8), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Custer County was 4.4 (47.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Custer County during 2007 was 292.2 (216.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Custer County during 2007 was 105.3 (95.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Custer County during 2007 was 37.1 (50.6) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Custer County during 2007 was 52.1 (51.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

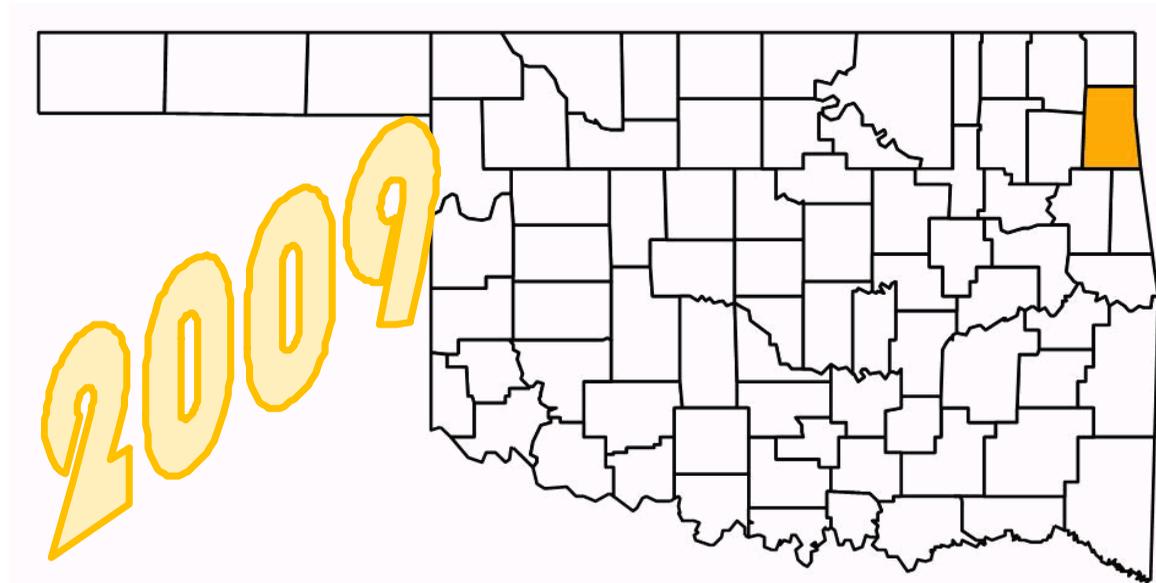

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Delaware County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Delaware County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

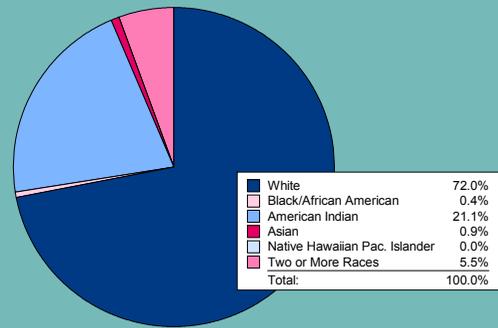

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

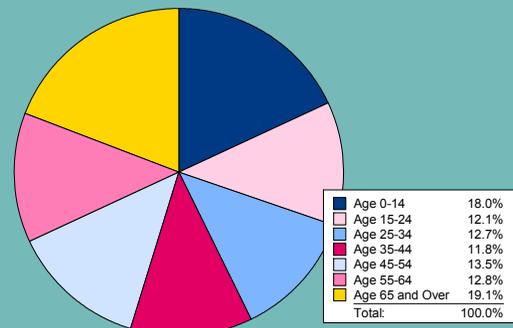

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 40,406 individuals lived in Delaware County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Delaware County had an estimated population density of 50.0 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Delaware County, 49.1% of all residents were male and 50.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Delaware

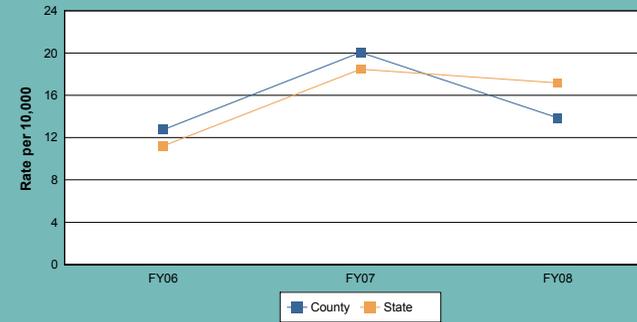

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Delaware

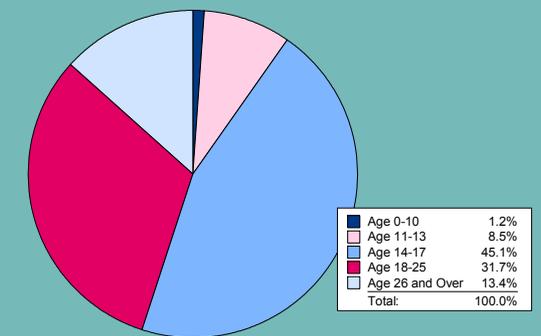

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Delaware County ranked #46 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Delaware County rate was 2.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Delaware County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Delaware County was 1.0 in 2008, compared to 3.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.2% (3.4%) of the Delaware County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 13.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Delaware

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Delaware

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

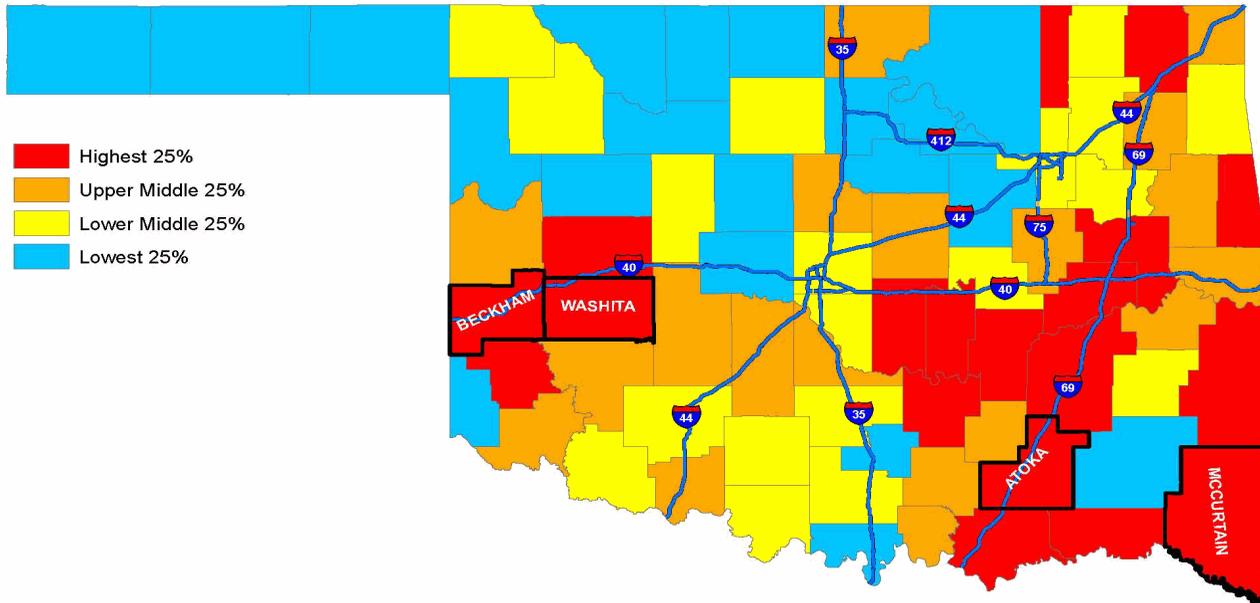

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Delaware County residents over age 25, 75.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 13.3% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Delaware County was $33,139 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Delaware County living in poverty was 20.2%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Delaware County was 43.8 (48.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Delaware County was 7.0% (4.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Delaware County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.2 (9.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Delaware County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 20.8 (124.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Delaware County was 5.1 (58.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Delaware County during 2007 was 79.7 (90.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Delaware County during 2007 was 43.3 (67.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Delaware County during 2007 was 22.5 (30.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Delaware County during 2007 was 10.9 (24.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

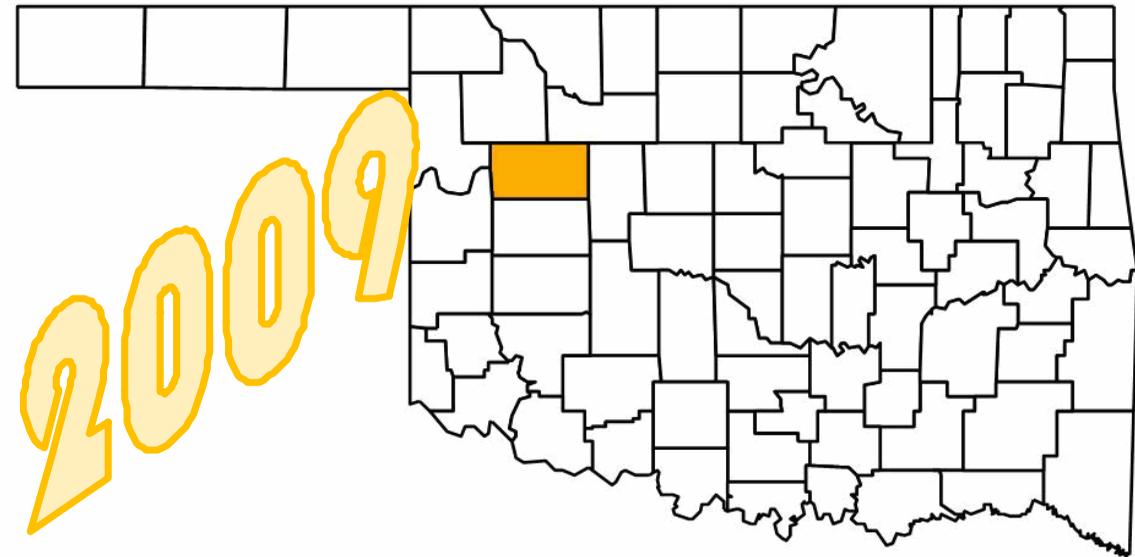

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Dewey County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Dewey County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

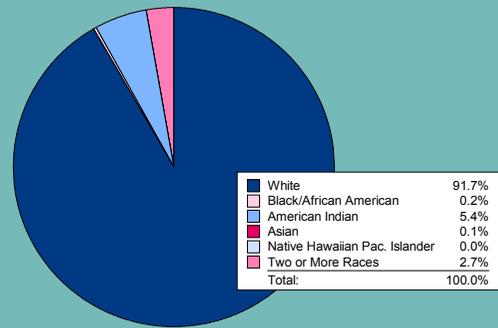

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

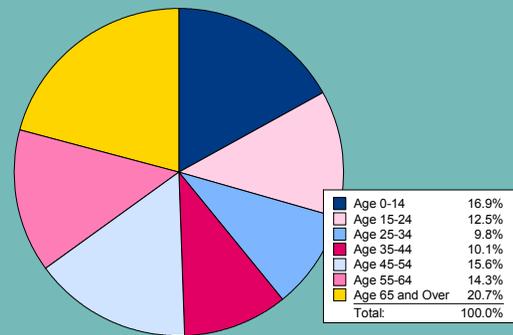

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 4,338 individuals lived in Dewey County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Dewey County had an estimated population density of 4.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Dewey County, 49.0% of all residents were male and 51.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Dewey

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Dewey

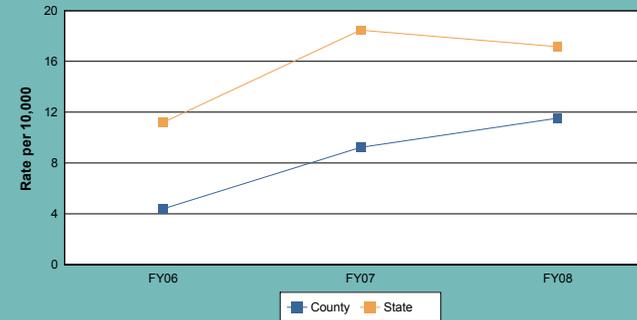

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Dewey County ranked #59 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Dewey County rate was 9.2 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Dewey County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Dewey County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 8.8 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 0.0% (2.5%) of the Dewey County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 7.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

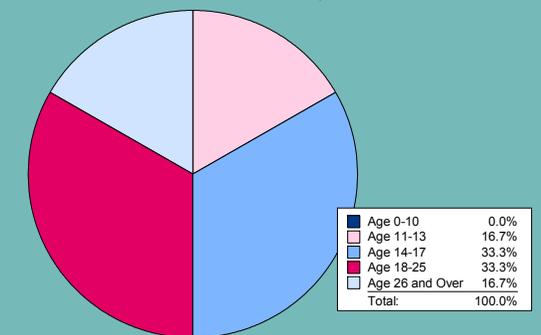

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Dewey County residents over age 25, 79.8% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 16.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Dewey County was $36,735 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Dewey County living in poverty was 14.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Dewey County was 9.1 (16.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Dewey County was 4.2% (3.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Dewey

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Dewey

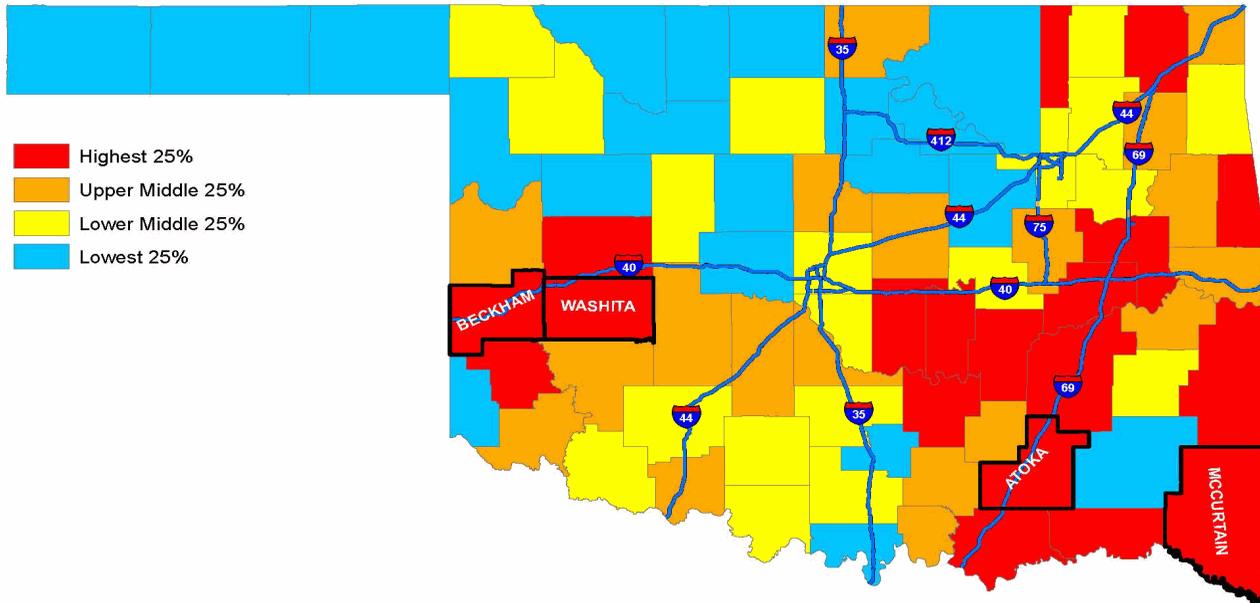

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Dewey County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.3 (20.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Dewey County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 0.0 (176.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Dewey County was 4.8 (20.1) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Dewey County during 2007 was 119.9 (219.0), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Dewey County during 2007 was 99.1 (34.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Dewey County during 2007 was 13.8 (23.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Dewey County during 2007 was 46.1 (2.2), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

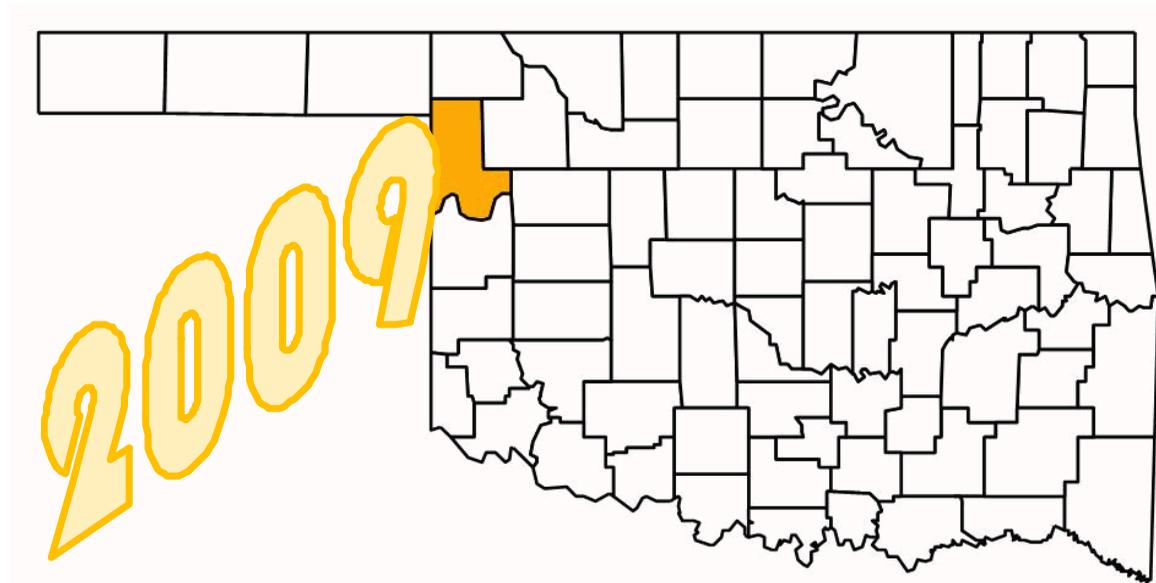

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Ellis County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Ellis County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

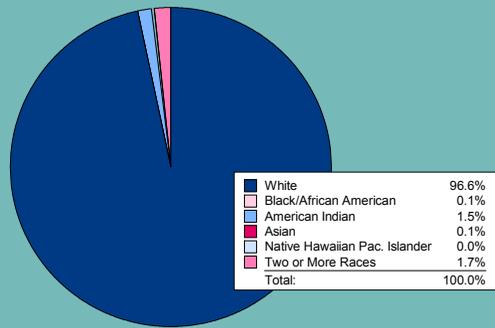

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

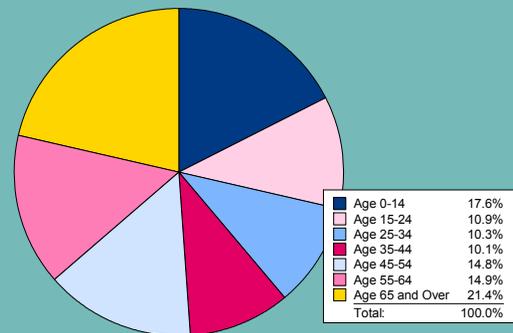

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 3,911 individuals lived in Ellis County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Ellis County had an estimated population density of 3.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Ellis County, 49.0% of all residents were male and 51.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Ellis

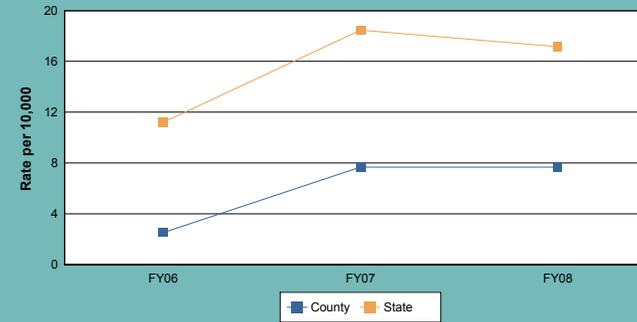

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Ellis

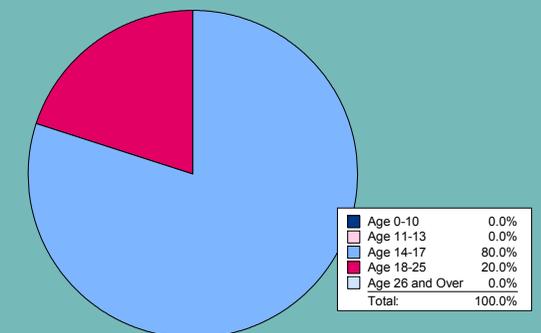

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Ellis County ranked #63 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Ellis County rate was 7.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Ellis County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while N/A was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Ellis County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 5.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.4% (4.8%) of the Ellis County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 10.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Ellis

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Ellis

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

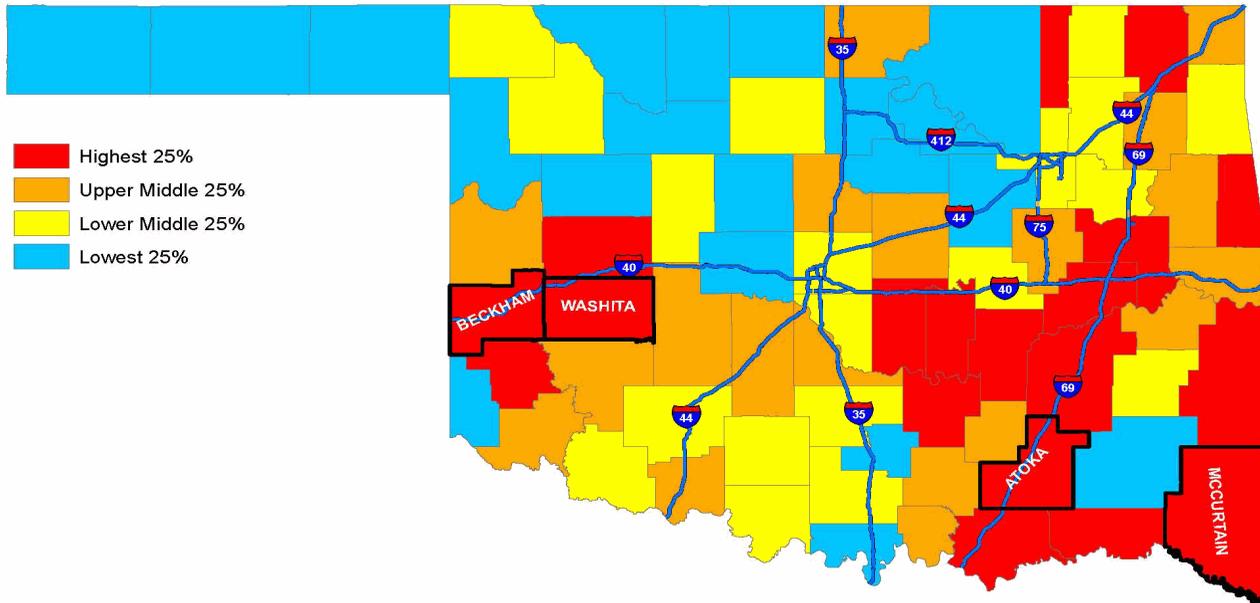

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Ellis County residents over age 25, 81.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 19.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Ellis County was $36,924 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Ellis County living in poverty was 12.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Ellis County was 12.6 (10.2) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Ellis County was 4.2% (2.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Ellis County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.6 (36.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Ellis County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 2.6 (61.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Ellis County was 6.9 (71.6) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Ellis County during 2007 was 66.5 (86.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Ellis County during 2007 was 30.7 (15.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Ellis County during 2007 was 10.2 (2.6) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Ellis County during 2007 was 2.6 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

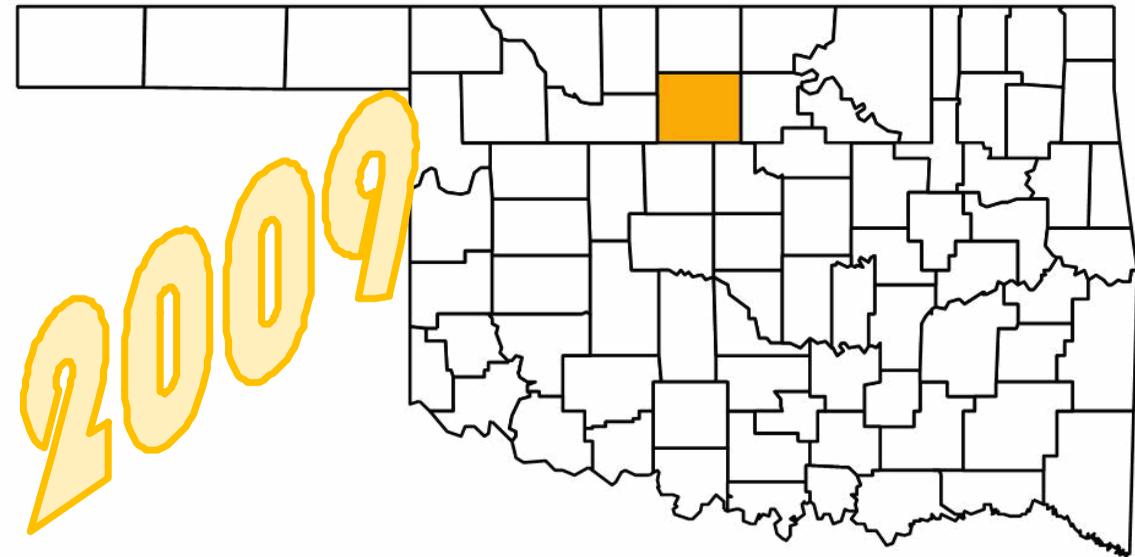

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Garfield County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Garfield County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

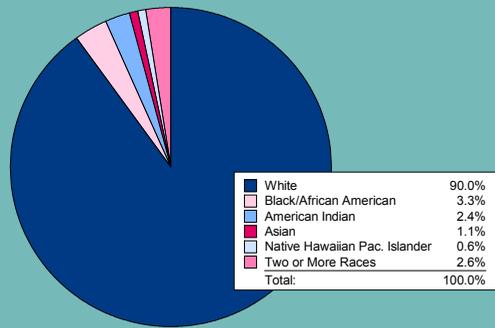

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

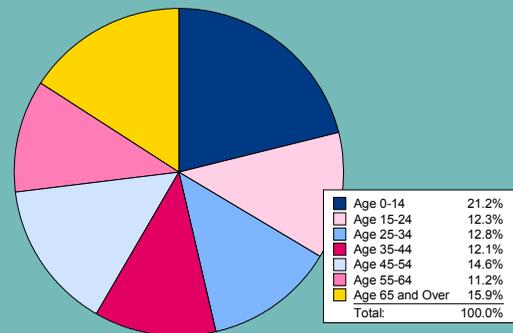

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 57,657 individuals lived in Garfield County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Garfield County had an estimated population density of 54.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Garfield County, 48.5% of all residents were male and 51.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Garfield

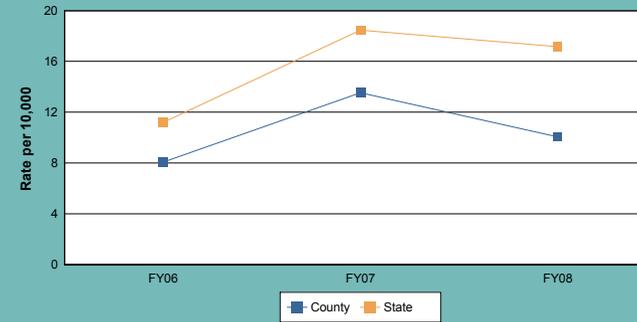

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Garfield

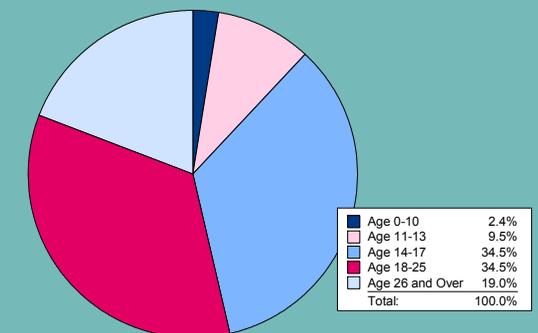

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Garfield County ranked #54 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Garfield County rate was 3.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Garfield County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Garfield County was 0.3 in 2008, compared to 6.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.9% (2.9%) of the Garfield County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 11.2% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Garfield

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Garfield

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

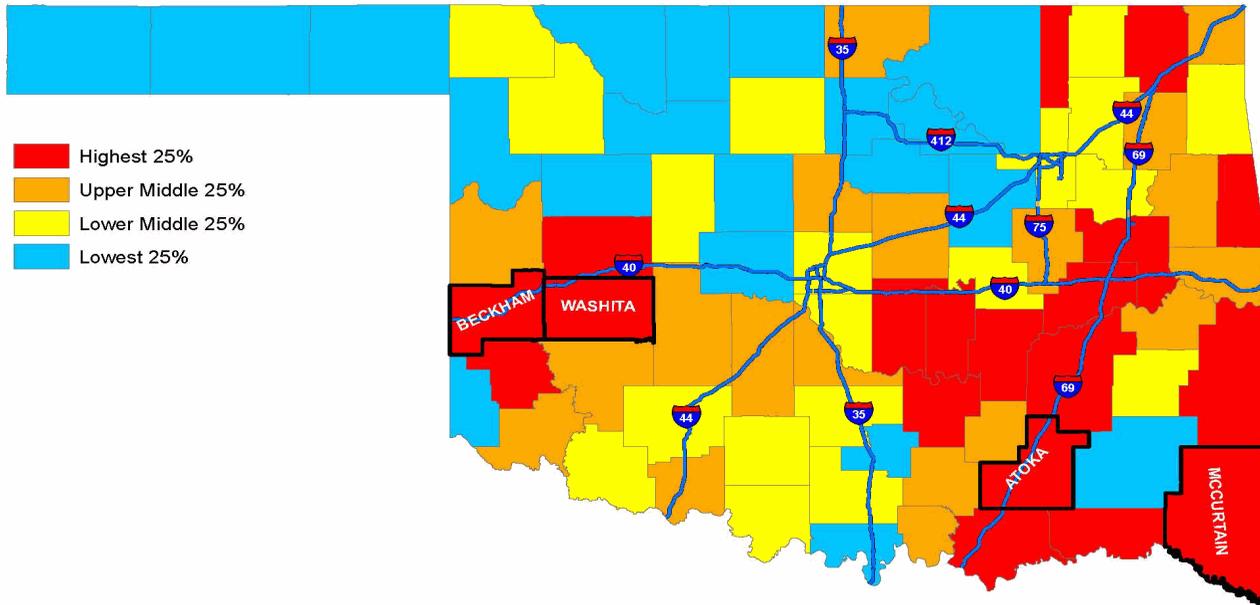

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Garfield County residents over age 25, 82.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 19.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Garfield County was $39,904 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Garfield County living in poverty was 15.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Garfield County was 33.7 (38.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Garfield County was 3.6% (3.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Garfield County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.8 (15.3), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Garfield County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 17.3 (72.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Garfield County was 6.1 (37.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Garfield County during 2007 was 134.4 (89.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Garfield County during 2007 was 59.5 (45.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Garfield County during 2007 was 26.7 (26.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Garfield County during 2007 was 23.6 (10.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

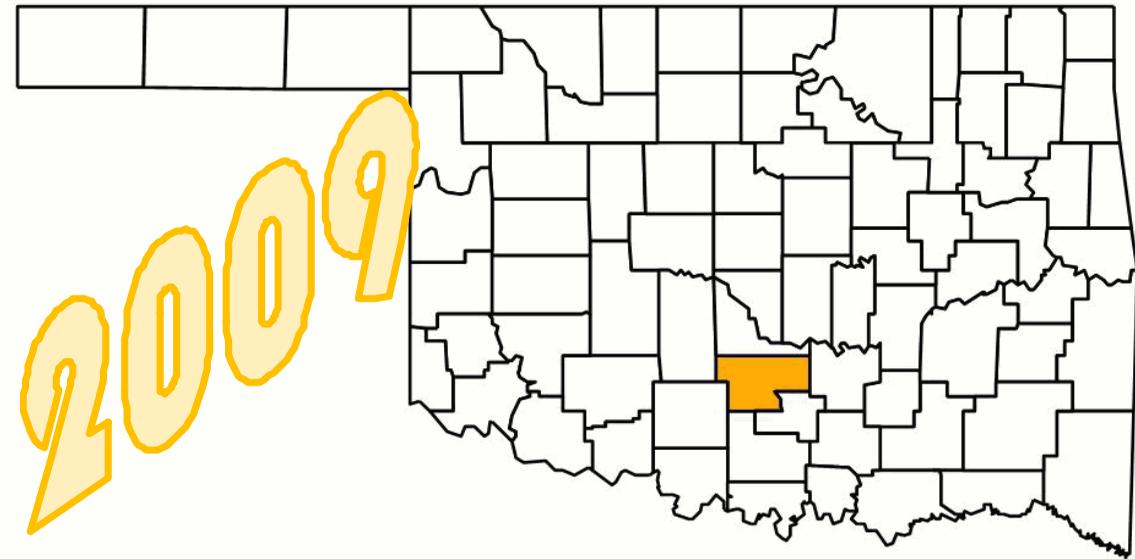

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Garvin County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Garvin County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

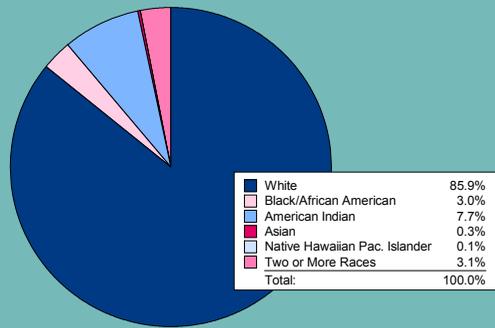

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

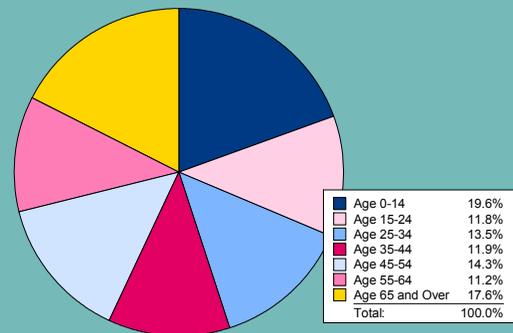

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 27,141 individuals lived in Garvin County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Garvin County had an estimated population density of 33.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Garvin County, 48.4% of all residents were male and 51.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Garvin

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Garvin

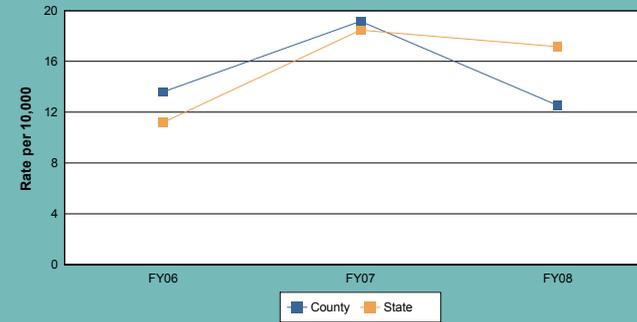

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Garvin County ranked #27 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Garvin County rate was 7.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Garvin County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Heron/Other Opiates (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Garvin County was 0.7 in 2008, compared to 6.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.1% (%) of the Garvin County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 13.2% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

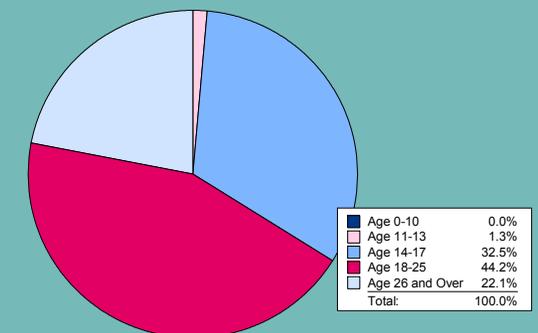

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Garvin County residents over age 25, 73.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.0% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Garvin County was $38,360 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Garvin County living in poverty was 16.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Garvin County was 29.7 (30.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Garvin County was 5.0% (3.2%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Garvin

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Garvin

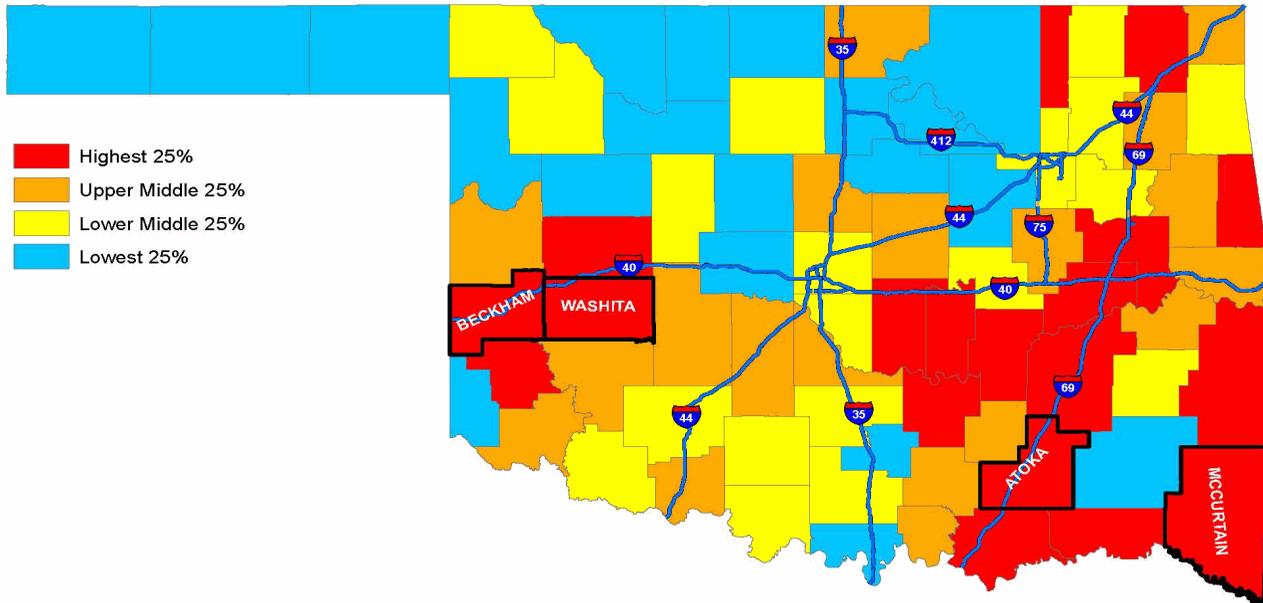

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Garvin County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.4 (16.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Garvin County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 30.2 (228.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Garvin County was 4.8 (57.0) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Garvin County during 2007 was 159.9 (124.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Garvin County during 2007 was 71.5 (74.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Garvin County during 2007 was 44.2 (30.6) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Garvin County during 2007 was 4.8 (19.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

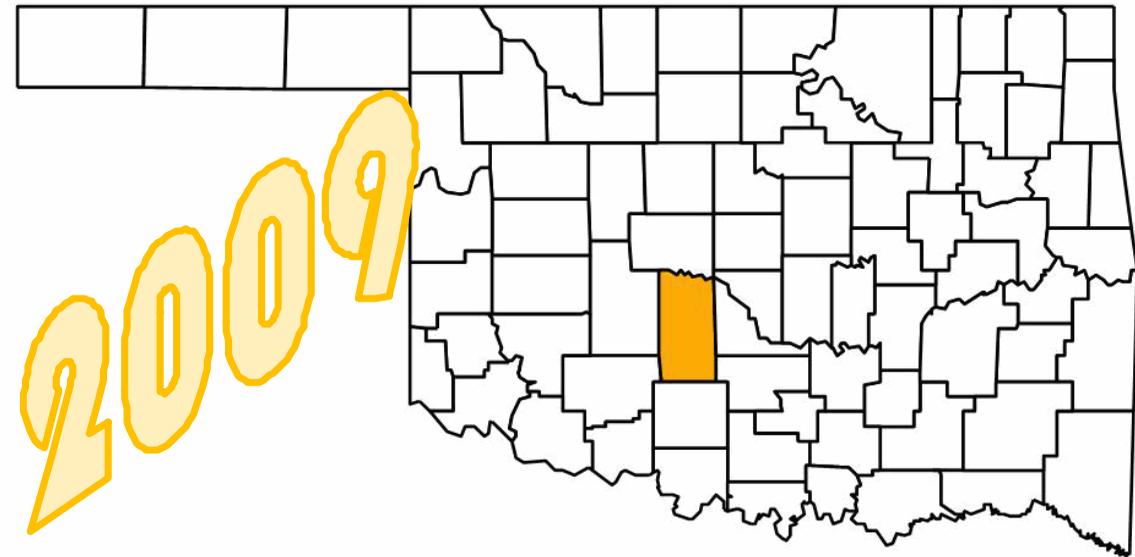

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Grady County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Grady County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

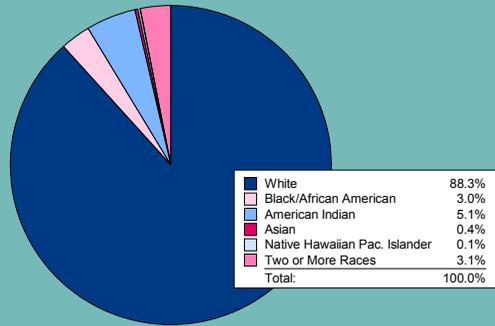

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

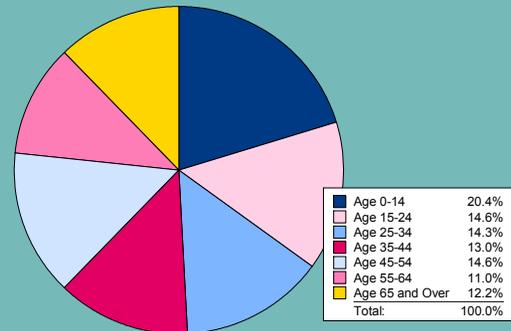

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 50,615 individuals lived in Grady County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Grady County had an estimated population density of 41.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Grady County, 49.1% of all residents were male and 50.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Grady

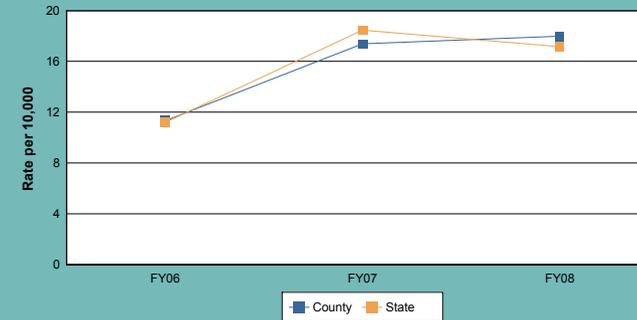

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Grady

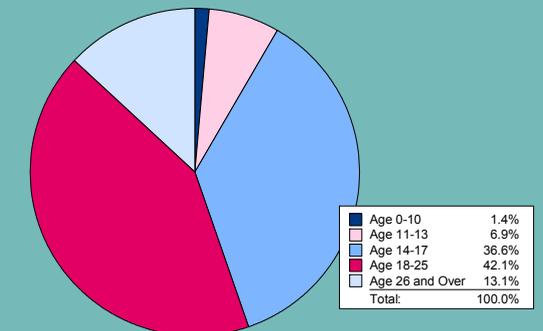

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Grady County ranked #33 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Grady County rate was 7.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Grady County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Grady County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 2.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.7% (2.8%) of the Grady County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 13.6% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Grady

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Grady

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

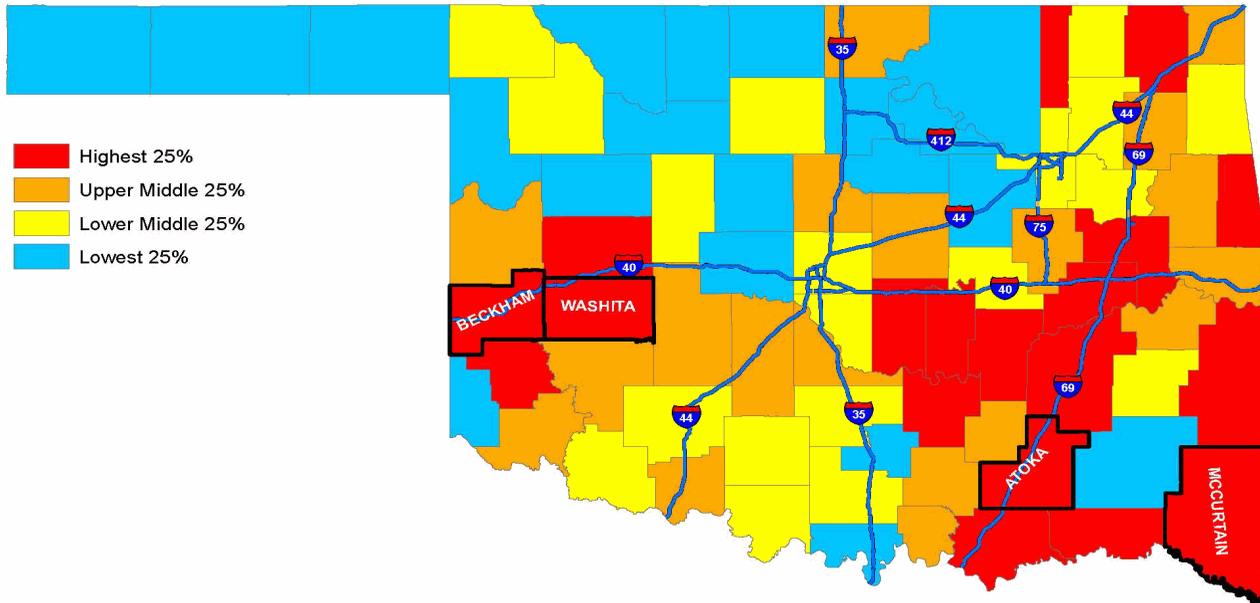

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Grady County residents over age 25, 79.5% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Grady County was $43,341 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Grady County living in poverty was 14.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Grady County was 34.9 (39.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Grady County was 6.4% (4.2%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Grady County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.0 (10.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Grady County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 19.6 (84.7), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Grady County was 5.8 (58.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Grady County during 2007 was 72.3 (72.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Grady County during 2007 was 30.6 (49.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Grady County during 2007 was 23.5 (29.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Grady County during 2007 was 3.0 (3.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

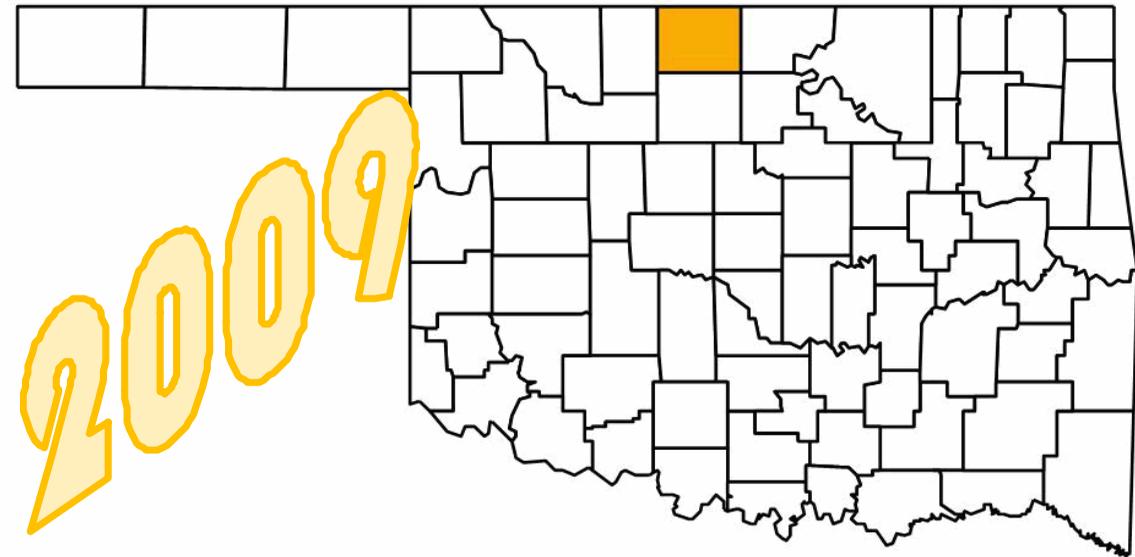

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Grant County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Grant County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

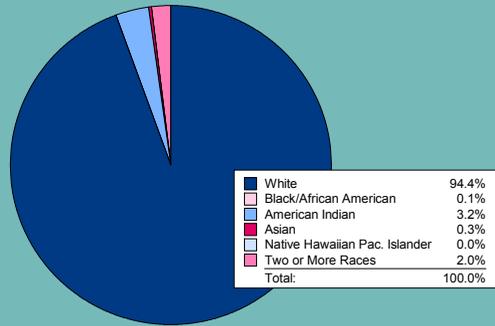

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

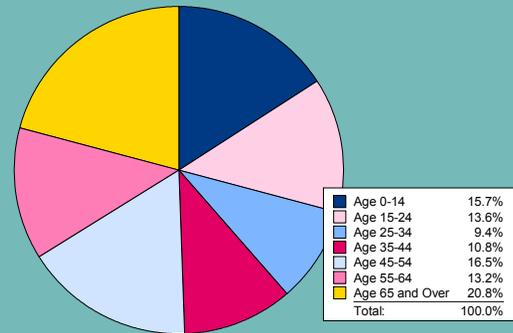

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 4,497 individuals lived in Grant County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Grant County had an estimated population density of 5.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Grant County, 48.9% of all residents were male and 51.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Grant

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Grant

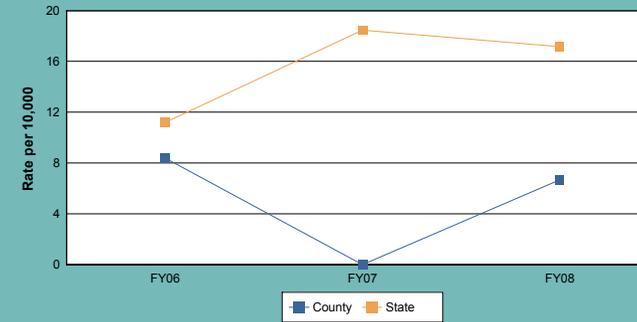

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Grant County ranked #73 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Grant County rate was 0.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Grant County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while N/A was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Grant County was 4.5 in 2008, compared to 2.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.2% (2.5%) of the Grant County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.7% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

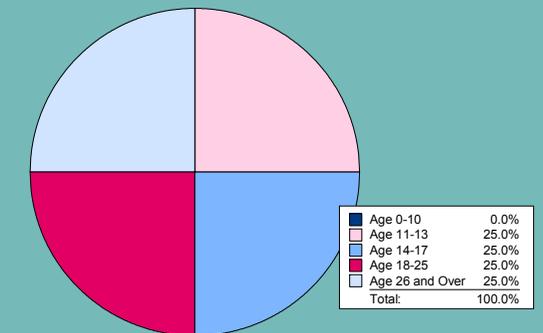

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Grant County residents over age 25, 85.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 16.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Grant County was $36,667 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Grant County living in poverty was 15.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Grant County was 4.5 (2.2) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Grant County was 3.4% (3.2%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Grant

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Grant

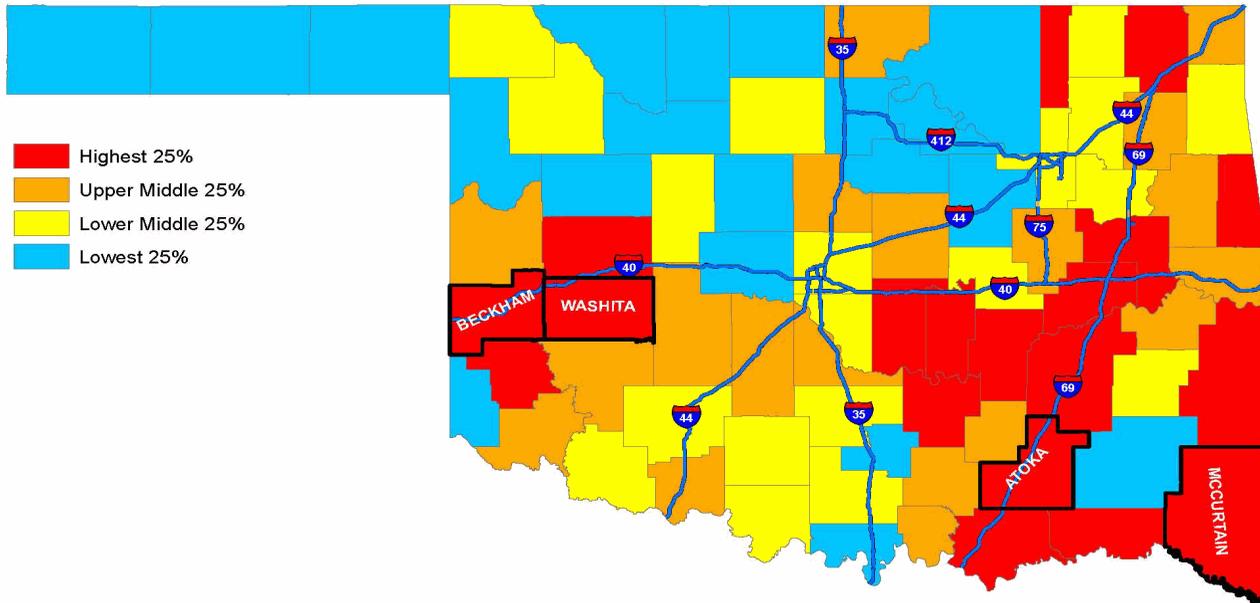

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Grant County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.4 (10.3), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Grant County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 8.9 (30.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Grant County was 2.4 (12.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Grant County during 2007 was 95.6 (102.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Grant County during 2007 was 15.6 (37.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Grant County during 2007 was 13.3 (8.9) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Grant County during 2007 was 0.0 (12.9), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

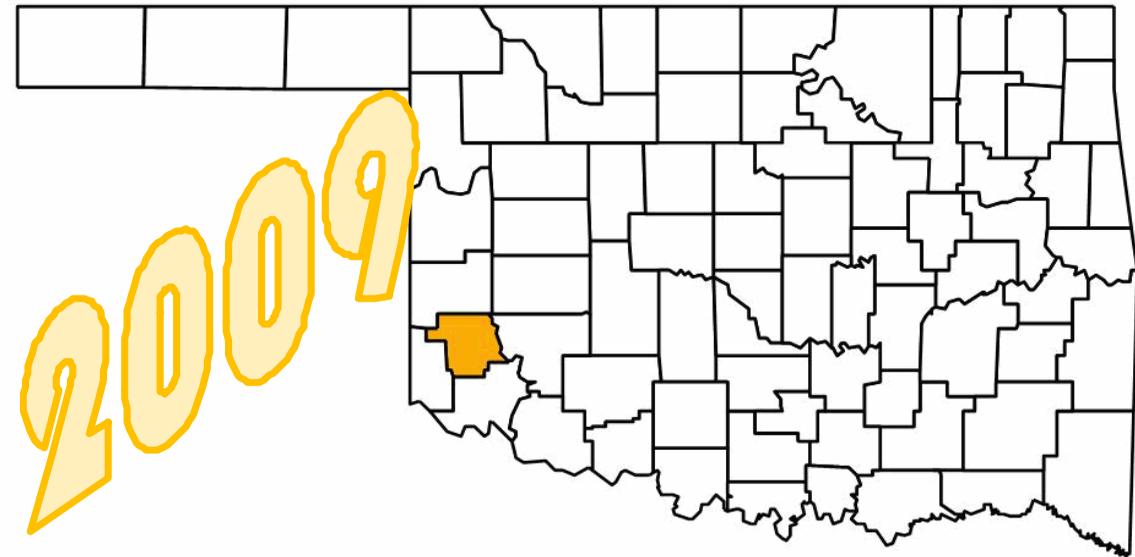

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Greer County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Greer County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

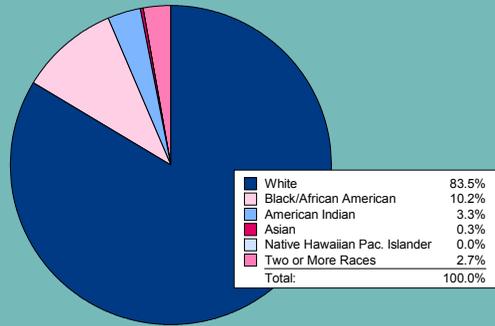

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

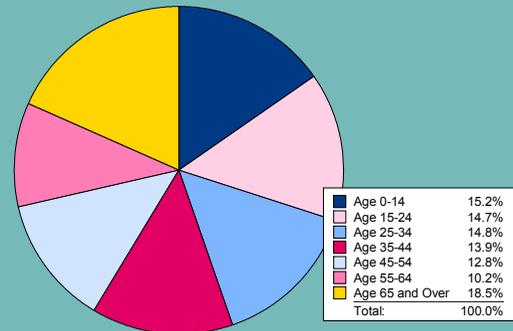

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 5,810 individuals lived in Greer County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Greer County had an estimated population density of 9.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Greer County, 57.1% of all residents were male and 42.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Greer

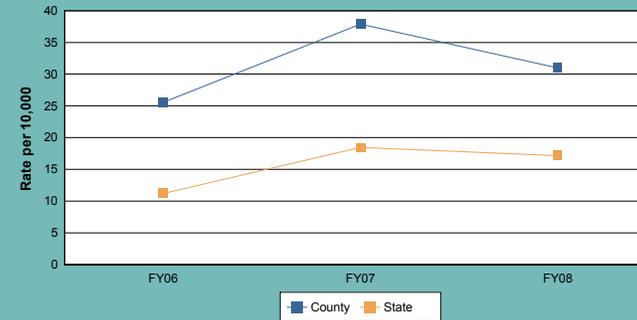

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Greer

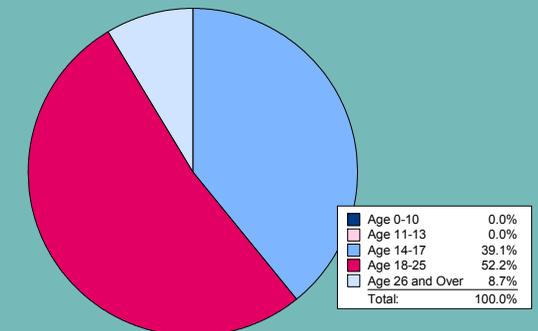

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Greer County ranked #15 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Greer County rate was 6.9 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Greer County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Heroin & Methamphetamine (Tie) was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Greer County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.8% (4.5%) of the Greer County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 7.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Greer

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Greer

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

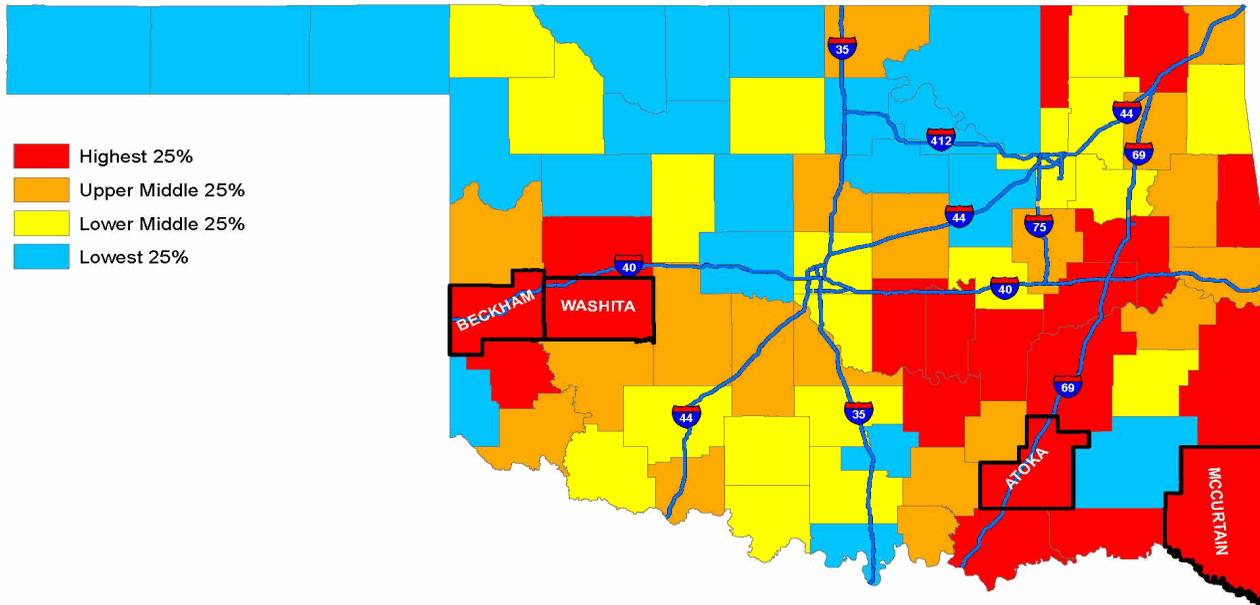

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Greer County residents over age 25, 76.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Greer County was $30,911 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Greer County living in poverty was 24.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Greer County was 61.3 (68.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Greer County was 6.6% (4.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Greer County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.7 (18.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Greer County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 48.2 (363.3), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Greer County was 4.3 (29.0) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Greer County during 2007 was 118.8 (91.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Greer County during 2007 was 39.6 (53.4), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Greer County during 2007 was 15.5 (12.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Greer County during 2007 was 13.8 (17.1), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

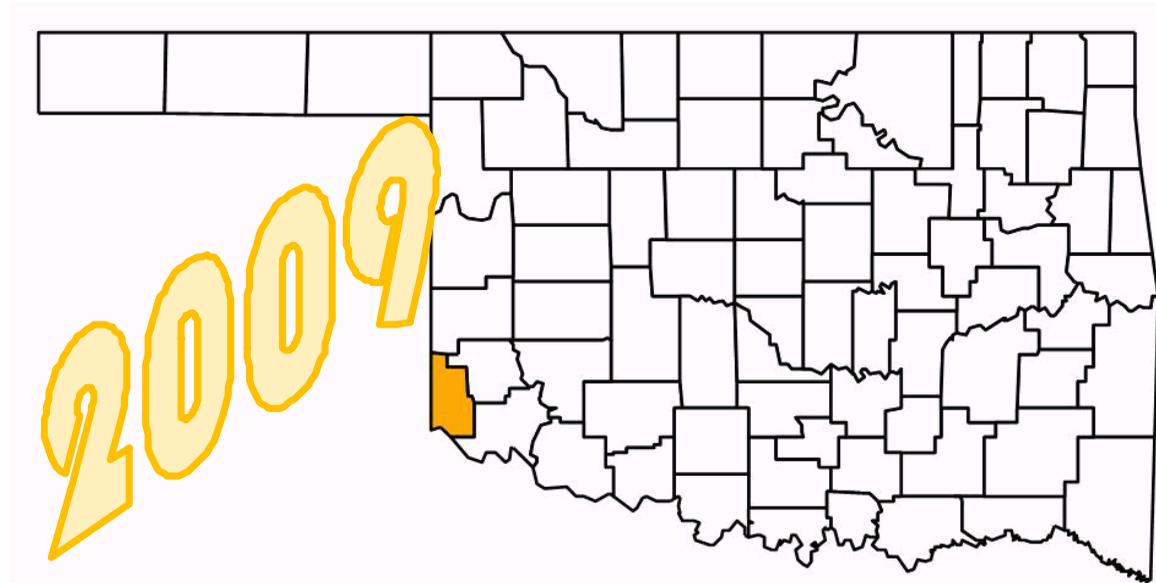

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Harmon County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Harmon County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

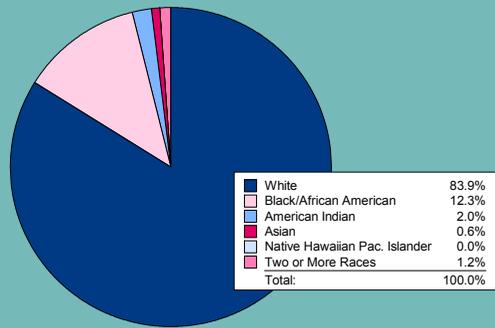

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

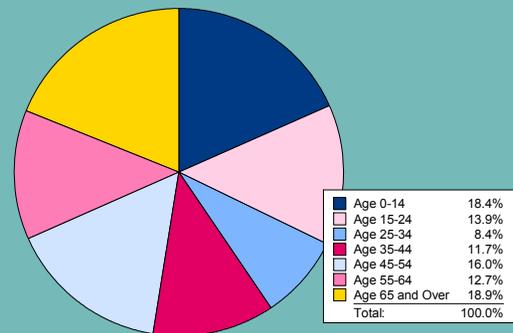

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 2,837 individuals lived in Harmon County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Harmon County had an estimated population density of 6.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Harmon County, 48.9% of all residents were male and 51.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Harmon

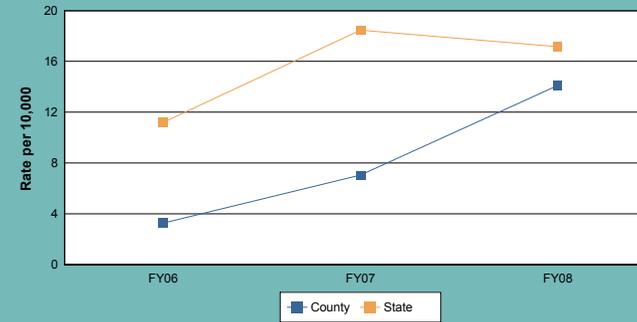

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Harmon

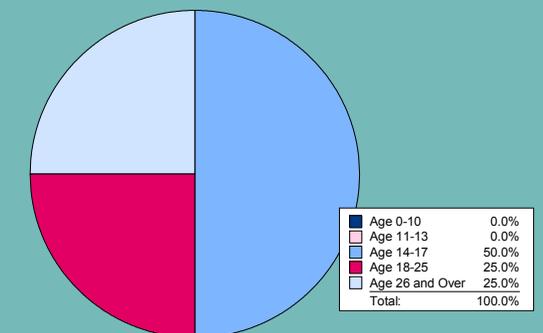

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Harmon County ranked #43 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Harmon County rate was 14.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Heroin/Other Opiates was the number one drug of choice among Harmon County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Harmon County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 0.0% (2.7%) of the Harmon County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 22.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Harmon

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Harmon

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

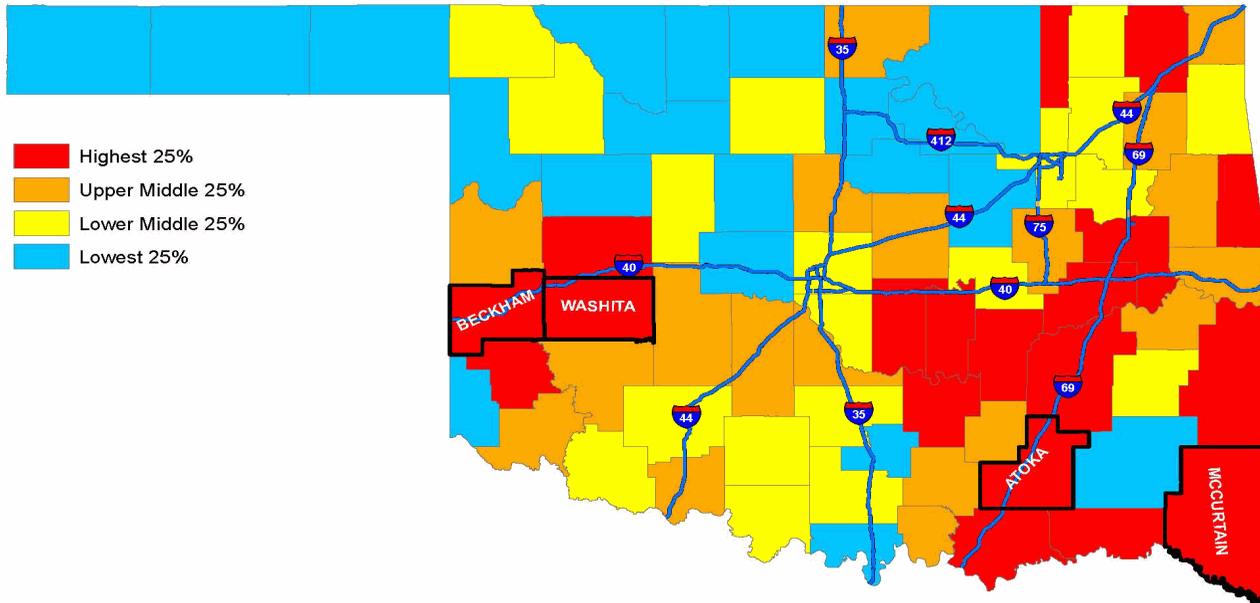

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Harmon County residents over age 25, 63.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Harmon County was $27,635 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Harmon County living in poverty was 27.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Harmon County was 63.3 (74.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Harmon County was 4.6% (3.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Harmon County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.5 (12.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Harmon County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 21.1 (51.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Harmon County was 4.6 (46.0) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Harmon County during 2007 was 56.4 (38.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Harmon County during 2007 was 24.7 (3.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Harmon County during 2007 was 10.6 (7.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Harmon County during 2007 was 3.5 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

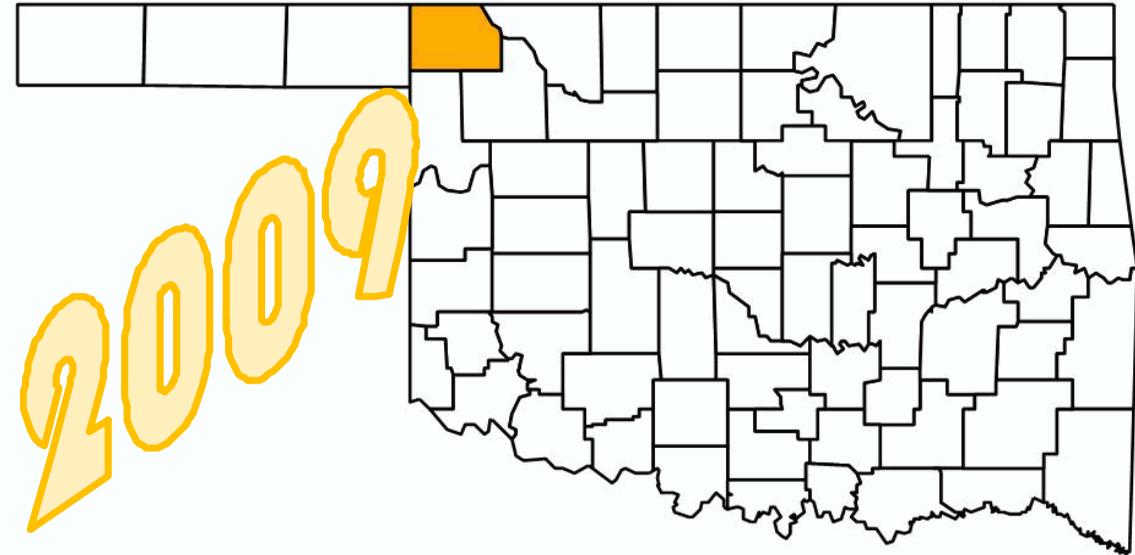

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Harper County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Harper County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

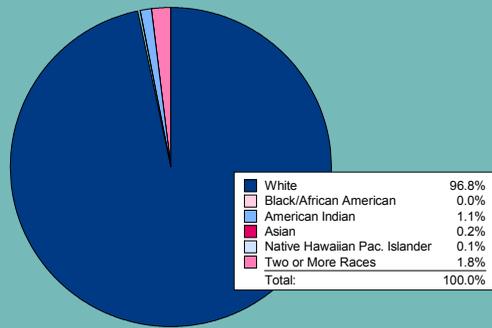

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

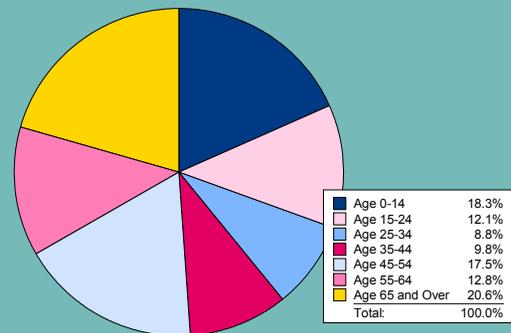

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 3,254 individuals lived in Harper County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Harper County had an estimated population density of 3.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Harper County, 49.1% of all residents were male and 50.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Harper

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Harper

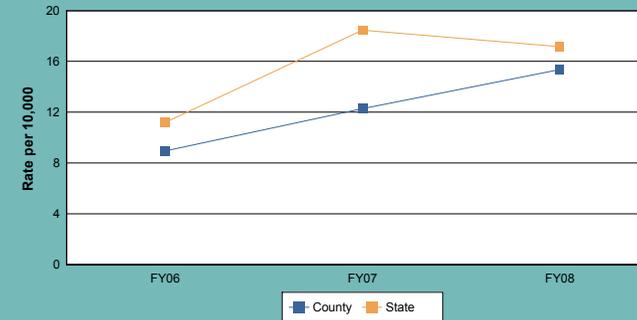

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Harper County ranked #64 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Harper County rate was 3.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Harper County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Harper County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.3% (0.0%) of the Harper County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 9.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

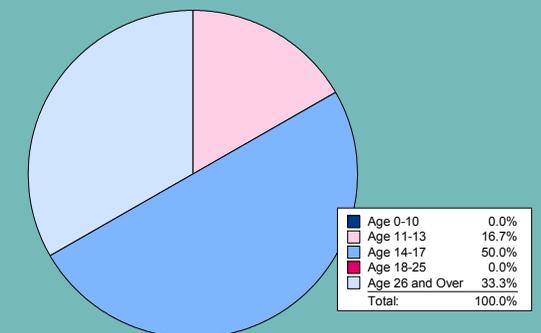

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Harper County residents over age 25, 82.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 19.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Harper County was $43,201 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Harper County living in poverty was 10.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Harper County was 39.5 (52.2) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Harper County was 3.1% (2.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Harper

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Harper

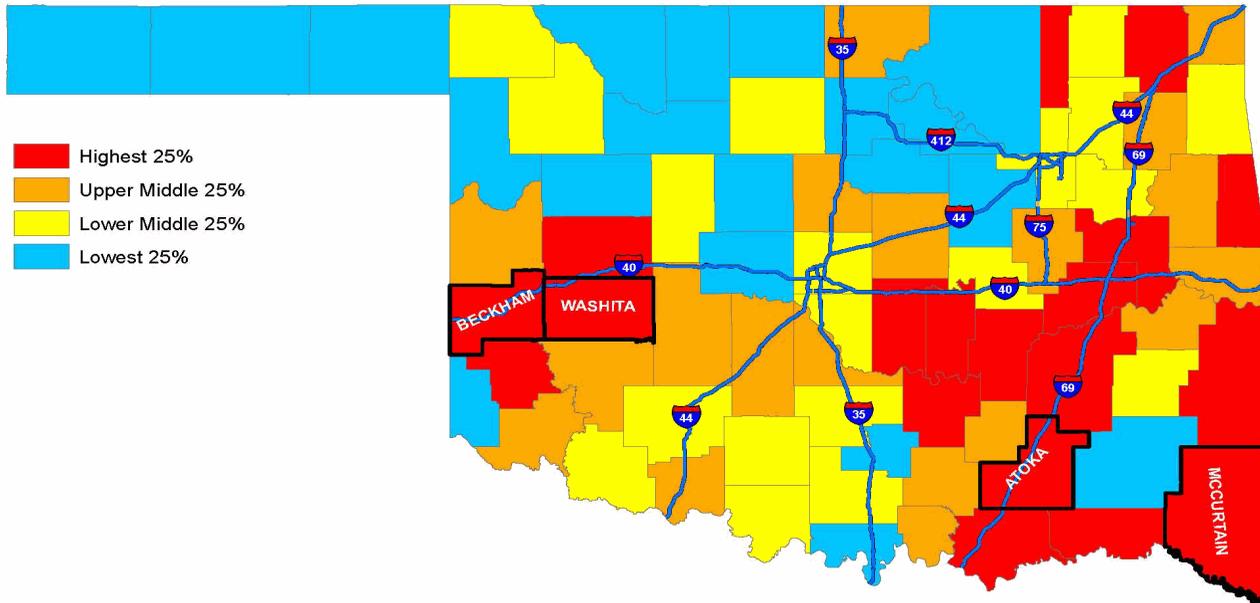

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Harper County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.1 (13.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Harper County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 0.0 (67.8), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Harper County was 5.8 (62.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Harper County during 2007 was 104.5 (79.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Harper County during 2007 was 55.3 (67.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Harper County during 2007 was 24.6 (3.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Harper County during 2007 was 0.0 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

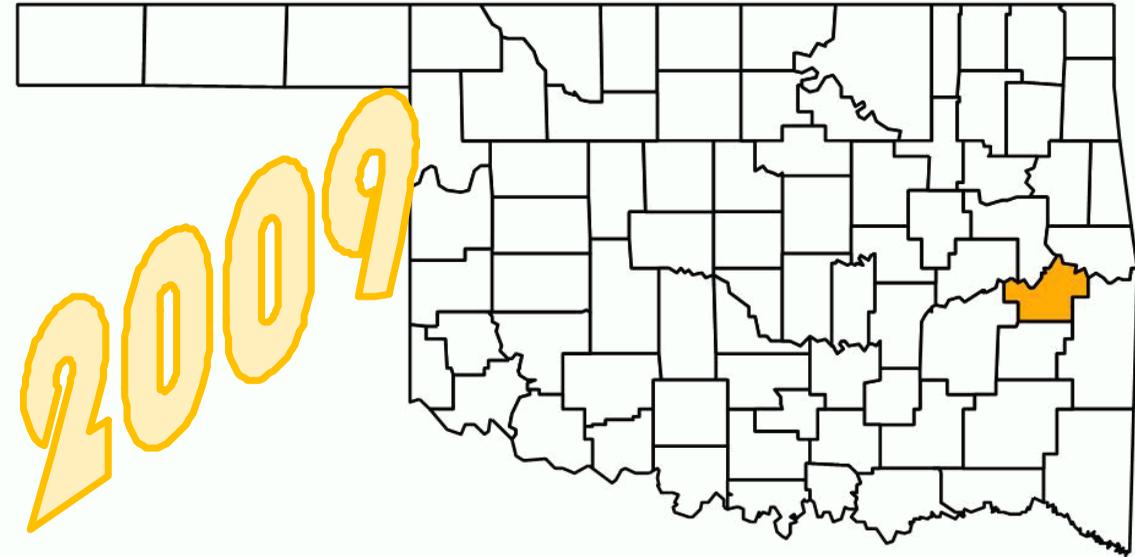

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Haskell County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Haskell County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

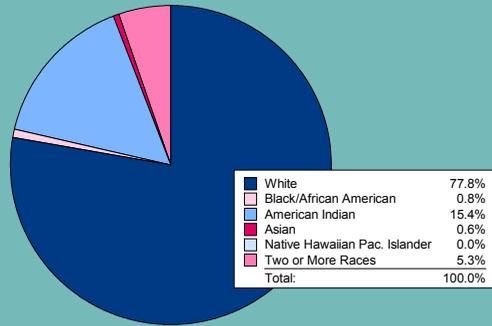

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

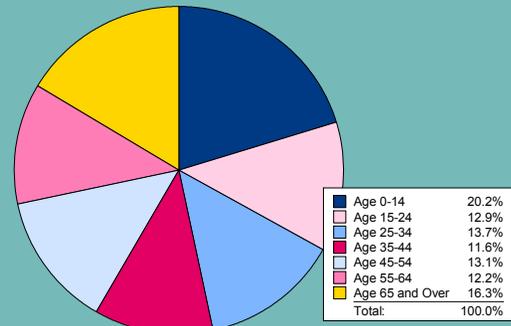

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 12,059 individuals lived in Haskell County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Haskell County had an estimated population density of 20.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Haskell County, 49.3% of all residents were male and 50.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Haskell

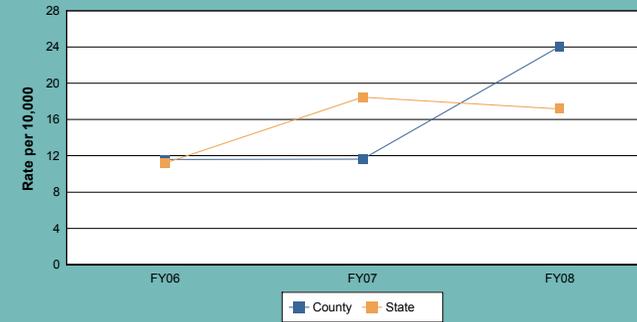

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Haskell

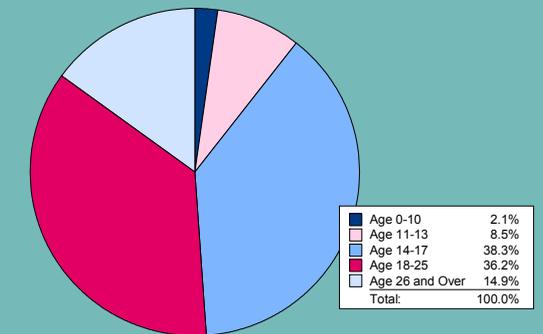

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Haskell County ranked #17 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Haskell County rate was 18.2 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol & Methamine (Tie) was the number one drug of choice among Haskell County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Haskell County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 13.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 0.8% (%) of the Haskell County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 17.7% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Haskell

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Haskell

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

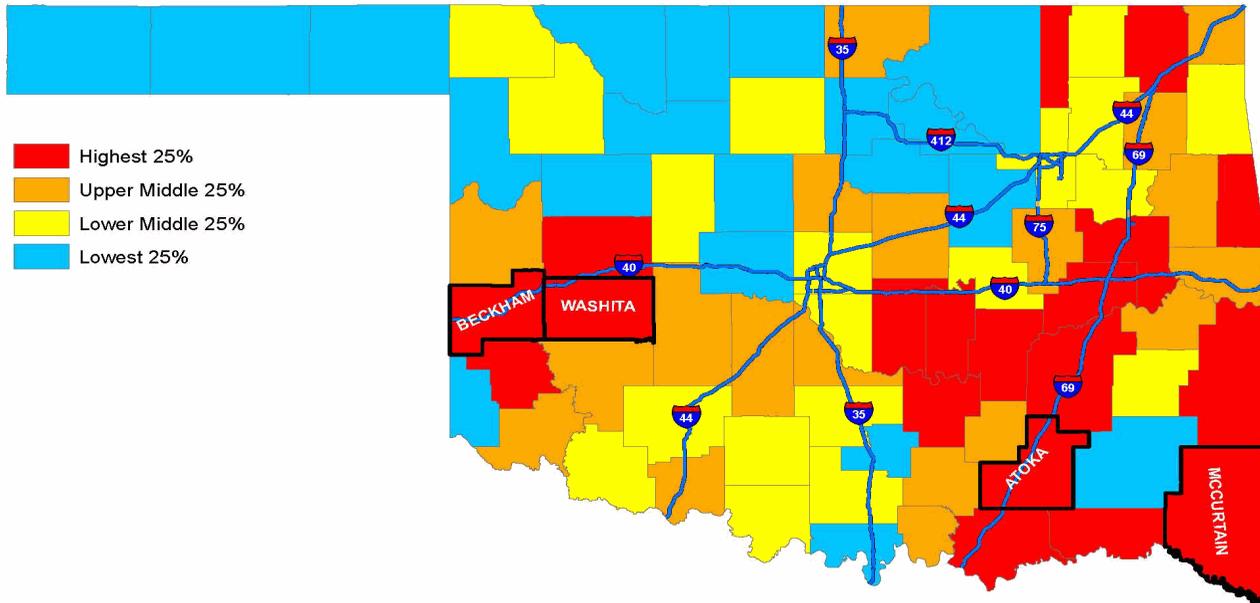

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Haskell County residents over age 25, 66.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.3% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Haskell County was $31,592 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Haskell County living in poverty was 16.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Haskell County was 74.1 (53.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Haskell County was 7.7% (4.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Haskell County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.3 (6.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Haskell County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 9.1 (118.5), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Haskell County was 6.9 (65.0) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Haskell County during 2007 was 150.9 (213.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Haskell County during 2007 was 72.1 (55.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Haskell County during 2007 was 51.4 (53.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Haskell County during 2007 was 31.5 (33.7), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

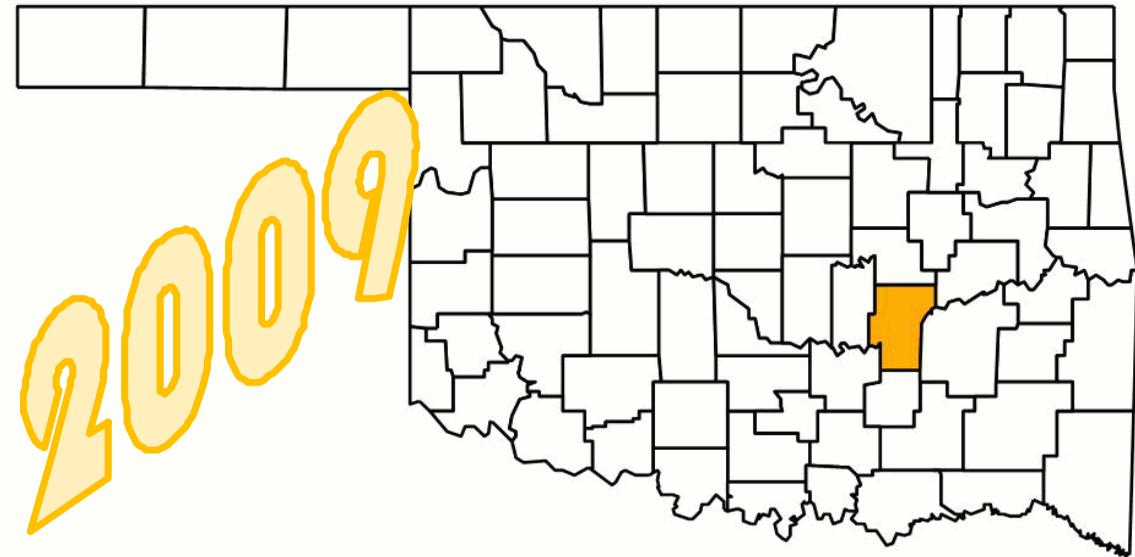

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Hughes County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Hughes County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

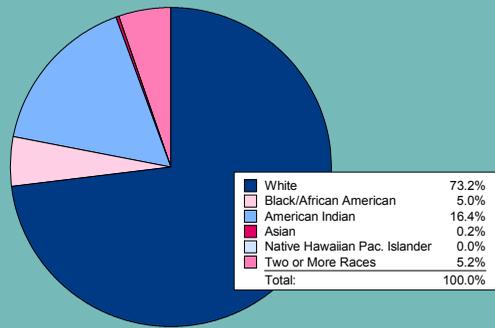

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

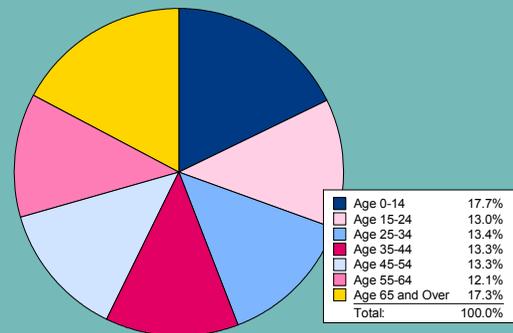

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 13,680 individuals lived in Hughes County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Hughes County had an estimated population density of 17.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Hughes County, 52.0% of all residents were male and 48.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Hughes

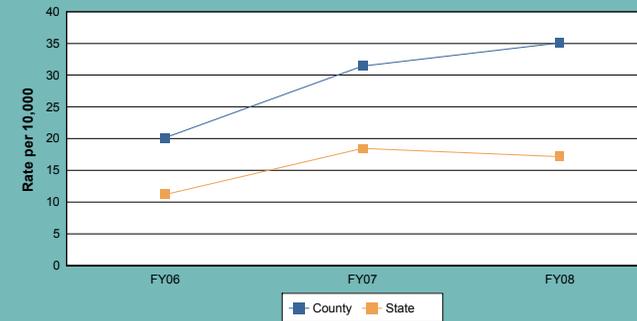

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Hughes

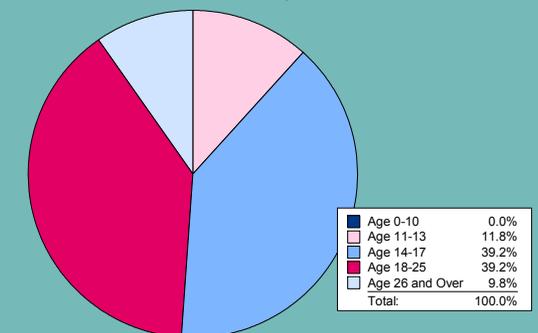

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Hughes County ranked #16 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Hughes County rate was 11.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Hughes County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Hughes County was 0.7 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.9% (2.1%) of the Hughes County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Hughes

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Hughes

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

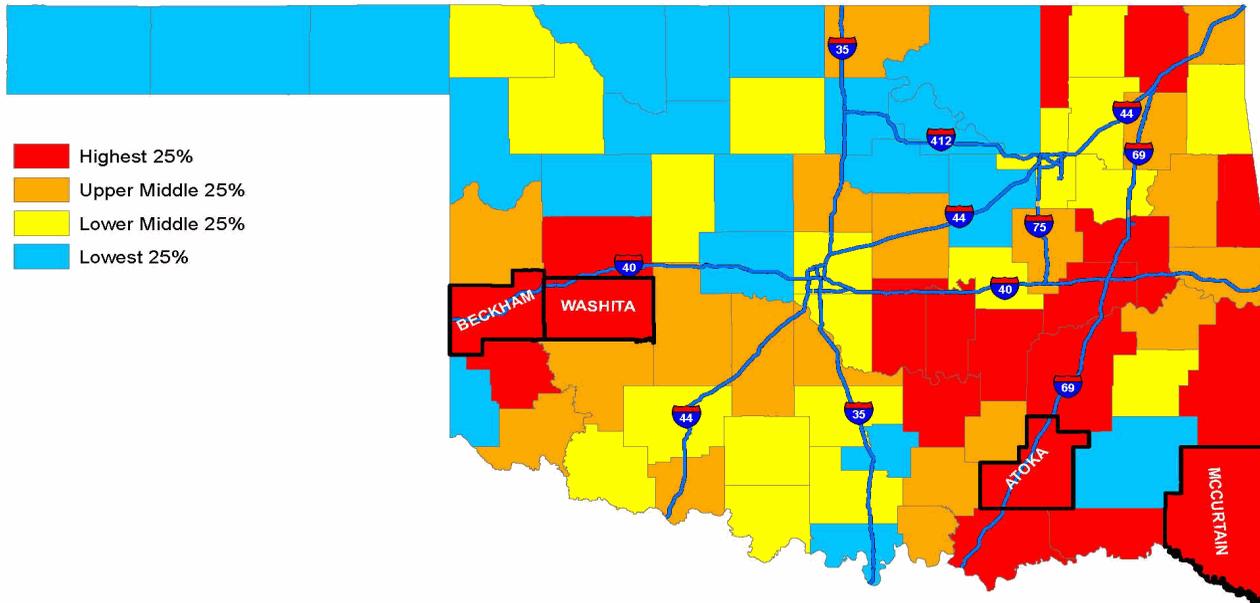

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Hughes County residents over age 25, 70.8% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 9.7% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Hughes County was $28,689 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Hughes County living in poverty was 25.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Hughes County was 49.2 (62.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Hughes County was 11.5% (6.5%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Hughes County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.2 (9.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Hughes County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 39.5 (277.5), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Hughes County was 5.3 (53.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Hughes County during 2007 was 91.4 (51.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Hughes County during 2007 was 26.3 (42.4), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Hughes County during 2007 was 35.8 (24.9) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Hughes County during 2007 was 10.2 (18.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

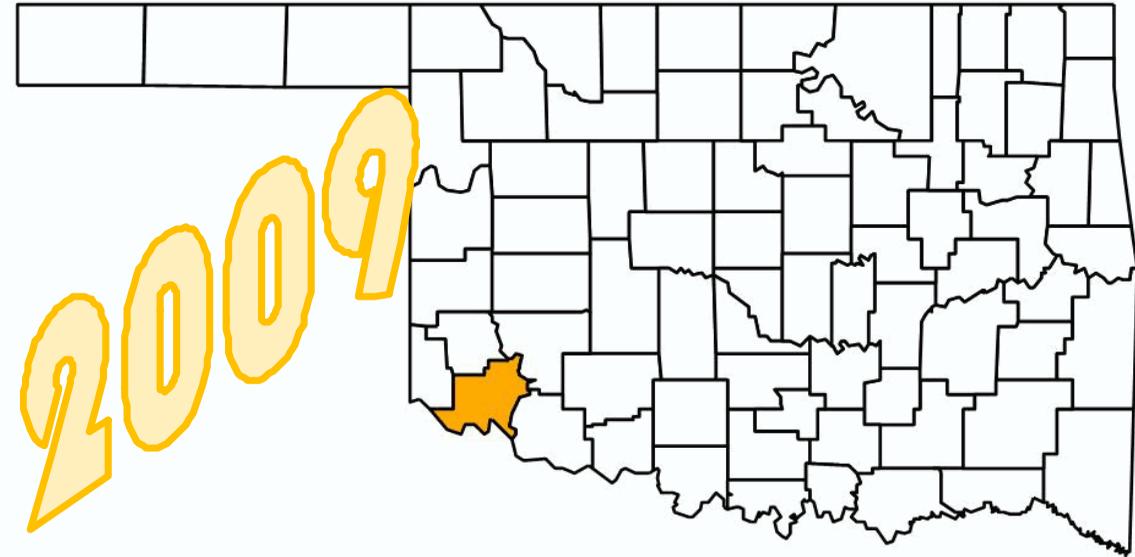

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Jackson County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Jackson County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

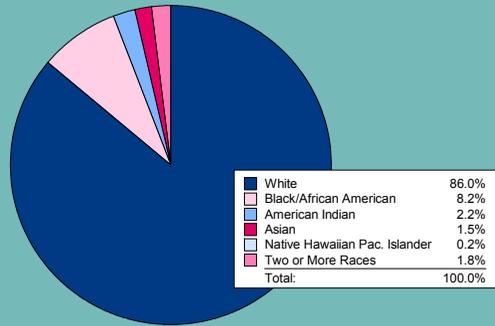

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

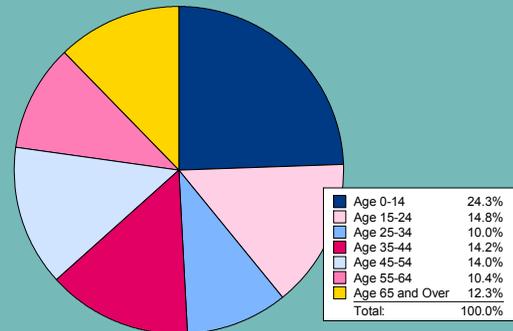

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 25,778 individuals lived in Jackson County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Jackson County had an estimated population density of 35.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Jackson County, 49.4% of all residents were male and 50.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Jackson

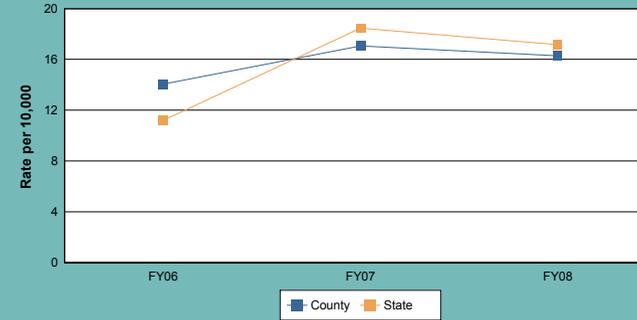

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Jackson

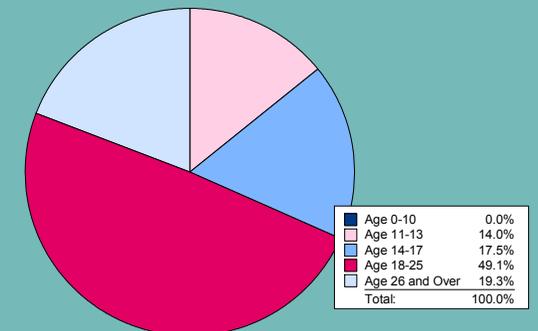

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Jackson County ranked #39 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Jackson County rate was 6.2 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Jackson County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Cocaine & Marijuana/Hashish (Tie) (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Jackson County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, % (2.2%) of the Jackson County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and % said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Jackson

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Jackson

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

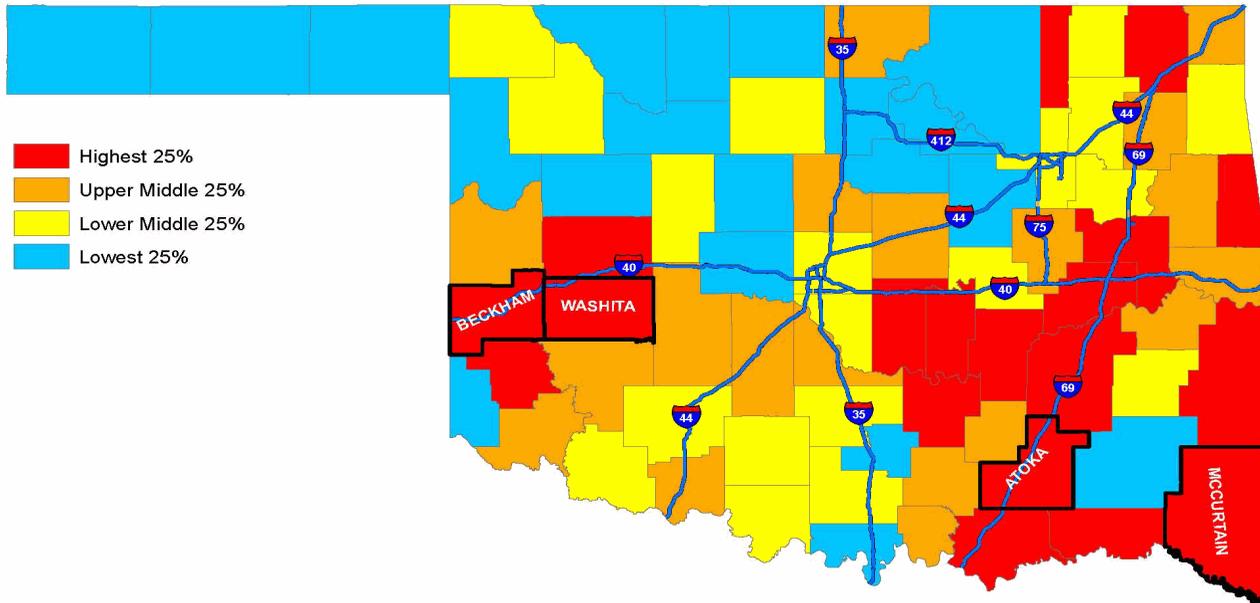

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Jackson County residents over age 25, 79.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 18.5% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Jackson County was $38,313 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Jackson County living in poverty was 17.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Jackson County was 54.7 (55.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Jackson County was 5.2% (3.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Jackson County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.9 (11.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Jackson County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 28.7 (198.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Jackson County was 5.2 (59.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Jackson County during 2007 was 104.7 (152.8), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Jackson County during 2007 was 52.4 (55.9), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Jackson County during 2007 was 45.8 (52.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Jackson County during 2007 was 21.3 (16.1), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

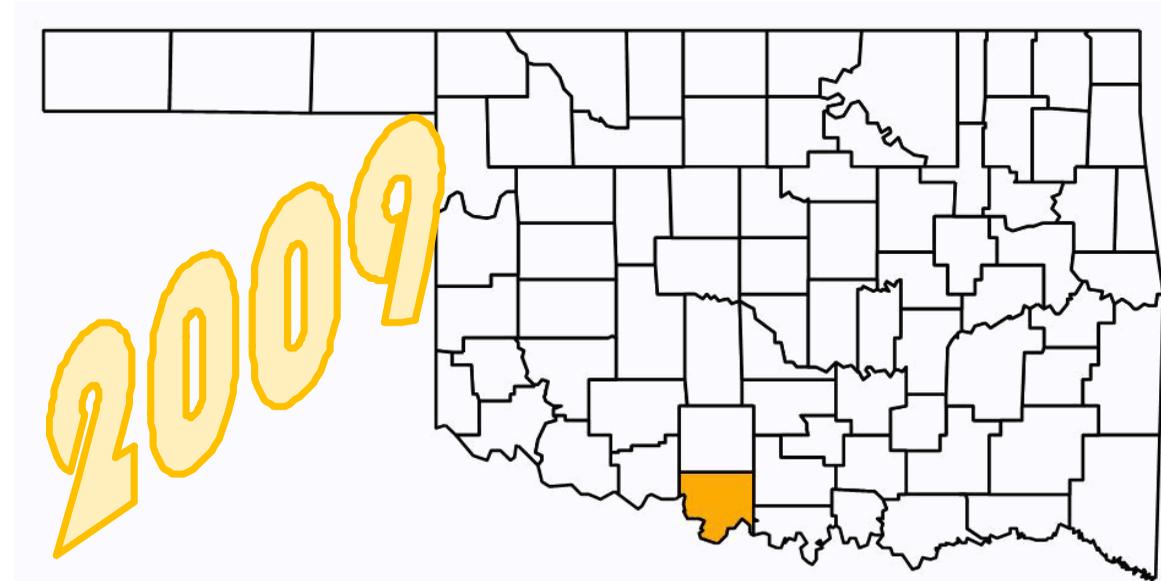

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Jefferson County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Jefferson County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

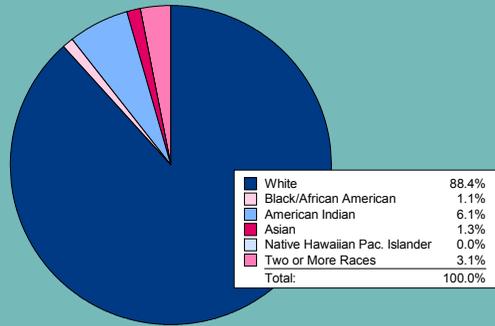

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

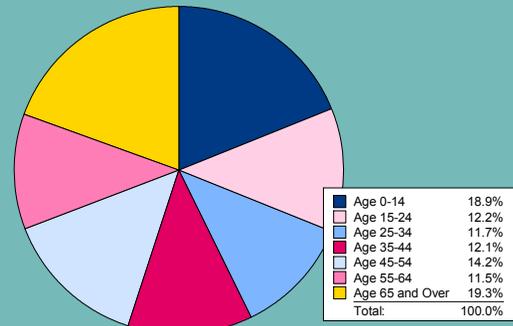

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 6,273 individuals lived in Jefferson County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Jefferson County had an estimated population density of 9.0 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Jefferson County, 48.9% of all residents were male and 51.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Jefferson

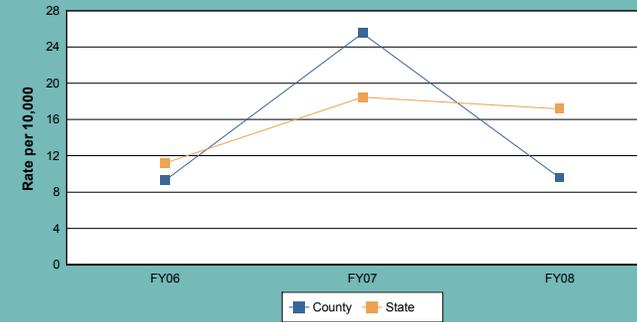

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Jefferson

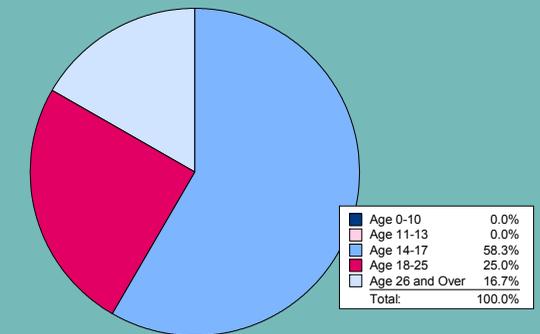

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Jefferson County ranked #51 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Jefferson County rate was 3.2 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Jefferson County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Heroin (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Jefferson County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 0.0% (3.5%) of the Jefferson County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 28.6% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Jefferson

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Jefferson

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

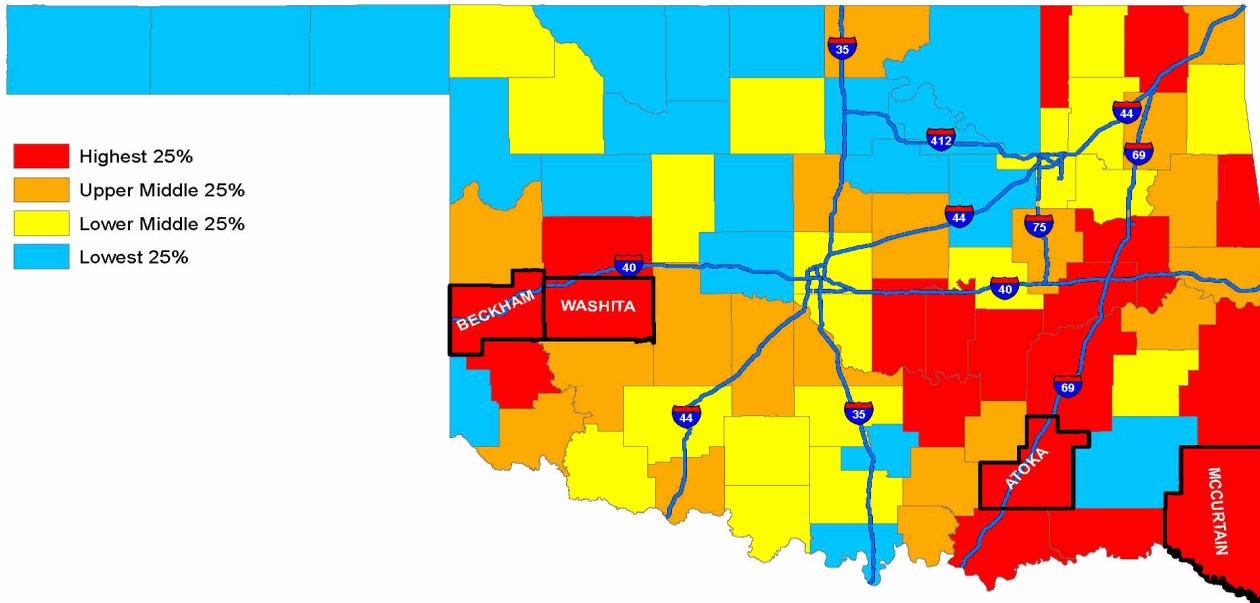

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Jefferson County residents over age 25, 69.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Jefferson County was $28,843 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Jefferson County living in poverty was 19.2%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Jefferson County was 65.9 (81.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Jefferson County was 7.6% (5.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Jefferson County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.0 (13.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Jefferson County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 8.0 (165.5), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Jefferson County was 6.4 (42.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Jefferson County during 2007 was 161.0 (148.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Jefferson County during 2007 was 62.2 (97.2), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Jefferson County during 2007 was 39.9 (20.7) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Jefferson County during 2007 was 15.9 (34.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

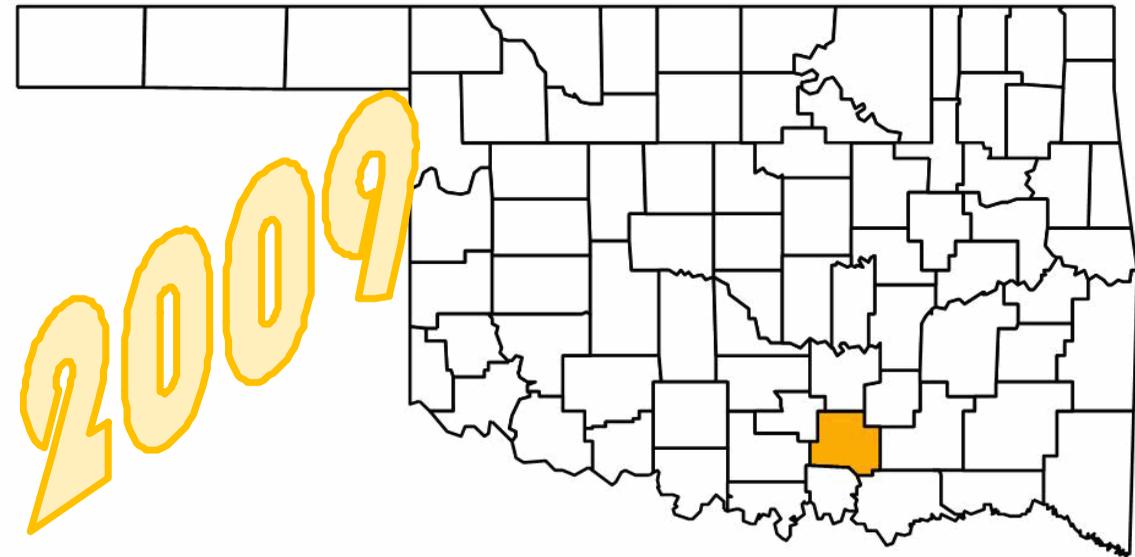

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Johnston County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Johnston County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

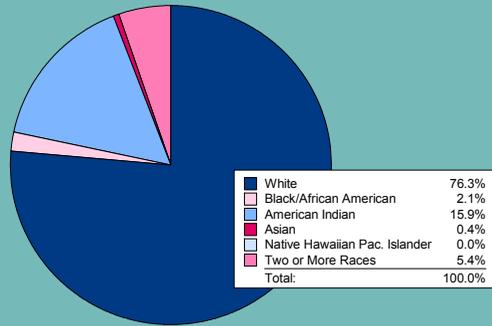

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

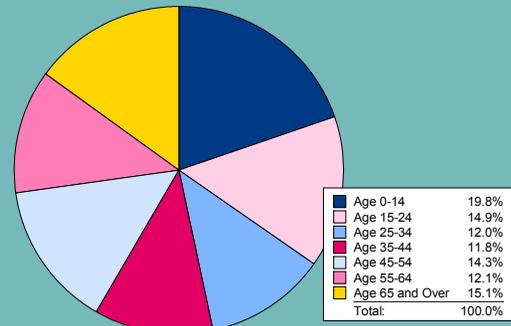

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 10,402 individuals lived in Johnston County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Johnston County had an estimated population density of 16.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Johnston County, 49.1% of all residents were male and 50.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Johnston

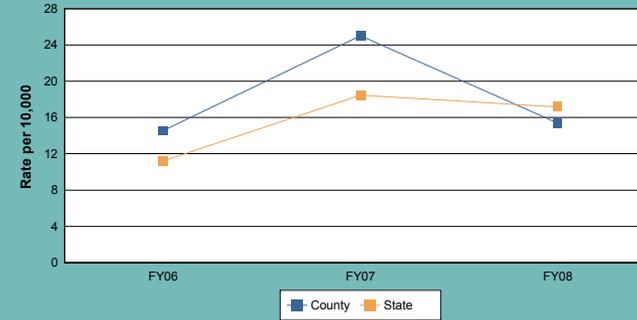

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Johnston

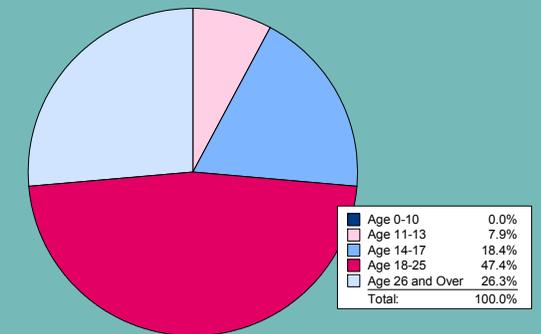

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Johnston County ranked #21 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Johnston County rate was 6.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Johnston County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Johnston County was 1.9 in 2008, compared to 1.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.6% (%) of the Johnston County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 10.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Johnston

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Johnston

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

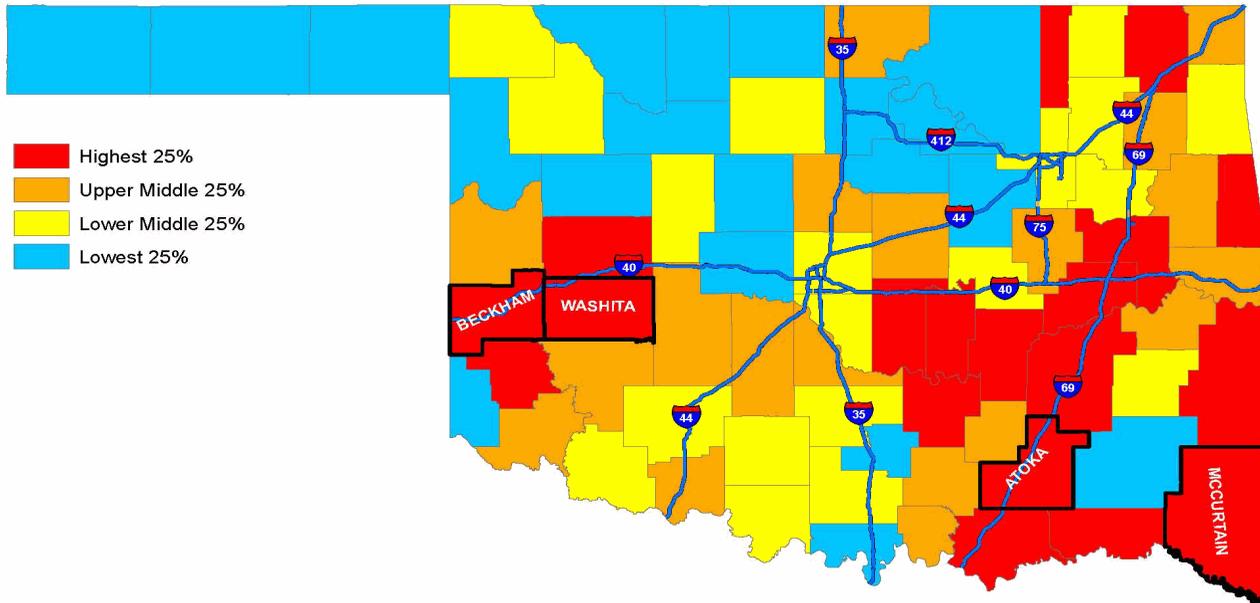

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Johnston County residents over age 25, 69.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 13.3% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Johnston County was $32,556 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Johnston County living in poverty was 19.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Johnston County was 51.5 (59.6) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Johnston County was 8.4% (4.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Johnston County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.8 (40.1), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Johnston County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 55.8 (345.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Johnston County was 5.7 (64.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Johnston County during 2007 was 180.7 (250.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Johnston County during 2007 was 133.6 (110.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Johnston County during 2007 was 37.5 (37.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Johnston County during 2007 was 26.0 (26.8), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

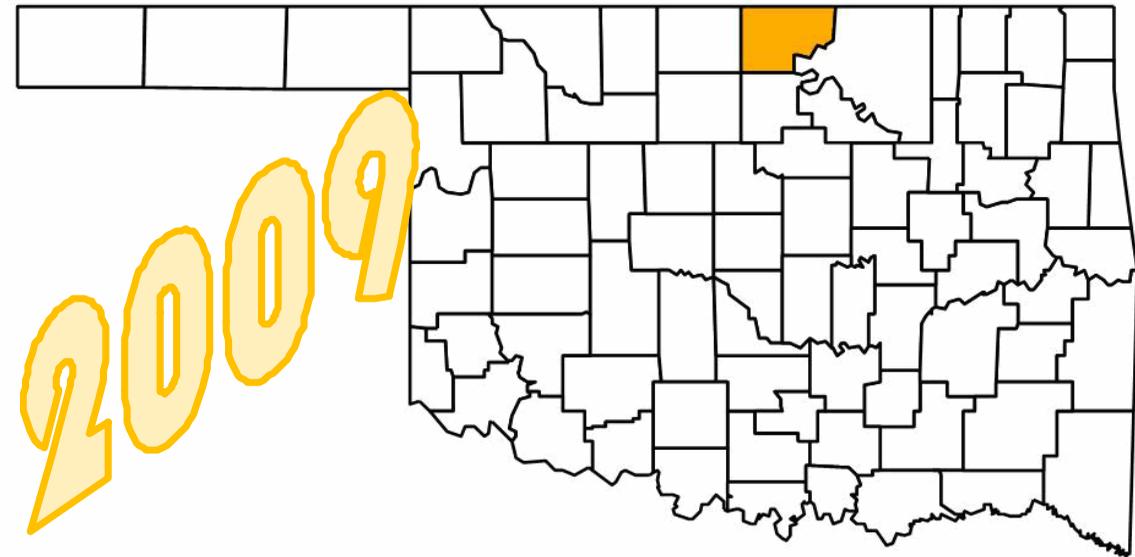

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Kay County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Kay County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

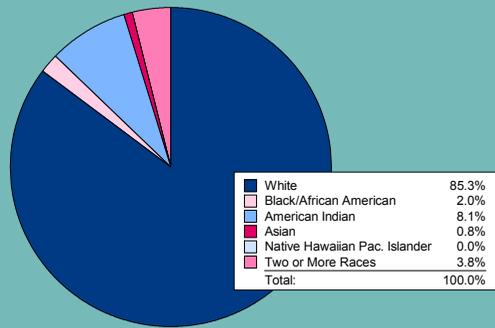

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

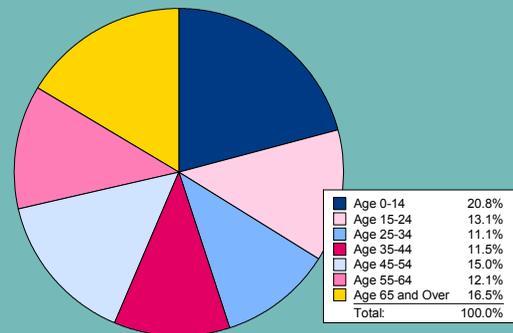

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 45,638 individuals lived in Kay County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Kay County had an estimated population density of 52.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Kay County, 48.7% of all residents were male and 51.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Kay

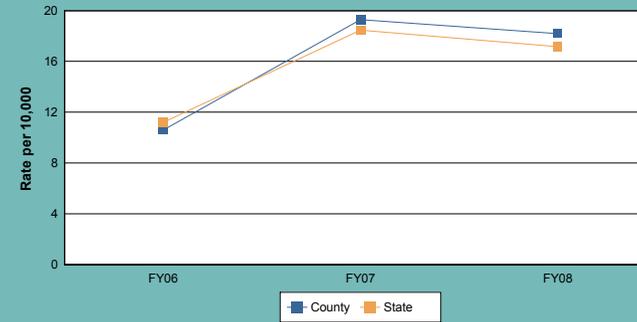

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Kay

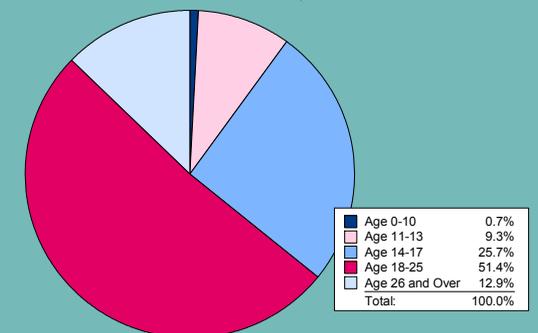

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Kay County ranked #32 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Kay County rate was 9.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Kay County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Kay County was 0.9 in 2008, compared to 2.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.0% (2.2%) of the Kay County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Kay

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Kay

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

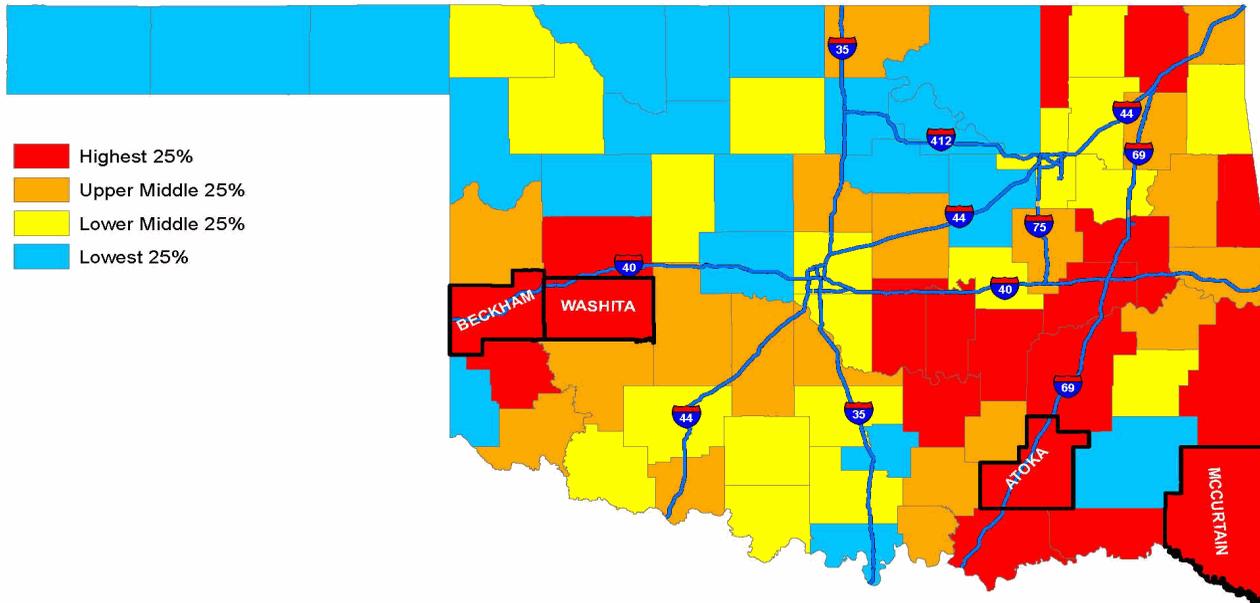

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Kay County residents over age 25, 80.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 18.3% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Kay County was $38,080 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Kay County living in poverty was 18.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Kay County was 39.9 (37.5) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Kay County was 6.5% (4.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Kay County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.4 (40.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Kay County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 51.9 (238.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Kay County was 6.0 (60.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Kay County during 2007 was 232.3 (264.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Kay County during 2007 was 68.8 (61.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Kay County during 2007 was 75.8 (71.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Kay County during 2007 was 10.7 (10.7), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

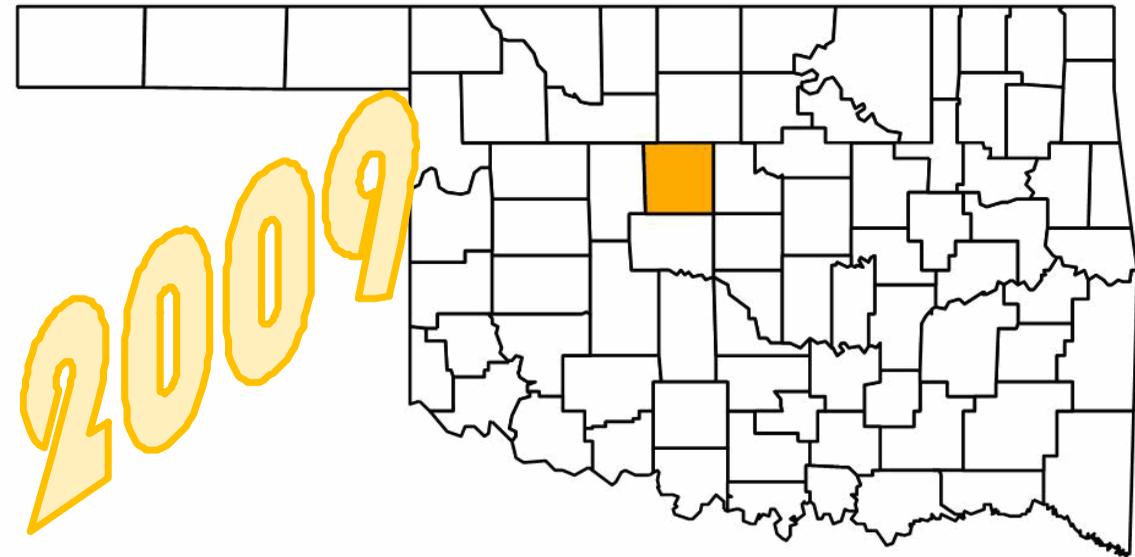

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Kingfisher County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Kingfisher County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

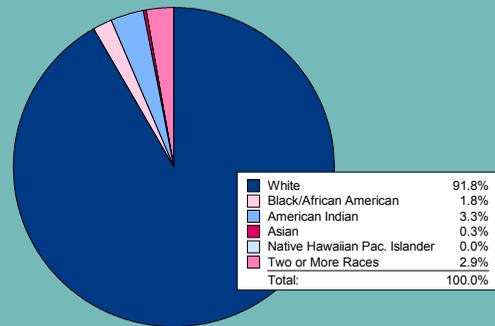

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

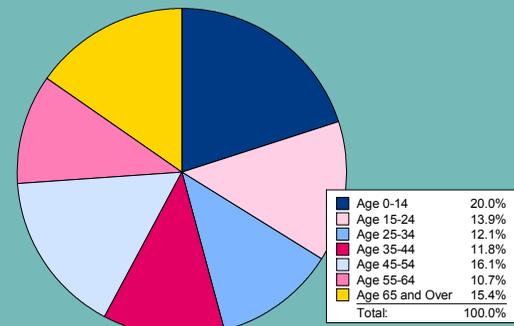

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 14,320 individuals lived in Kingfisher County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Kingfisher County had an estimated population density of 15.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Kingfisher County, 49.0% of all residents were male and 51.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Kingfisher

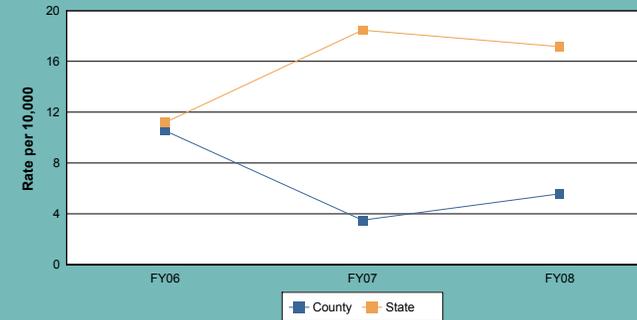

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Kingfisher

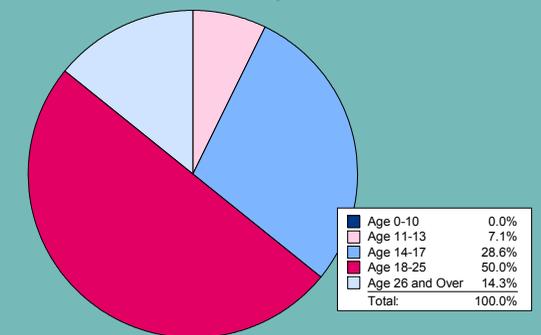

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Kingfisher County ranked #57 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Kingfisher County rate was 2.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Kingfisher County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Heroin (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Kingfisher County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.0% (2.1%) of the Kingfisher County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 11.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Kingfisher

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Kingfisher

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

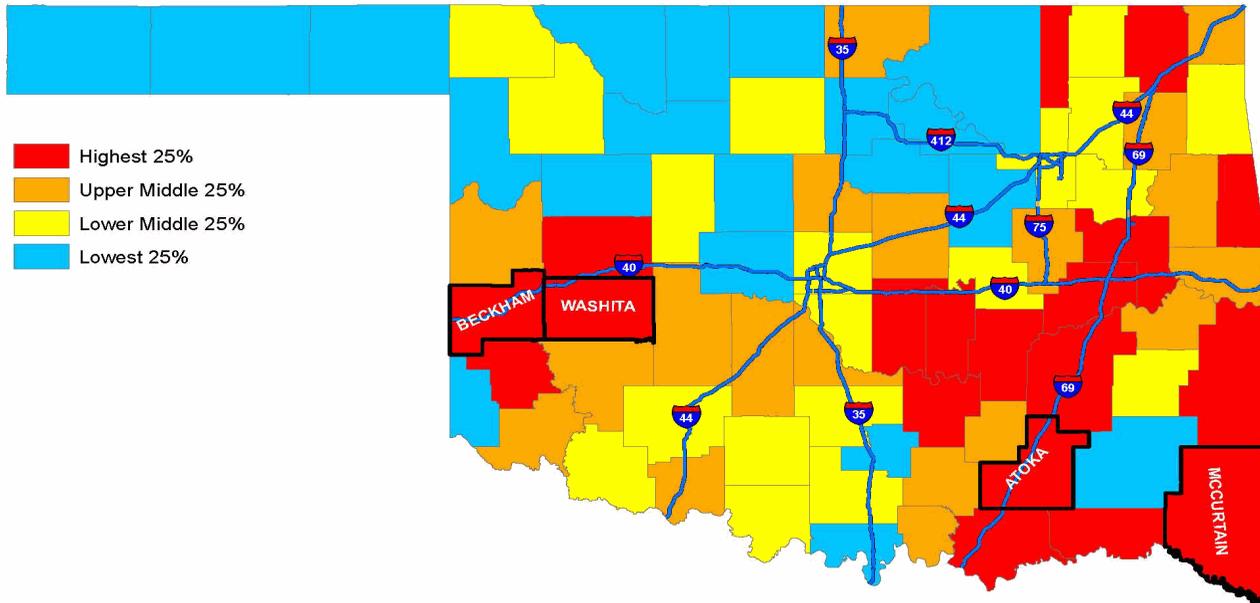

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Kingfisher County residents over age 25, 81.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 16.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Kingfisher County was $49,242 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Kingfisher County living in poverty was 10.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Kingfisher County was 25.2 (27.2) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Kingfisher County was 3.3% (2.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Kingfisher County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.1 (0.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Kingfisher County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 15.4 (71.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Kingfisher County was 3.5 (30.0) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Kingfisher County during 2007 was 92.9 (61.5), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Kingfisher County during 2007 was 37.0 (62.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Kingfisher County during 2007 was 11.9 (7.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Kingfisher County during 2007 was 14.0 (13.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

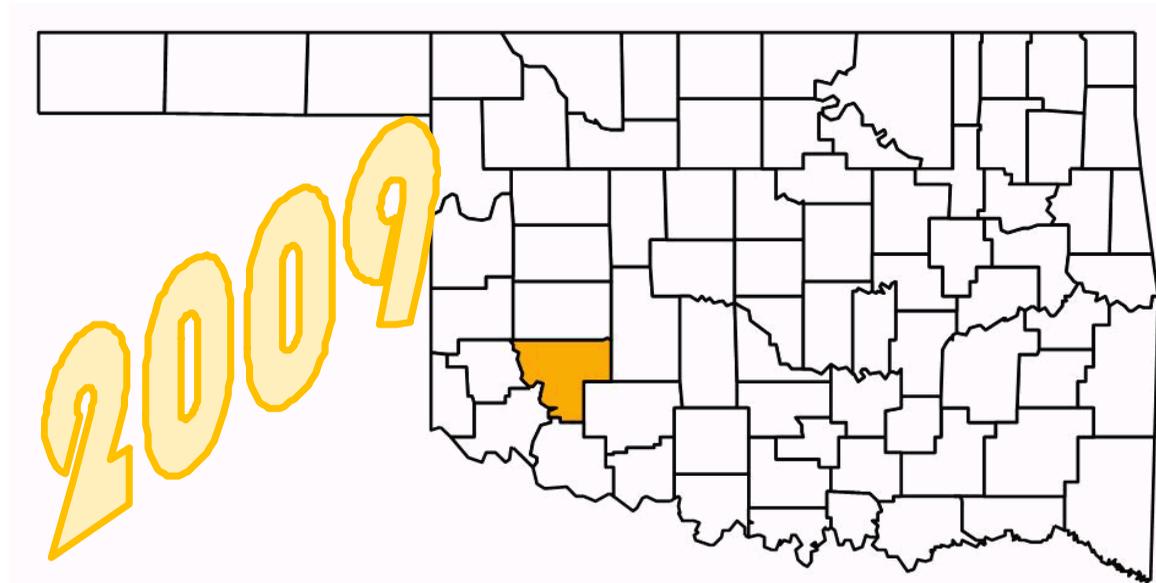

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Kiowa County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Kiowa County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

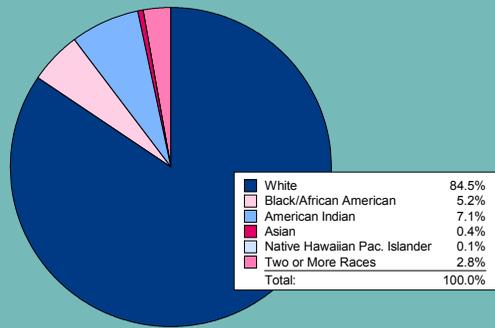

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

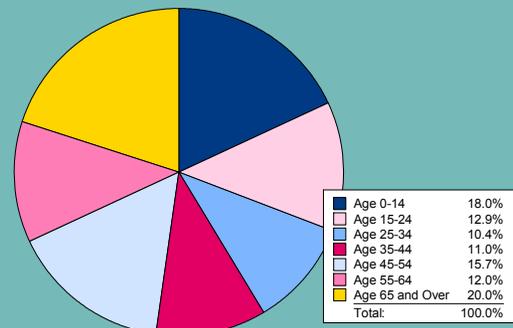

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 9,456 individuals lived in Kiowa County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Kiowa County had an estimated population density of 10.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Kiowa County, 49.3% of all residents were male and 50.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Kiowa

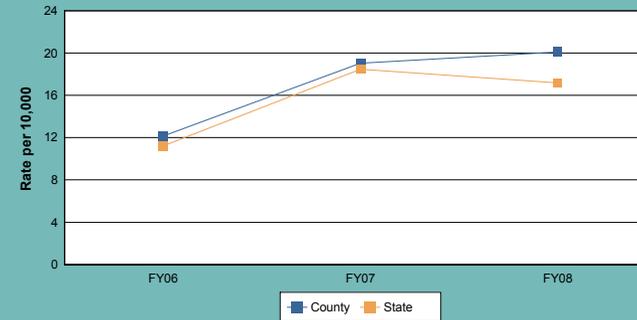

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Kiowa

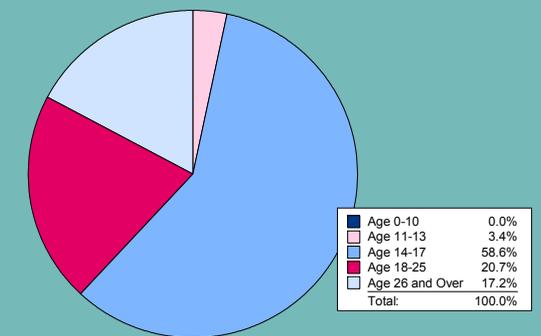

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Kiowa County ranked #34 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Kiowa County rate was 10.6 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Kiowa County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Kiowa County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 2.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.3% (%) of the Kiowa County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 17.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Kiowa

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Kiowa

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

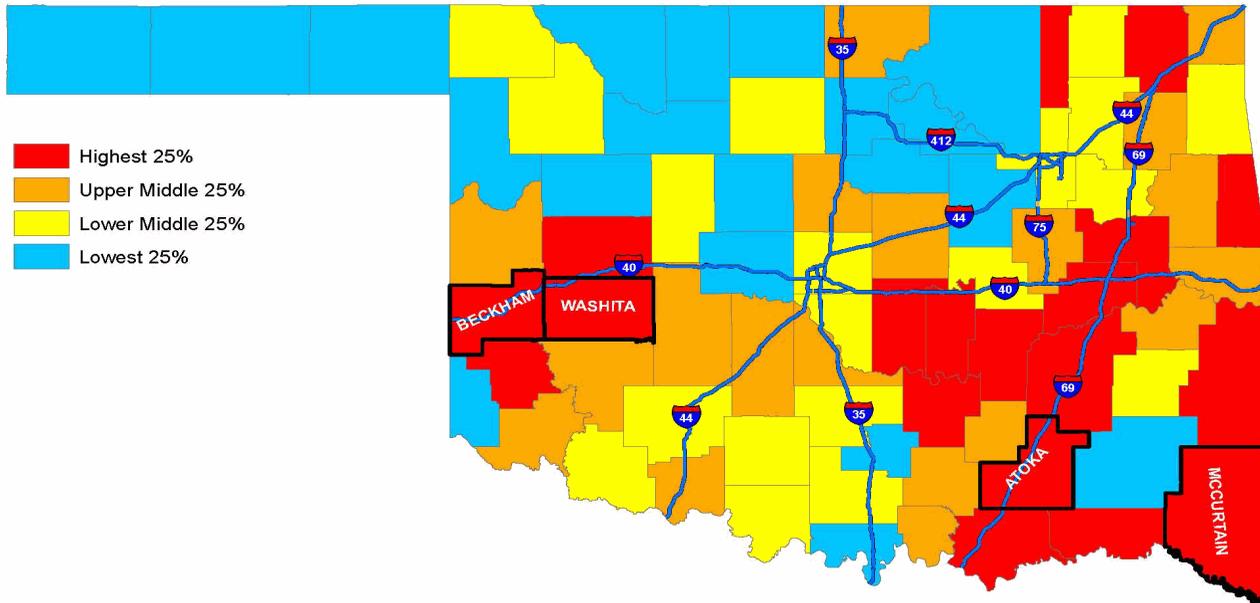

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Kiowa County residents over age 25, 77.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Kiowa County was $31,731 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Kiowa County living in poverty was 20.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Kiowa County was 85.1 (87.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Kiowa County was 6.3% (4.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Kiowa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 5.3 (13.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Kiowa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 25.4 (156.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Kiowa County was 5.7 (53.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Kiowa County during 2007 was 133.2 (148.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Kiowa County during 2007 was 24.3 (79.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Kiowa County during 2007 was 25.4 (60.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Kiowa County during 2007 was 9.5 (25.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

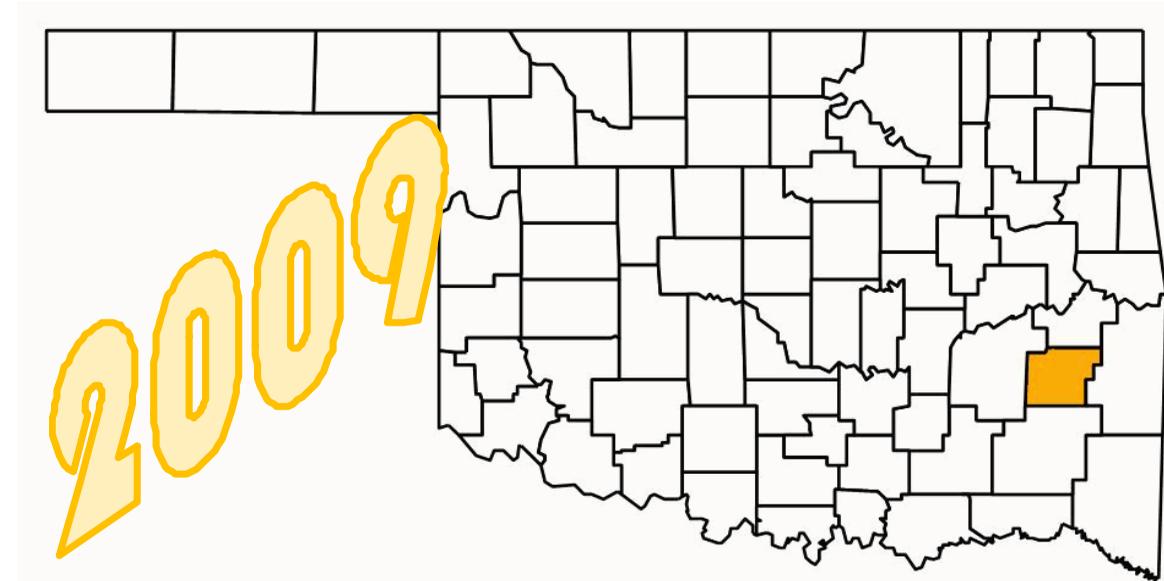

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Latimer County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Latimer County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

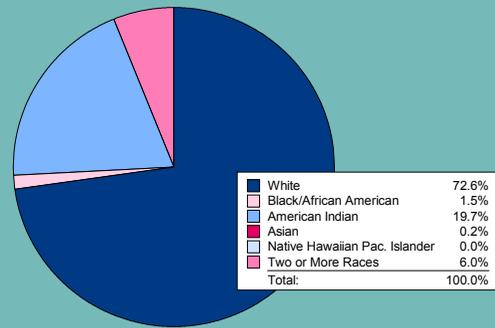

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

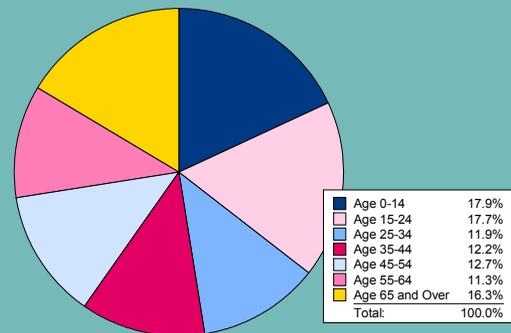

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 10,508 individuals lived in Latimer County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Latimer County had an estimated population density of 14.8 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Latimer County, 49.6% of all residents were male and 50.4% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Latimer

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Latimer

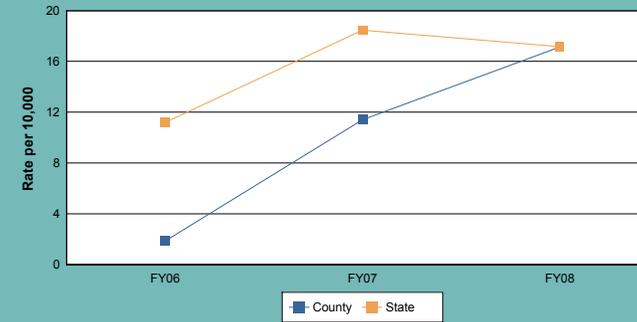

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Latimer County ranked #62 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Latimer County rate was 6.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Latimer County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish & Methamphetamine (Tie) was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Latimer County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 2.8 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 0.0% (%) of the Latimer County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 12.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

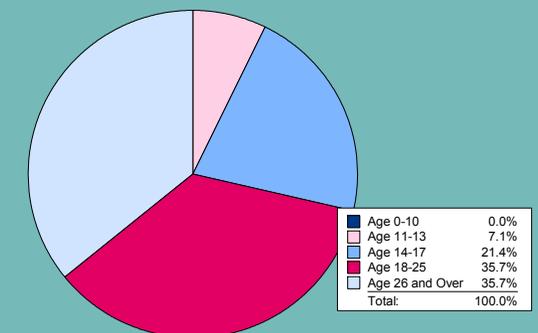

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Latimer County residents over age 25, 73.8% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.0% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Latimer County was $34,060 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Latimer County living in poverty was 18.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Latimer County was 36.0 (37.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Latimer County was 8.4% (5.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Latimer

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Latimer

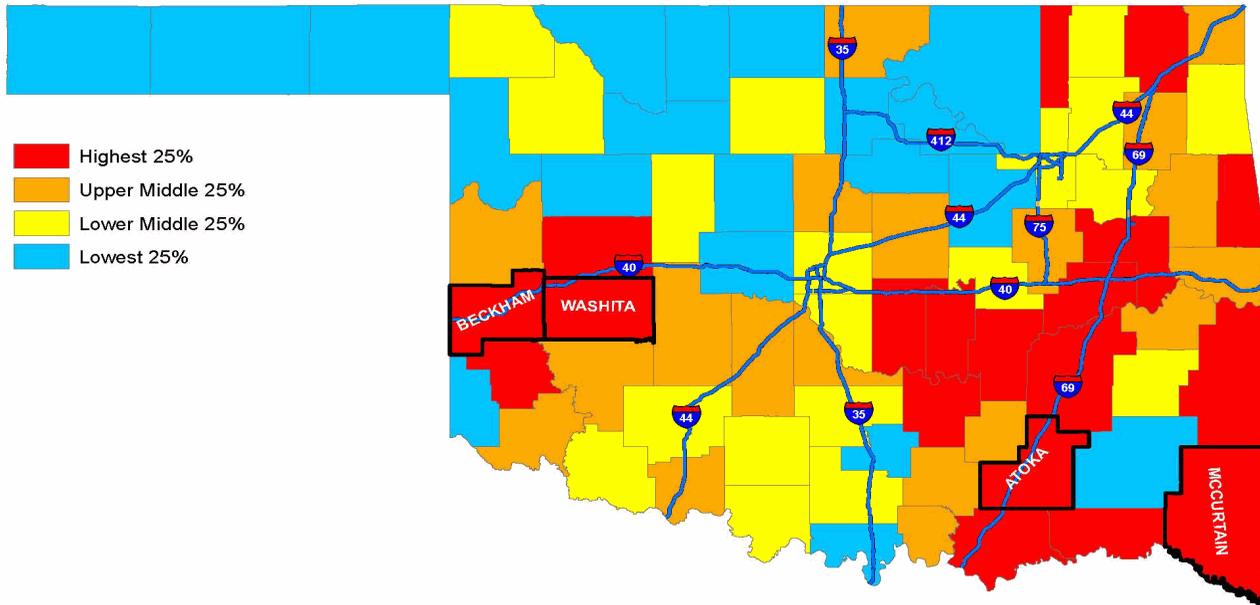

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Latimer County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.9 (24.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Latimer County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 20.9 (172.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Latimer County was 7.6 (61.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Latimer County during 2007 was 14.3 (75.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Latimer County during 2007 was 14.3 (20.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Latimer County during 2007 was 8.6 (23.8) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Latimer County during 2007 was 0.0 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

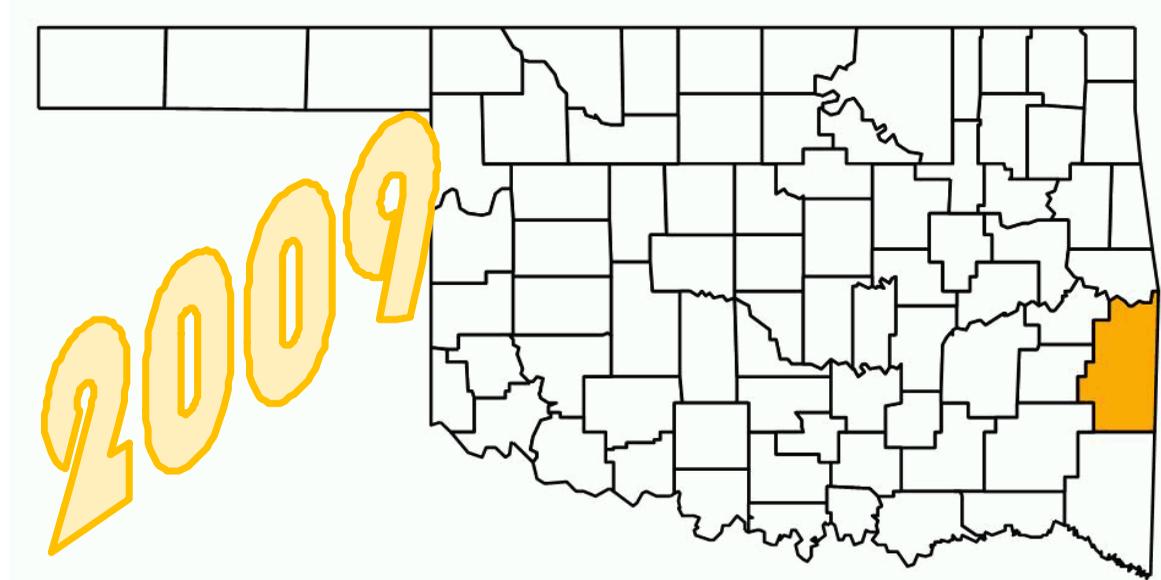

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:
Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

LeFlore County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

LeFlore County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

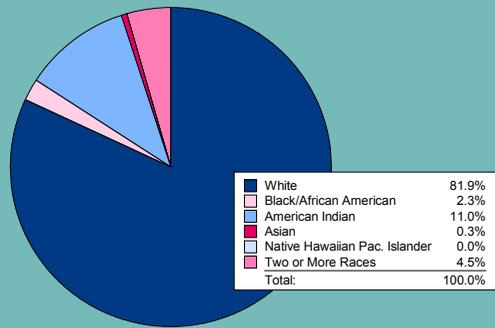

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

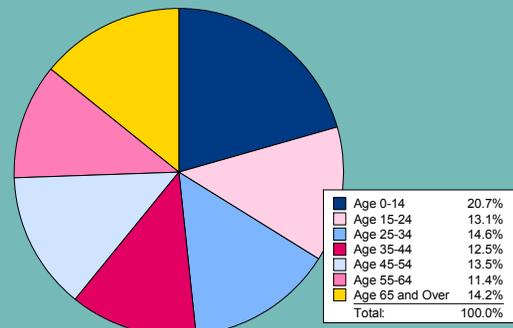

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 49,715 individuals lived in LeFlore County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- LeFlore County had an estimated population density of 30.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In LeFlore County, 50.3% of all residents were male and 49.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For LeFlore

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For LeFlore

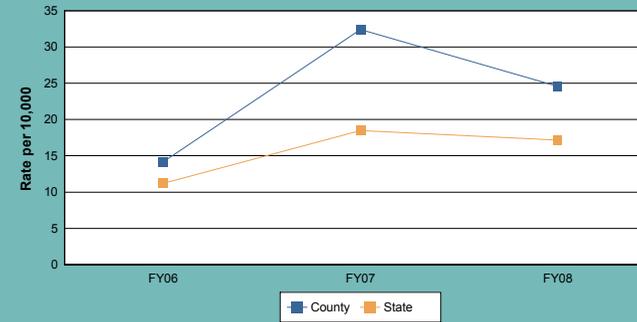

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- LeFlore County ranked #29 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The LeFlore County rate was 4.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among LeFlore County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for LeFlore County was 1.2 in 2008, compared to 7.6 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.8% (2.8%) of the LeFlore County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

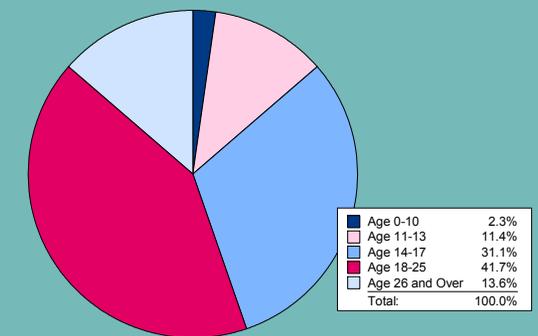

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among LeFlore County residents over age 25, 70.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 11.3% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in LeFlore County was $33,925 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in LeFlore County living in poverty was 21.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in LeFlore County was 35.9 (43.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for LeFlore County was 10.5% (5.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For LeFlore

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For LeFlore

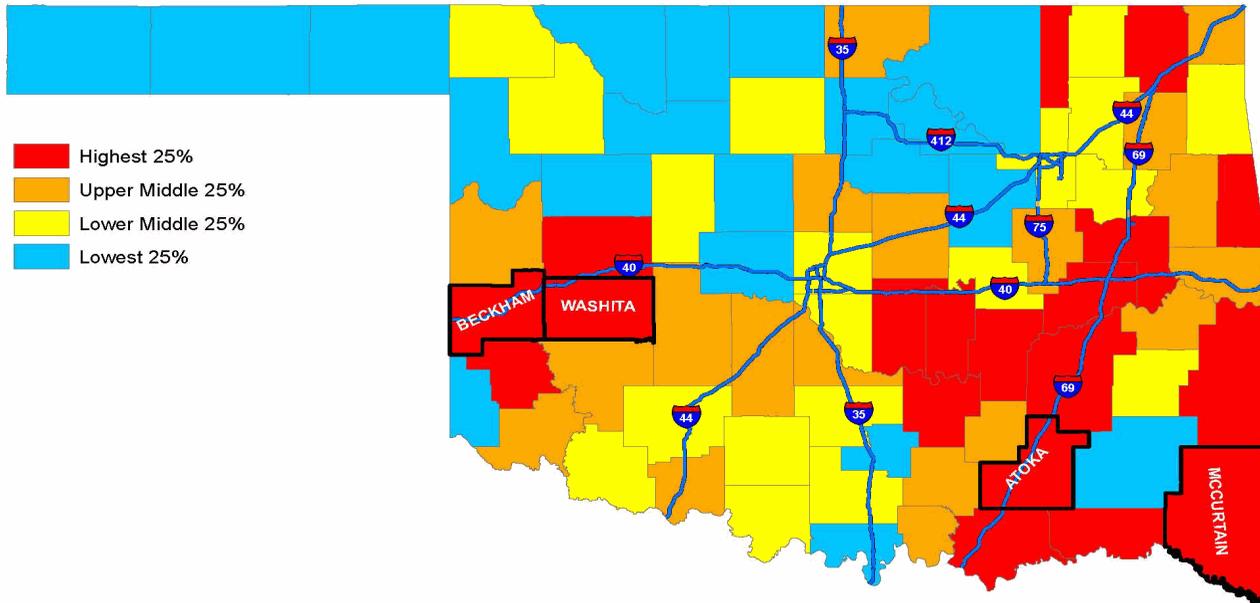

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in LeFlore County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.0 (19.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in LeFlore County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 27.2 (112.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in LeFlore County was 6.7 (75.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for LeFlore County during 2007 was 115.3 (72.4), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for LeFlore County during 2007 was 32.0 (30.4), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for LeFlore County during 2007 was 22.3 (19.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for LeFlore County during 2007 was 4.2 (2.8), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

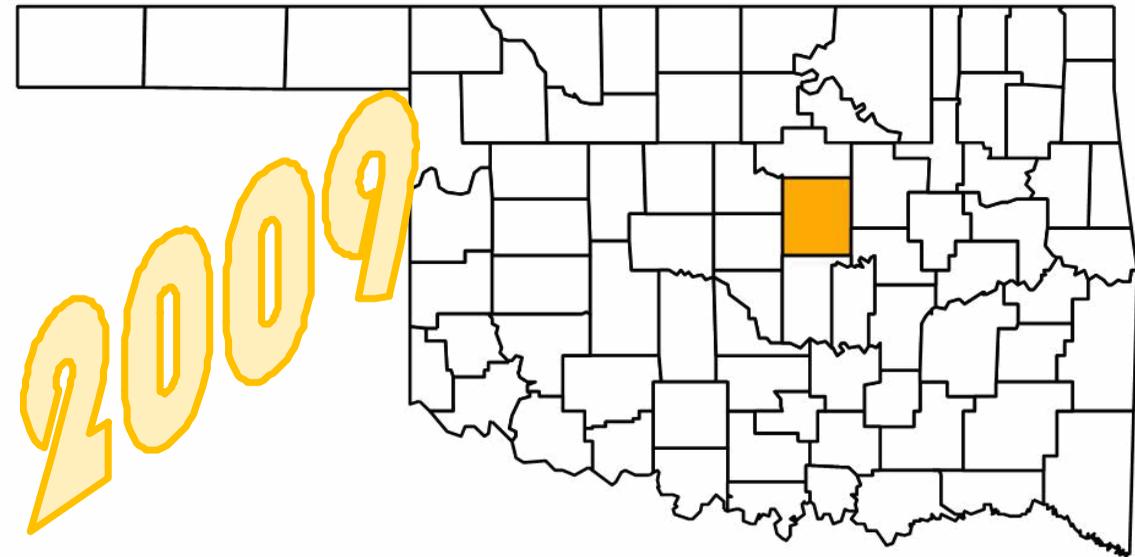

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Lincoln County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Lincoln County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

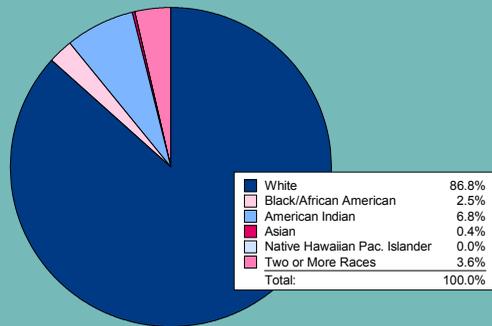

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

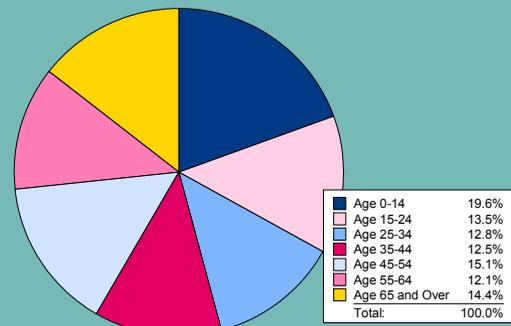

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 32,272 individuals lived in Lincoln County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Lincoln County had an estimated population density of 33.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Lincoln County, 49.4% of all residents were male and 50.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Lincoln

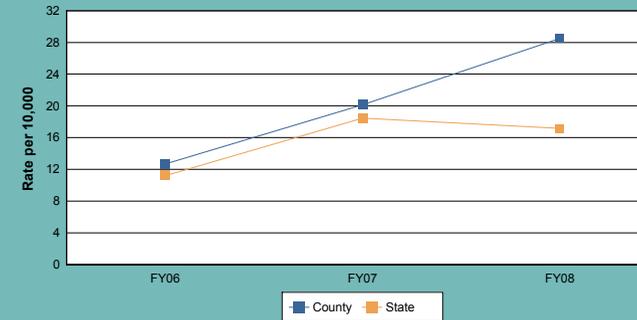

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Lincoln

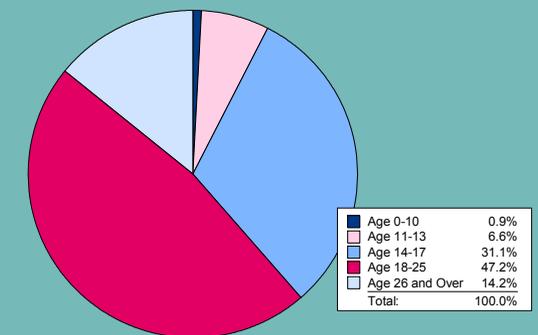

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Lincoln County ranked #25 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Lincoln County rate was 10.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Lincoln County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Lincoln County was 2.2 in 2008, compared to 6.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.1% (2.1%) of the Lincoln County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 14.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Lincoln

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Lincoln

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

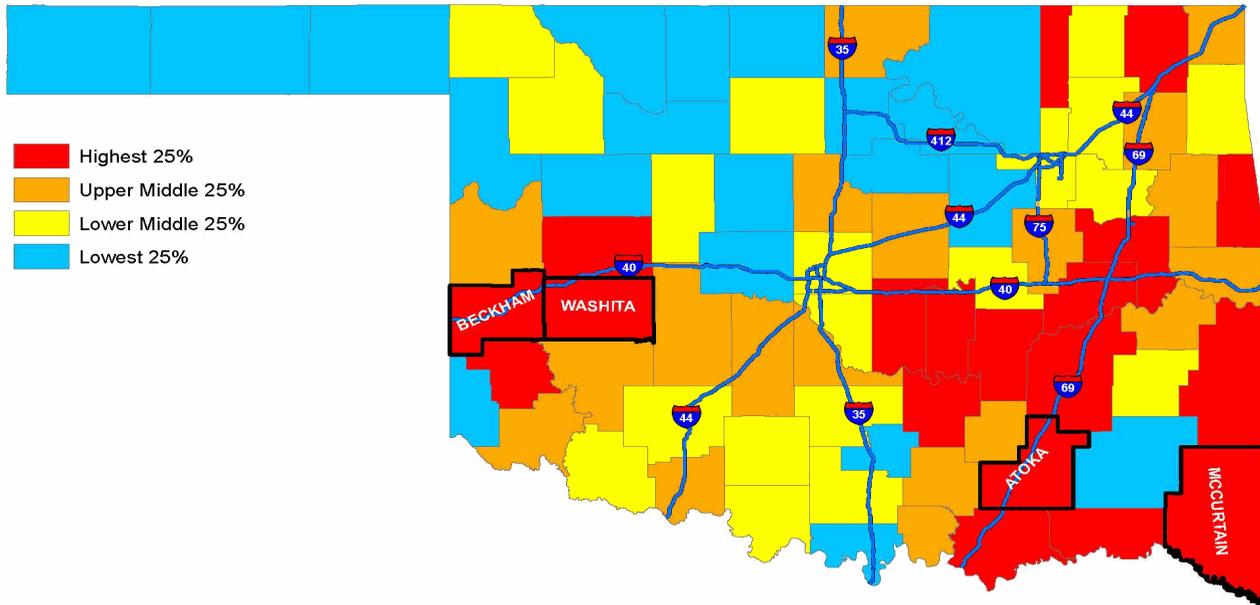

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Lincoln County residents over age 25, 77.5% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 11.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Lincoln County was $38,204 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Lincoln County living in poverty was 16.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Lincoln County was 32.0 (33.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Lincoln County was 6.9% (4.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Lincoln County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 6.8 (23.3), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Lincoln County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 26.3 (75.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Lincoln County was 4.5 (49.0) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Lincoln County during 2007 was 52.1 (69.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Lincoln County during 2007 was 26.6 (20.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Lincoln County during 2007 was 17.4 (12.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Lincoln County during 2007 was 0.9 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

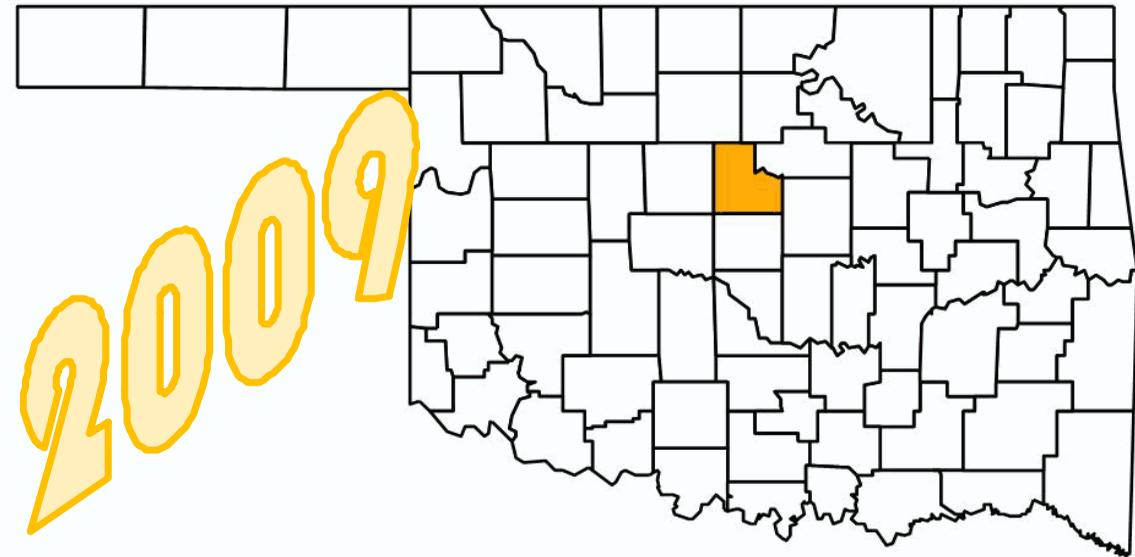

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Logan County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Logan County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

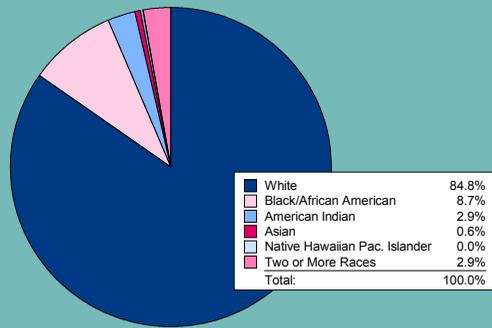

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

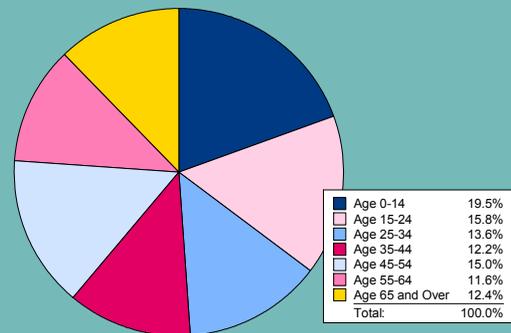

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 36,435 individuals lived in Logan County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Logan County had an estimated population density of 45.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Logan County, 49.6% of all residents were male and 50.4% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Logan

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Logan

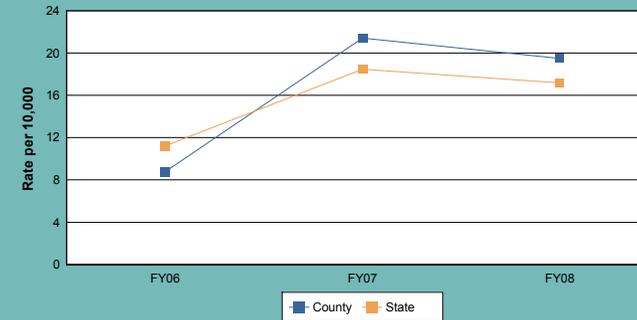

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Logan County ranked #47 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Logan County rate was 4.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Logan County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Logan County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.2% (1.1%) of the Logan County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 11.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

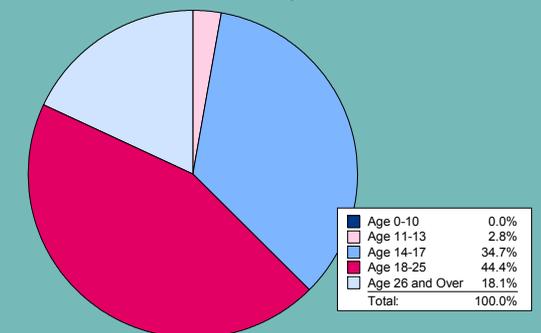

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Logan County residents over age 25, 81.5% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 19.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Logan County was $48,003 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Logan County living in poverty was 12.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Logan County was 24.1 (36.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Logan County was 5.0% (3.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Logan

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Logan

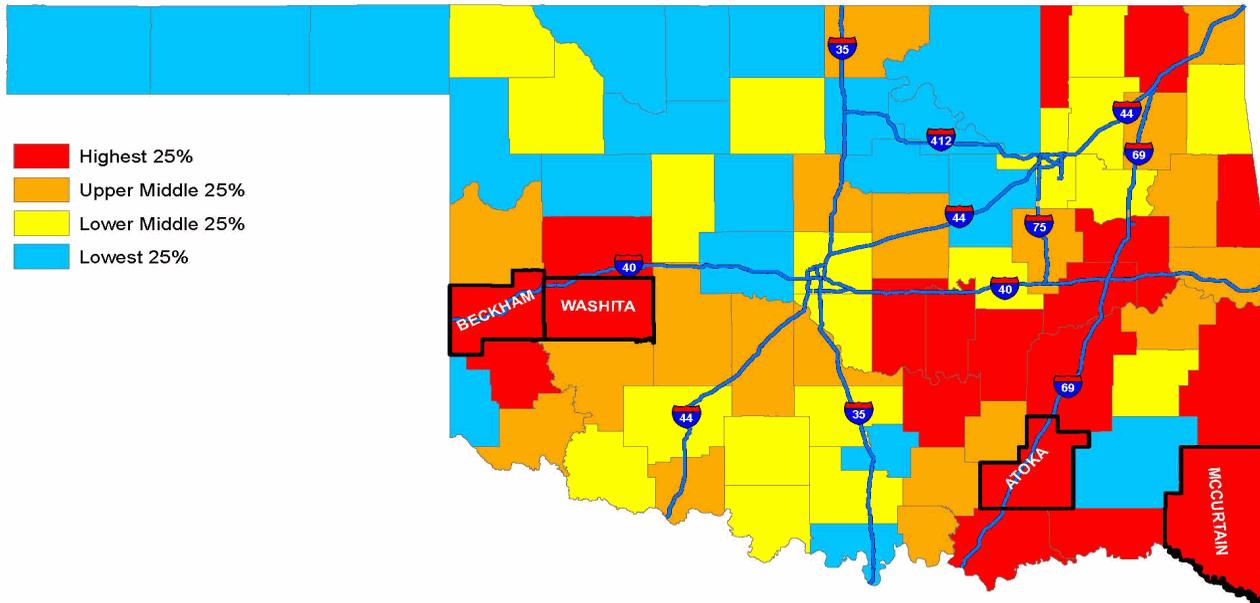

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Logan County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.4 (3.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Logan County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 18.7 (85.3), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Logan County was 4.4 (38.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Logan County during 2007 was 78.2 (58.7), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Logan County during 2007 was 101.6 (76.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Logan County during 2007 was 58.5 (36.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Logan County during 2007 was 28.5 (12.7), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

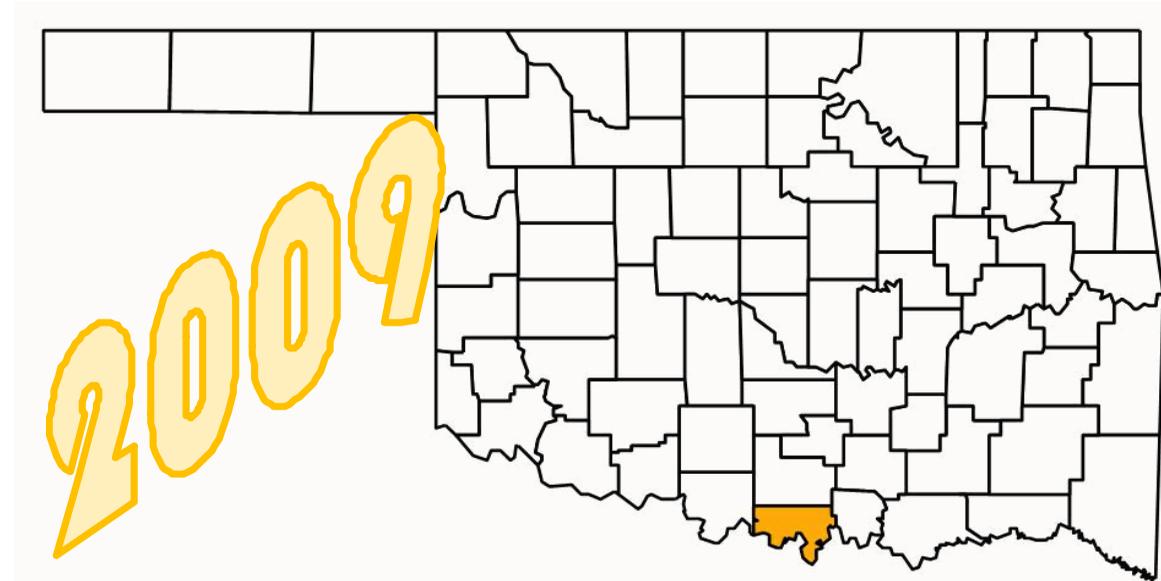

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Love County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Love County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

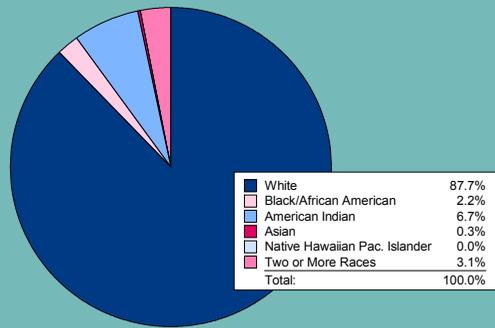

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

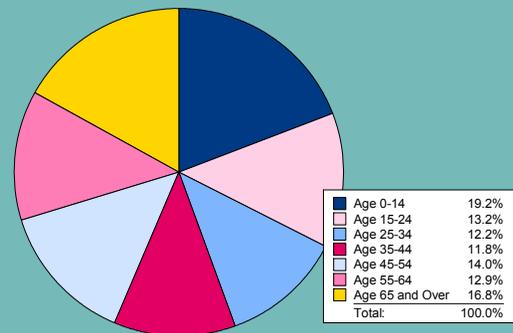

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 9,112 individuals lived in Love County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Love County had an estimated population density of 17.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Love County, 49.5% of all residents were male and 50.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Love

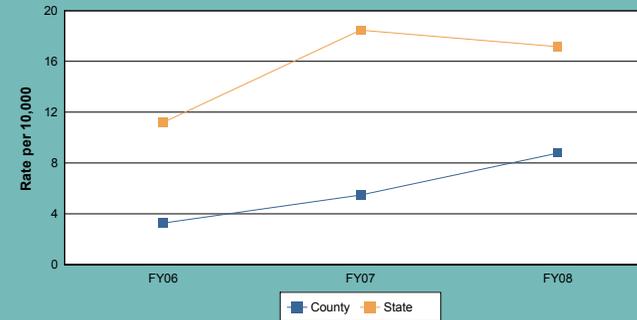

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Love

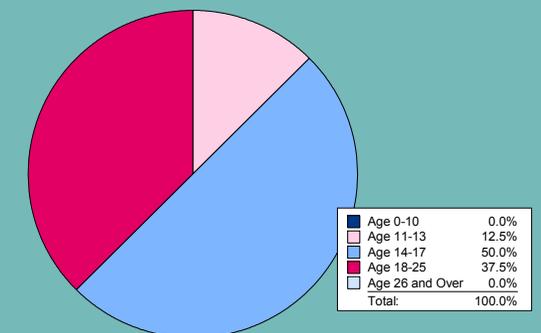

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Love County ranked #69 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Love County rate was 3.3 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Love County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Love County was 1.1 in 2008, compared to 2.2 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.7% (%) of the Love County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 9.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Love

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Love

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

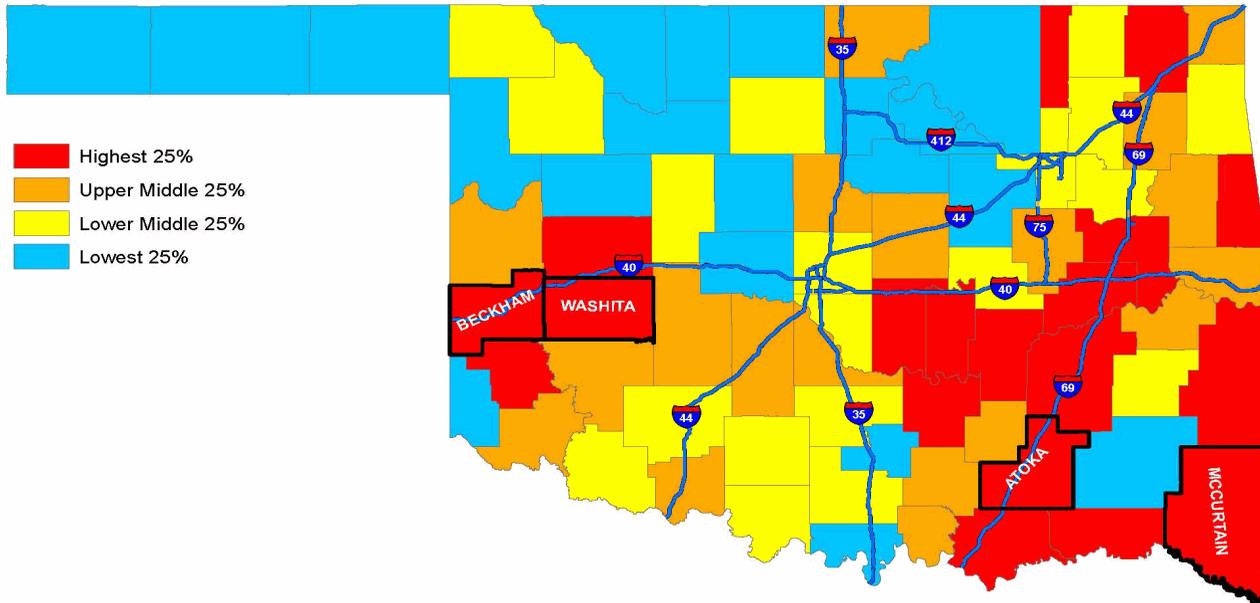

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Love County residents over age 25, 73.6% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Love County was $38,921 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Love County living in poverty was 13.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Love County was 44.8 (31.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Love County was 4.7% (3.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Love County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.0 (23.1), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Love County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 15.4 (157.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Love County was 4.4 (53.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Love County during 2007 was 176.7 (175.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Love County during 2007 was 69.1 (71.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Love County during 2007 was 6.6 (27.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Love County during 2007 was 0.0 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

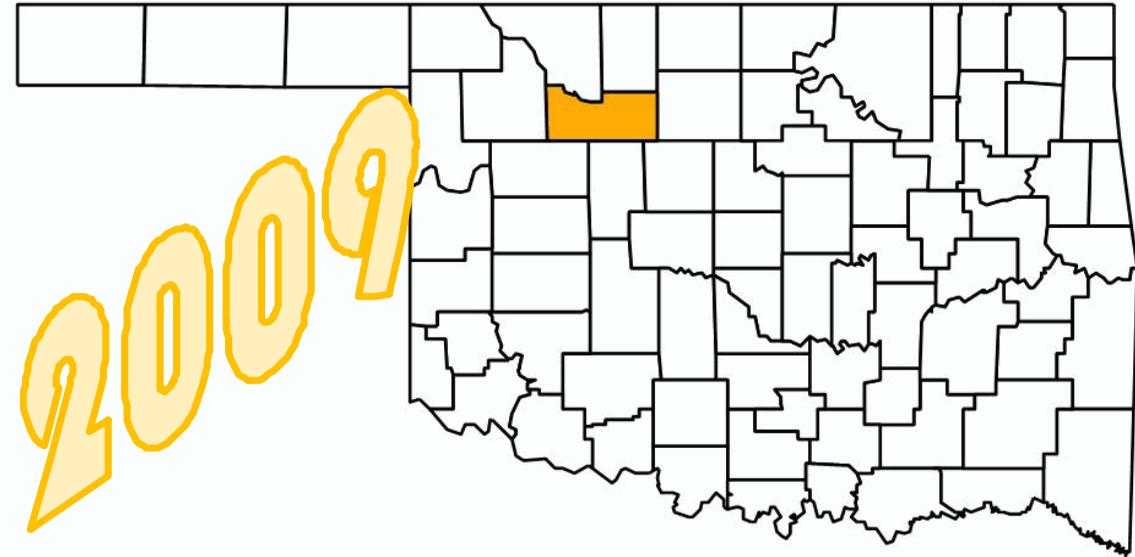

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Major County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Major County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

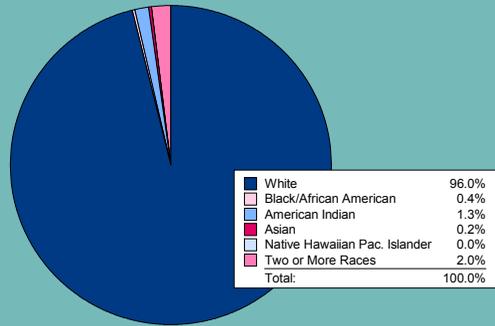

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

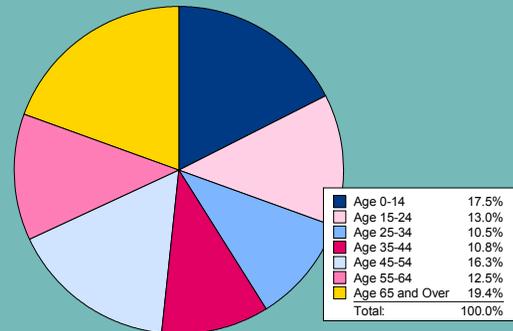

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 7,190 individuals lived in Major County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Major County had an estimated population density of 7.9 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Major County, 48.8% of all residents were male and 51.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Major

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Major

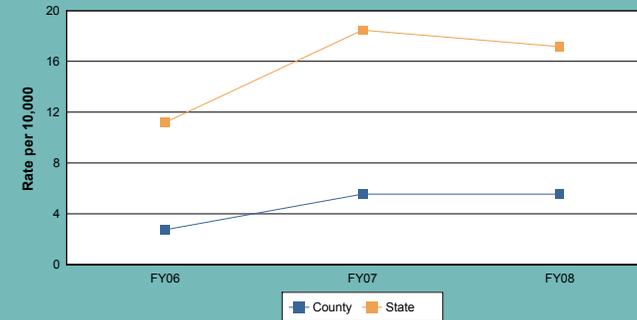

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Major County ranked #77 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Major County rate was 1.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Major County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while N/A was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Major County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 4.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 3.0% (0.0%) of the Major County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 12.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

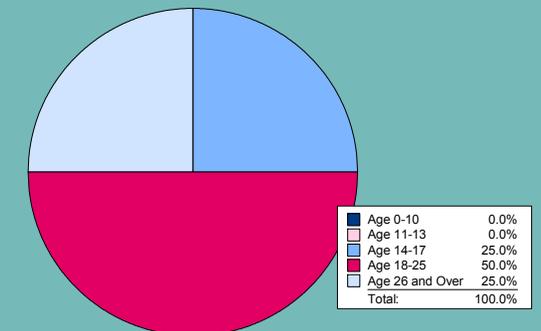

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Major County residents over age 25, 78.6% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Major County was $41,007 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Major County living in poverty was 11.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Major County was 5.6 (7.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Major County was 3.5% (2.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Major

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Major

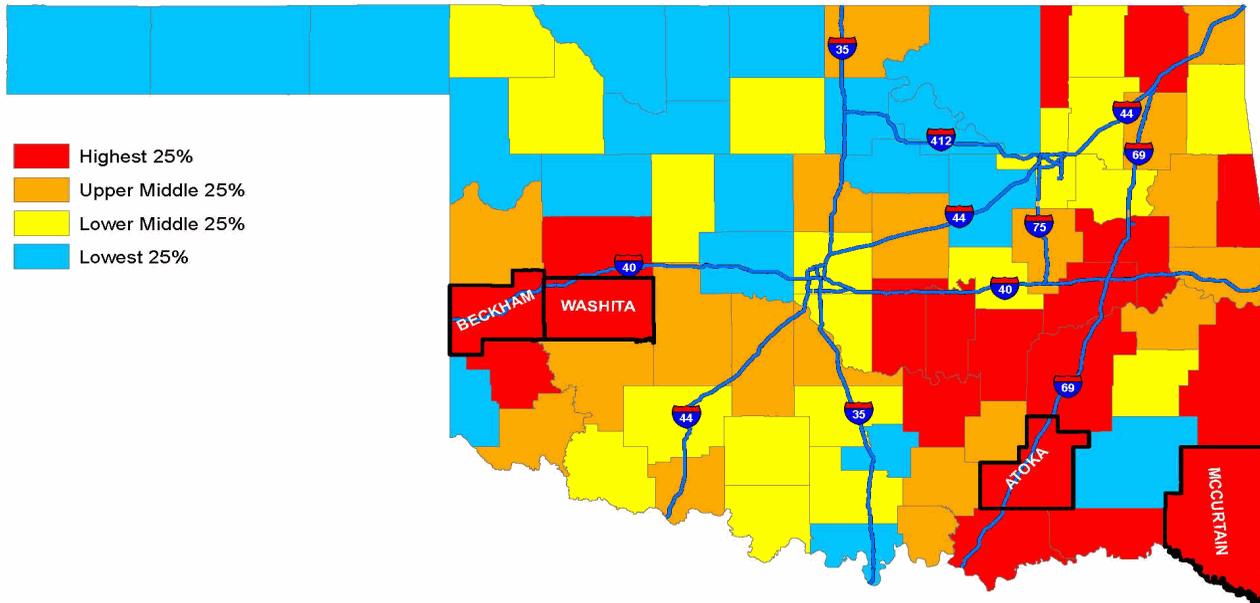

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Major County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.8 (6.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Major County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 27.8 (137.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Major County was 4.9 (35.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Major County during 2007 was 121.0 (21.4), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Major County during 2007 was 34.8 (14.1), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Major County during 2007 was 19.5 (3.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Major County during 2007 was 2.8 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

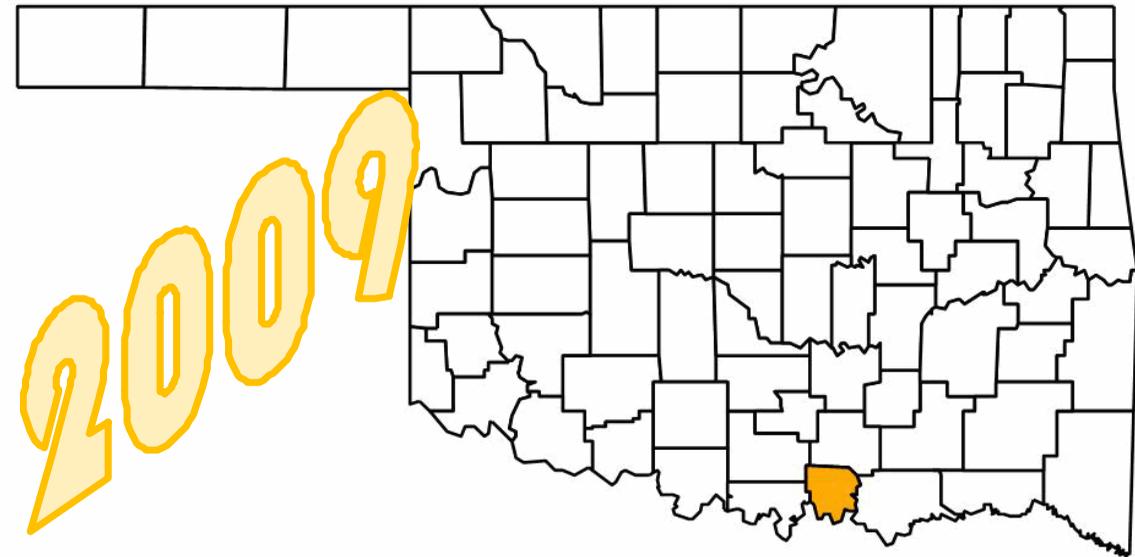

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Marshall County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Marshall County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

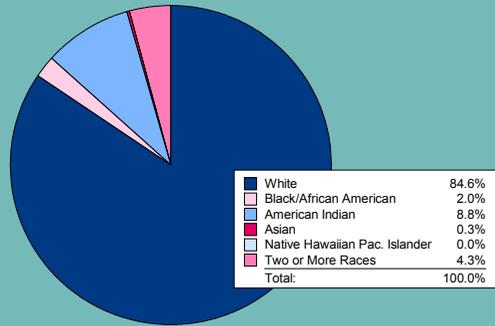

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

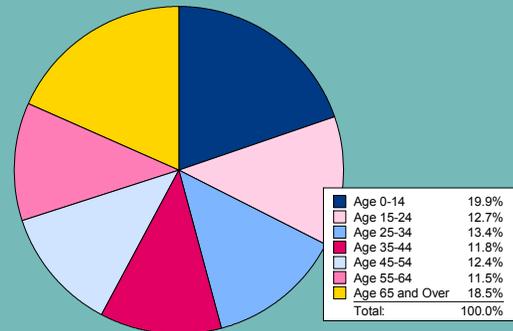

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 14,830 individuals lived in Marshall County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Marshall County had an estimated population density of 35.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Marshall County, 49.2% of all residents were male and 50.8% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Marshall

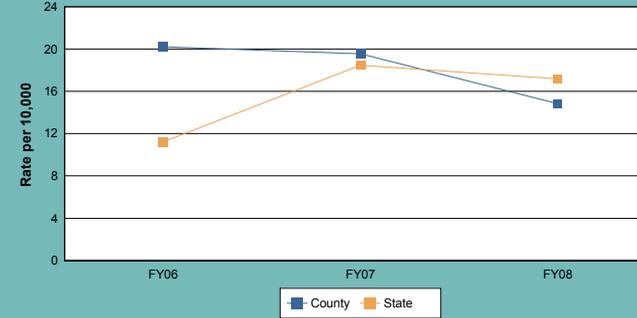

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Marshall

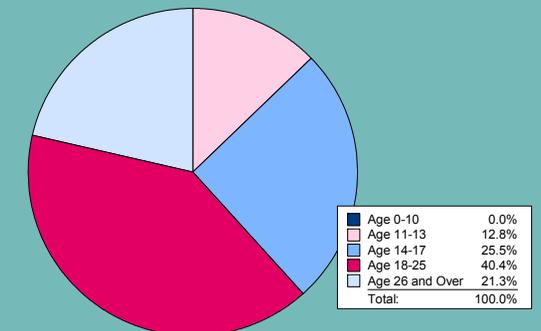

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Marshall County ranked #20 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Marshall County rate was 6.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Marshall County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Marshall County was 1.3 in 2008, compared to 2.2 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, % (3.4%) of the Marshall County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and % said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Marshall

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Marshall

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

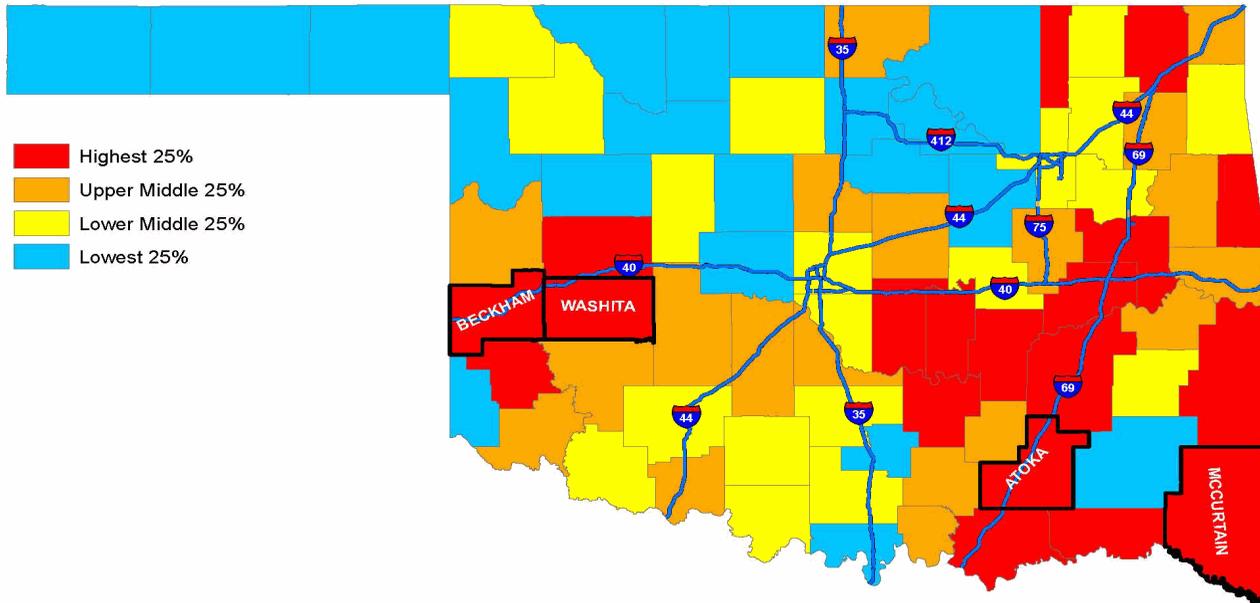

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Marshall County residents over age 25, 71.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 11.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Marshall County was $34,819 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Marshall County living in poverty was 16.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Marshall County was 71.1 (74.8) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Marshall County was 8.7% (4.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Marshall County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 5.4 (17.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Marshall County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 8.8 (89.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Marshall County was 5.8 (43.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Marshall County during 2007 was 252.2 (114.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Marshall County during 2007 was 151.0 (32.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Marshall County during 2007 was 27.6 (17.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Marshall County during 2007 was 23.6 (21.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

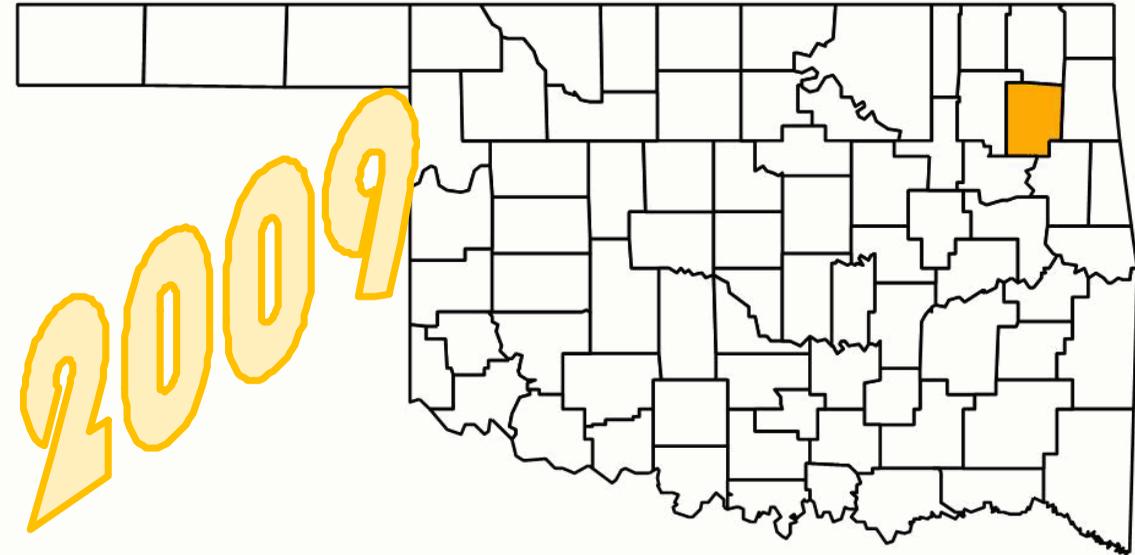

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Mayes County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Mayes County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

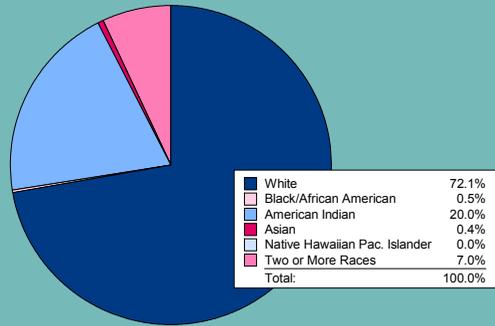

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

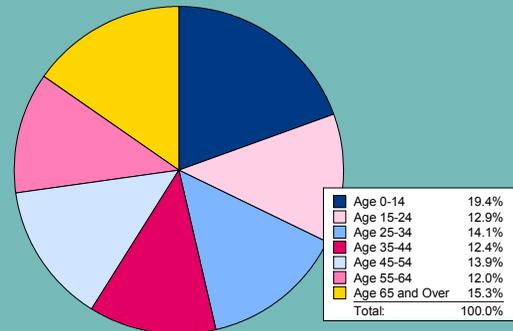

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 39,627 individuals lived in Mayes County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Mayes County had an estimated population density of 58.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Mayes County, 49.7% of all residents were male and 50.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Mayes

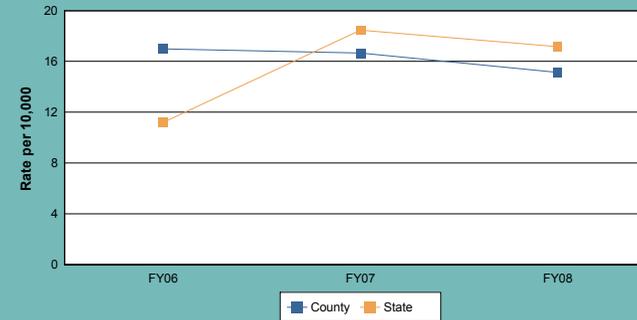

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Mayes

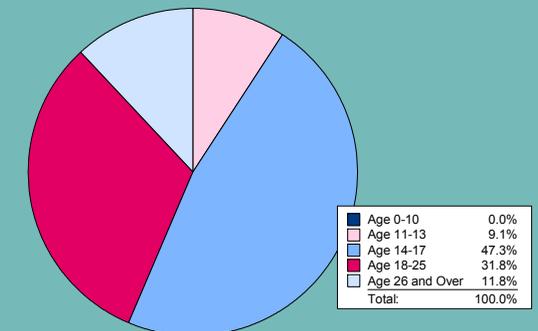

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Mayes County ranked #28 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Mayes County rate was 6.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Mayes County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Mayes County was 0.8 in 2008, compared to 3.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.1% (3.5%) of the Mayes County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 17.2% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Mayes

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Mayes

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

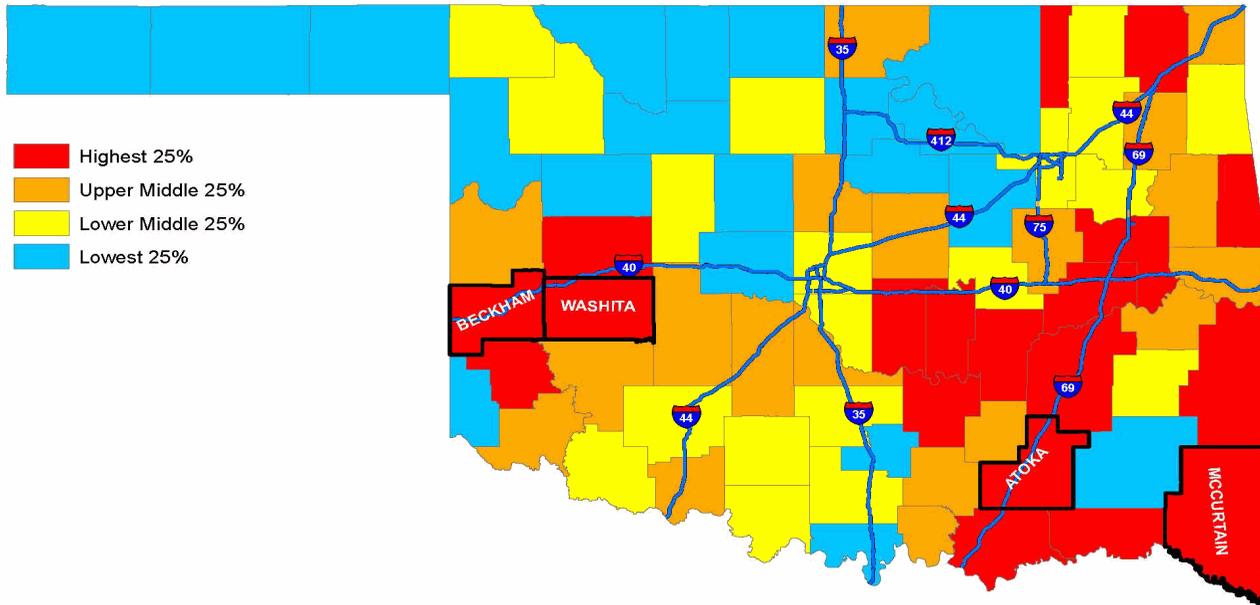

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Mayes County residents over age 25, 76.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Mayes County was $38,040 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Mayes County living in poverty was 16.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Mayes County was 32.6 (34.6) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Mayes County was 8.9% (4.5%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Mayes County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 6.8 (29.3), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Mayes County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 27.8 (150.8), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Mayes County was 0.9 (52.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Mayes County during 2007 was 161.0 (284.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Mayes County during 2007 was 50.7 (111.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Mayes County during 2007 was 41.6 (77.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Mayes County during 2007 was 13.4 (13.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

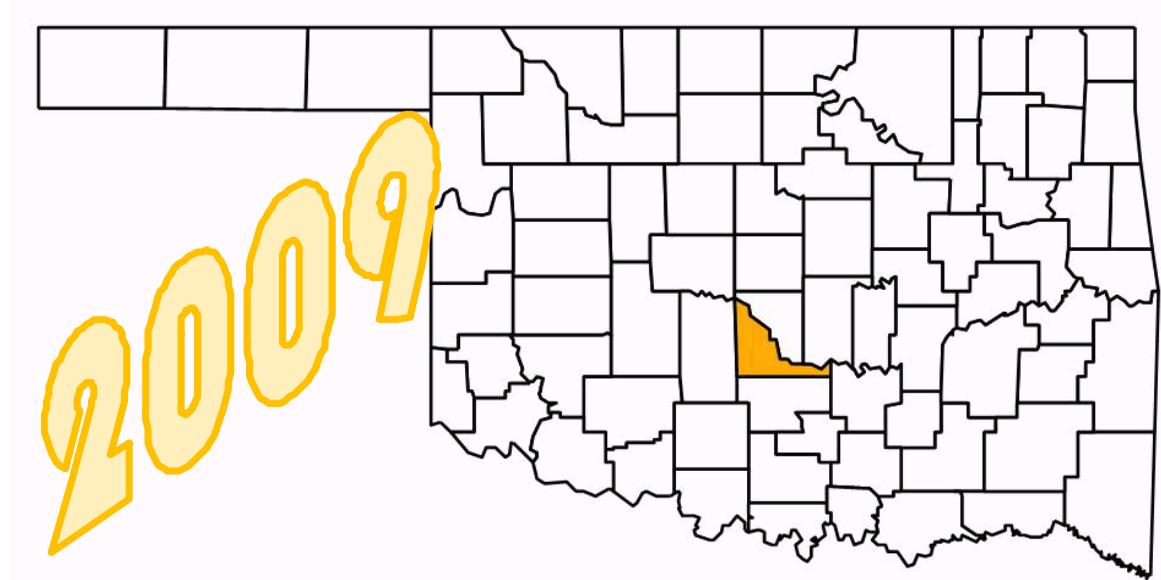

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:
Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

McClain County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

McClain County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

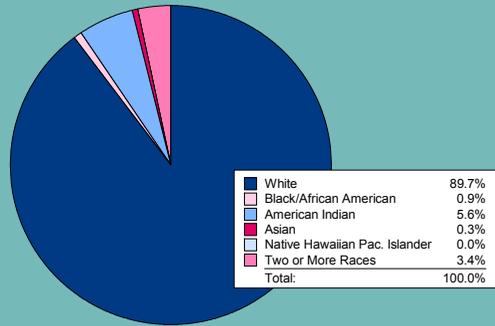

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

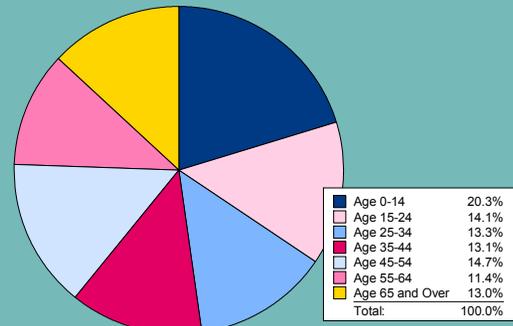

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 31,849 individuals lived in McClain County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- McClain County had an estimated population density of 48.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In McClain County, 49.7% of all residents were male and 50.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For McClain

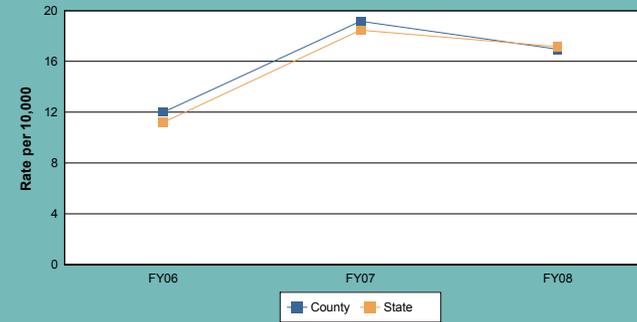

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For McClain

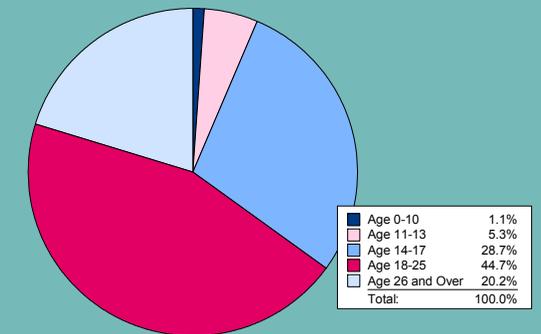

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- McClain County ranked #30 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The McClain County rate was 7.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among McClain County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for McClain County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.8 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.0% (1.5%) of the McClain County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 17.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For McClain

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For McClain

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

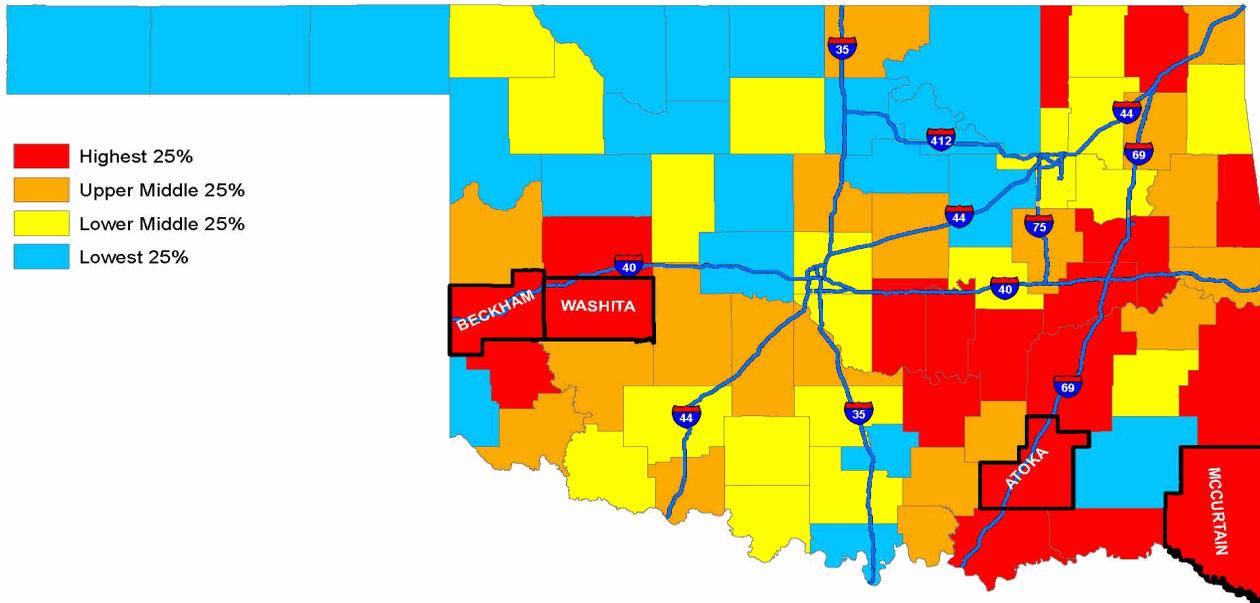

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among McClain County residents over age 25, 79.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.7% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in McClain County was $48,654 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in McClain County living in poverty was 10.0%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in McClain County was 13.0 (16.6) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for McClain County was 5.1% (3.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in McClain County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.5 (26.3), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in McClain County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 18.2 (154.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in McClain County was 3.8 (58.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for McClain County during 2007 was 119.9 (385.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for McClain County during 2007 was 82.9 (233.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for McClain County during 2007 was 22.0 (75.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for McClain County during 2007 was 15.1 (12.9), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

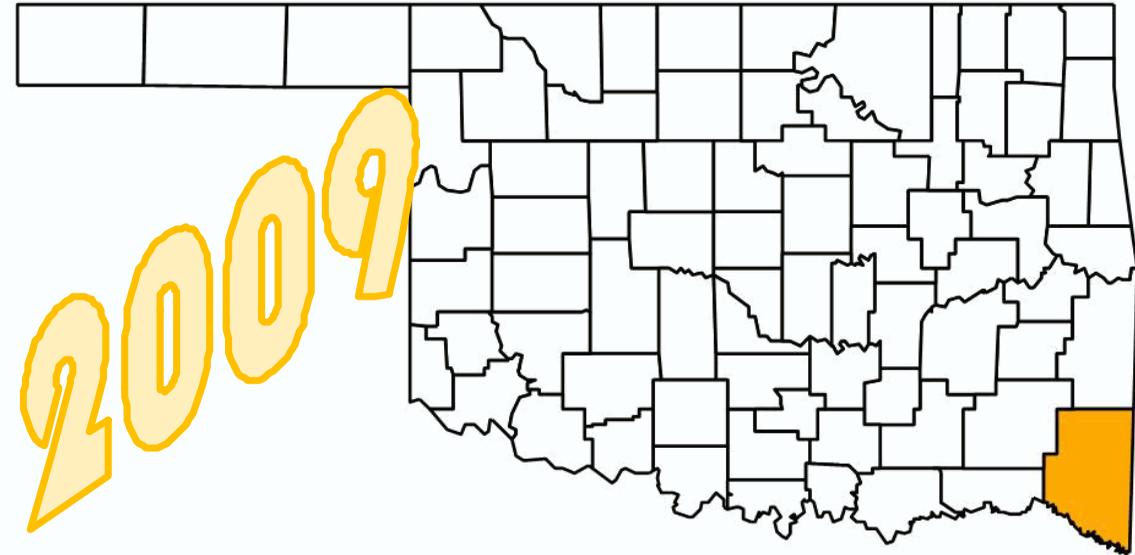

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

McCurtain County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

McCurtain County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

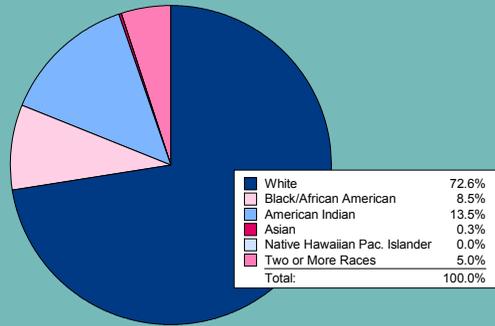

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

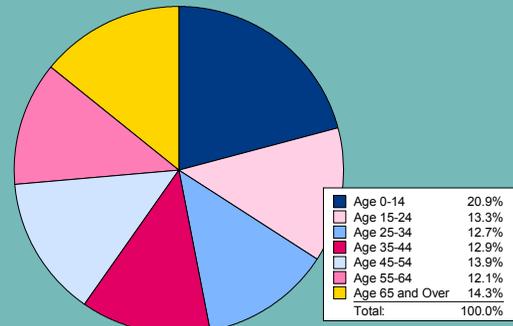

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 33,539 individuals lived in McCurtain County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- McCurtain County had an estimated population density of 18.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In McCurtain County, 48.4% of all residents were male and 51.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For McCurtain

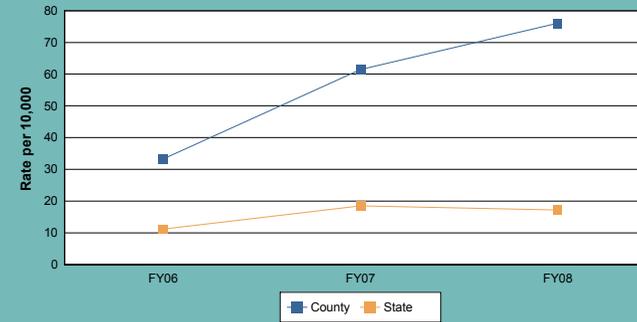

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For McCurtain

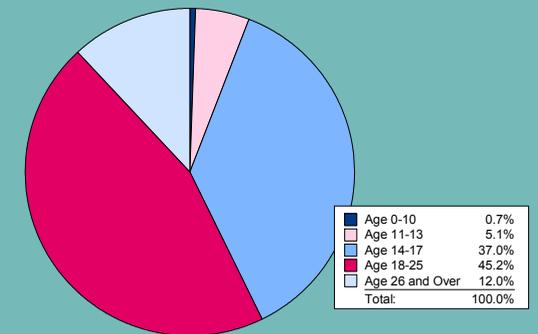

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- McCurtain County ranked #1 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The McCurtain County rate was 27.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Methamphetamine was the number one drug of choice among McCurtain County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Alcohol was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for McCurtain County was 0.9 in 2008, compared to 10.6 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.4% (1.7%) of the McCurtain County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 19.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For McCurtain

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For McCurtain

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

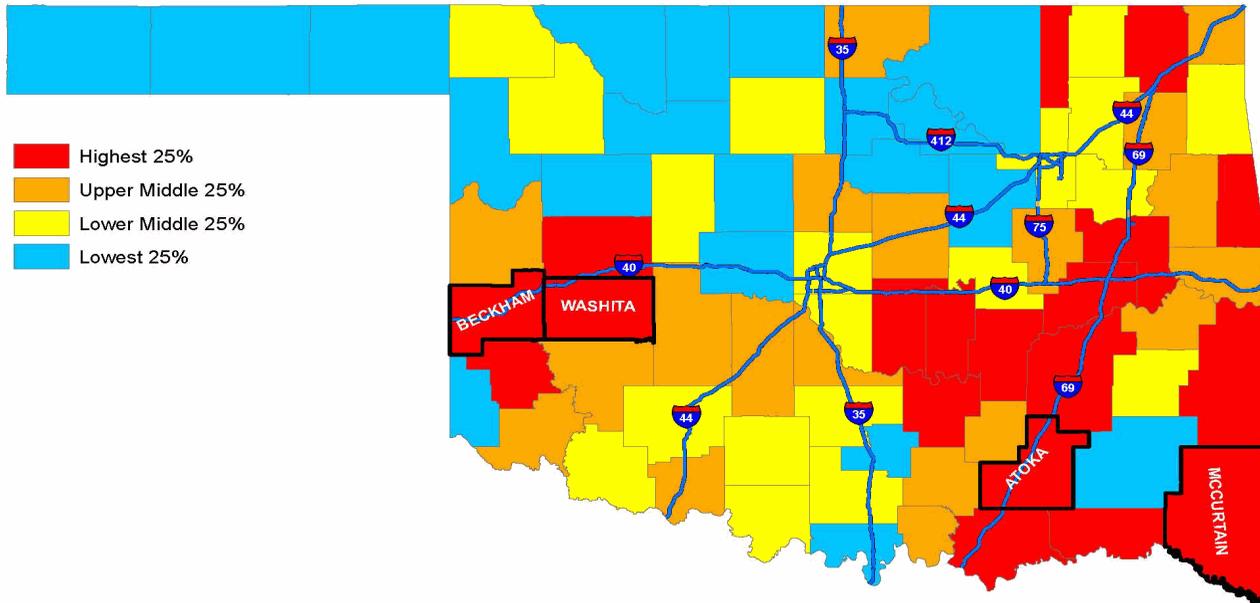

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among McCurtain County residents over age 25, 69.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in McCurtain County was $29,249 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in McCurtain County living in poverty was 25.2%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in McCurtain County was 72.2 (79.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for McCurtain County was 10.5% (6.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in McCurtain County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 5.4 (23.1), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in McCurtain County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 53.4 (204.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in McCurtain County was 5.8 (49.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for McCurtain County during 2007 was 152.4 (336.5), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for McCurtain County during 2007 was 89.1 (191.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for McCurtain County during 2007 was 47.7 (156.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for McCurtain County during 2007 was 35.2 (42.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

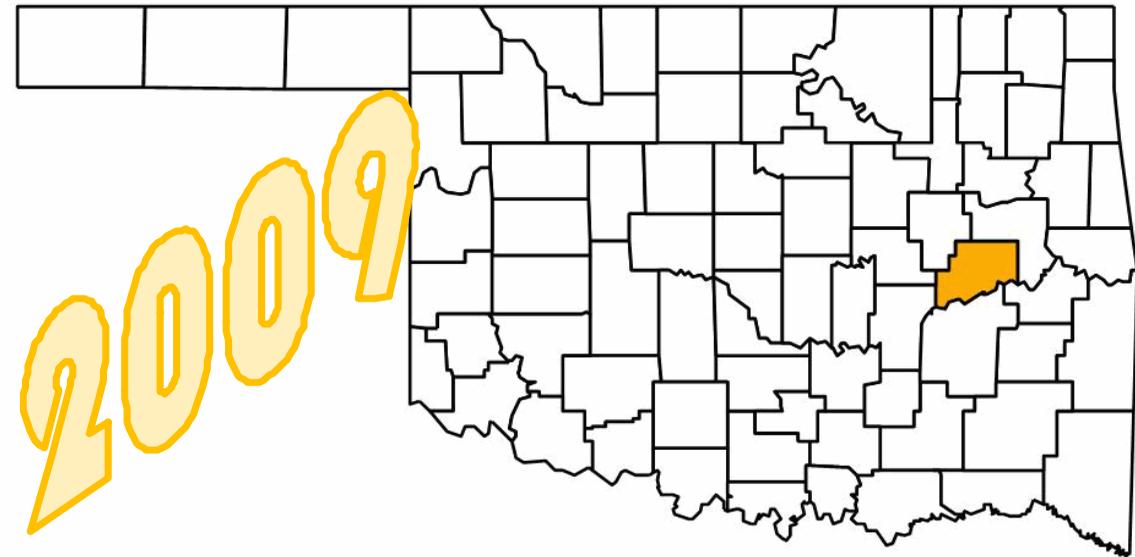

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

McIntosh County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

McIntosh County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

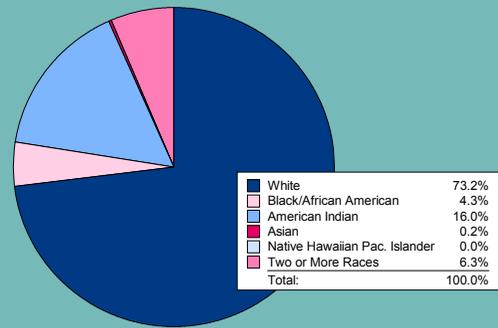

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

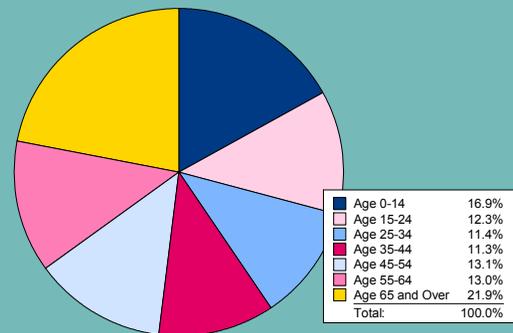

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 19,709 individuals lived in McIntosh County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- McIntosh County had an estimated population density of 31.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In McIntosh County, 47.6% of all residents were male and 52.4% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For McIntosh

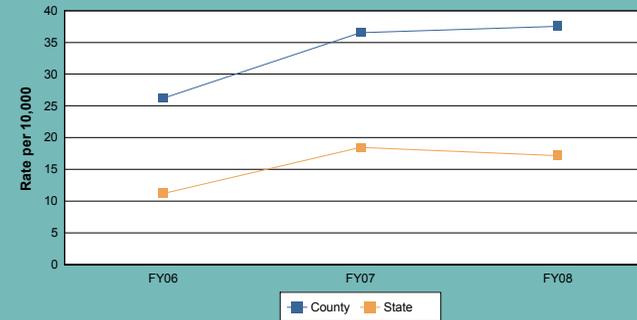

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For McIntosh

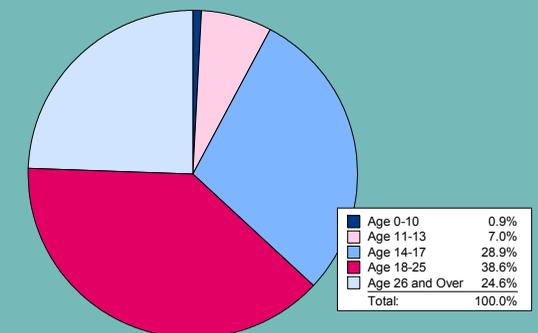

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- McIntosh County ranked #6 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The McIntosh County rate was 17.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among McIntosh County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for McIntosh County was 1.0 in 2008, compared to 6.6 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.9% (2.7%) of the McIntosh County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For McIntosh

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For McIntosh

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

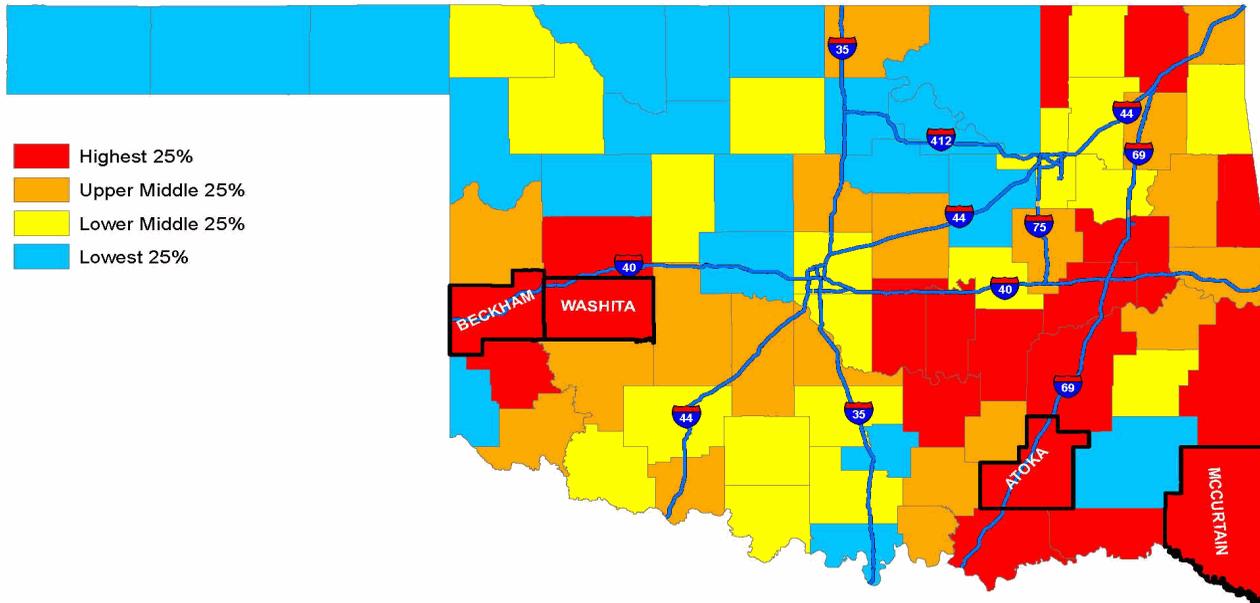

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among McIntosh County residents over age 25, 71.6% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 13.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in McIntosh County was $31,251 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in McIntosh County living in poverty was 19.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in McIntosh County was 48.2 (58.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for McIntosh County was 7.9% (5.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in McIntosh County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 5.1 (7.1), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in McIntosh County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 38.1 (239.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in McIntosh County was 4.9 (8.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for McIntosh County during 2007 was 53.8 (10.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for McIntosh County during 2007 was 40.1 (18.9), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for McIntosh County during 2007 was 32.5 (15.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for McIntosh County during 2007 was 9.1 (12.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

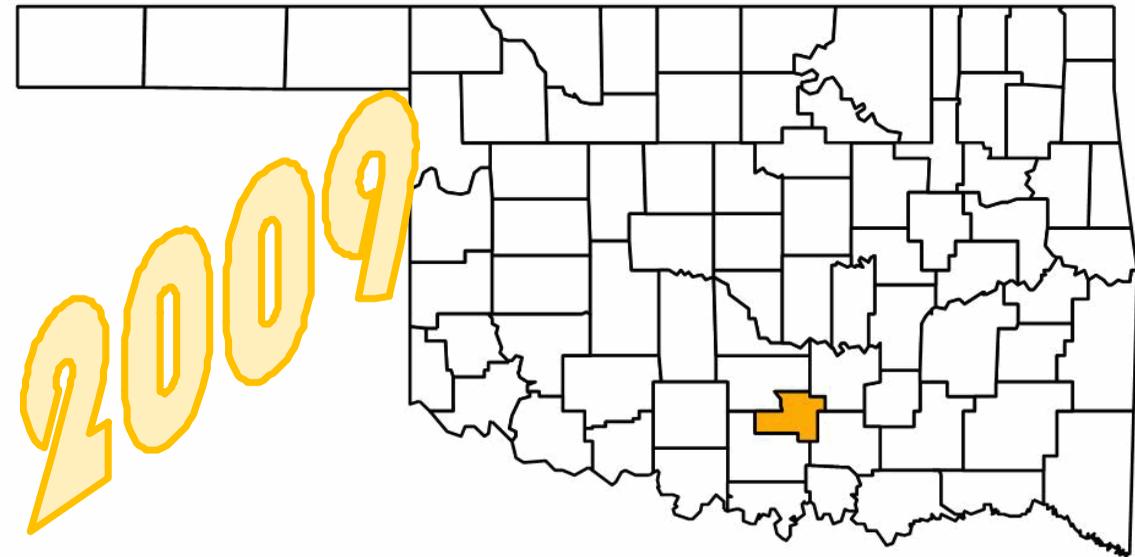

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Murray County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Murray County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

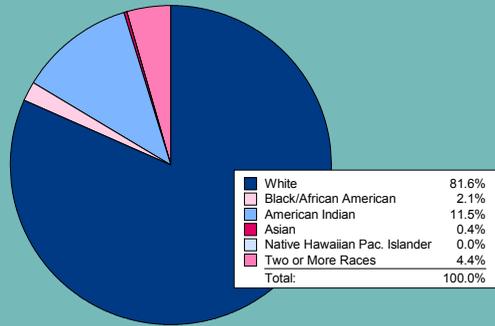

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

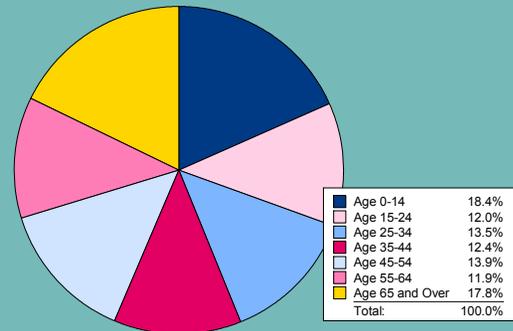

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 12,695 individuals lived in Murray County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Murray County had an estimated population density of 30.2 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Murray County, 49.4% of all residents were male and 50.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Murray

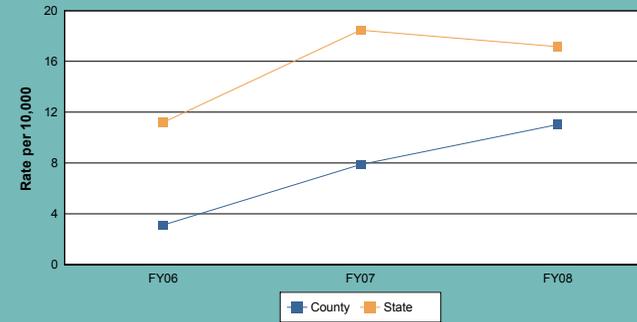

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Murray

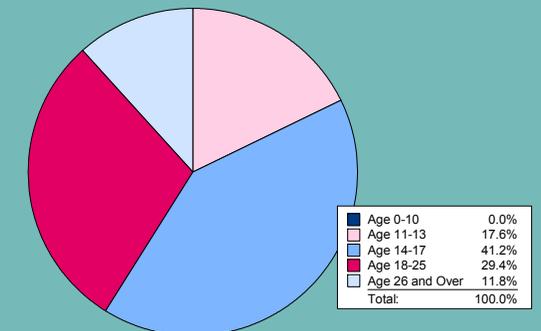

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Murray County ranked #60 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Murray County rate was 4.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Murray County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Heroin & Methamphetamine (Tie) was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Murray County was 0.8 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.1% (1.5%) of the Murray County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Murray

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Murray

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

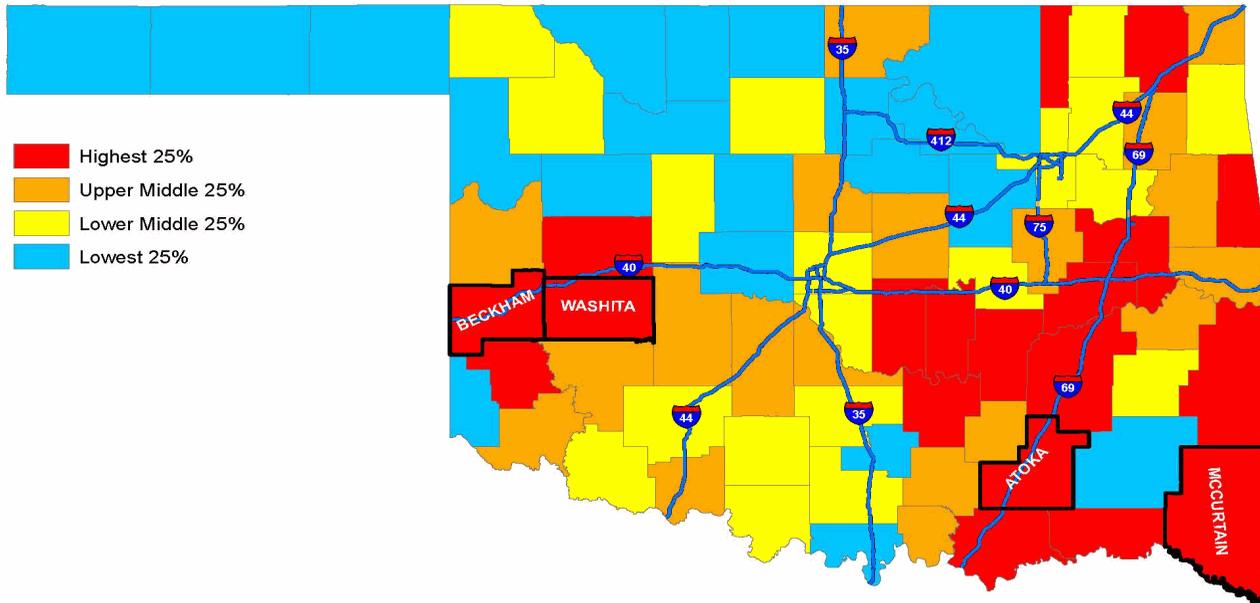

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Murray County residents over age 25, 74.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Murray County was $37,934 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Murray County living in poverty was 15.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Murray County was 28.9 (30.7) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Murray County was 4.6% (2.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Murray County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.8 (30.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Murray County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 17.3 (124.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Murray County was 4.7 (41.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Murray County during 2007 was 271.8 (225.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Murray County during 2007 was 102.4 (104.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Murray County during 2007 was 16.5 (47.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Murray County during 2007 was 20.5 (30.1), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

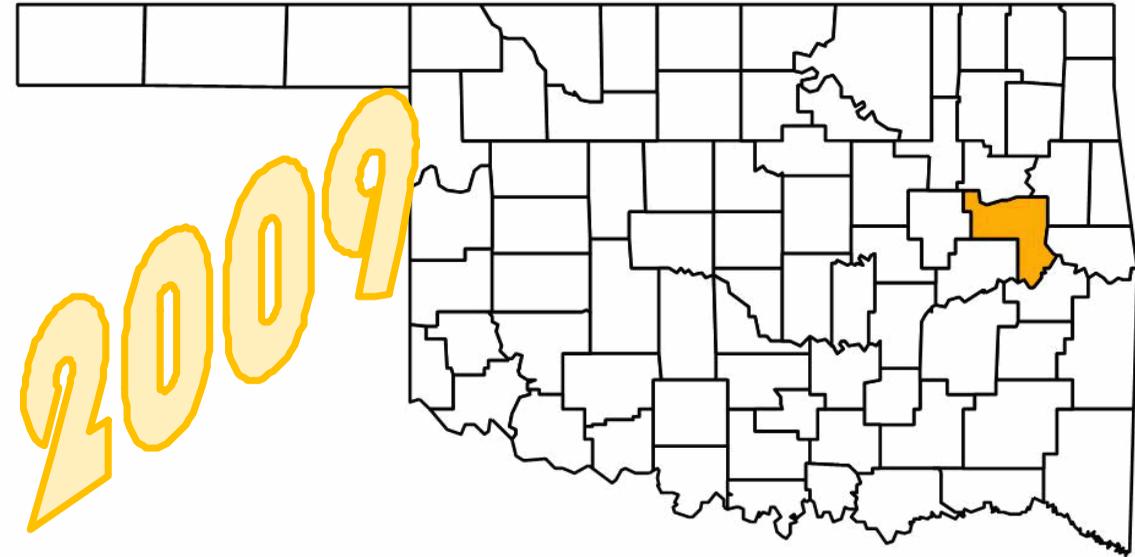

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Muskogee County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Muskogee County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

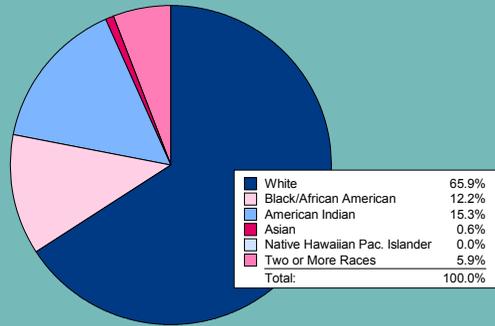

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

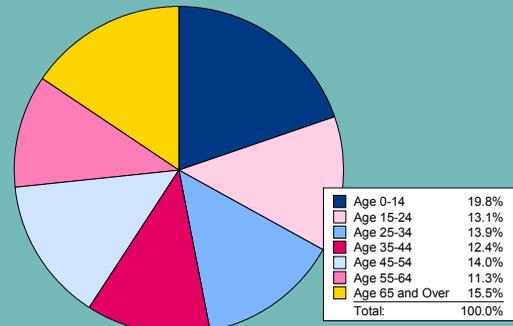

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 71,116 individuals lived in Muskogee County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Muskogee County had an estimated population density of 85.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Muskogee County, 48.6% of all residents were male and 51.4% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Muskogee

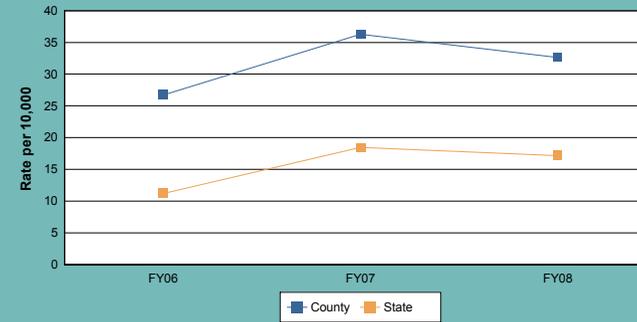

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Muskogee

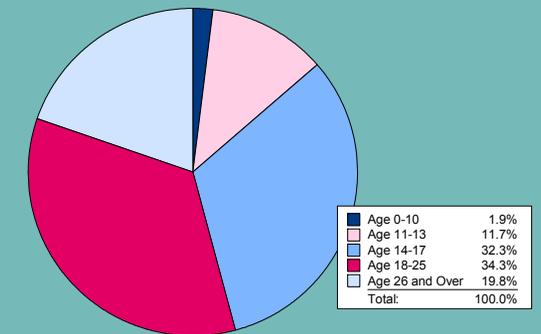

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Muskogee County ranked #10 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Muskogee County rate was 14.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Methamphetamine was the number one drug of choice among Muskogee County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Alcohol (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Muskogee County was 0.3 in 2008, compared to 3.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.8% (2.0%) of the Muskogee County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 19.7% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Muskogee

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Muskogee

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

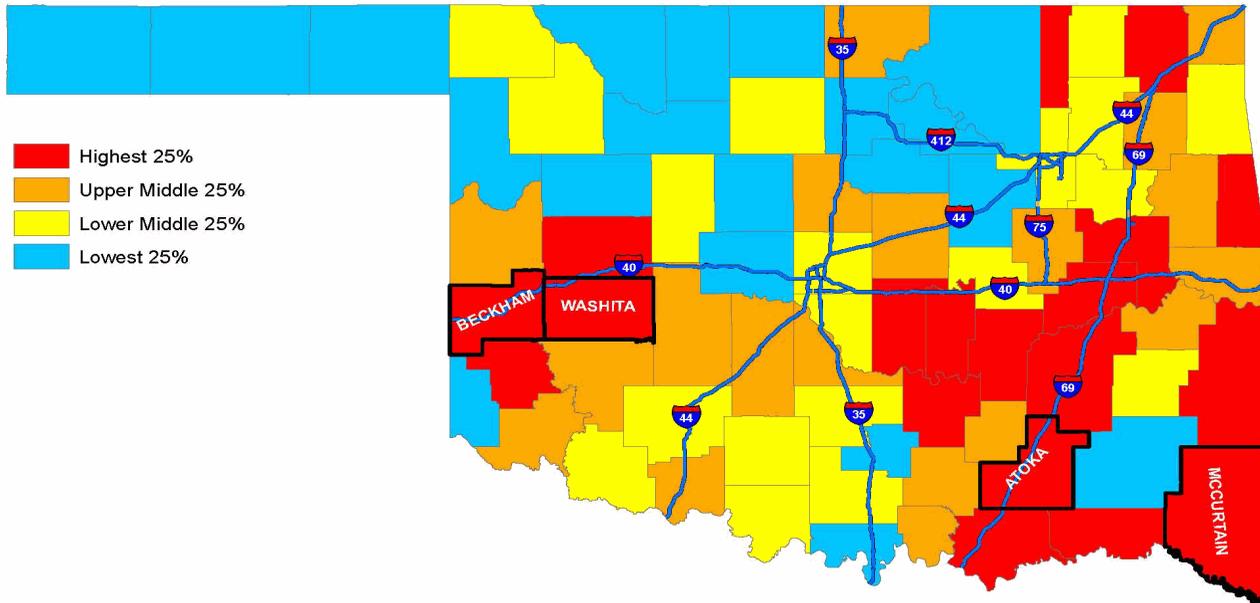

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Muskogee County residents over age 25, 75.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Muskogee County was $36,490 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Muskogee County living in poverty was 16.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Muskogee County was 50.6 (58.2) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Muskogee County was 7.7% (5.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Muskogee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.8 (21.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Muskogee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 47.0 (116.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Muskogee County was 4.7 (60.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Muskogee County during 2007 was 157.1 (196.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Muskogee County during 2007 was 59.6 (81.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Muskogee County during 2007 was 64.8 (55.7) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Muskogee County during 2007 was 11.4 (11.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

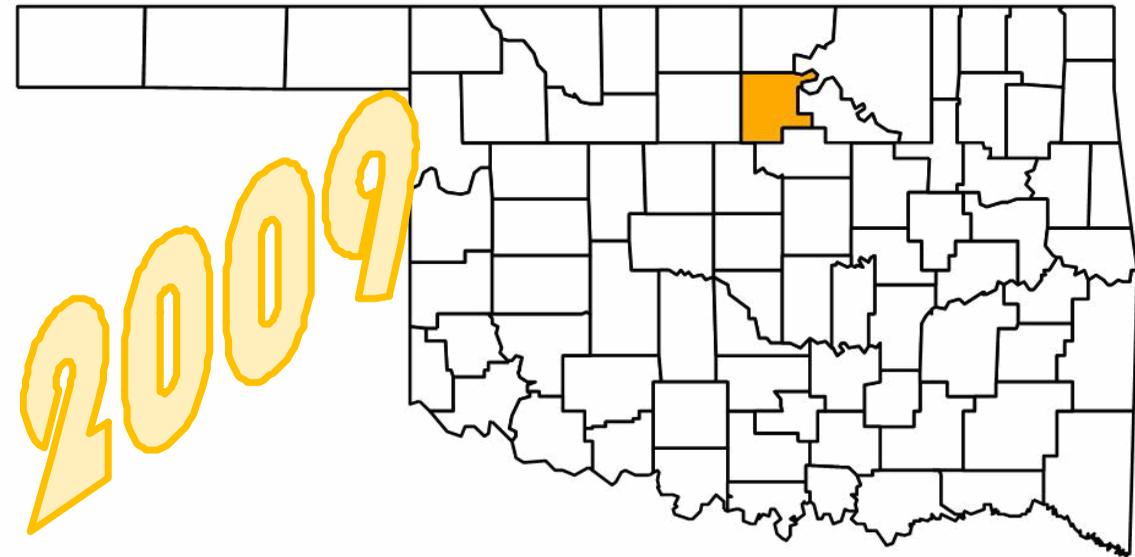

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Noble County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Noble County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

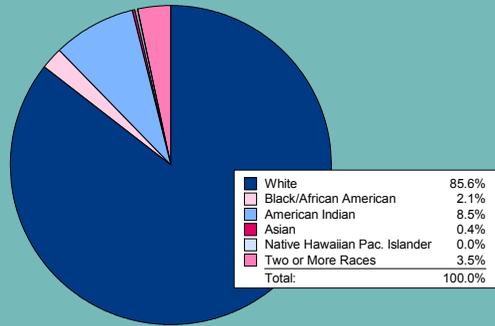

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

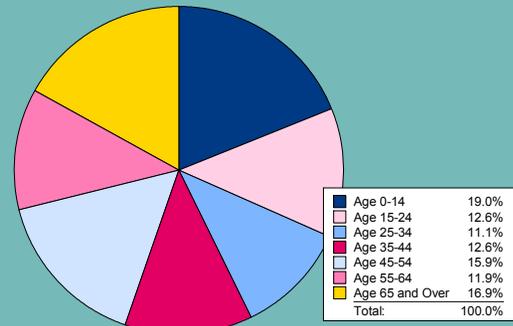

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 11,124 individuals lived in Noble County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Noble County had an estimated population density of 15.6 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Noble County, 49.9% of all residents were male and 50.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Noble

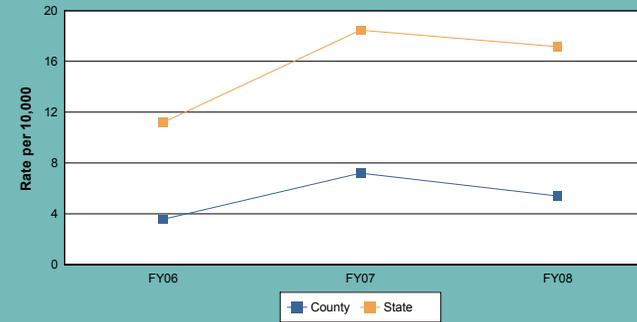

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Noble

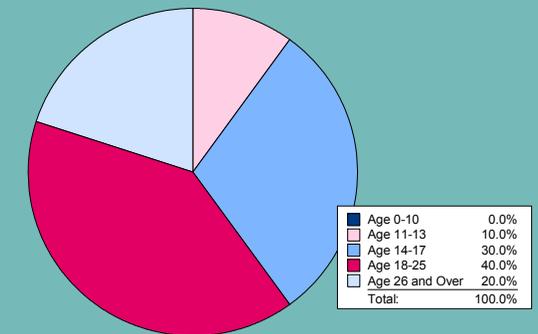

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Noble County ranked #72 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Noble County rate was 2.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Noble County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Heroin and Other Opiates (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Noble County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, % (4.3%) of the Noble County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and % said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Noble

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Noble

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

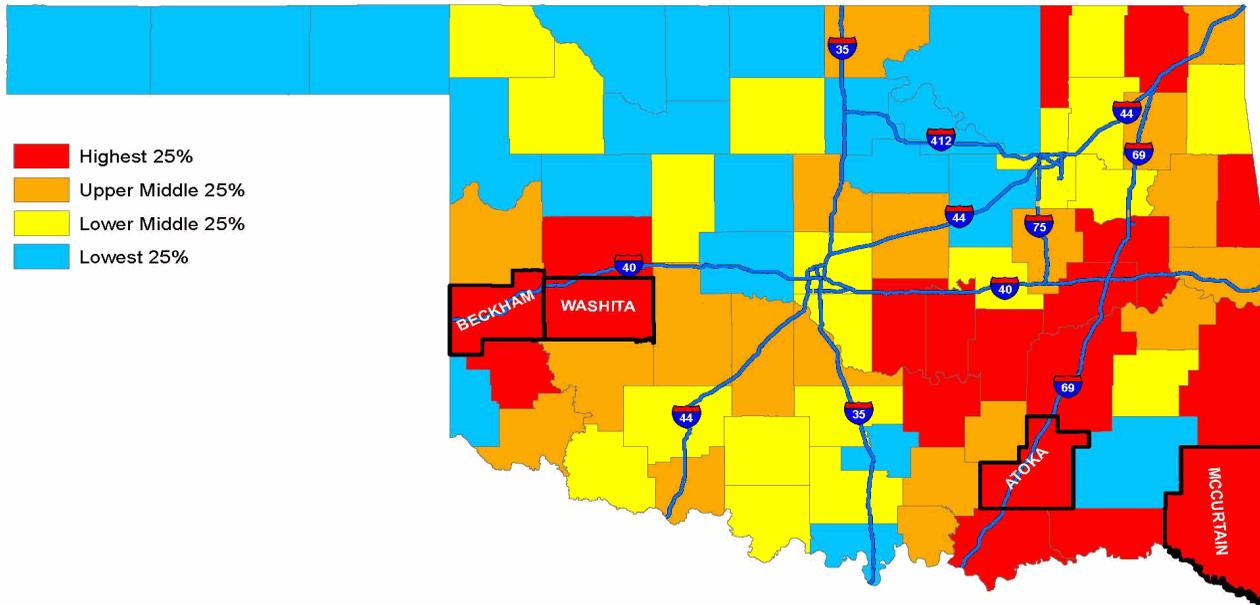

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Noble County residents over age 25, 81.5% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Noble County was $39,414 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Noble County living in poverty was 14.6%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Noble County was 30.4 (29.7) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Noble County was 5.2% (3.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Noble County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.8 (18.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Noble County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 23.4 (153.3), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Noble County was 4.4 (43.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Noble County during 2007 was 53.0 (53.9), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Noble County during 2007 was 34.2 (21.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Noble County during 2007 was 33.3 (18.9) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Noble County during 2007 was 1.8 (0.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

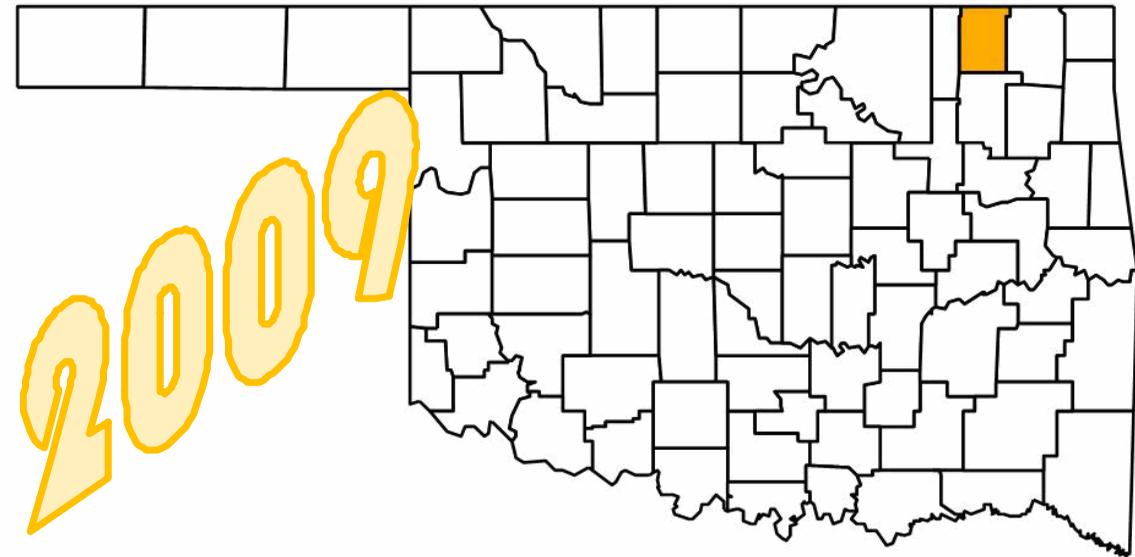

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Nowata County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Nowata County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

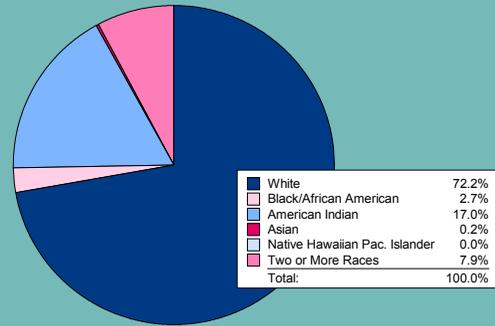

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

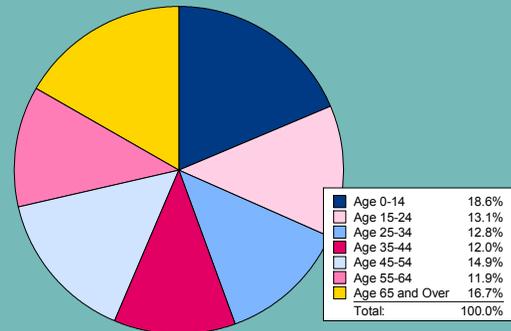

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 10,723 individuals lived in Nowata County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Nowata County had an estimated population density of 18.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Nowata County, 49.5% of all residents were male and 50.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Nowata

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Nowata

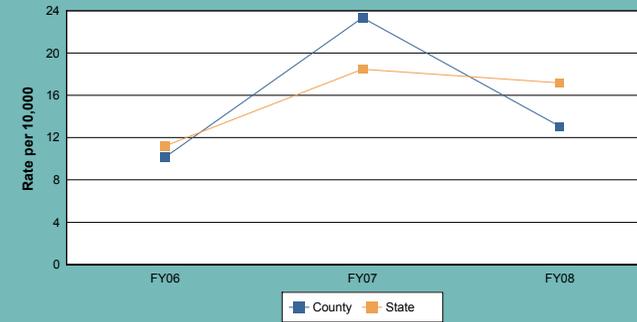

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Nowata County ranked #38 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Nowata County rate was 6.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Nowata County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Nowata County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.8% (%) of the Nowata County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 22.6% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

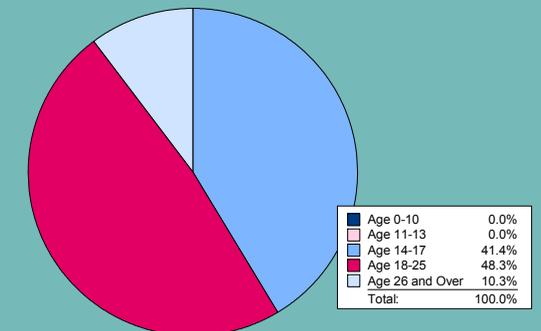

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Nowata County residents over age 25, 76.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 9.5% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Nowata County was $35,578 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Nowata County living in poverty was 16.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Nowata County was 28.9 (28.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Nowata County was 8.5% (5.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Nowata

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Nowata

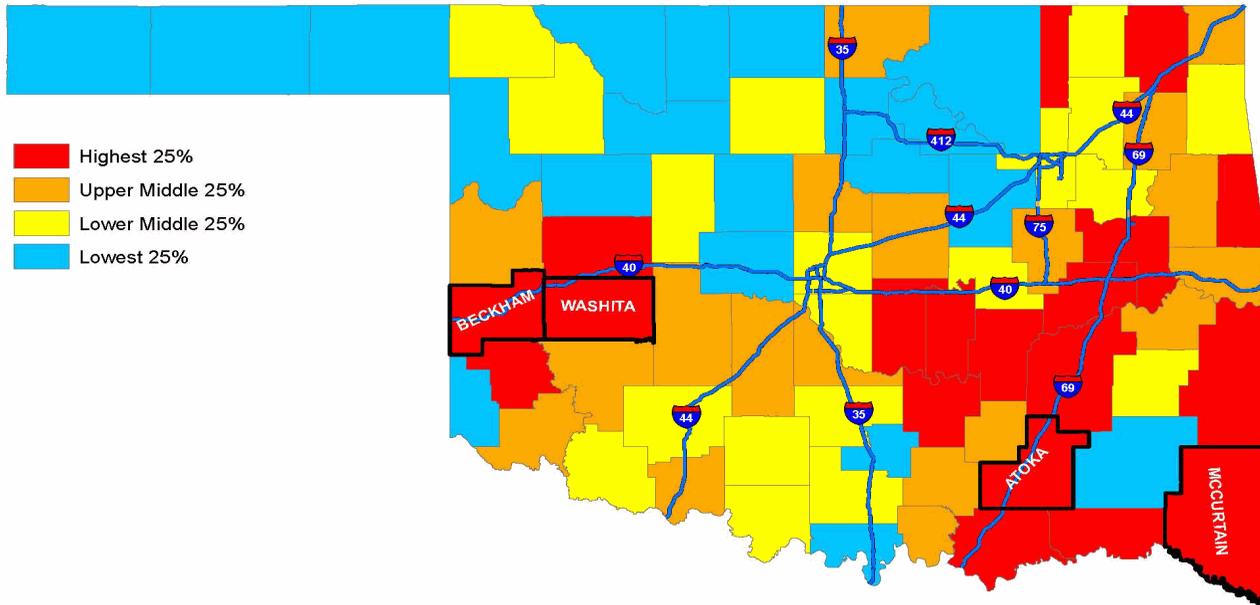

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Nowata County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.7 (3.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Nowata County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 38.2 (199.6), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Nowata County was 4.1 (47.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Nowata County during 2007 was 71.8 (92.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Nowata County during 2007 was 34.5 (61.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Nowata County during 2007 was 45.7 (27.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Nowata County during 2007 was 11.2 (7.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

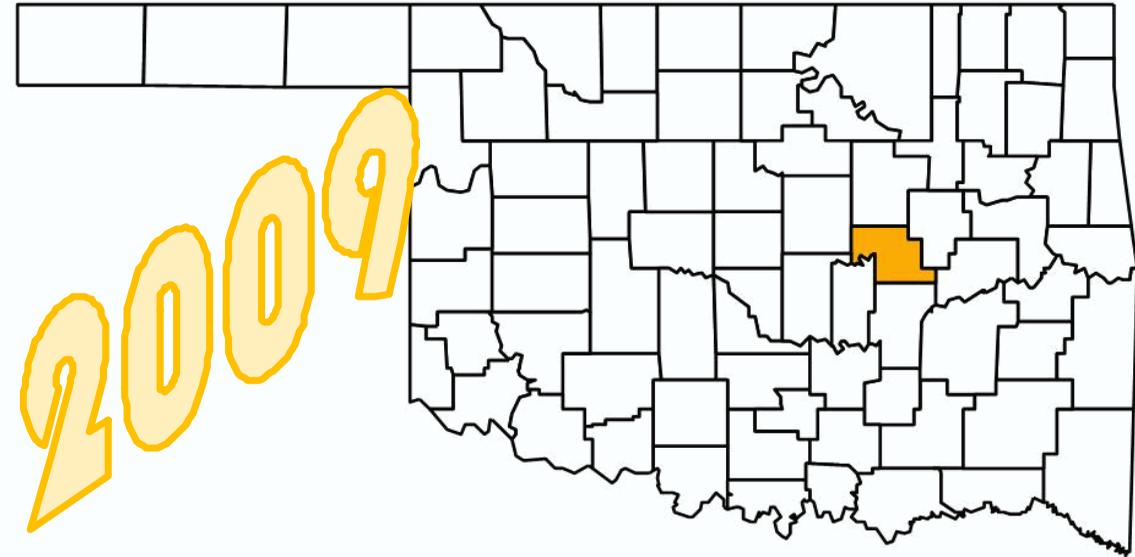

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Okfuskee County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Okfuskee County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

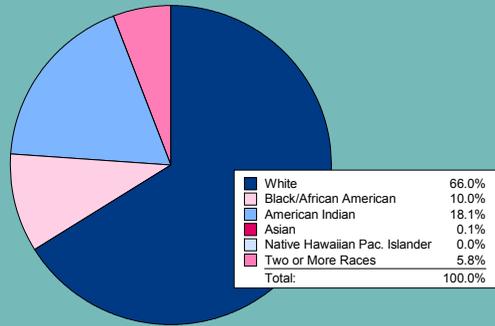

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

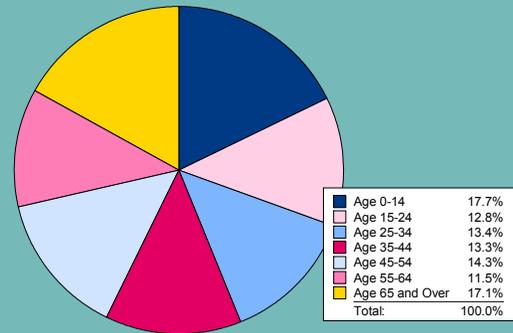

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 11,248 individuals lived in Okfuskee County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Okfuskee County had an estimated population density of 18.9 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Okfuskee County, 51.8% of all residents were male and 48.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Okfuskee

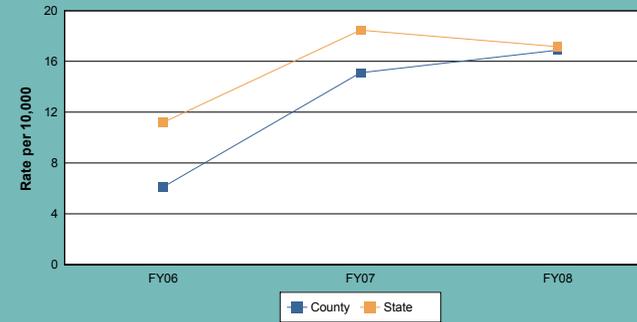

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Okfuskee

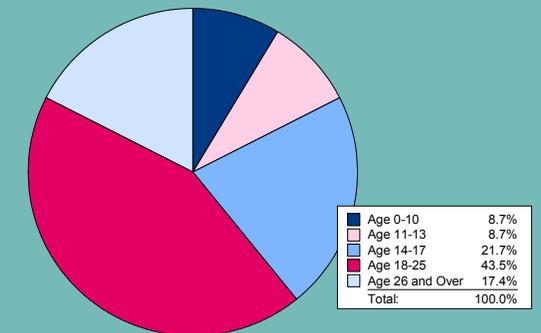

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Okfuskee County ranked #49 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Okfuskee County rate was 7.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Okfuskee County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Okfuskee County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 4.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.0% (3.4%) of the Okfuskee County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Okfuskee

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Okfuskee

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

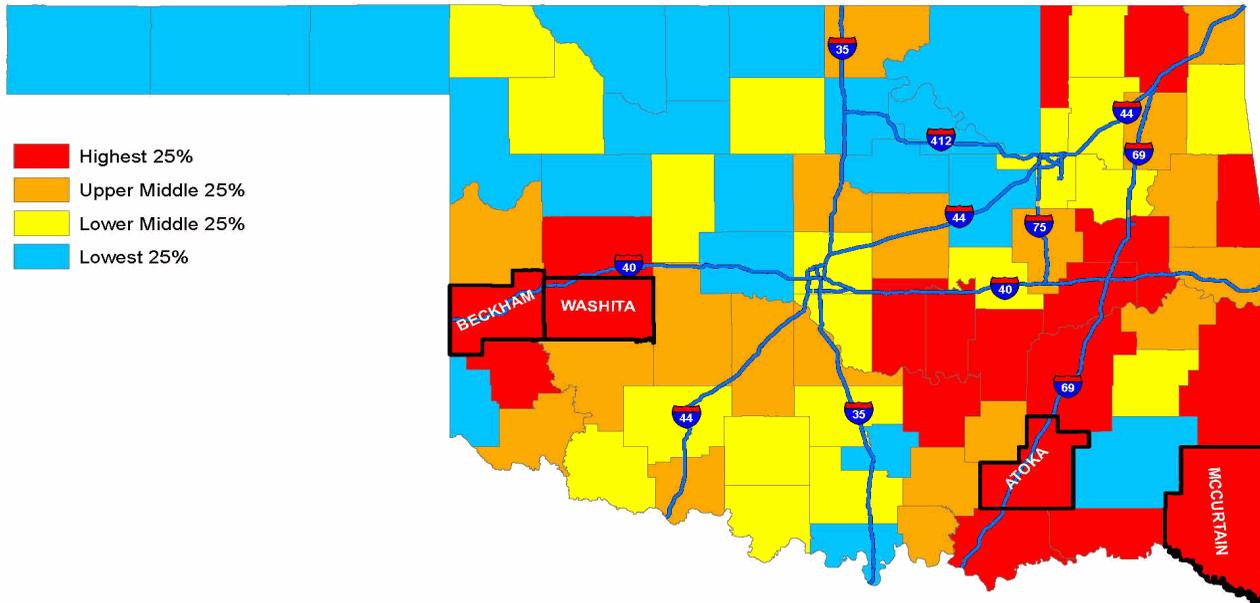

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Okfuskee County residents over age 25, 69.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 9.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Okfuskee County was $29,516 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Okfuskee County living in poverty was 21.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Okfuskee County was 67.1 (82.7) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Okfuskee County was 7.7% (4.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Okfuskee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 8.9 (19.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Okfuskee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 40.9 (55.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Okfuskee County was 3.4 (38.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Okfuskee County during 2007 was 56.0 (93.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Okfuskee County during 2007 was 17.8 (19.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Okfuskee County during 2007 was 24.9 (29.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Okfuskee County during 2007 was 0.0 (3.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

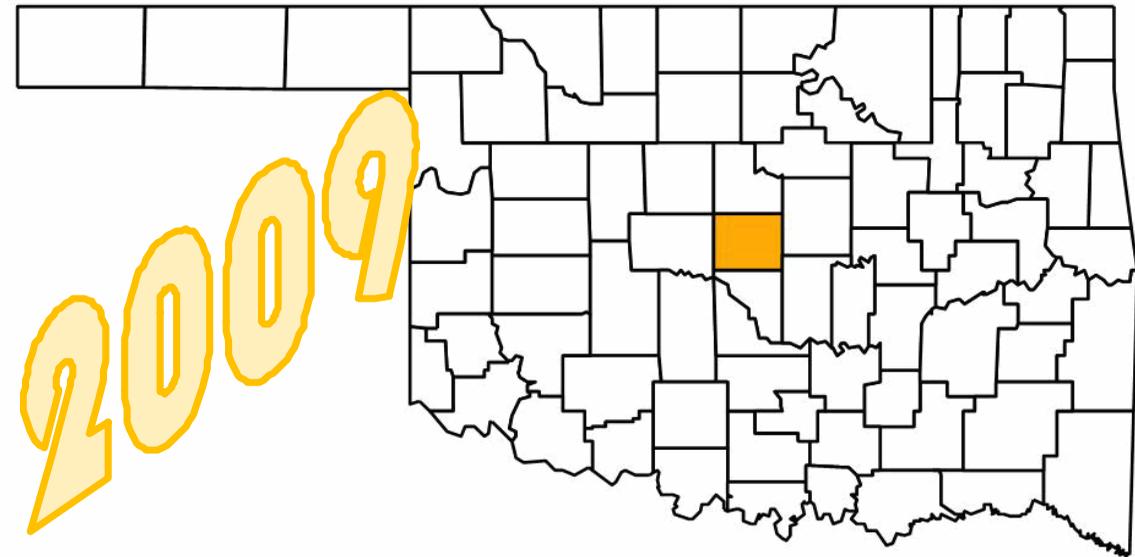

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Oklahoma County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Oklahoma County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

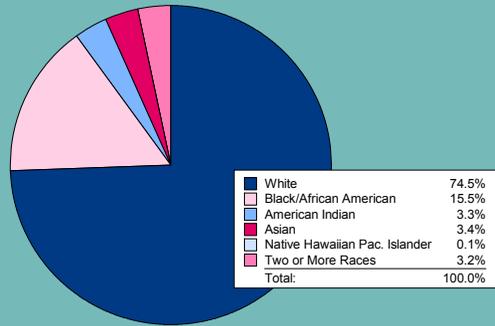

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

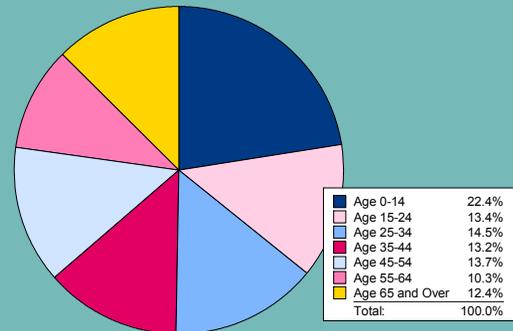

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 701,807 individuals lived in Oklahoma County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Oklahoma County had an estimated population density of 931.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Oklahoma County, 48.8% of all residents were male and 51.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Oklahoma

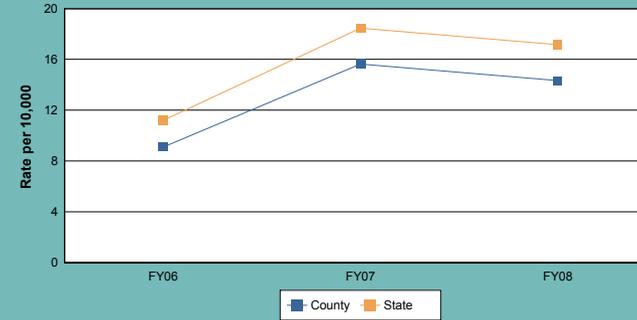

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Oklahoma

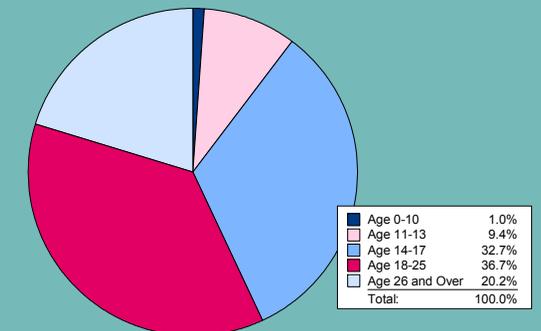

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Oklahoma County ranked #44 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Oklahoma County rate was 6.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Oklahoma County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Cocaine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Oklahoma County was 0.1 in 2008, compared to 0.7 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.7% (2.3%) of the Oklahoma County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 14.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Oklahoma

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Oklahoma

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

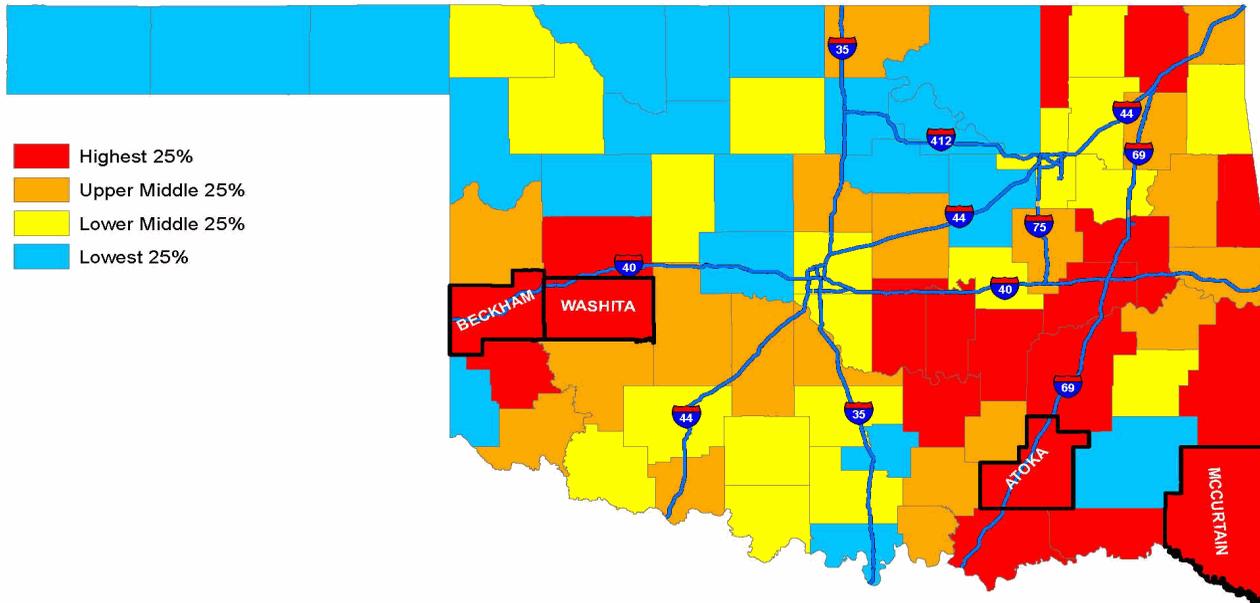

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Oklahoma County residents over age 25, 82.5% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 25.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Oklahoma County was $41,598 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Oklahoma County living in poverty was 15.9%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Oklahoma County was 83.5 (97.7) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Oklahoma County was 5.8% (4.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Oklahoma County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.2 (12.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Oklahoma County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 36.3 (135.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Oklahoma County was 5.5 (49.9) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Oklahoma County during 2007 was 111.6 (109.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Oklahoma County during 2007 was 71.2 (75.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Oklahoma County during 2007 was 72.1 (69.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Oklahoma County during 2007 was 6.5 (9.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

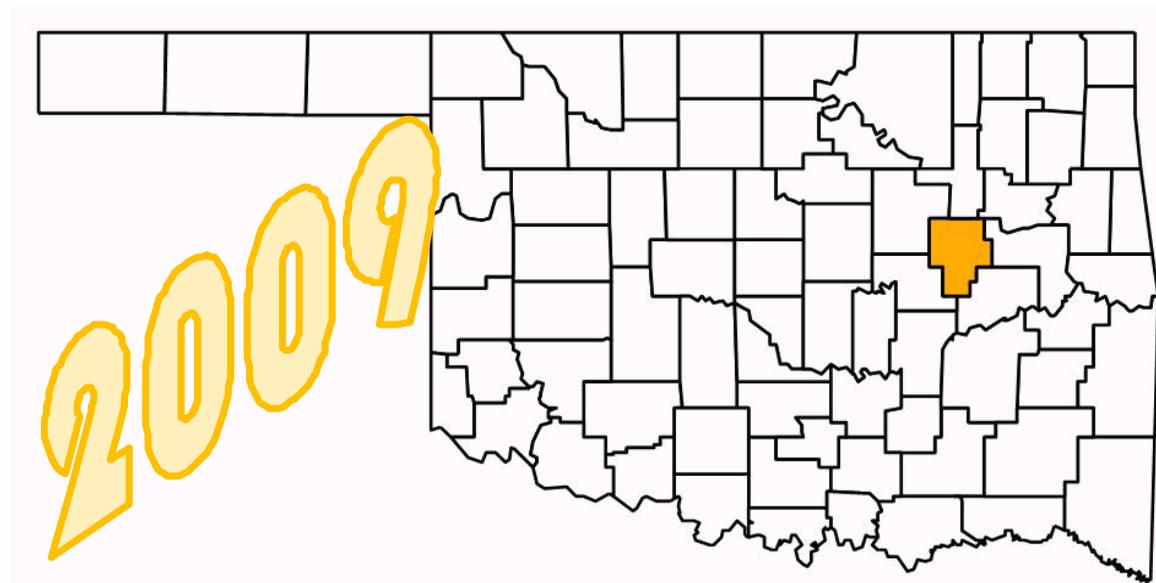

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Okmulgee County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Okmulgee County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

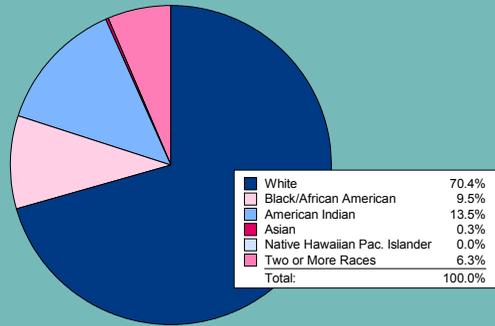

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

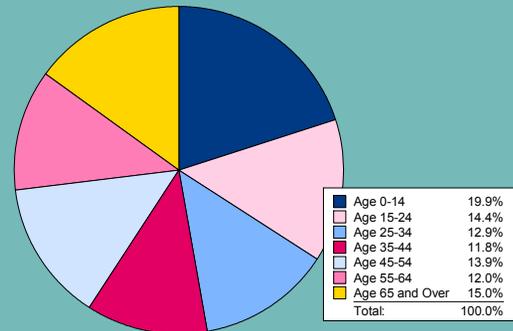

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 39,300 individuals lived in Okmulgee County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Okmulgee County had an estimated population density of 56.9 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Okmulgee County, 48.6% of all residents were male and 51.4% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Okmulgee

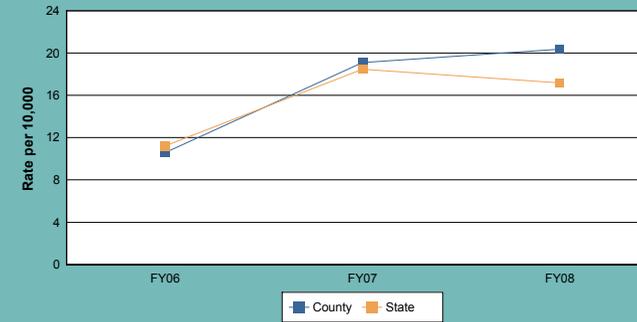

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Okmulgee

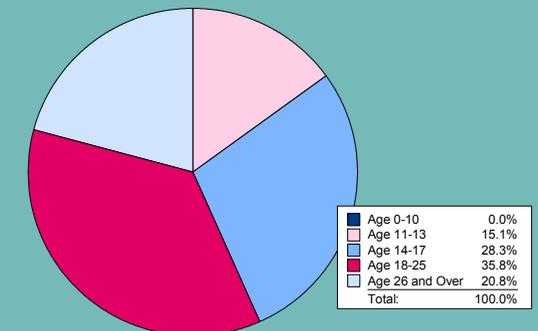

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Okmulgee County ranked #40 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Okmulgee County rate was 5.9 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Okmulgee County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Okmulgee County was 3.6 in 2008, compared to 4.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.9% (2.5%) of the Okmulgee County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 23.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Okmulgee

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Okmulgee

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

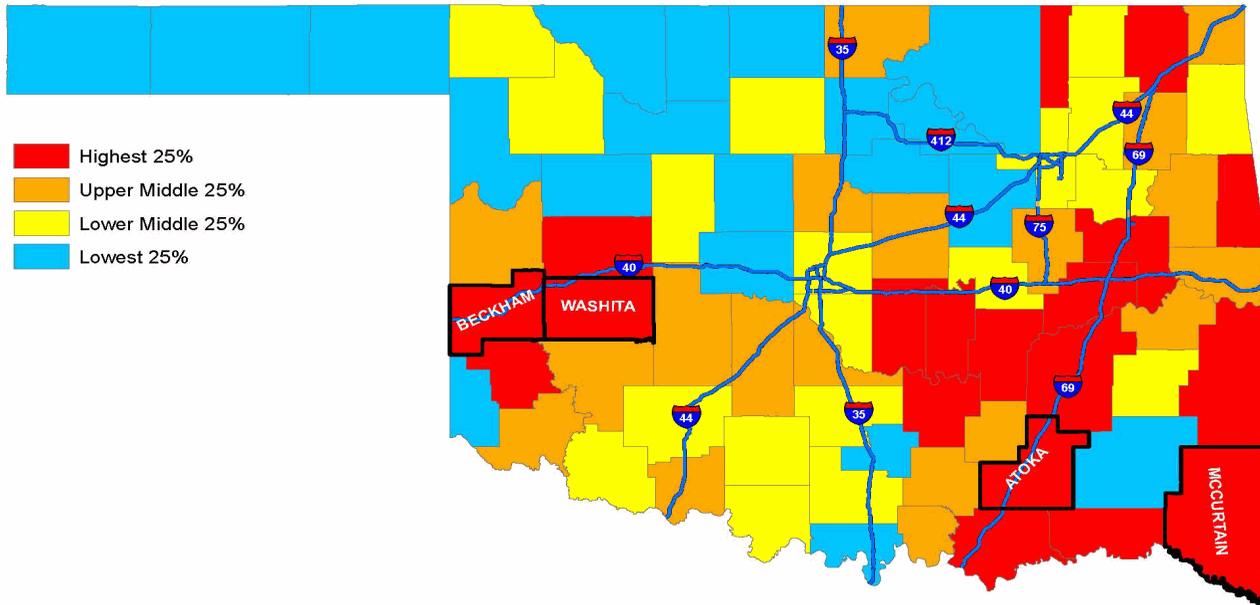

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Okmulgee County residents over age 25, 74.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 11.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Okmulgee County was $35,018 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Okmulgee County living in poverty was 18.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Okmulgee County was 41.8 (38.7) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Okmulgee County was 9.1% (5.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Okmulgee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.1 (18.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Okmulgee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 18.6 (111.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Okmulgee County was 4.7 (53.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Okmulgee County during 2007 was 137.7 (117.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Okmulgee County during 2007 was 39.9 (28.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Okmulgee County during 2007 was 38.7 (31.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Okmulgee County during 2007 was 3.3 (2.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

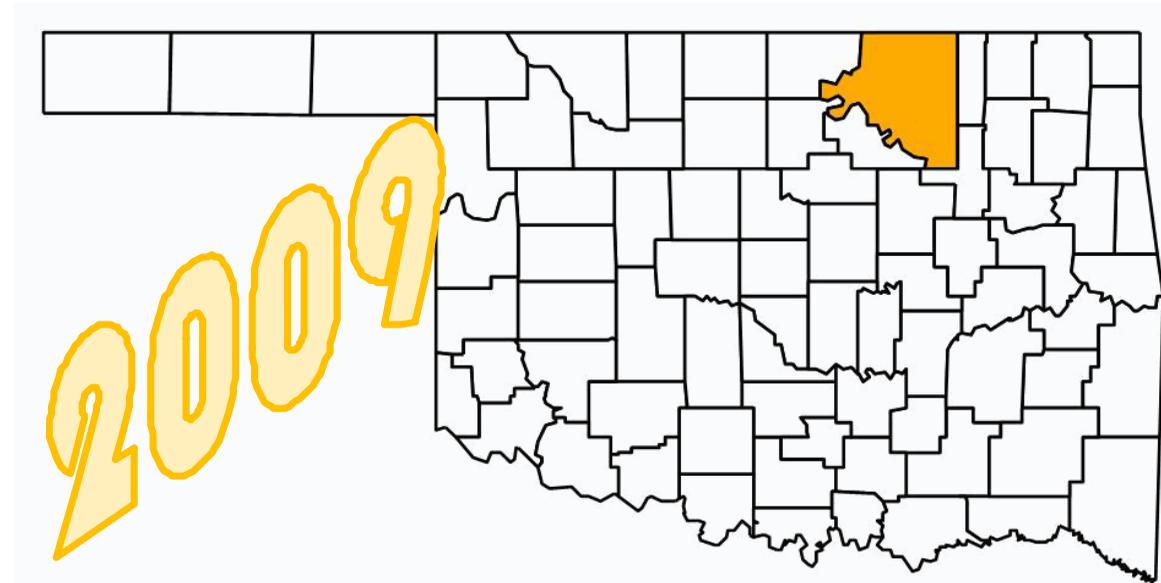

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Osage County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Osage County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

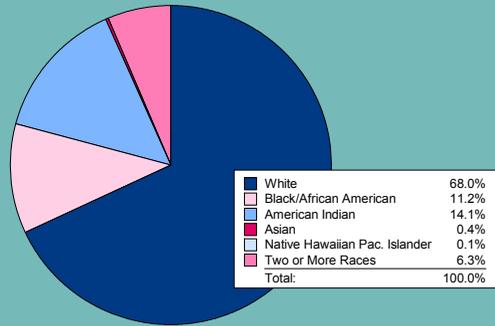

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

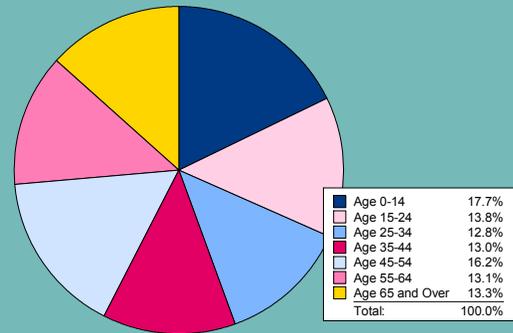

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 45,523 individuals lived in Osage County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Osage County had an estimated population density of 19.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Osage County, 50.5% of all residents were male and 49.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Osage

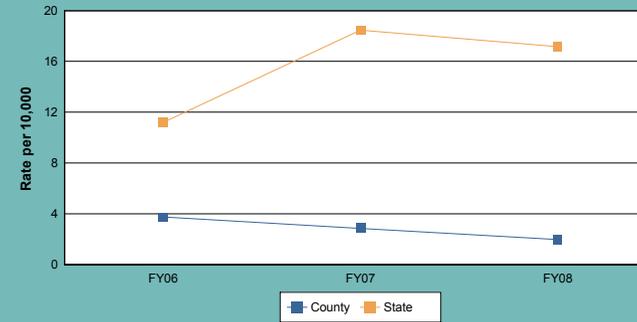

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Osage

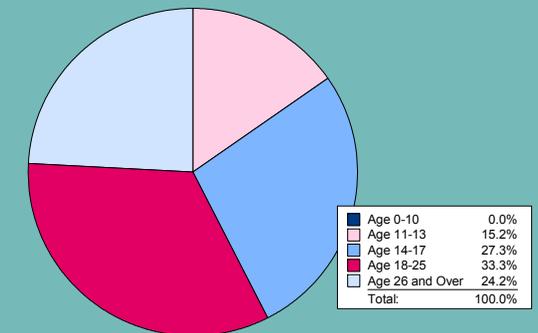

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Osage County ranked #75 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Osage County rate was 1.3 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Osage County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Heroin and Other Opiates (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Osage County was 1.1 in 2008, compared to 3.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.5% (3.4%) of the Osage County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Osage

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Osage

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

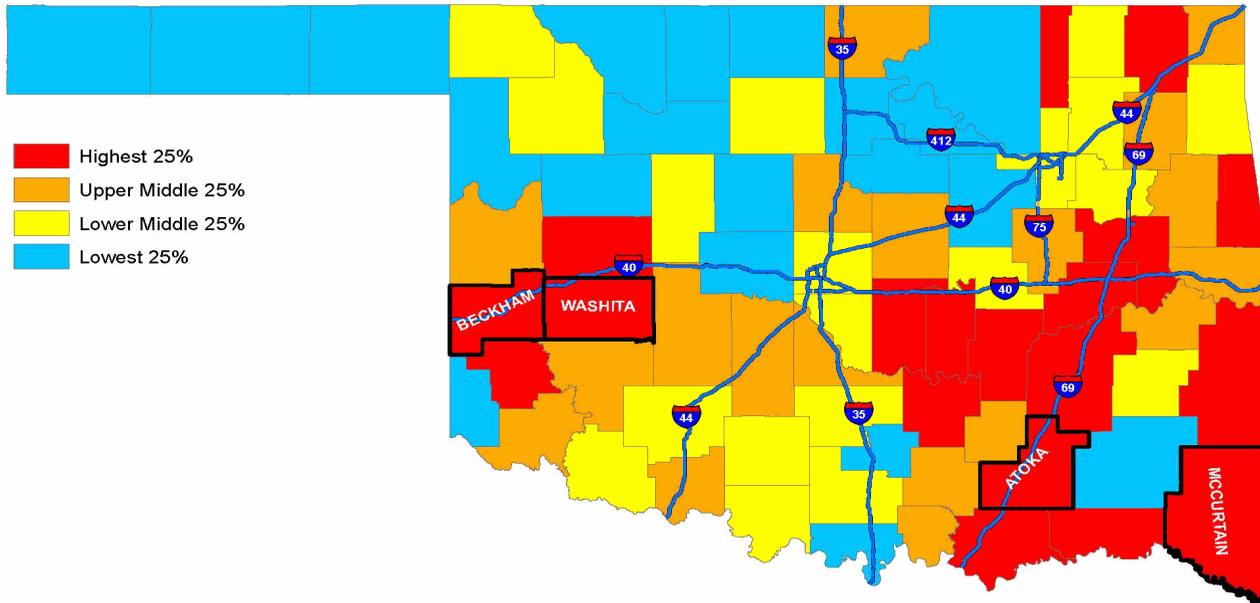

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Osage County residents over age 25, 80.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 14.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Osage County was $42,245 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Osage County living in poverty was 13.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Osage County was 18.2 (22.4) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Osage County was 6.6% (4.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Osage County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.4 (15.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Osage County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 9.4 (82.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Osage County was 3.2 (33.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Osage County during 2007 was 73.6 (54.5), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Osage County during 2007 was 17.6 (19.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Osage County during 2007 was 17.1 (14.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Osage County during 2007 was 4.0 (1.8), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

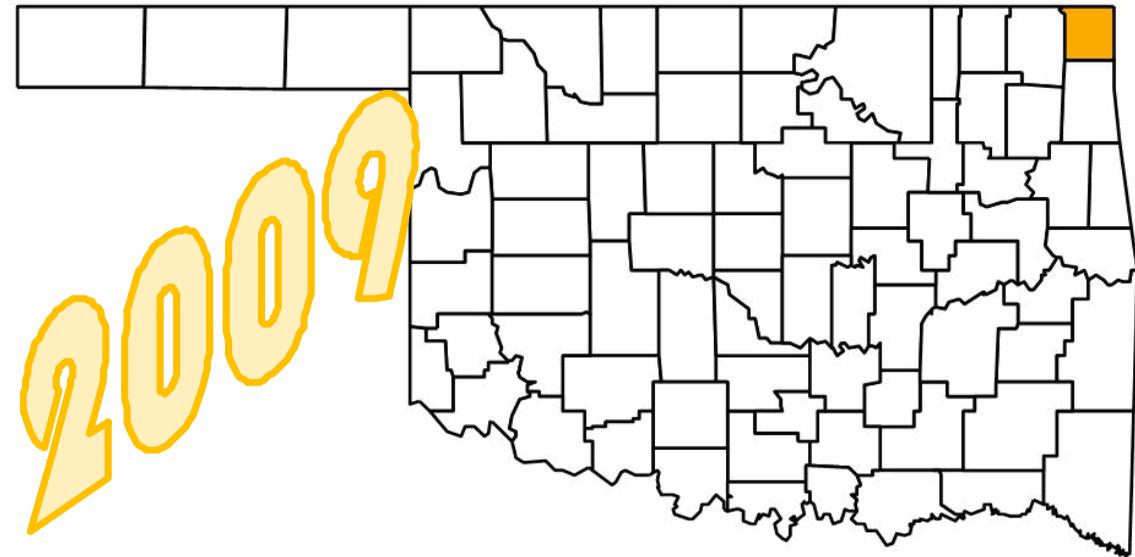

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Ottawa County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Ottawa County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

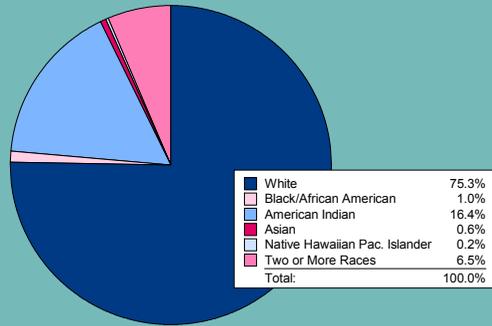

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

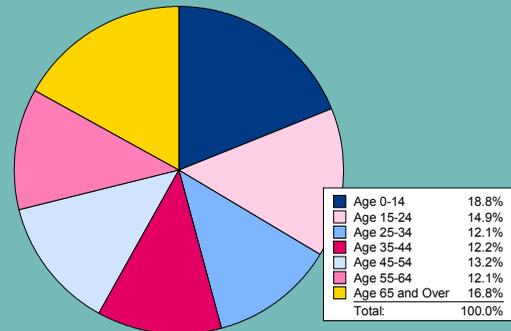

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 32,474 individuals lived in Ottawa County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Ottawa County had an estimated population density of 70.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Ottawa County, 48.9% of all residents were male and 51.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Ottawa

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Ottawa

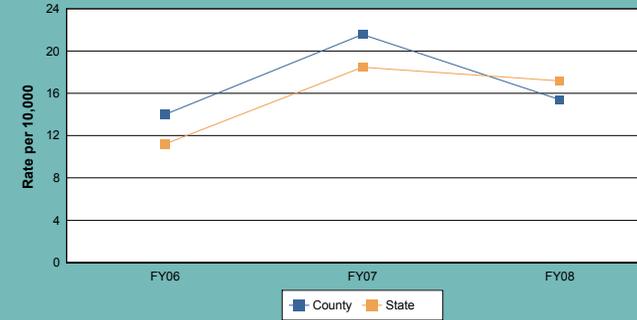

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Ottawa County ranked #31 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Ottawa County rate was 5.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Ottawa County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Ottawa County was 1.9 in 2008, compared to 11.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.9% (2.1%) of the Ottawa County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

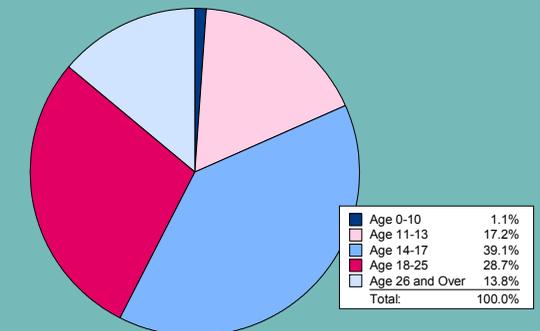

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Ottawa County residents over age 25, 75.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Ottawa County was $33,841 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Ottawa County living in poverty was 16.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Ottawa County was 22.6 (24.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Ottawa County was 7.0% (5.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Ottawa

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Ottawa

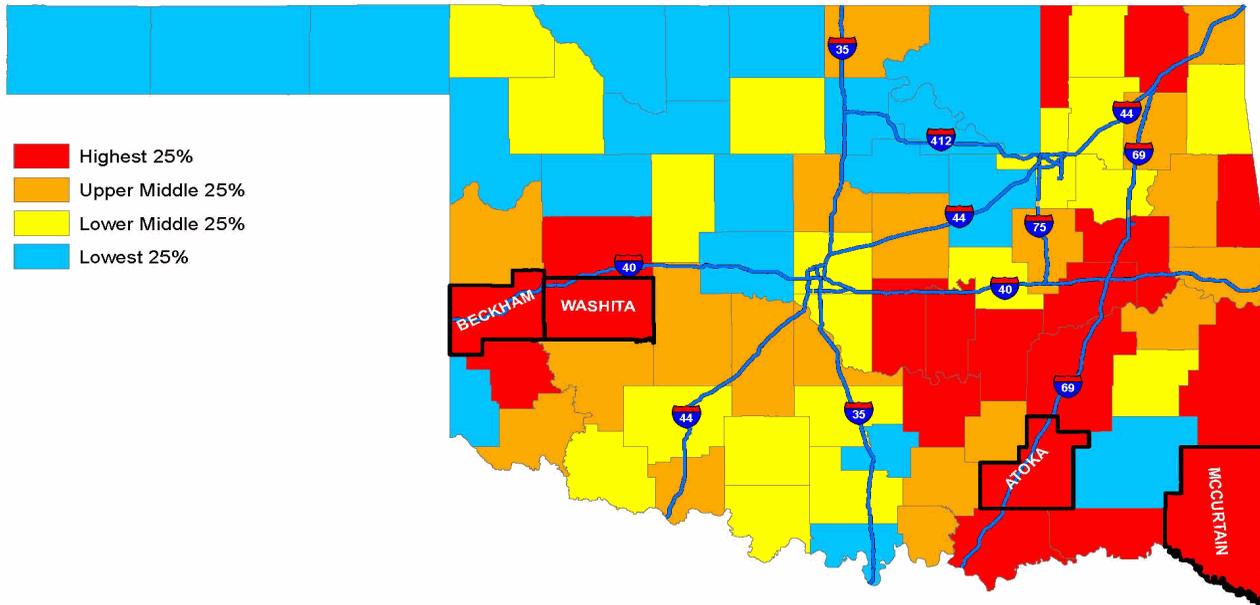

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Ottawa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.2 (13.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Ottawa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 12.6 (89.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Ottawa County was 5.2 (61.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Ottawa County during 2007 was 115.5 (96.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Ottawa County during 2007 was 33.6 (38.2), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Ottawa County during 2007 was 32.6 (39.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Ottawa County during 2007 was 13.2 (14.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

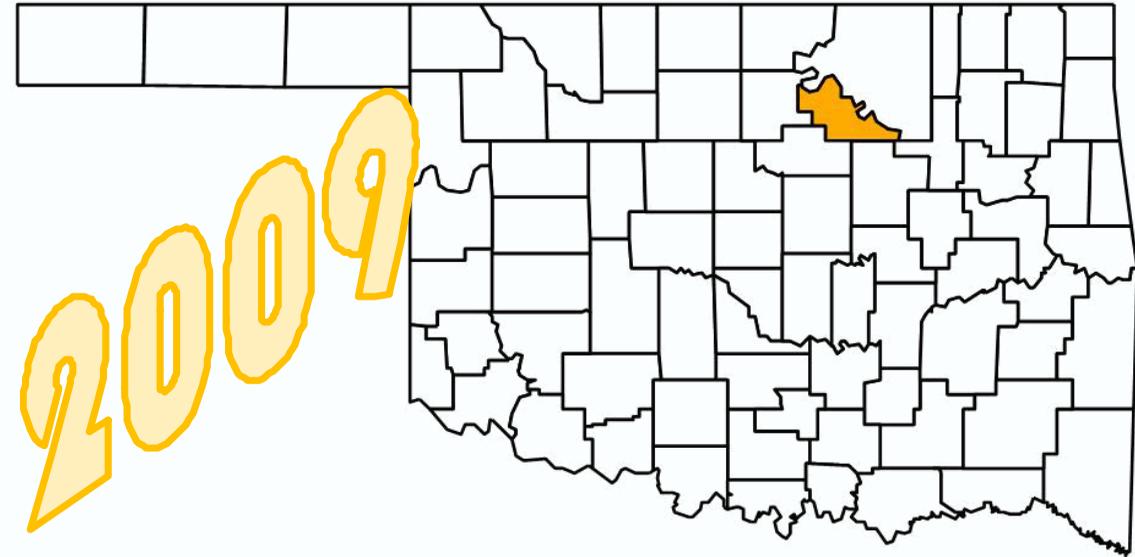

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Pawnee County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Pawnee County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

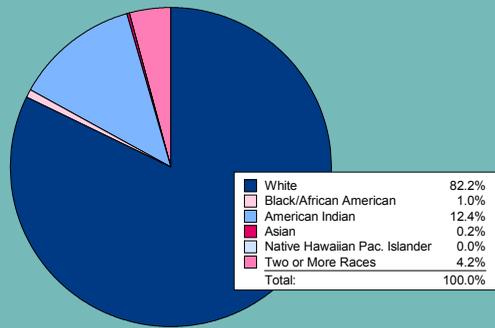

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

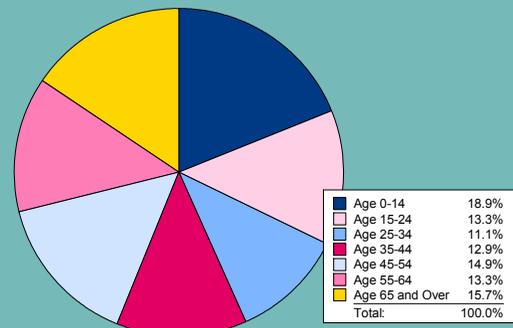

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 16,447 individuals lived in Pawnee County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Pawnee County had an estimated population density of 29.2 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Pawnee County, 49.7% of all residents were male and 50.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Pawnee

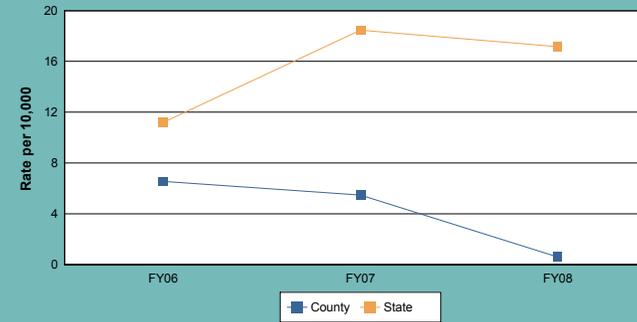

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Pawnee

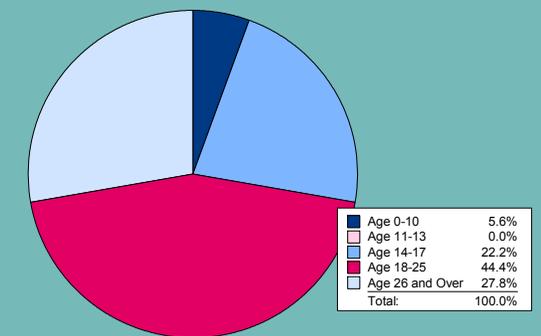

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Pawnee County ranked #70 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Pawnee County rate was 0.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Pawnee County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Heroin and Other Opiates was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Pawnee County was 1.2 in 2008, compared to 2.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 3.8% (1.9%) of the Pawnee County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 31.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Pawnee

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Pawnee

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

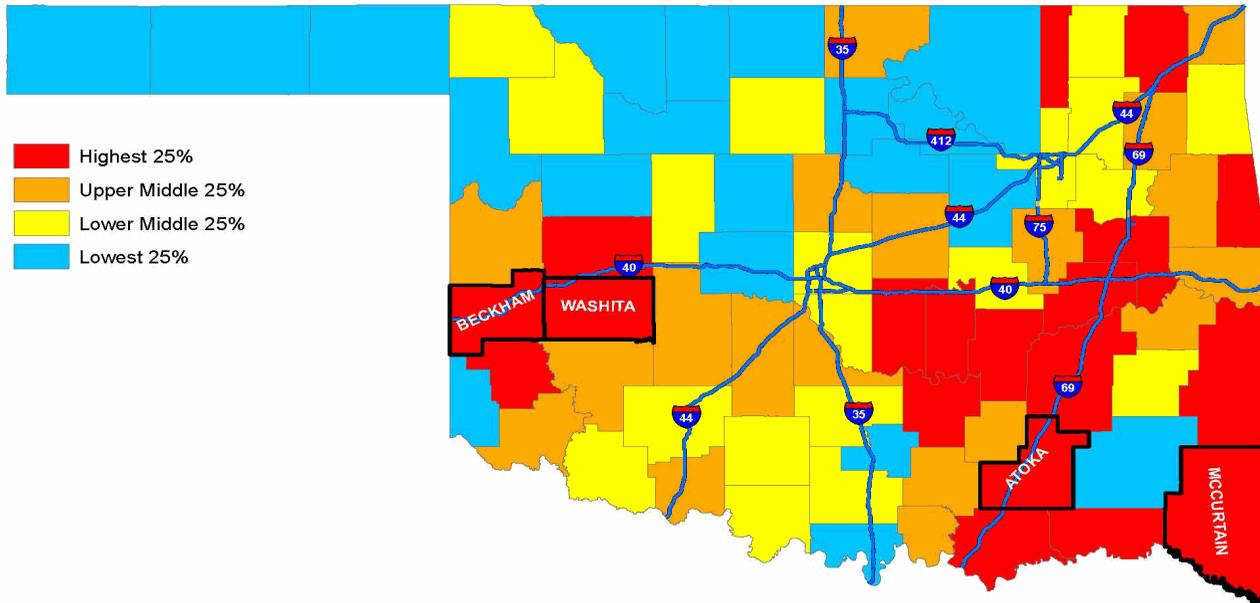

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Pawnee County residents over age 25, 78.8% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Pawnee County was $40,255 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Pawnee County living in poverty was 16.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Pawnee County was 14.1 (22.5) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Pawnee County was 7.7% (4.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Pawnee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.6 (7.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Pawnee County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 23.1 (134.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Pawnee County was 3.8 (58.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Pawnee County during 2007 was 166.6 (136.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Pawnee County during 2007 was 60.8 (111.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Pawnee County during 2007 was 45.6 (29.8) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Pawnee County during 2007 was 30.4 (57.6), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

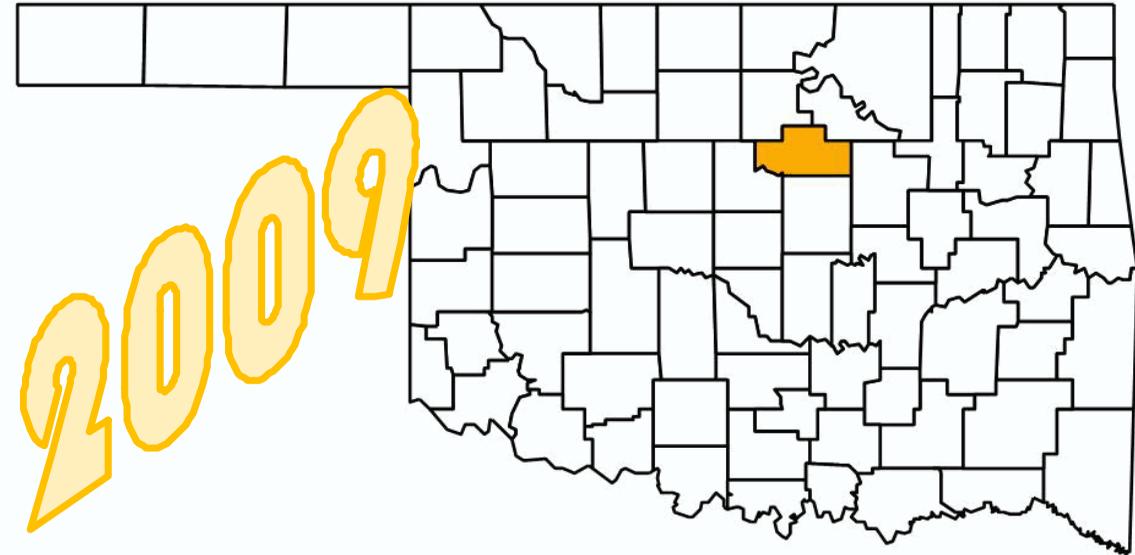

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Payne County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Payne County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

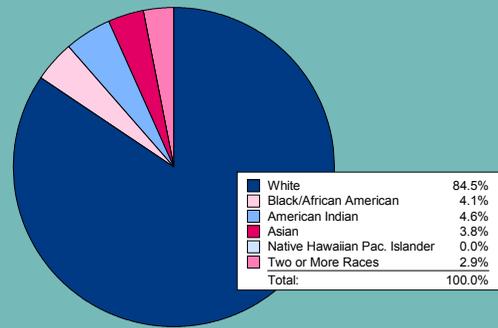

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

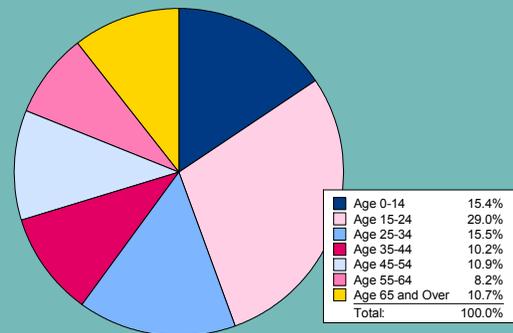

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 79,931 individuals lived in Payne County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Payne County had an estimated population density of 99.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Payne County, 51.5% of all residents were male and 48.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Payne

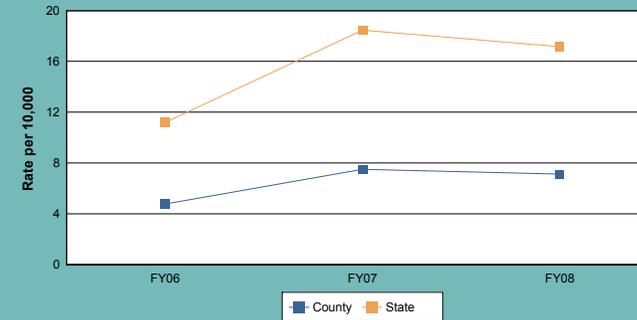

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Payne

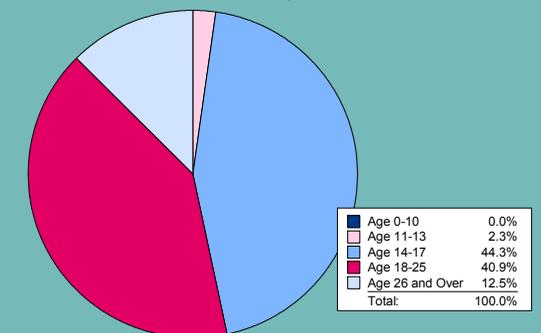

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Payne County ranked #65 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Payne County rate was 3.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Payne County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Payne County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 2.2 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.7% (3.7%) of the Payne County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Payne

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Payne

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

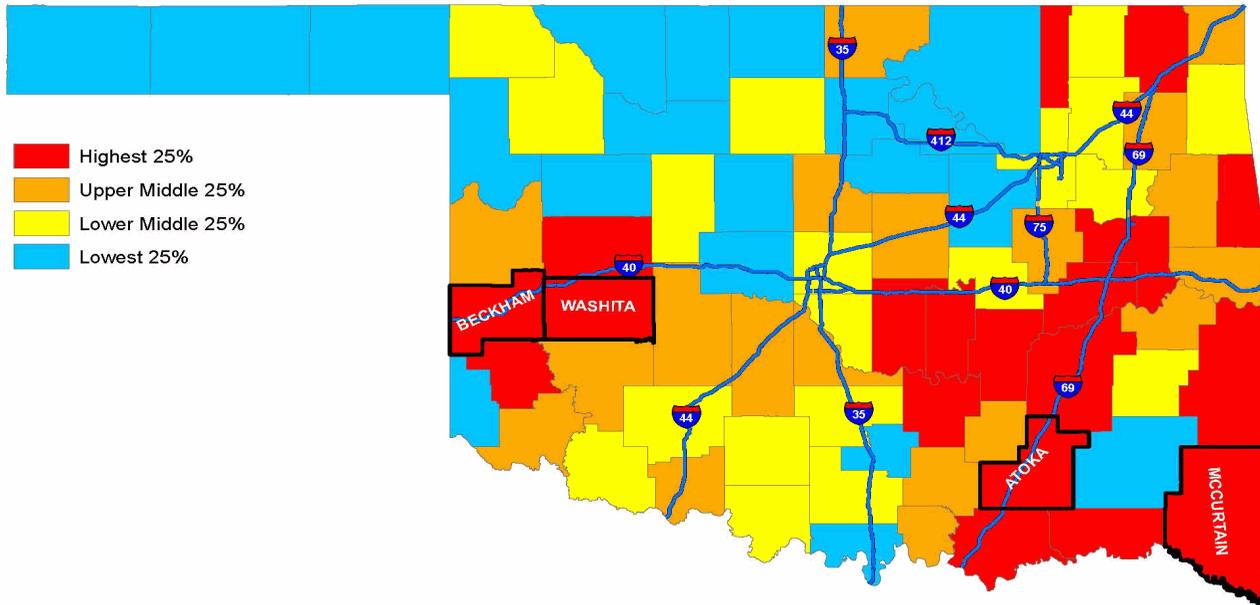

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Payne County residents over age 25, 86.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 34.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Payne County was $33,840 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Payne County living in poverty was 21.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Payne County was 20.7 (19.5) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Payne County was 5.5% (3.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Payne County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.0 (16.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Payne County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 15.5 (135.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Payne County was 3.3 (49.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Payne County during 2007 was 194.9 (220.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Payne County during 2007 was 62.7 (70.2), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Payne County during 2007 was 34.5 (44.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Payne County during 2007 was 1.5 (3.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

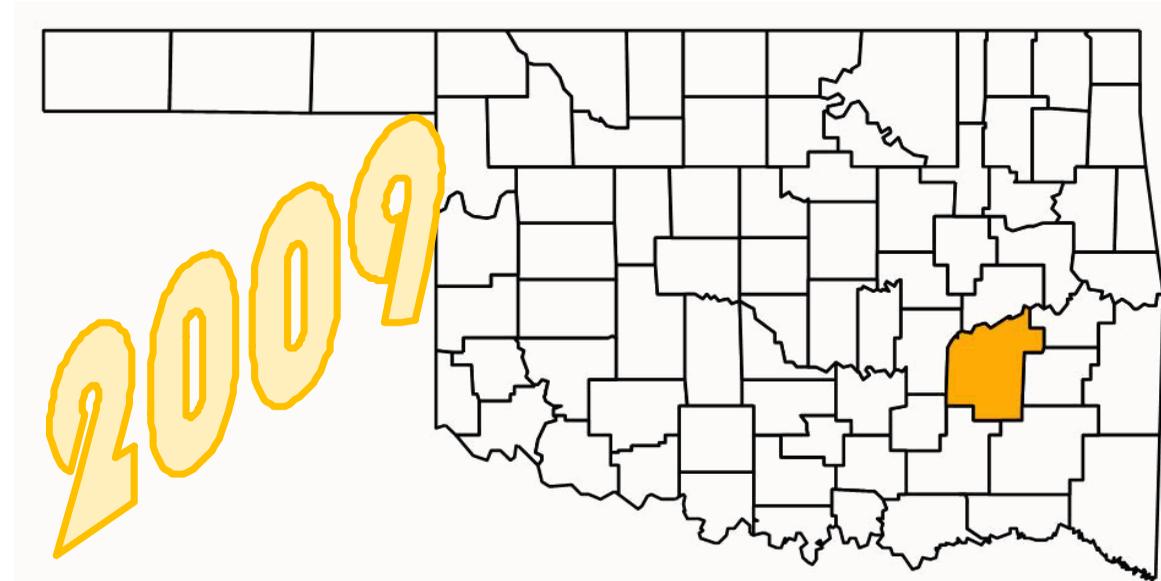

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Pittsburg County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Pittsburg County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

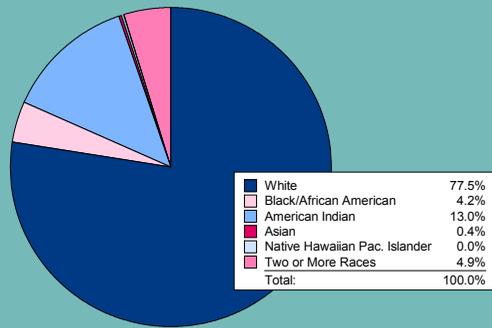

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

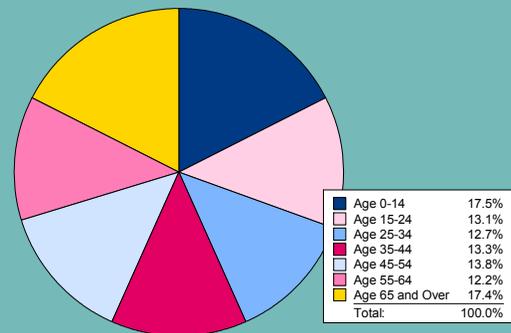

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 44,711 individuals lived in Pittsburg County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Pittsburg County had an estimated population density of 33.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Pittsburg County, 50.8% of all residents were male and 49.2% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Pittsburg

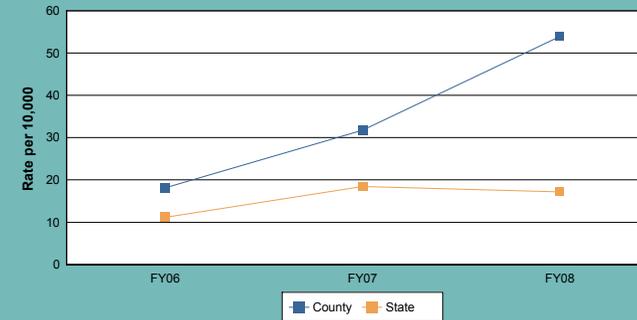

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Pittsburg

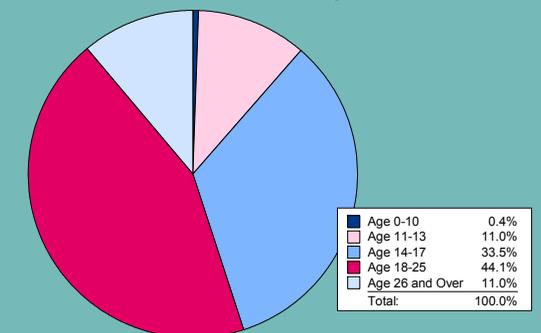

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Pittsburg County ranked #11 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Pittsburg County rate was 22.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Pittsburg County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Pittsburg County was 2.0 in 2008, compared to 4.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.0% (0.0%) of the Pittsburg County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 11.9% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Pittsburg

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Pittsburg

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

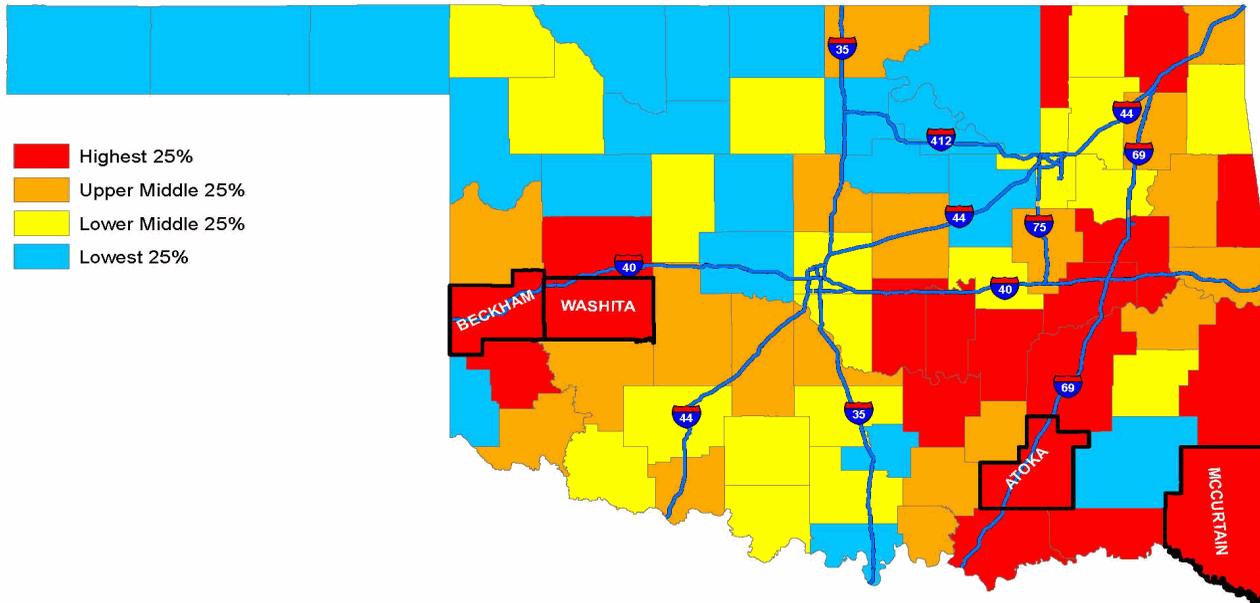

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Pittsburg County residents over age 25, 76.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Pittsburg County was $37,113 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Pittsburg County living in poverty was 16.5%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Pittsburg County was 27.9 (27.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Pittsburg County was 5.1% (3.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Pittsburg County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 8.7 (23.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Pittsburg County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 46.3 (220.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Pittsburg County was 6.1 (68.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Pittsburg County during 2007 was 106.9 (97.7), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Pittsburg County during 2007 was 100.6 (93.7), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Pittsburg County during 2007 was 57.3 (31.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Pittsburg County during 2007 was 31.5 (29.8), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

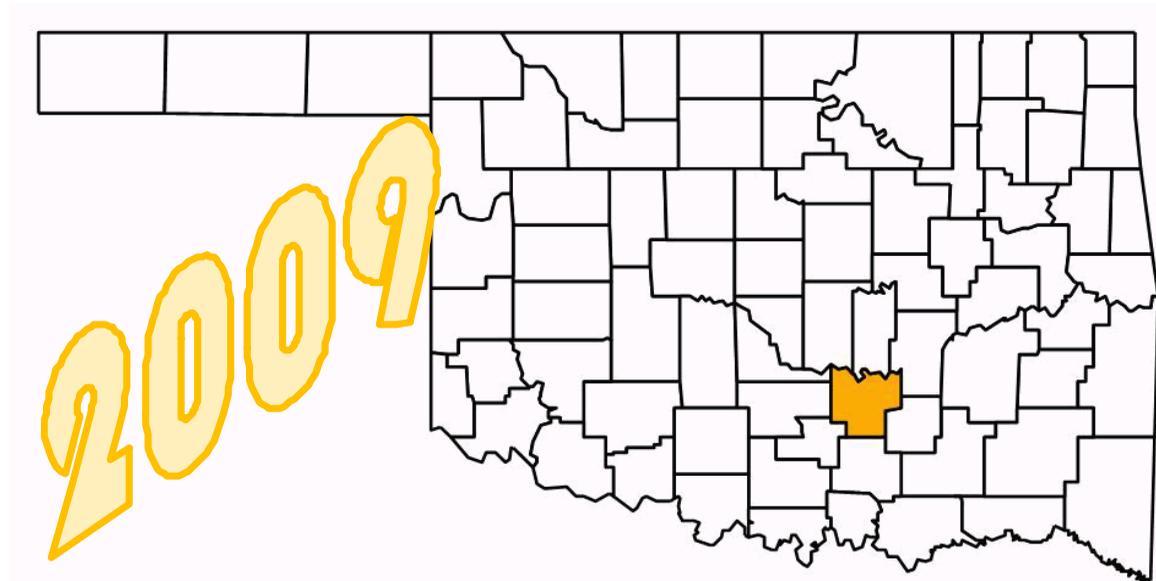

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Pontotoc County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Pontotoc County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

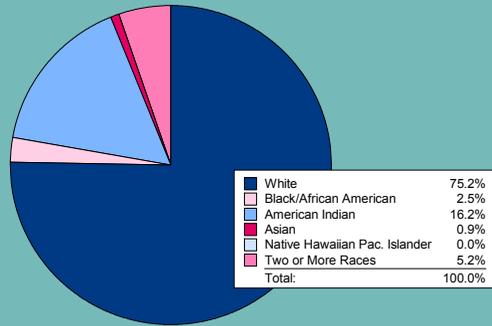

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

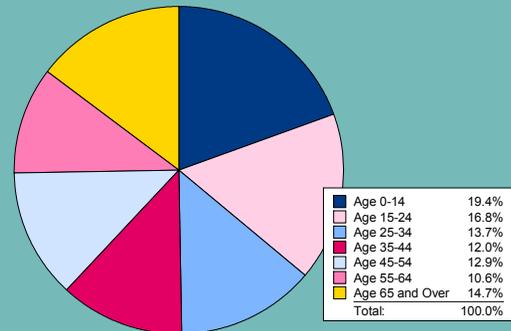

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 36,571 individuals lived in Pontotoc County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Pontotoc County had an estimated population density of 48.8 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Pontotoc County, 48.7% of all residents were male and 51.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Pontotoc

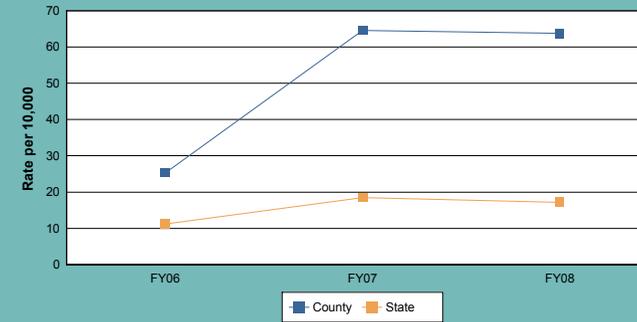

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Pontotoc

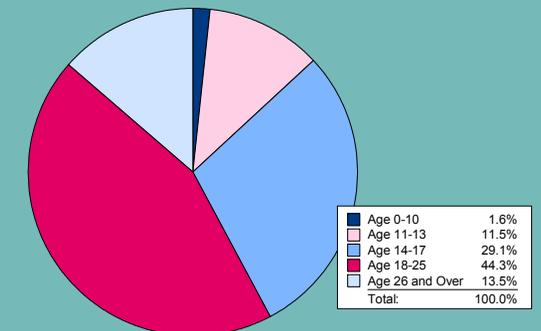

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Pontotoc County ranked #4 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Pontotoc County rate was 19.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Pontotoc County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Pontotoc County was 1.6 in 2008, compared to 1.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.7% (5.3%) of the Pontotoc County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Pontotoc

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Pontotoc

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

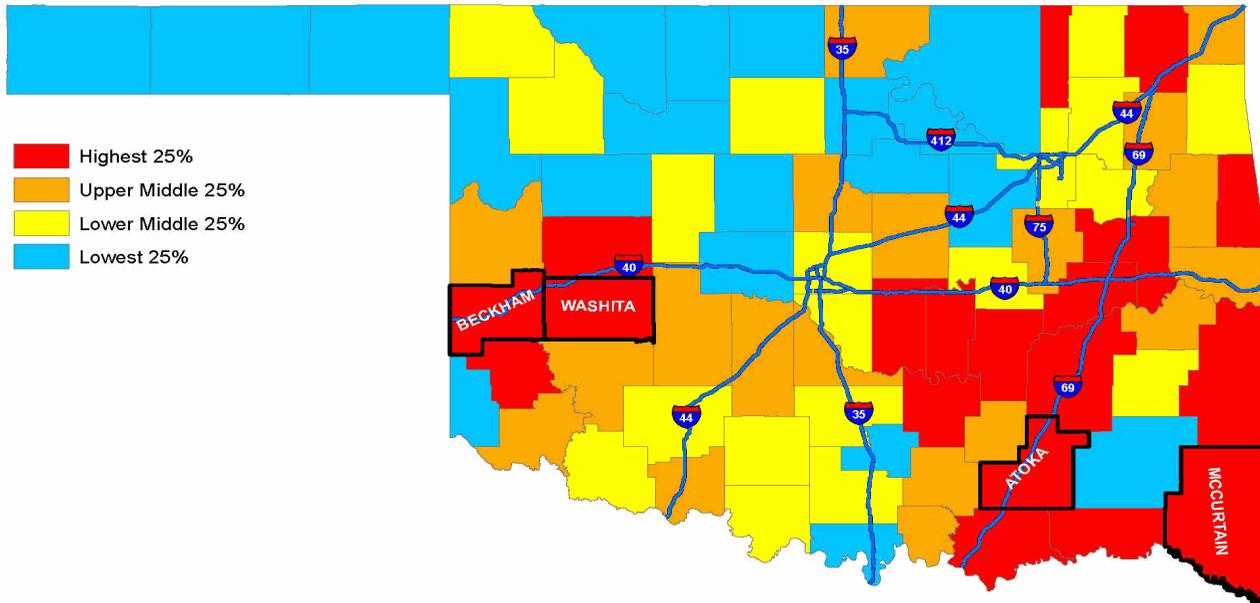

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Pontotoc County residents over age 25, 78.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 21.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Pontotoc County was $35,895 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Pontotoc County living in poverty was 16.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Pontotoc County was 44.1 (47.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Pontotoc County was 5.8% (3.3%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Pontotoc County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.3 (10.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Pontotoc County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 28.2 (103.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Pontotoc County was 3.7 (51.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Pontotoc County during 2007 was 292.6 (239.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Pontotoc County during 2007 was 108.6 (113.8), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Pontotoc County during 2007 was 94.1 (54.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Pontotoc County during 2007 was 15.3 (14.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

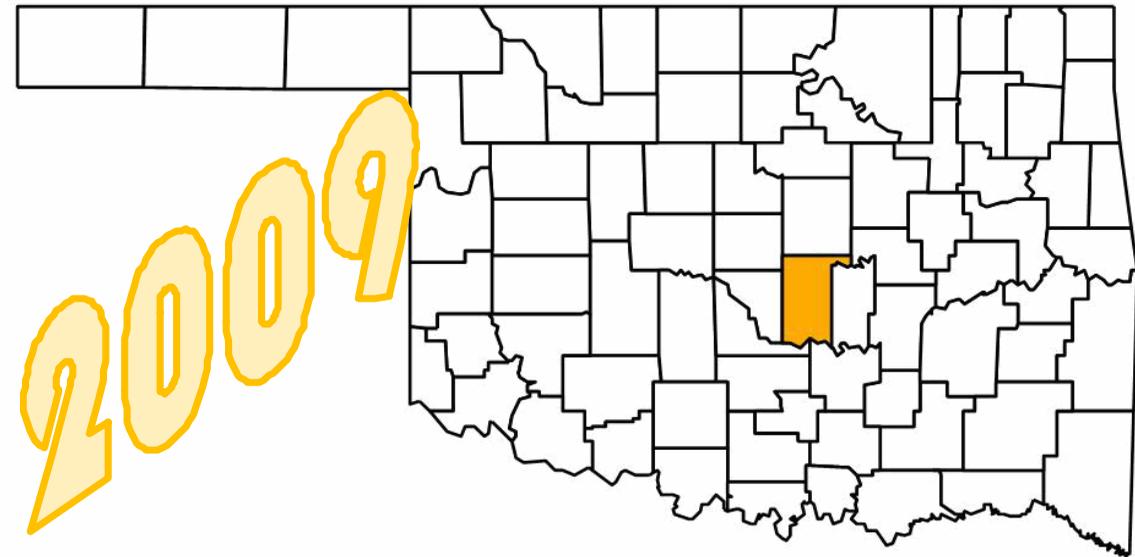

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Pottawatomie County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Pottawatomie County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

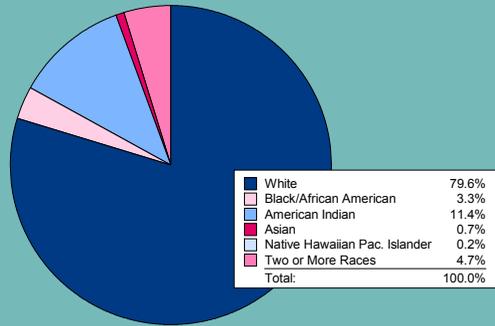

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

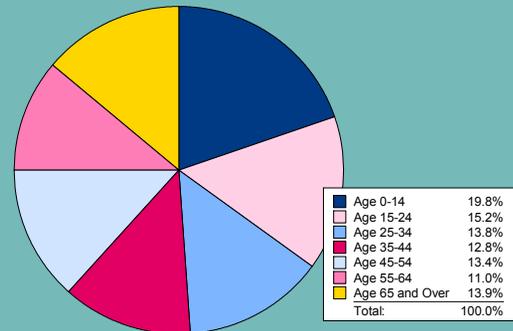

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 69,038 individuals lived in Pottawatomie County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Pottawatomie County had an estimated population density of 83.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Pottawatomie County, 48.3% of all residents were male and 51.7% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Pottawatomie

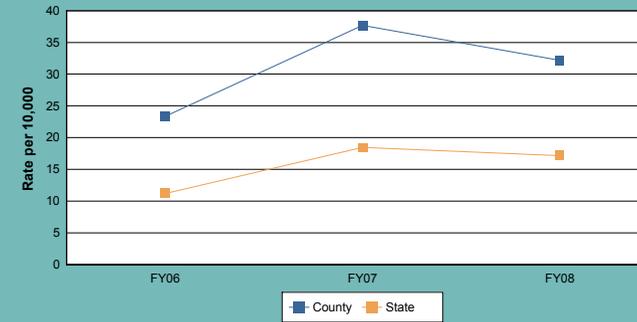

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Pottawatomie

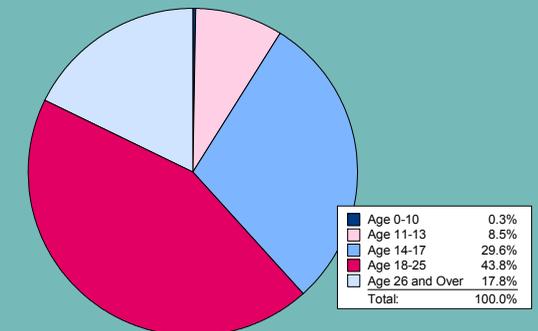

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Pottawatomie County ranked #13 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Pottawatomie County rate was 11.2 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Pottawatomie County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Pottawatomie County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.1% (1.7%) of the Pottawatomie County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Pottawatomie

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Pottawatomie

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

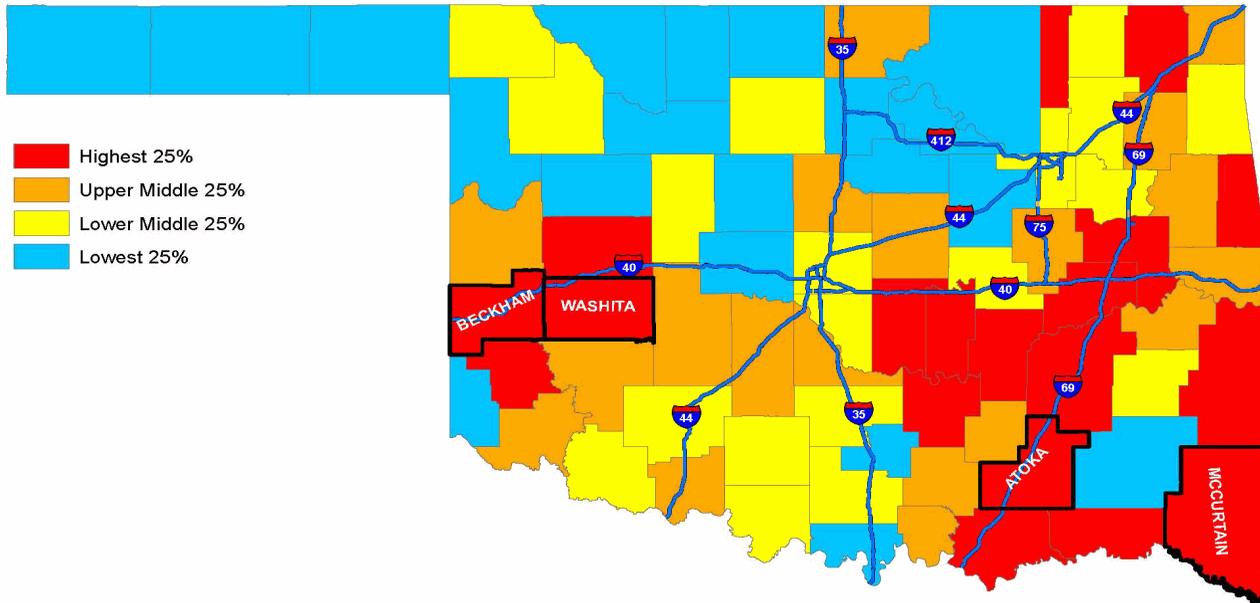

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Pottawatomie County residents over age 25, 79.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.5% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Pottawatomie County was $38,614 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Pottawatomie County living in poverty was 18.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Pottawatomie County was 66.2 (77.6) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Pottawatomie County was 6.0% (4.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Pottawatomie County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.8 (10.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Pottawatomie County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 20.1 (95.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Pottawatomie County was 5.0 (55.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Pottawatomie County during 2007 was 150.1 (126.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Pottawatomie County during 2007 was 42.7 (45.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Pottawatomie County during 2007 was 55.9 (37.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Pottawatomie County during 2007 was 8.8 (7.9), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

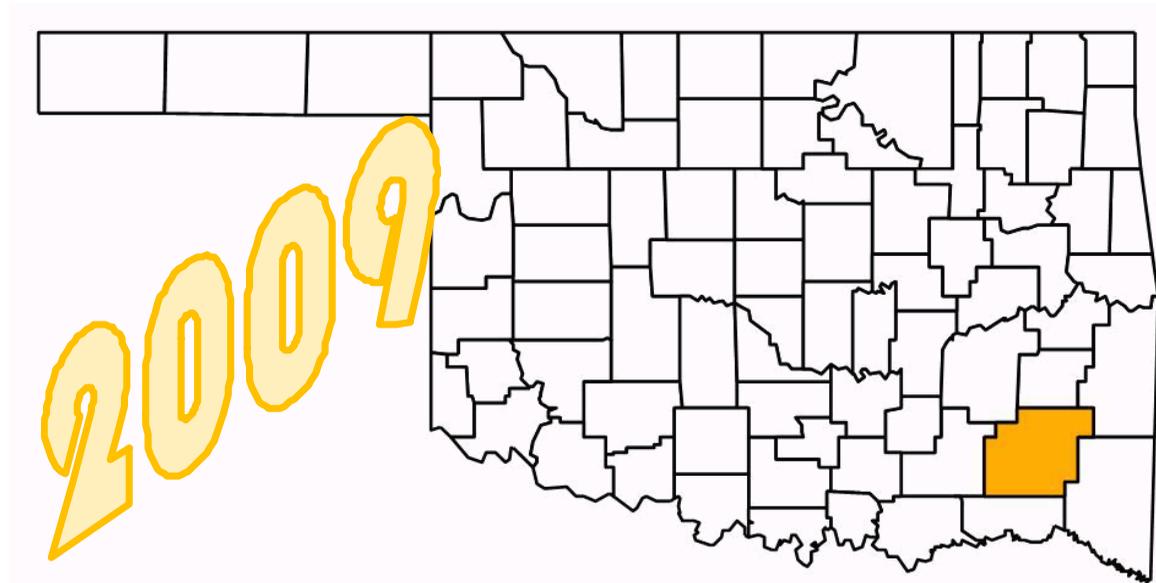

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Pushmataha County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Pushmataha County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

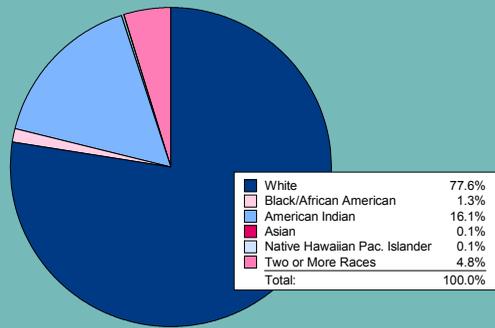

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

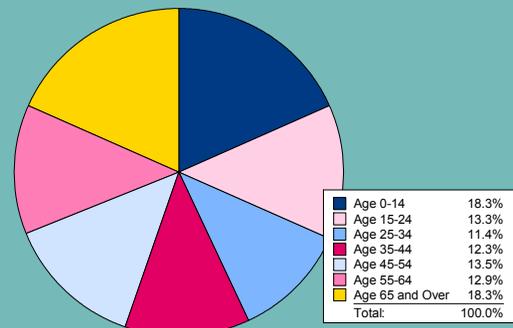

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 11,666 individuals lived in Pushmataha County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Pushmataha County had an estimated population density of 8.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Pushmataha County, 48.1% of all residents were male and 51.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Pushmataha

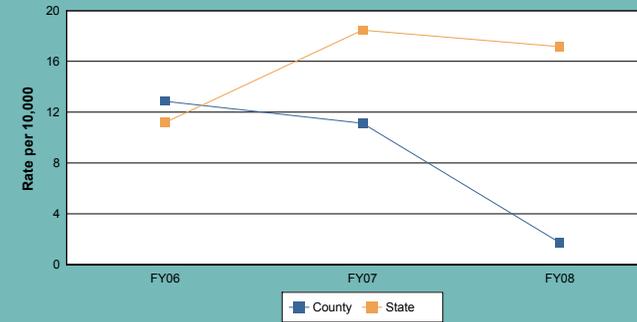

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Pushmataha

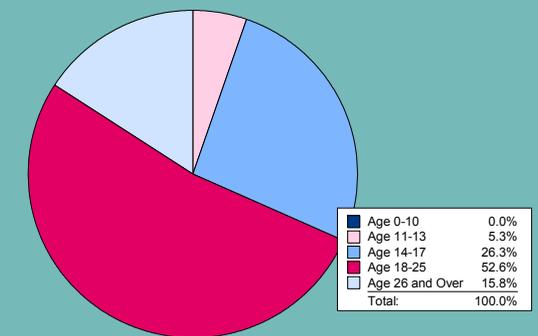

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Pushmataha County ranked #48 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Pushmataha County rate was 0.9 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Pushmataha County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Pushmataha County was 1.7 in 2008, compared to 2.6 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.3% (3.2%) of the Pushmataha County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 19.6% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Pushmataha

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Pushmataha

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

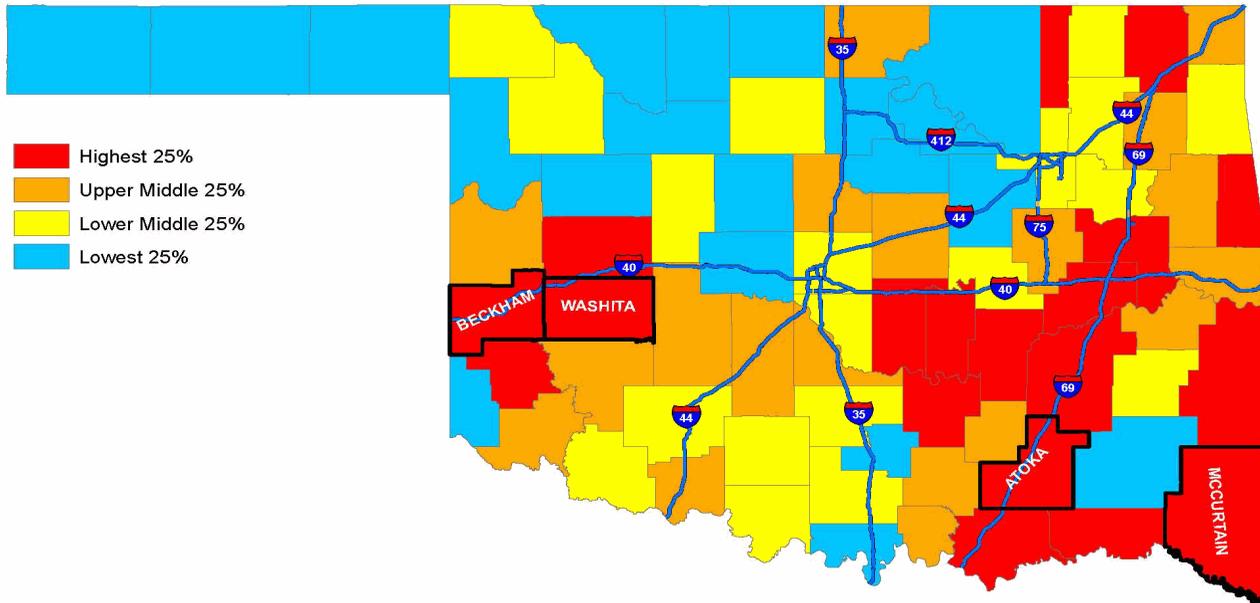

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Pushmataha County residents over age 25, 69.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Pushmataha County was $28,348 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Pushmataha County living in poverty was 22.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Pushmataha County was 63.2 (59.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Pushmataha County was 8.6% (5.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Pushmataha County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.4 (14.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Pushmataha County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 30.9 (158.6), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Pushmataha County was 6.3 (63.6) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Pushmataha County during 2007 was 307.7 (182.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Pushmataha County during 2007 was 94.3 (90.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Pushmataha County during 2007 was 47.1 (29.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Pushmataha County during 2007 was 40.3 (41.2), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

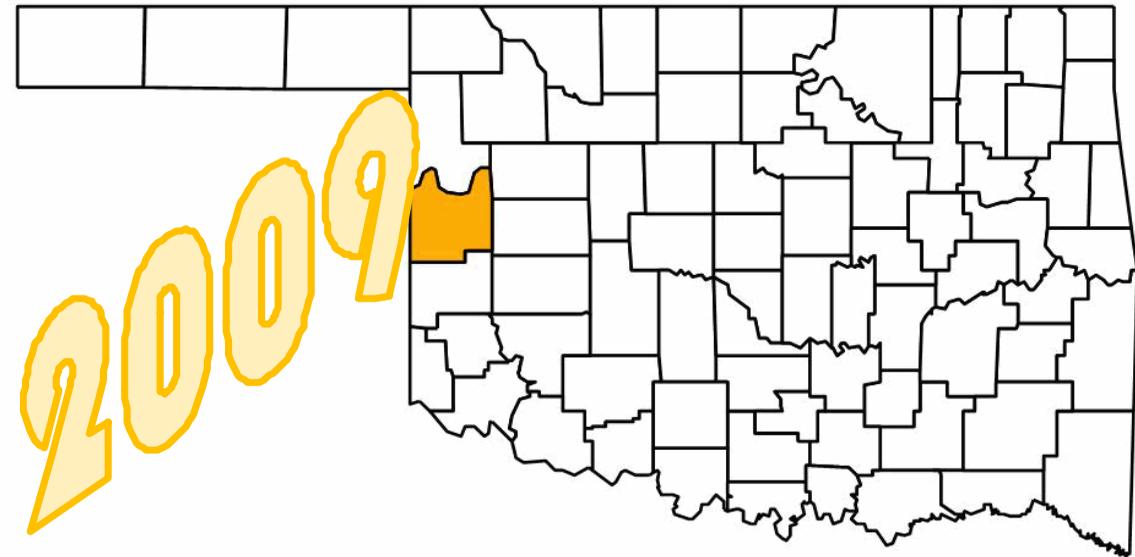

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Roger Mills County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Roger Mills County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

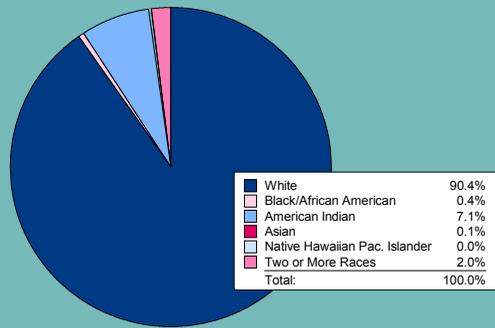

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

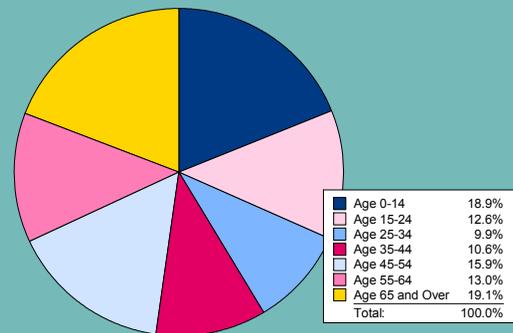

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 3,308 individuals lived in Roger Mills County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Roger Mills County had an estimated population density of 3.0 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Roger Mills County, 50.5% of all residents were male and 49.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Roger Mills

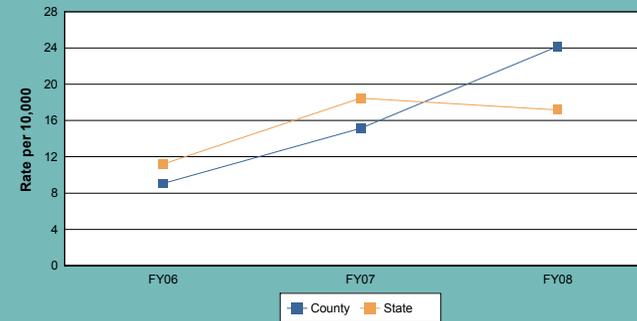

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Roger Mills

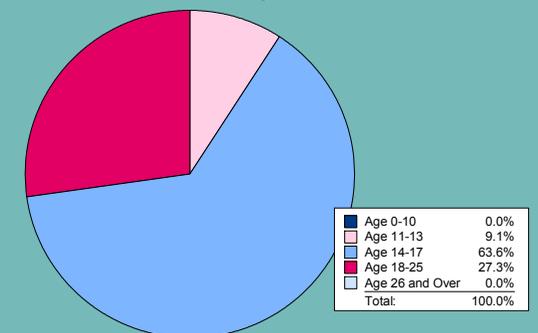

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Roger Mills County ranked #23 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Roger Mills County rate was 12.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Roger Mills County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Roger Mills County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 15.7 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.4% (2.2%) of the Roger Mills County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 22.4% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Roger Mills

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Roger Mills

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

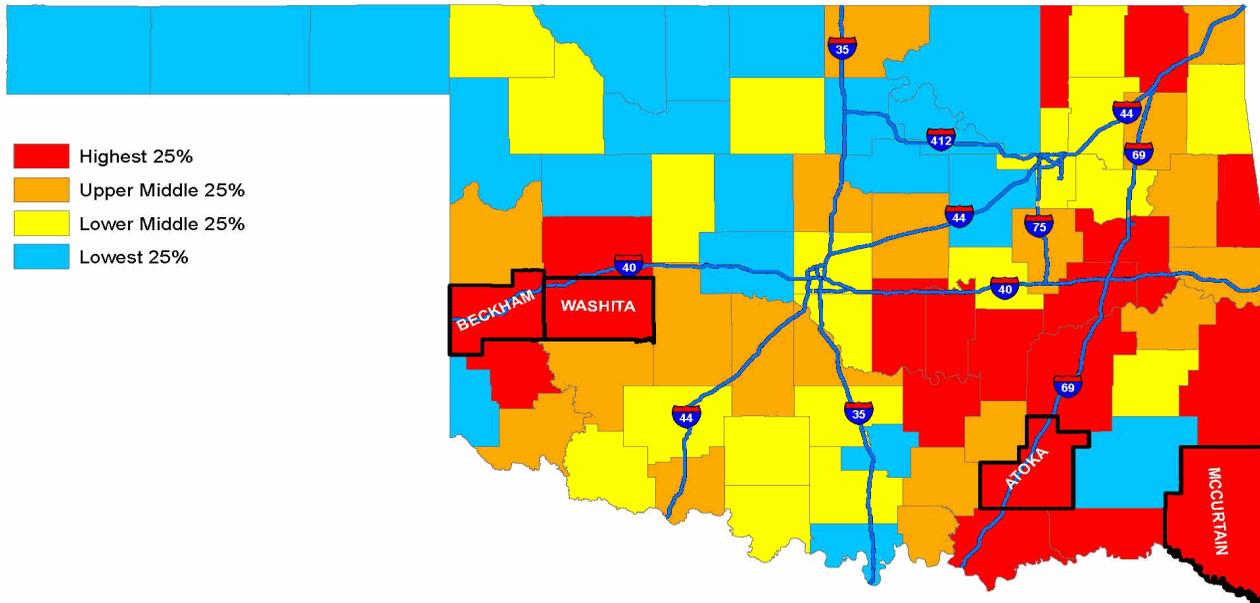

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Roger Mills County residents over age 25, 79.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Roger Mills County was $41,268 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Roger Mills County living in poverty was 12.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Roger Mills County was 14.7 (6.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Roger Mills County was 3.7% (2.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Roger Mills County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 45.3 (0.0), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Roger Mills County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 380.9 (2.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Roger Mills County was 6.0 (57.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Roger Mills County during 2007 was 75.6 (136.0), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Roger Mills County during 2007 was 24.2 (114.9), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Roger Mills County during 2007 was 18.1 (21.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Roger Mills County during 2007 was 9.1 (21.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

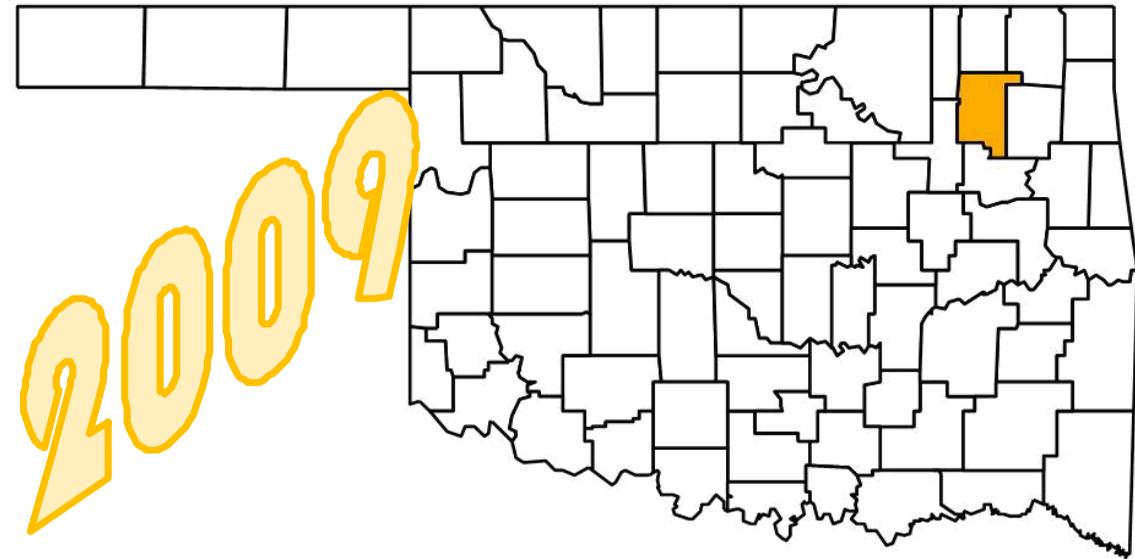

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Rogers County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Rogers County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

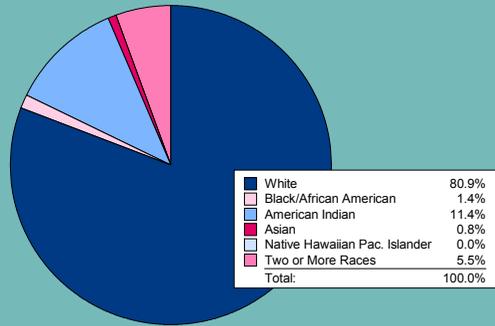

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

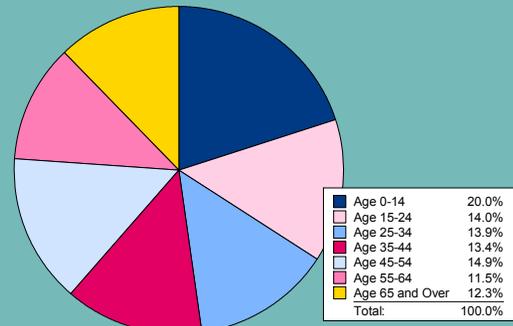

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 83,105 individuals lived in Rogers County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Rogers County had an estimated population density of 104.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Rogers County, 49.2% of all residents were male and 50.8% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Rogers

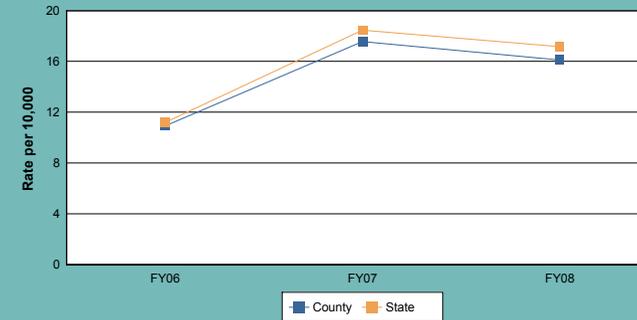

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Rogers

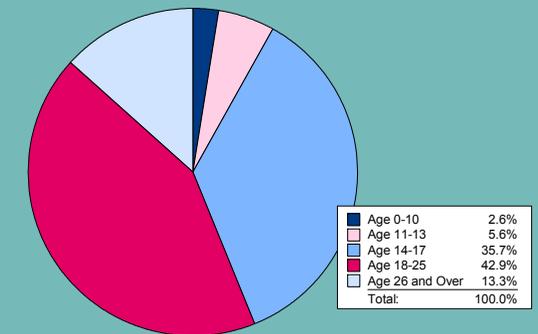

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Rogers County ranked #42 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Rogers County rate was 5.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Rogers County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Rogers County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.1 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.0% (6.7%) of the Rogers County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 14.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Rogers

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Rogers

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

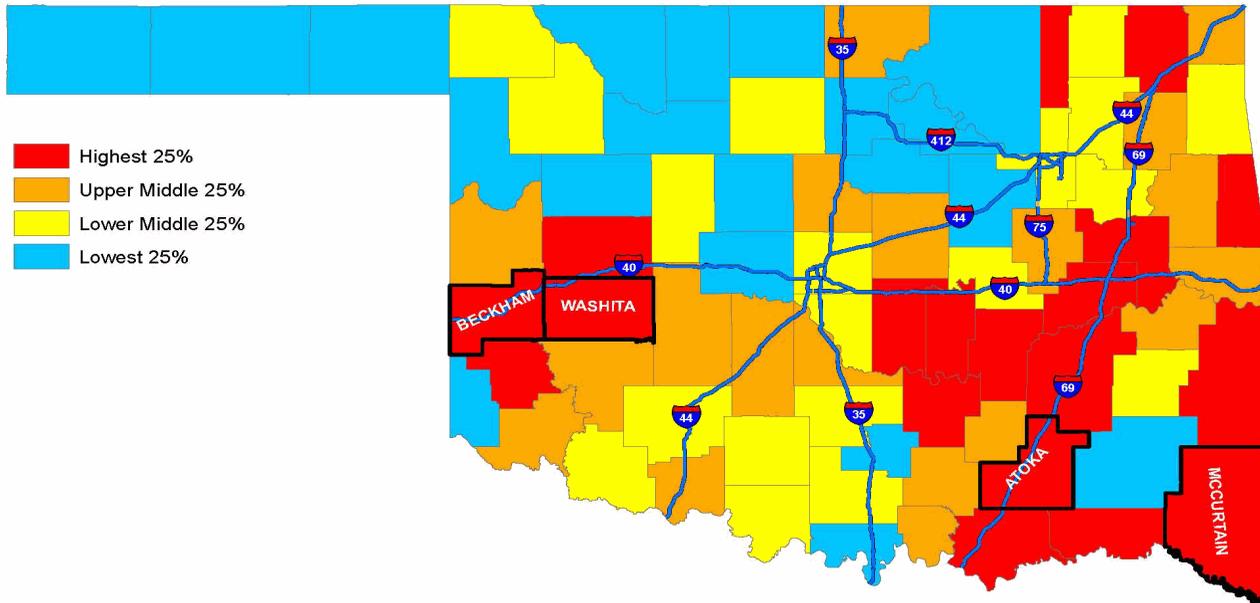

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Rogers County residents over age 25, 83.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 16.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Rogers County was $52,866 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Rogers County living in poverty was 9.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Rogers County was 16.7 (20.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Rogers County was 6.3% (3.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Rogers County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.0 (434.2), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Rogers County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 0.0 (2,740.8), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Rogers County was 5.0 (61.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Rogers County during 2007 was 89.0 (91.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Rogers County during 2007 was 33.6 (46.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Rogers County during 2007 was 18.0 (13.6) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Rogers County during 2007 was 11.4 (12.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

Sources:

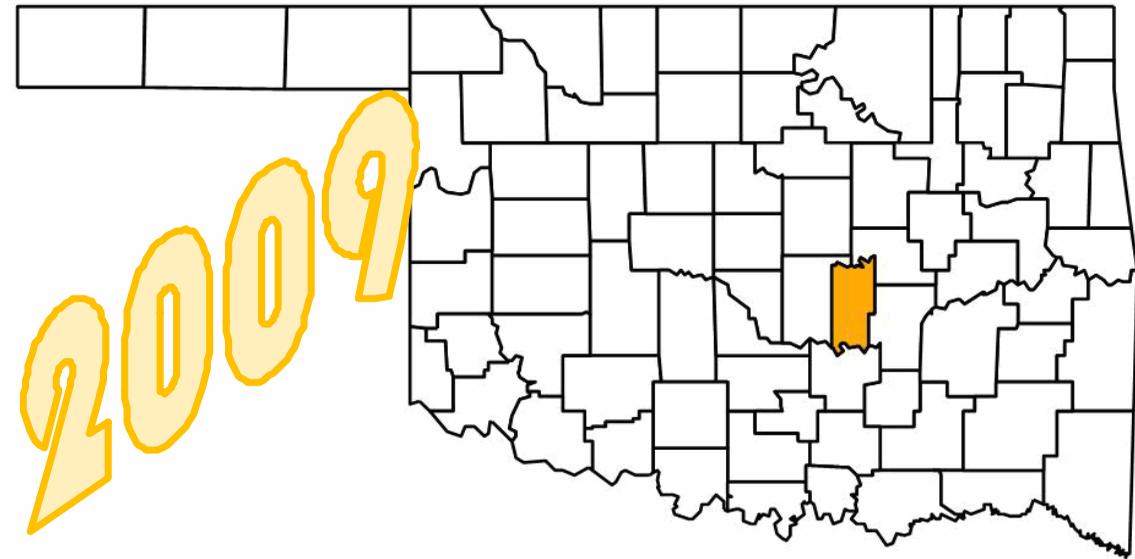

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Seminole County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
and Substance Abuse Services

Seminole County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

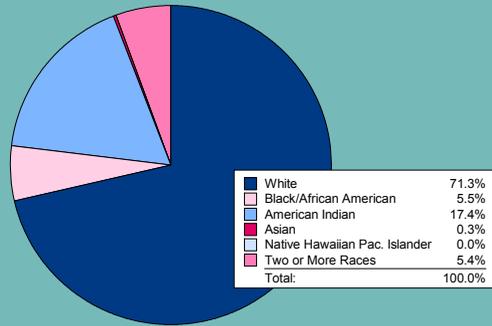

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

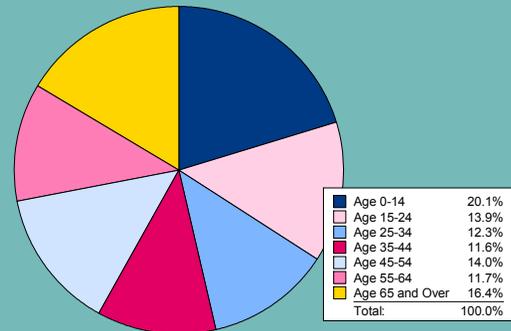

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 24,179 individuals lived in Seminole County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Seminole County had an estimated population density of 39.3 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Seminole County, 48.4% of all residents were male and 51.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Seminole

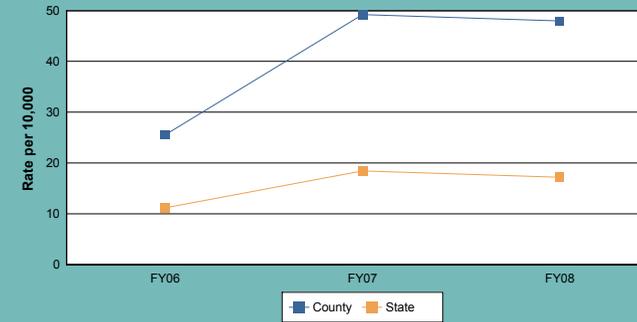

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Seminole

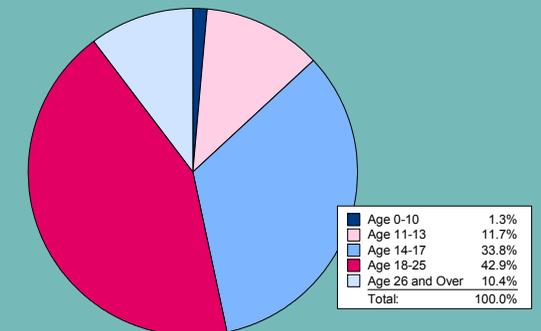

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Seminole County ranked #5 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Seminole County rate was 19.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Seminole County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Seminole County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.7 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.8% (%) of the Seminole County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 16.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Seminole

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Seminole

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

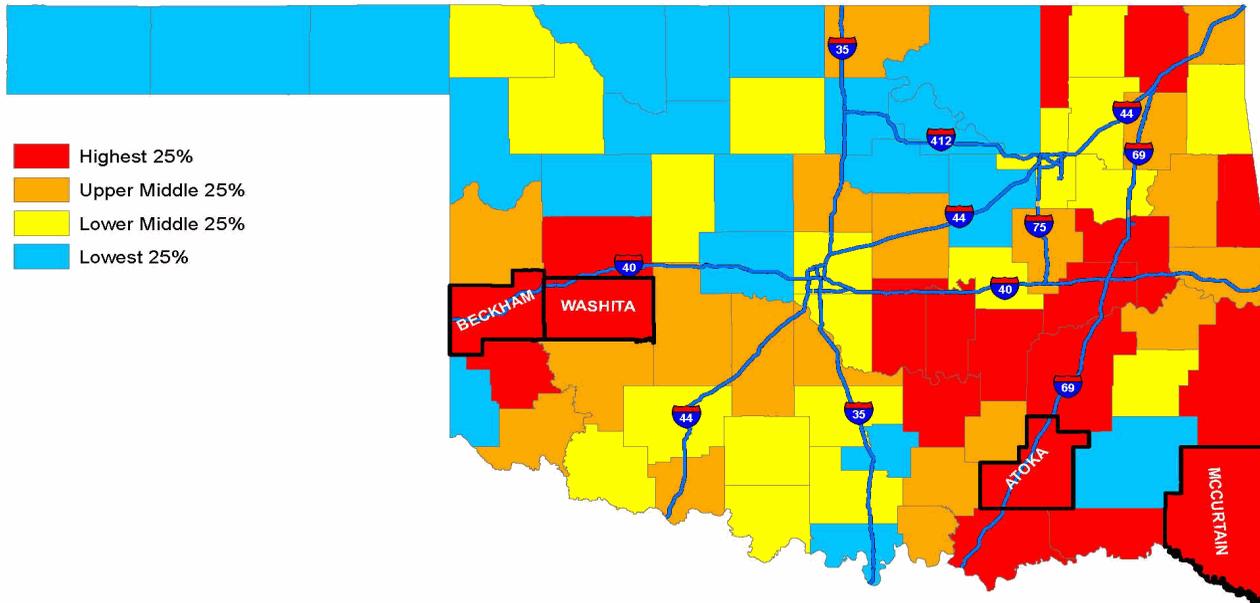

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Seminole County residents over age 25, 73.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Seminole County was $33,207 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Seminole County living in poverty was 22.8%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Seminole County was 98.8 (106.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Seminole County was 8.3% (5.5%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Seminole County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 6.2 (22.4), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Seminole County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 52.1 (220.6), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Seminole County was 4.3 (32.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Seminole County during 2007 was 199.8 (185.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Seminole County during 2007 was 57.5 (60.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Seminole County during 2007 was 39.7 (47.1) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Seminole County during 2007 was 10.8 (25.2), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

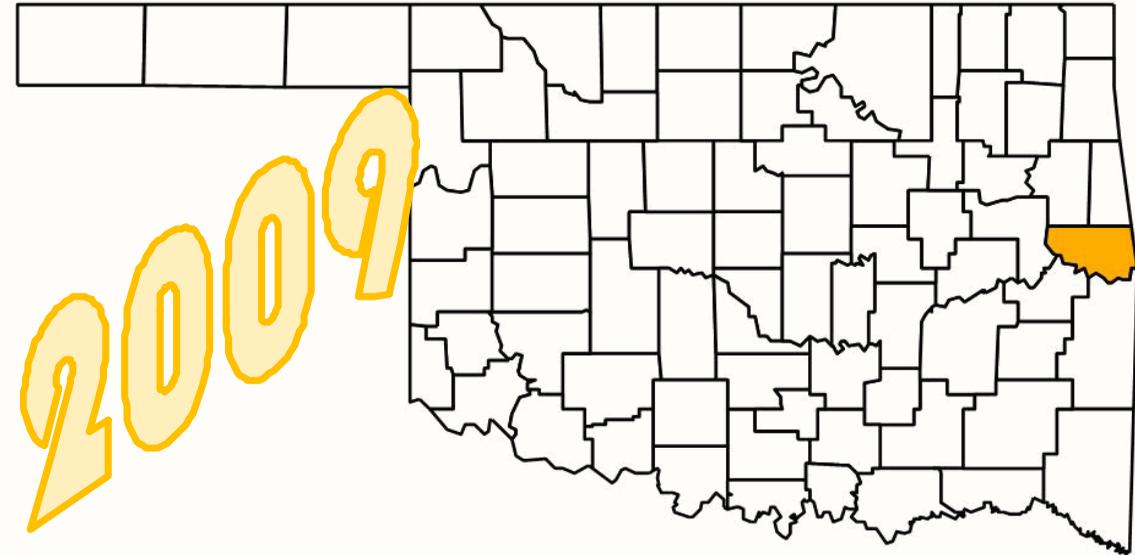

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Sequoyah County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Sequoyah County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

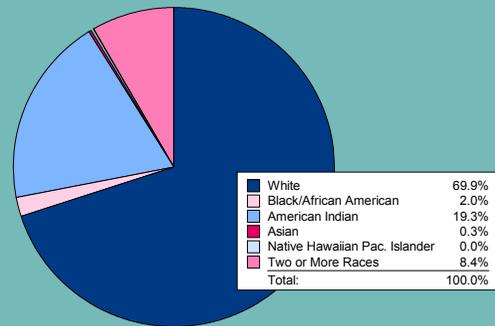

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

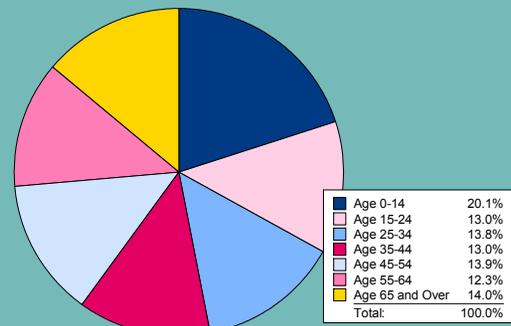

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 41,024 individuals lived in Sequoyah County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Sequoyah County had an estimated population density of 57.8 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Sequoyah County, 49.1% of all residents were male and 50.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Sequoyah

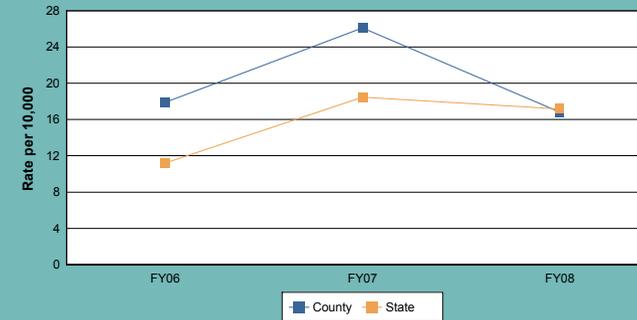

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Sequoyah

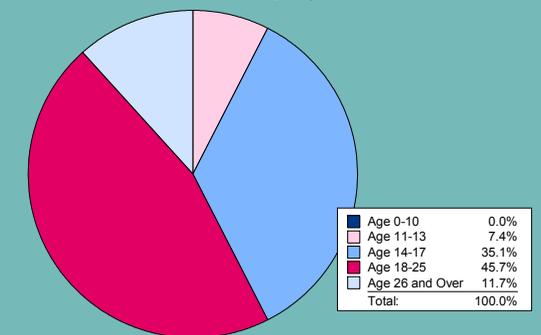

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Sequoyah County ranked #26 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Sequoyah County rate was 3.4 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Sequoyah County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Sequoyah County was 1.7 in 2008, compared to 8.3 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.5% (1.6%) of the Sequoyah County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.2% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Sequoyah

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Sequoyah

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

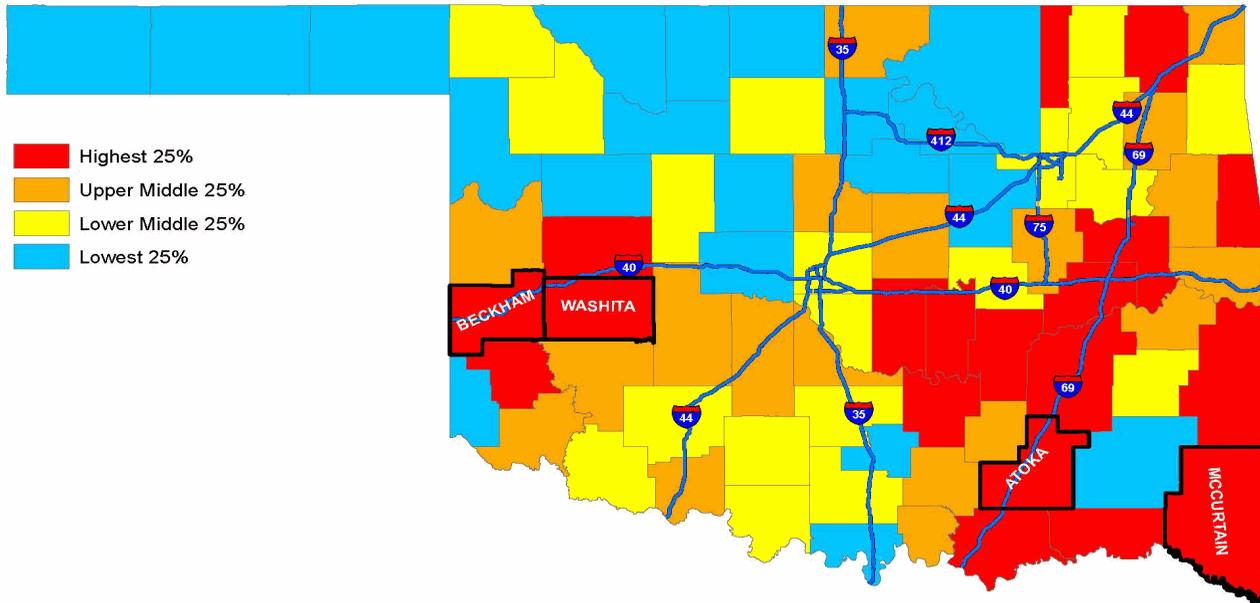

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Sequoyah County residents over age 25, 70.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 10.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Sequoyah County was $36,370 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Sequoyah County living in poverty was 19.2%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Sequoyah County was 37.8 (41.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Sequoyah County was 10.1% (6.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Sequoyah County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 3.9 (5.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Sequoyah County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 25.8 (44.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Sequoyah County was 6.4 (64.3) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Sequoyah County during 2007 was 213.0 (191.6), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Sequoyah County during 2007 was 168.9 (181.1), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Sequoyah County during 2007 was 78.0 (57.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Sequoyah County during 2007 was 85.8 (66.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

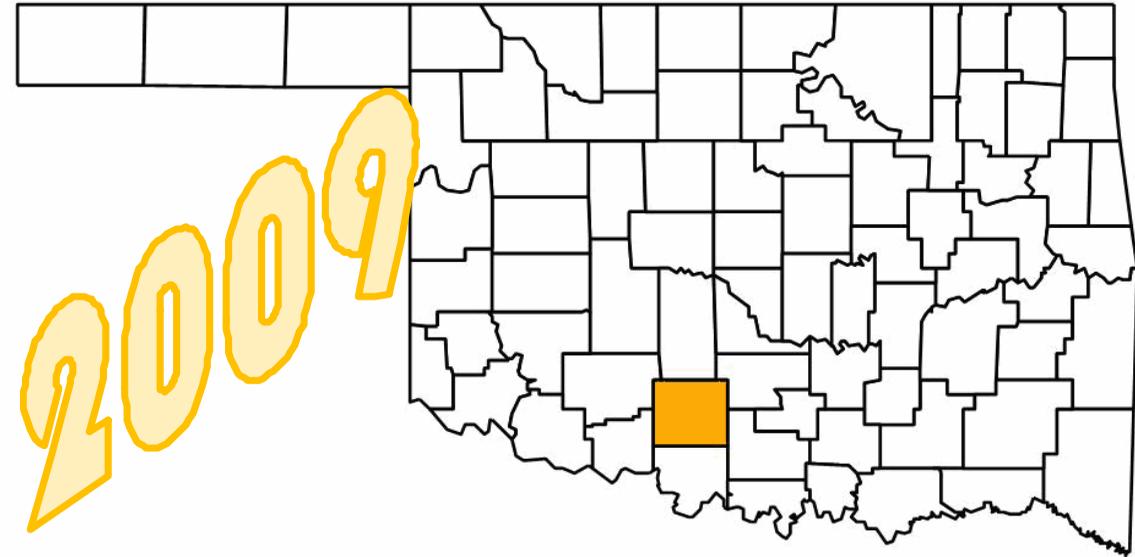

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Stephens County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Stephens County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

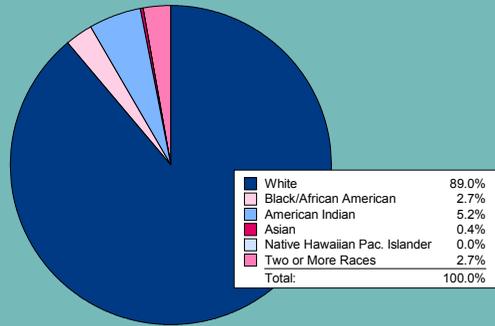

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

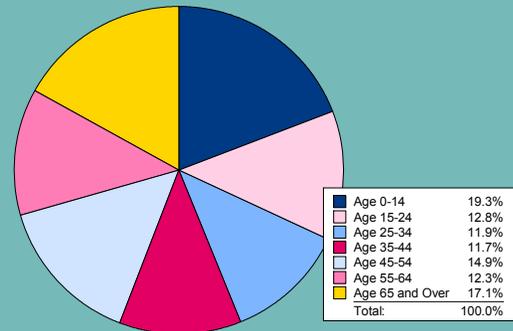

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 43,322 individuals lived in Stephens County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Stephens County had an estimated population density of 49.4 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Stephens County, 48.9% of all residents were male and 51.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Stephens

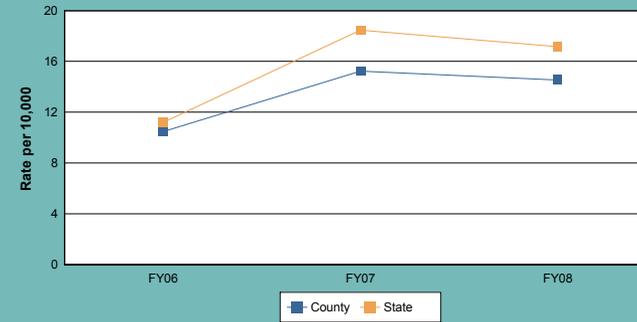

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Stephens

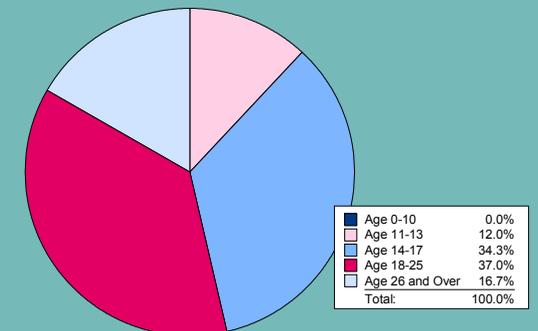

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Stephens County ranked #41 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Stephens County rate was 7.8 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Stephens County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Stephens County was 0.5 in 2008, compared to 0.9 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.5% (3.6%) of the Stephens County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.1% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Stephens

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Stephens

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

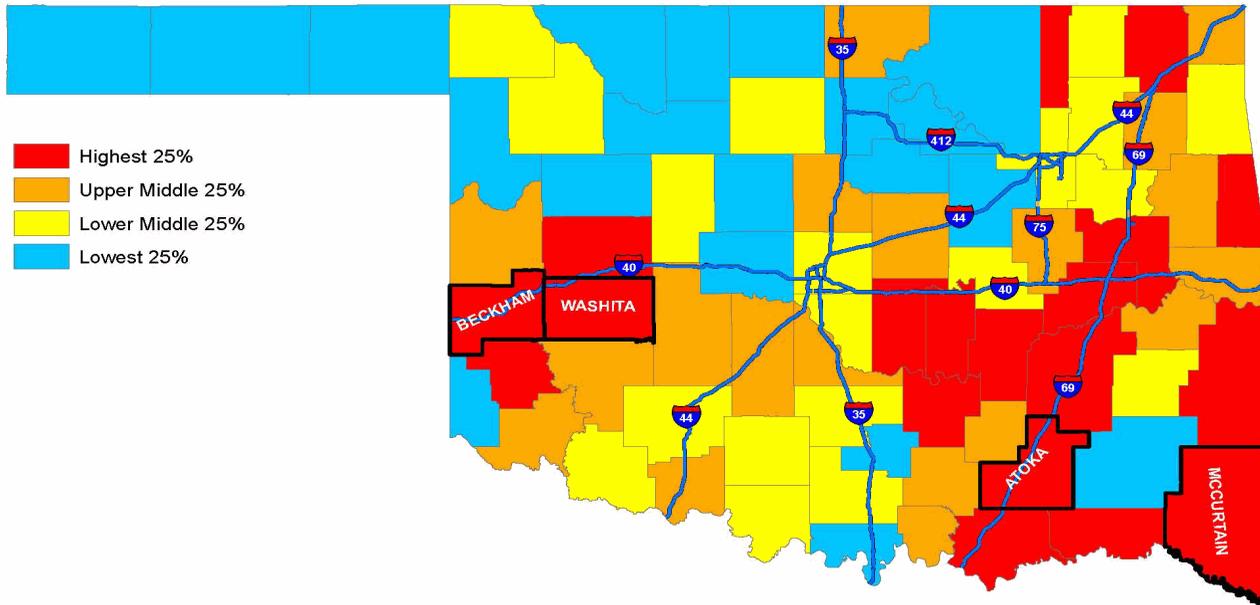

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Stephens County residents over age 25, 77.0% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 16.6% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Stephens County was $40,866 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Stephens County living in poverty was 14.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Stephens County was 47.4 (51.7) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Stephens County was 5.5% (3.9%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Stephens County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.8 (18.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Stephens County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 28.4 (139.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Stephens County was 6.0 (59.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Stephens County during 2007 was 109.4 (88.4), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Stephens County during 2007 was 40.2 (36.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Stephens County during 2007 was 28.4 (33.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Stephens County during 2007 was 13.8 (12.0), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

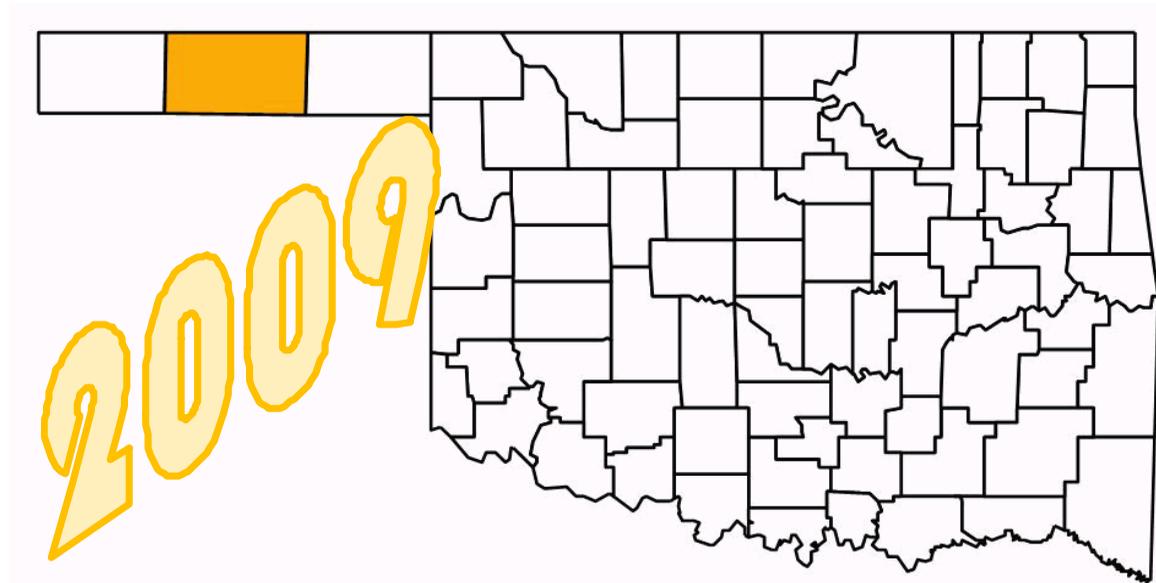

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Texas County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Texas County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

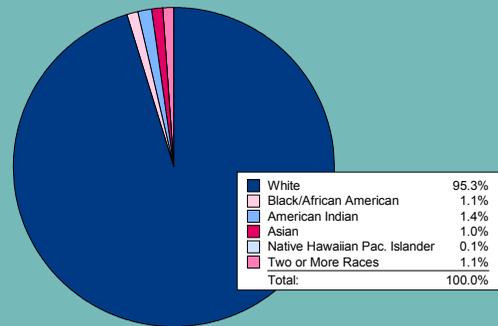

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

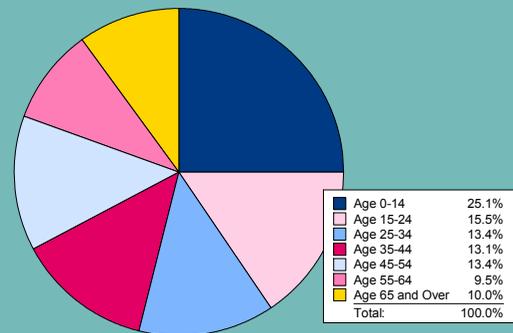

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 20,032 individuals lived in Texas County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Texas County had an estimated population density of 9.9 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Texas County, 52.0% of all residents were male and 48.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Texas

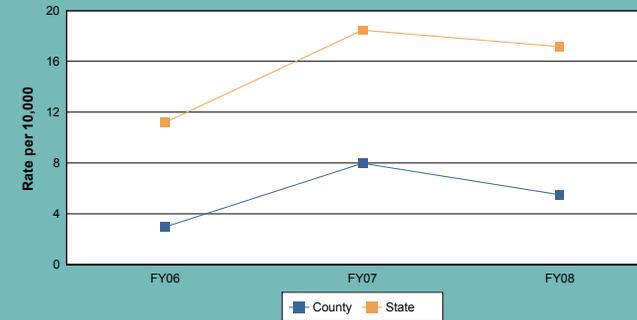

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Texas

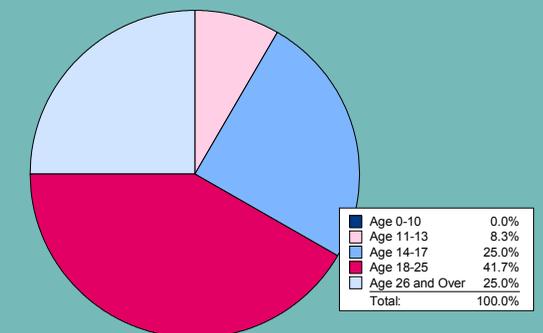

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Texas County ranked #76 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Texas County rate was 1.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Texas County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Heroin and Other Opiates was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Texas County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.3% (1.3%) of the Texas County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 12.0% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Texas

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Texas

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

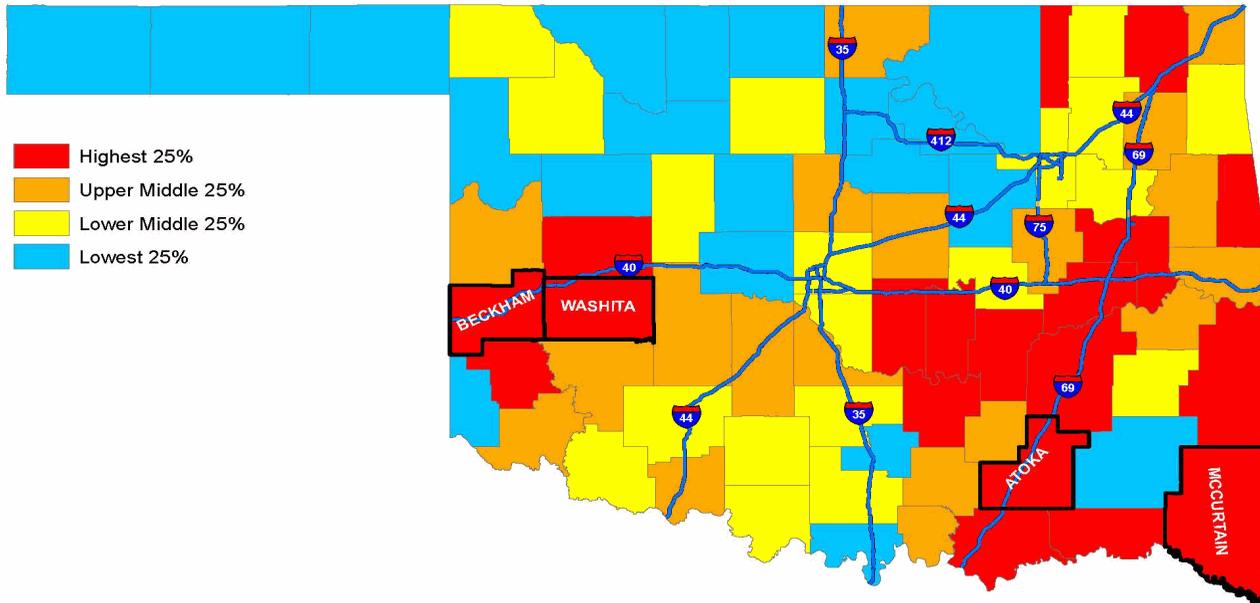

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Texas County residents over age 25, 71.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 17.7% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Texas County was $42,069 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Texas County living in poverty was 12.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Texas County was 18.2 (27.5) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Texas County was 3.8% (3.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Texas County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.5 (14.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Texas County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 8.0 (66.4), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Texas County was 3.6 (38.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Texas County during 2007 was 81.9 (128.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Texas County during 2007 was 16.5 (48.9), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Texas County during 2007 was 37.4 (37.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Texas County during 2007 was 0.5 (5.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

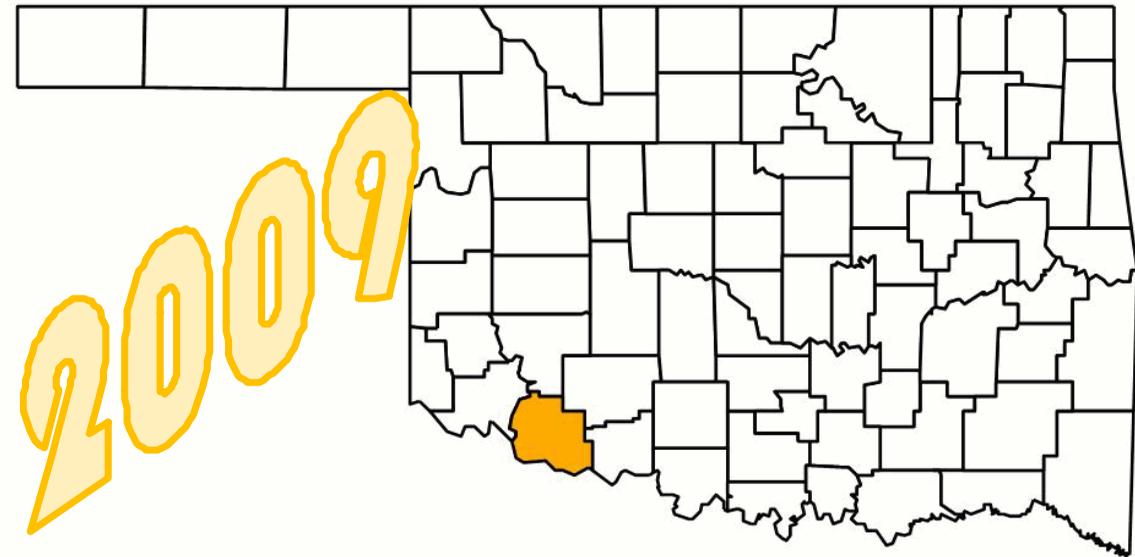

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Tillman County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Tillman County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

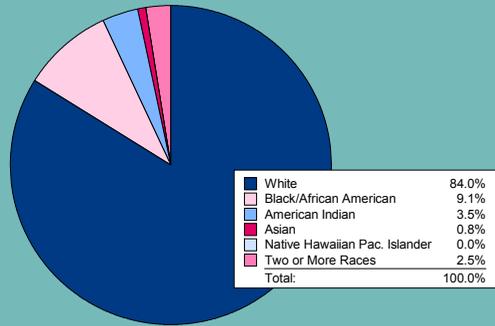

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

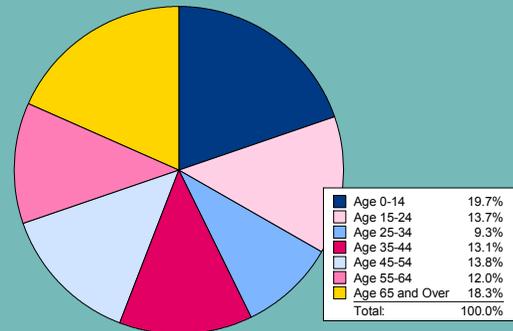

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 8,148 individuals lived in Tillman County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Tillman County had an estimated population density of 10.7 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Tillman County, 48.9% of all residents were male and 51.1% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Tillman

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Tillman

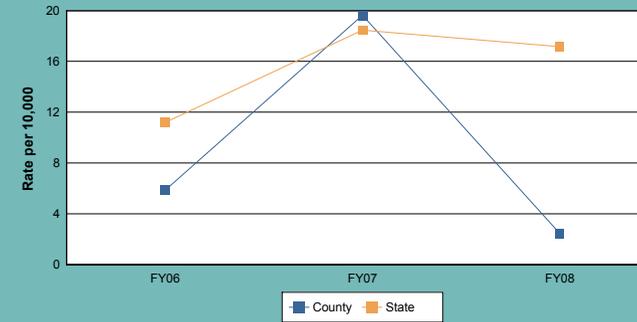

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Tillman County ranked #61 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Tillman County rate was 0.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Tillman County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Cocaine & Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was N/A (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Tillman County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 0.0 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.1% (%) of the Tillman County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

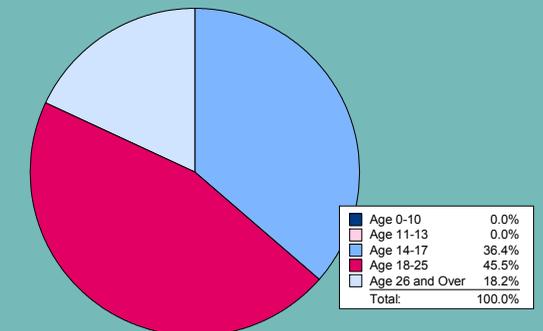

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Tillman County residents over age 25, 67.4% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 12.5% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Tillman County was $26,120 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Tillman County living in poverty was 23.7%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Tillman County was 60.8 (76.1) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Tillman County was 8.7% (4.7%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Tillman

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Tillman

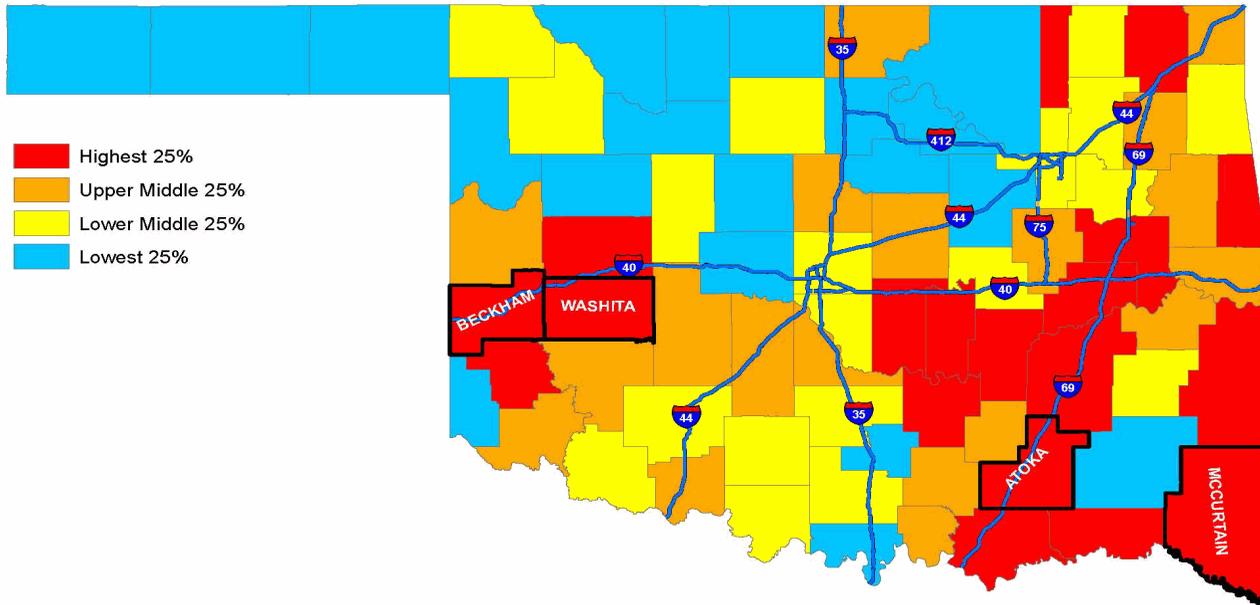

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Tillman County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 4.9 (13.7), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Tillman County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 35.6 (155.6), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Tillman County was 4.3 (29.5) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Tillman County during 2007 was 68.7 (82.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Tillman County during 2007 was 92.0 (50.3), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Tillman County during 2007 was 43.0 (23.3) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Tillman County during 2007 was 6.1 (3.5), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

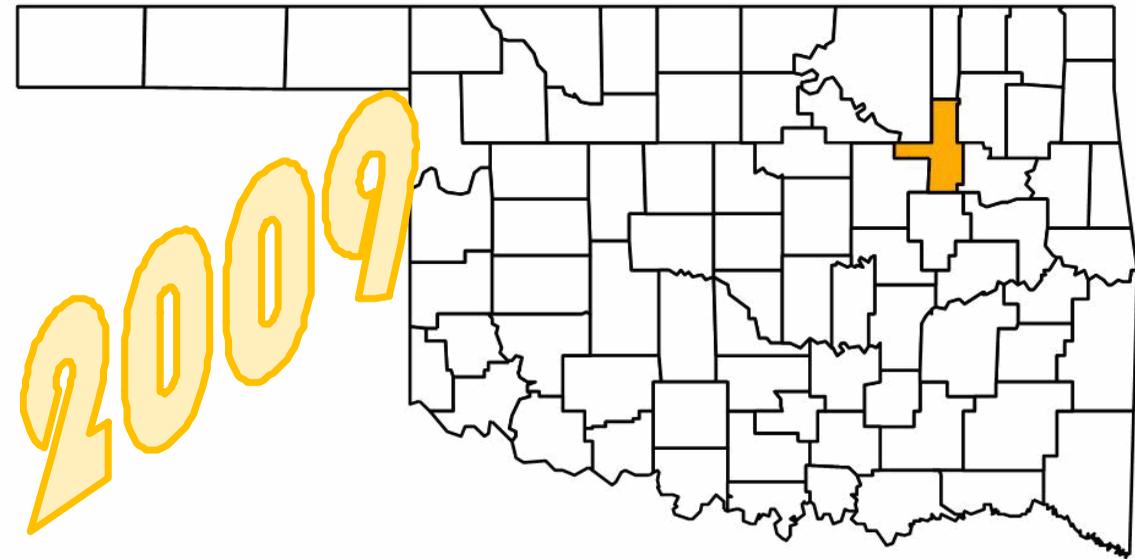

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Tulsa County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Tulsa County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

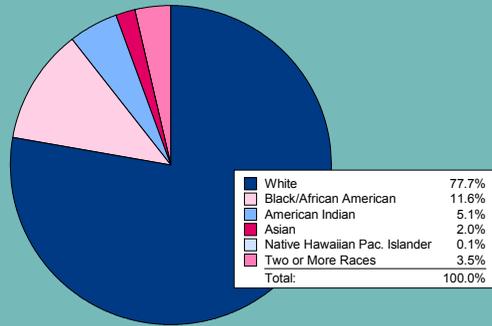

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

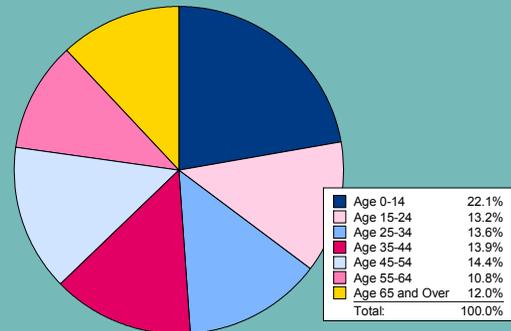

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 585,068 individuals lived in Tulsa County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Tulsa County had an estimated population density of 988.2 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Tulsa County, 49.1% of all residents were male and 50.9% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Tulsa

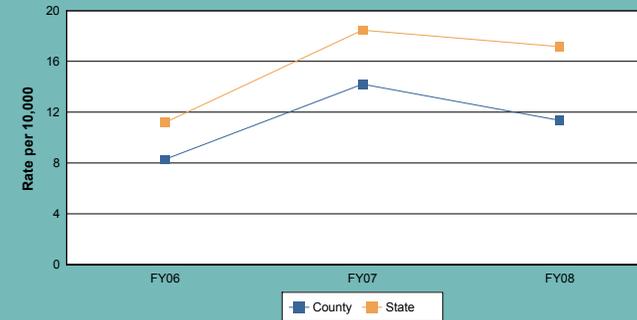

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Tulsa

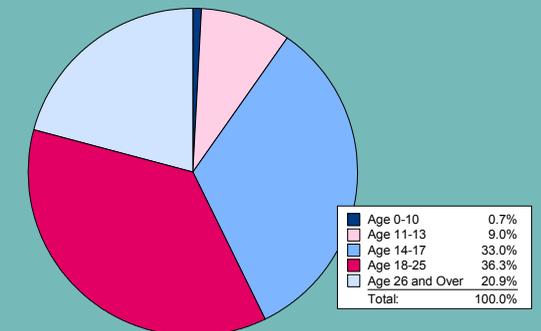

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Tulsa County ranked #50 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Tulsa County rate was 4.5 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Tulsa County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Tulsa County was 1.6 in 2008, compared to 0.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.0% (1.8%) of the Tulsa County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 18.3% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Tulsa

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Tulsa

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

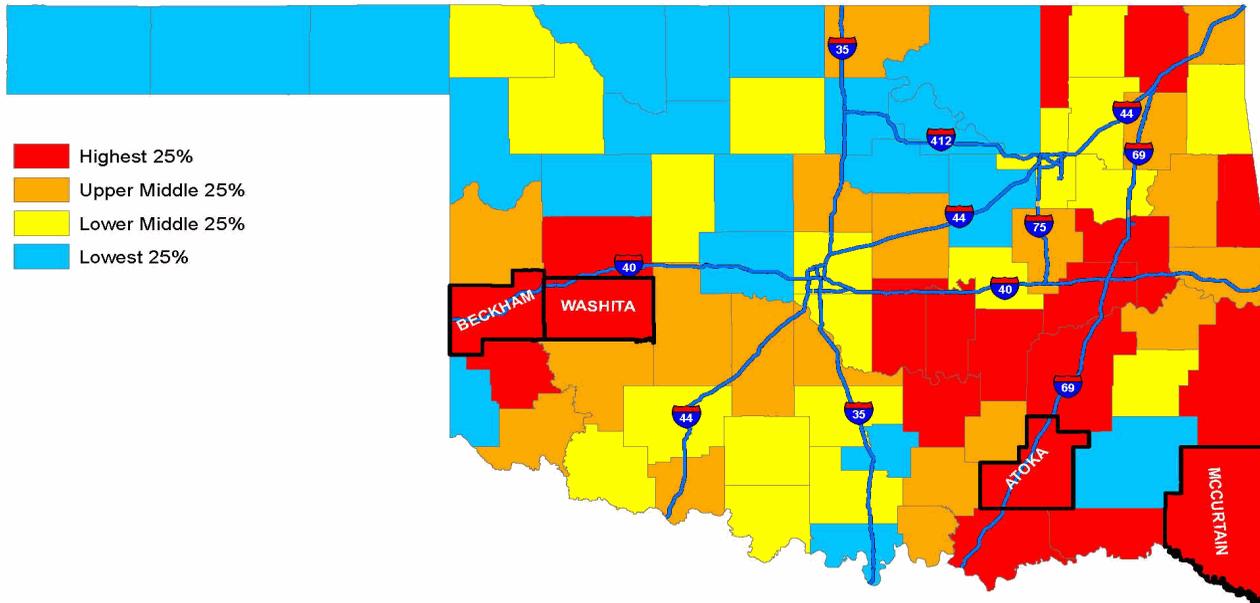

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Tulsa County residents over age 25, 85.1% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 26.9% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Tulsa County was $45,313 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Tulsa County living in poverty was 14.2%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Tulsa County was 31.2 (35.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Tulsa County was 5.8% (4.0%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Tulsa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.4 (10.8), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Tulsa County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 15.1 (71.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Tulsa County was 5.4 (55.7) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Tulsa County during 2007 was 135.0 (133.2), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Tulsa County during 2007 was 72.8 (66.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Tulsa County during 2007 was 96.9 (99.2) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Tulsa County during 2007 was 3.7 (5.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

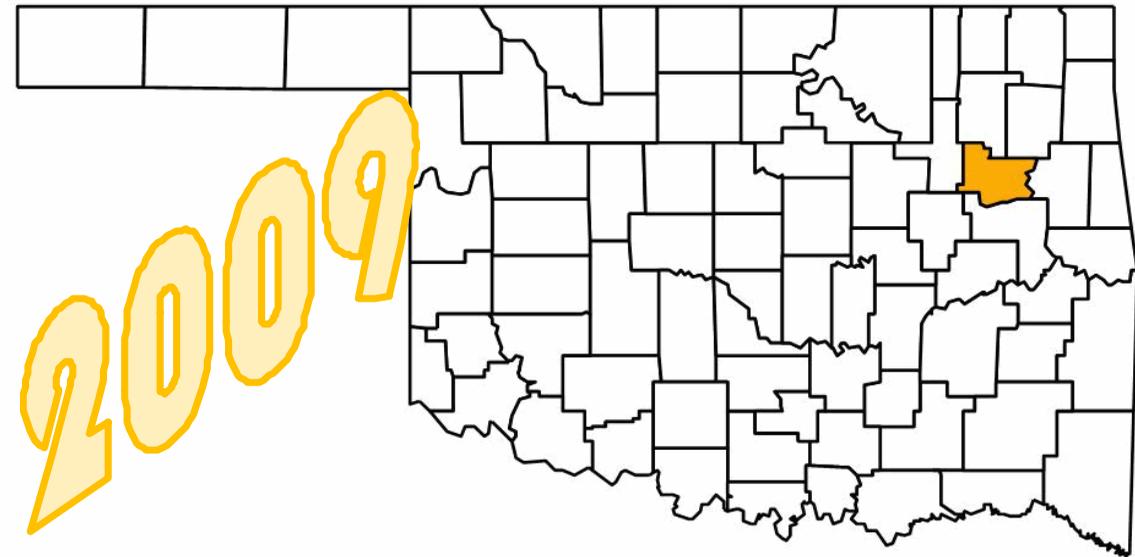

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Wagoner County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Wagoner County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

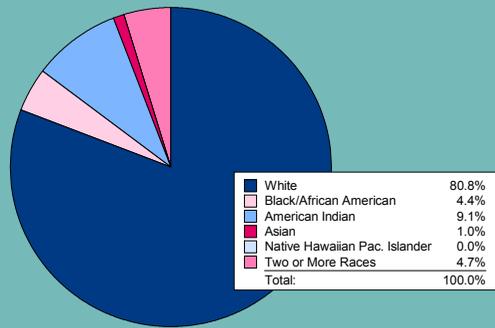

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

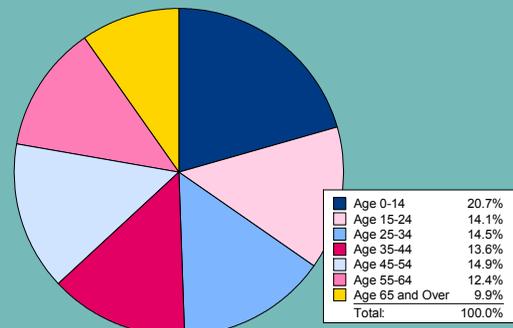

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 67,239 individuals lived in Wagoner County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Wagoner County had an estimated population density of 102.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Wagoner County, 49.7% of all residents were male and 50.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Wagoner

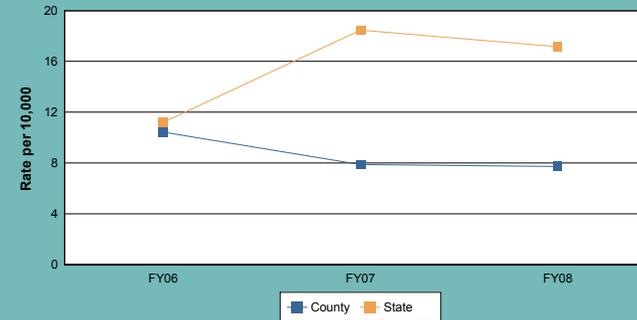

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Wagoner

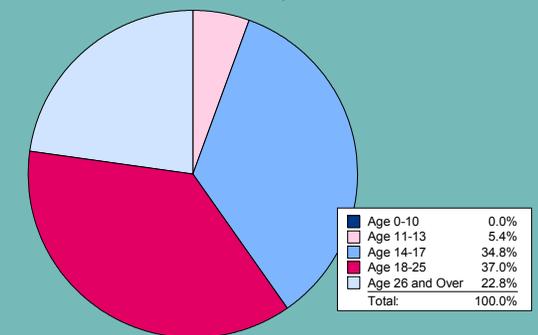

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Wagoner County ranked #53 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Wagoner County rate was 3.1 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Wagoner County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Cocaine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Wagoner County was 0.4 in 2008, compared to 2.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 3.4% (3.0%) of the Wagoner County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 22.2% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Wagoner

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Wagoner

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

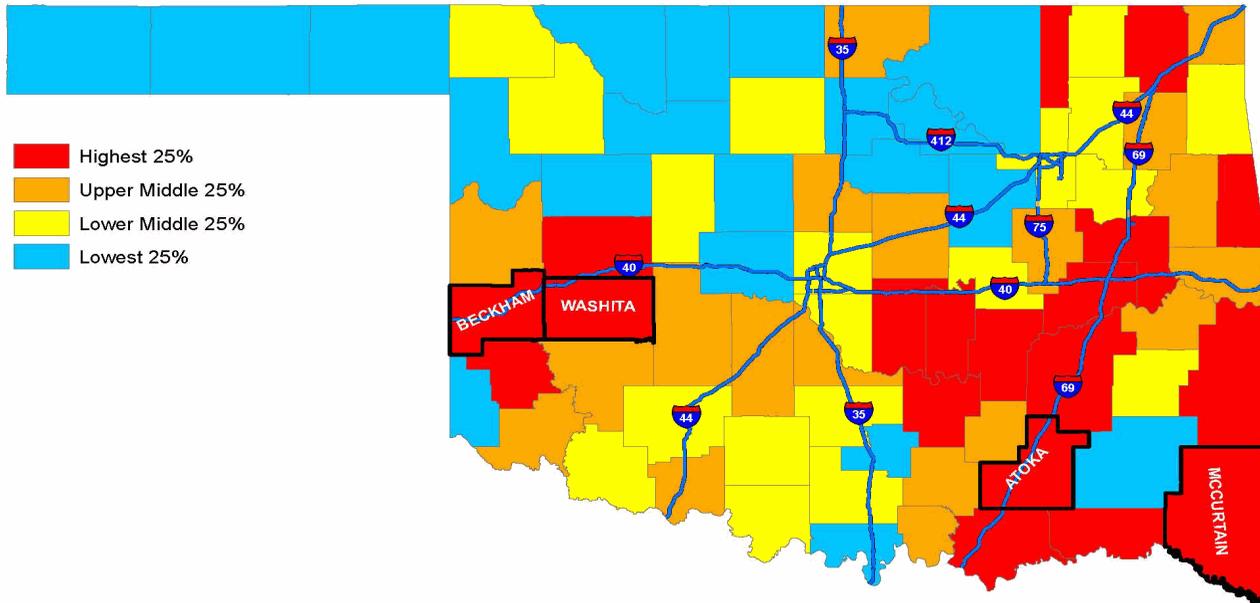

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Wagoner County residents over age 25, 81.3% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.4% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Wagoner County was $53,455 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Wagoner County living in poverty was 11.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Wagoner County was 28.3 (33.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Wagoner County was 6.0% (3.8%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Wagoner County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.4 (3.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Wagoner County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 13.1 (76.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Wagoner County was 3.9 (36.2) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Wagoner County during 2007 was 65.0 (57.0), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Wagoner County during 2007 was 35.8 (26.5), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Wagoner County during 2007 was 24.2 (19.5) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Wagoner County during 2007 was 7.4 (5.9), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

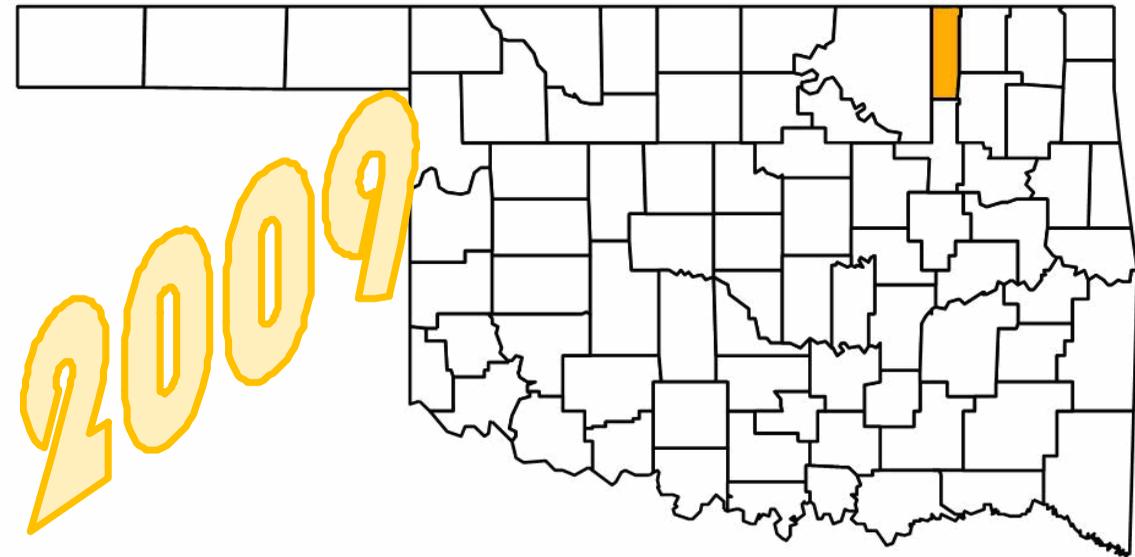

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Washington County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Washington County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

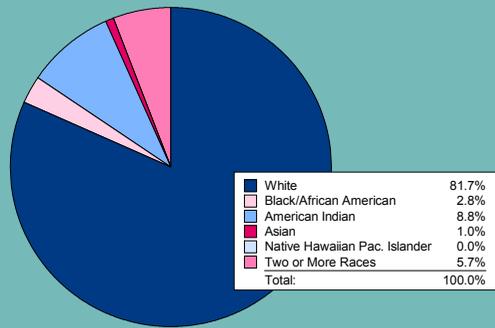

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

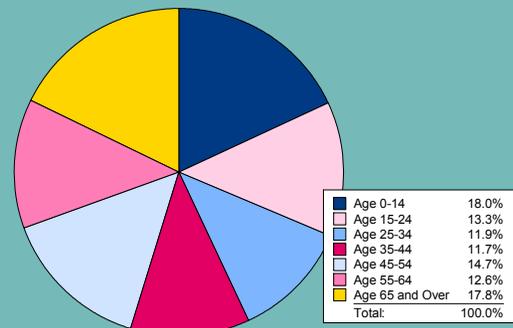

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 49,888 individuals lived in Washington County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Washington County had an estimated population density of 117.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Washington County, 48.4% of all residents were male and 51.6% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Washington

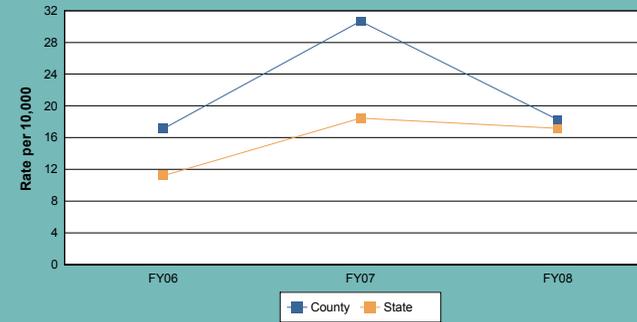

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Washington

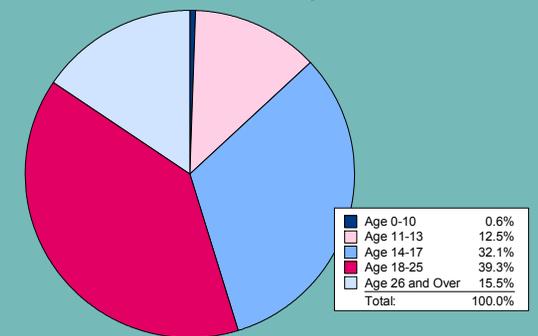

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Washington County ranked #24 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Washington County rate was 5.0 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Washington County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Marijuana/Hashish was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Methamphetamine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Washington County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 1.4 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 2.1% (%) of the Washington County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 14.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Washington

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Washington

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

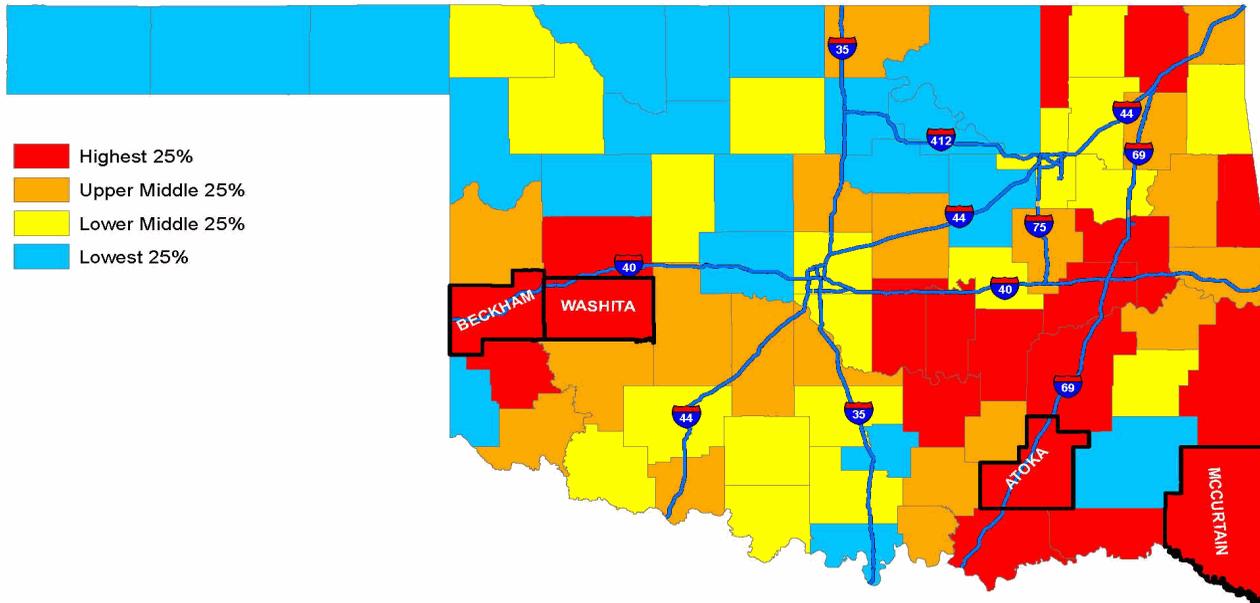

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Washington County residents over age 25, 85.2% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 25.8% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Washington County was $46,298 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Washington County living in poverty was 11.4%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Washington County was 18.0 (22.9) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Washington County was 5.1% (3.5%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Washington County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 2.0 (7.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Washington County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 22.7 (165.1), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Washington County was 4.5 (52.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Washington County during 2007 was 87.2 (90.0), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Washington County during 2007 was 55.9 (47.1), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Washington County during 2007 was 58.7 (48.7) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Washington County during 2007 was 4.6 (5.3), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

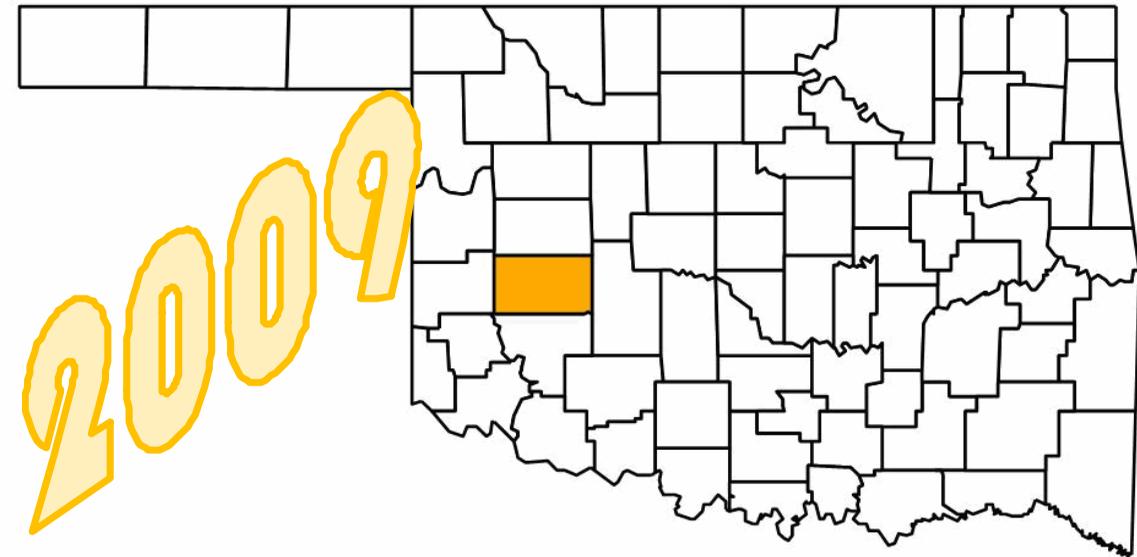

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Washita County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Washita County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

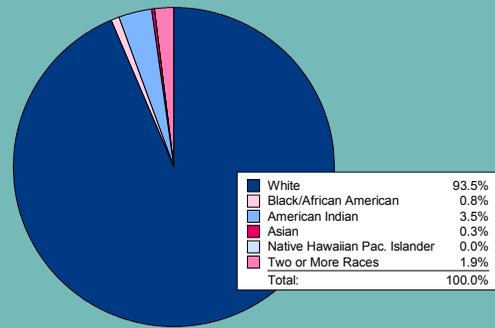

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

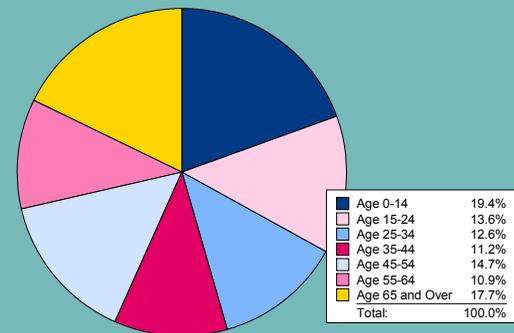

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 11,667 individuals lived in Washita County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Washita County had an estimated population density of 11.5 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Washita County, 48.5% of all residents were male and 51.5% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Washita

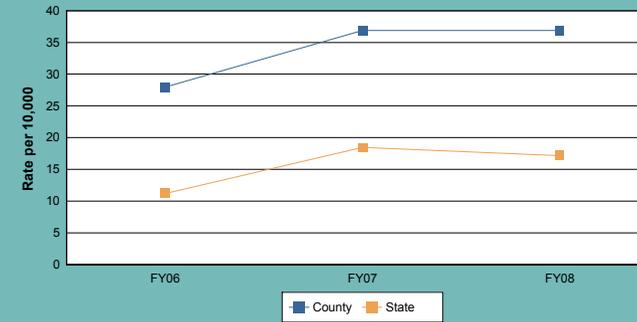

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Washita

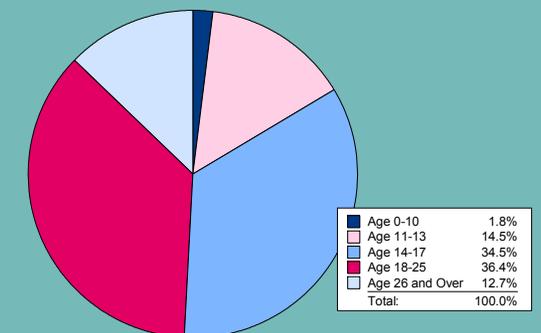

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Washita County ranked #12 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Washita County rate was 6.9 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Washita County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Washita County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 9.7 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 4.3% (4.8%) of the Washita County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 22.5% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Washita

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Washita

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

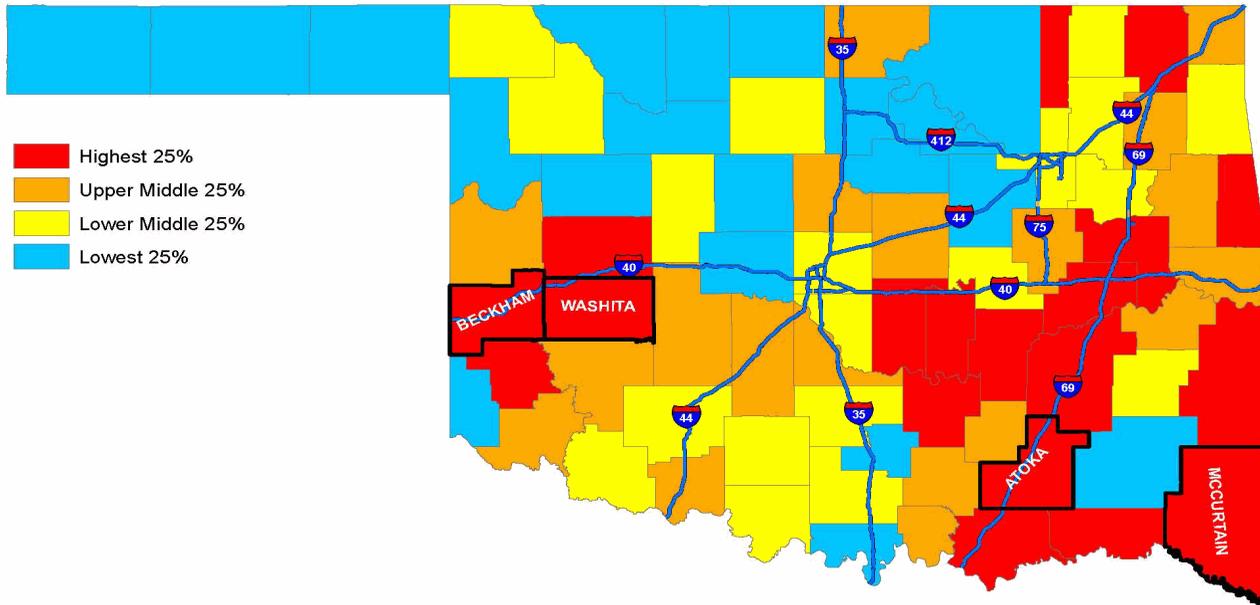

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Washita County residents over age 25, 79.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.1% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Washita County was $39,151 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Washita County living in poverty was 15.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Washita County was 22.2 (24.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Washita County was 4.6% (3.1%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Washita County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 1.7 (18.6), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Washita County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 31.7 (208.9), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Washita County was 3.3 (60.4) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Washita County during 2007 was 65.1 (57.4), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Washita County during 2007 was 33.4 (38.6), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Washita County during 2007 was 16.3 (27.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Washita County during 2007 was 4.3 (1.7), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

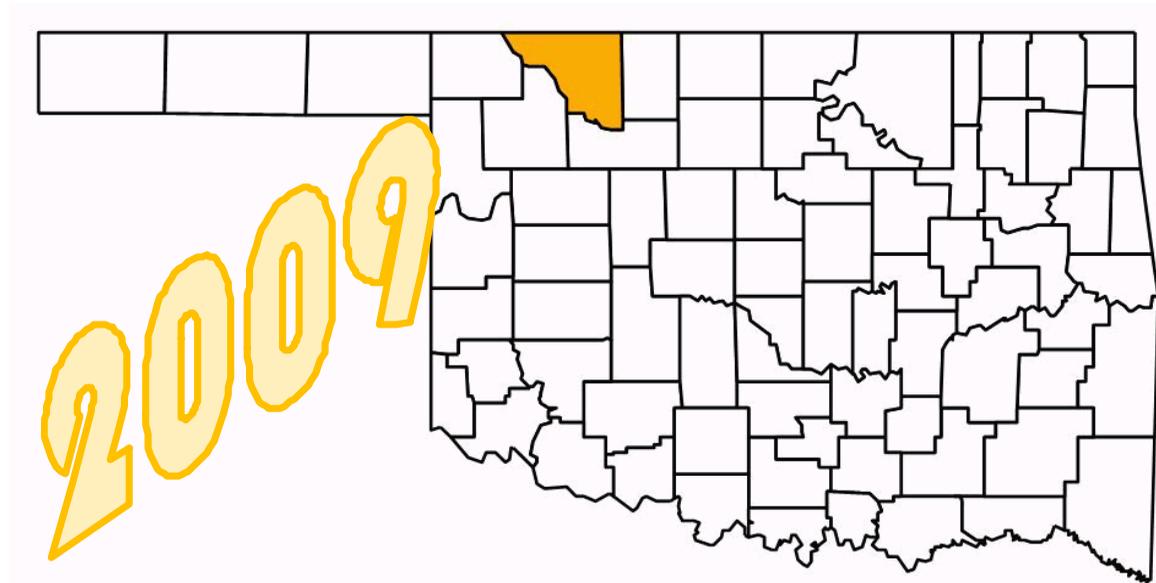

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Woods County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Woods County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

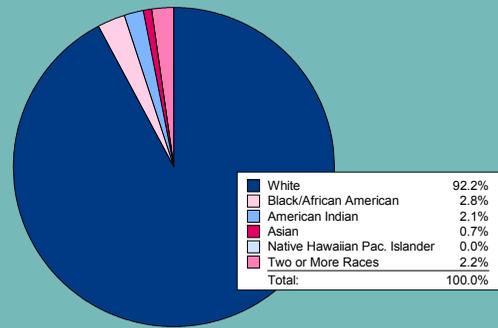

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

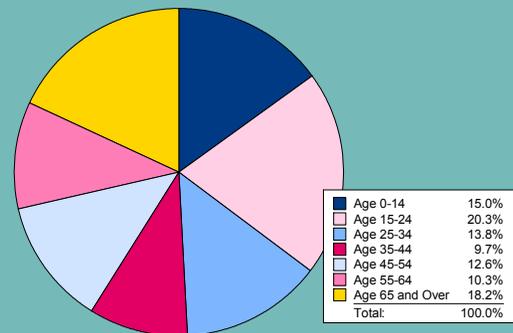

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 8,319 individuals lived in Woods County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Woods County had an estimated population density of 7.1 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Woods County, 51.7% of all residents were male and 48.3% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Woods

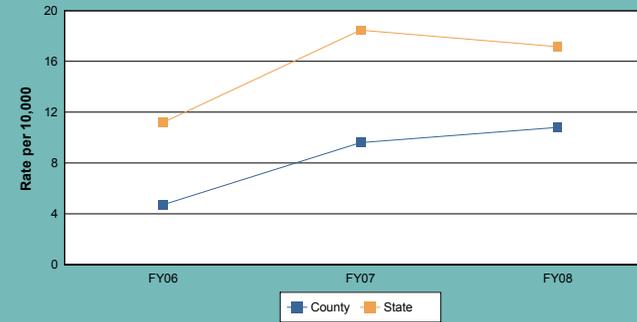

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Woods

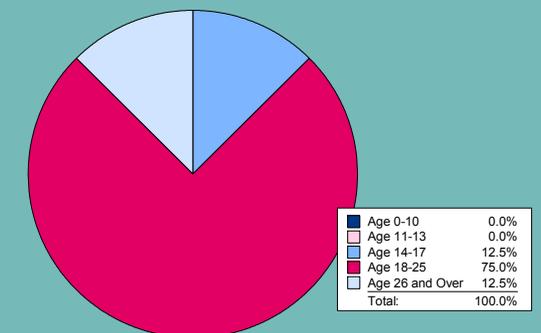

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Woods County ranked #71 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Woods County rate was 3.6 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Woods County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Cocaine (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Woods County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 3.5 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.9% (0.0%) of the Woods County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Woods

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Woods

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

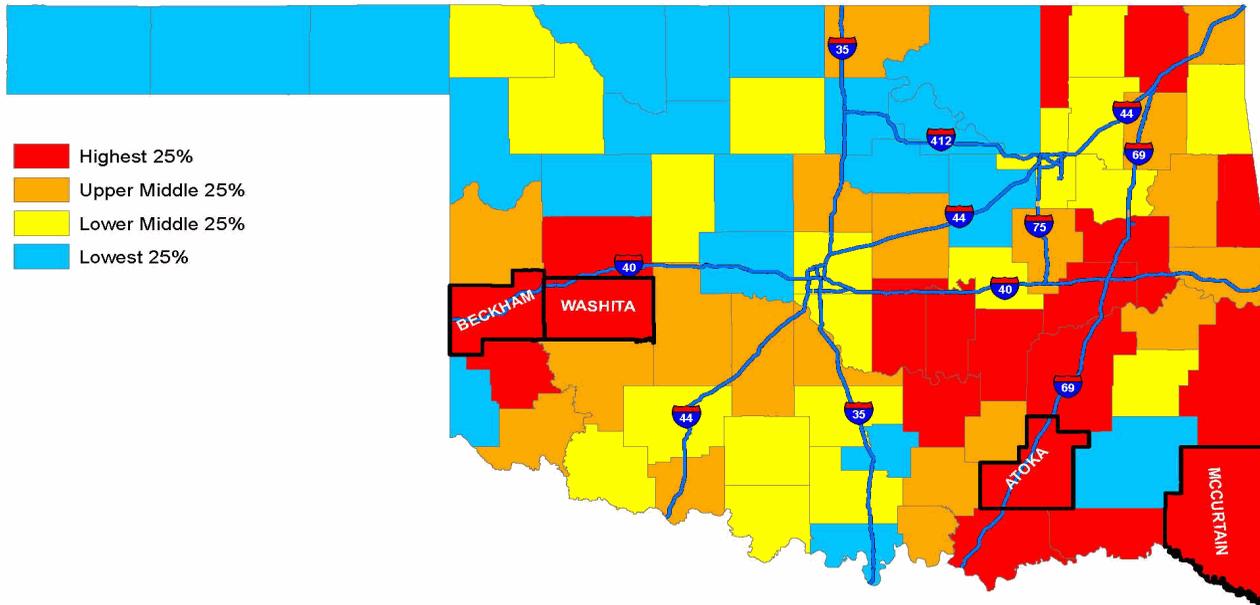

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Woods County residents over age 25, 82.7% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 23.7% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Woods County was $38,183 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Woods County living in poverty was 15.1%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Woods County was 52.2 (43.3) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Woods County was 4.4% (5.4%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Woods County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 0.0 (12.9), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Woods County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 16.8 (180.2), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Woods County was 4.2 (35.8) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Woods County during 2007 was 186.3 (286.1), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Woods County during 2007 was 79.3 (89.0), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Woods County during 2007 was 14.4 (24.0) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Woods County during 2007 was 10.8 (2.4), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).

Methamphetamine Treatment Three-Year Averaged Rates from FY06-FY08

Source: Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, December, 2008

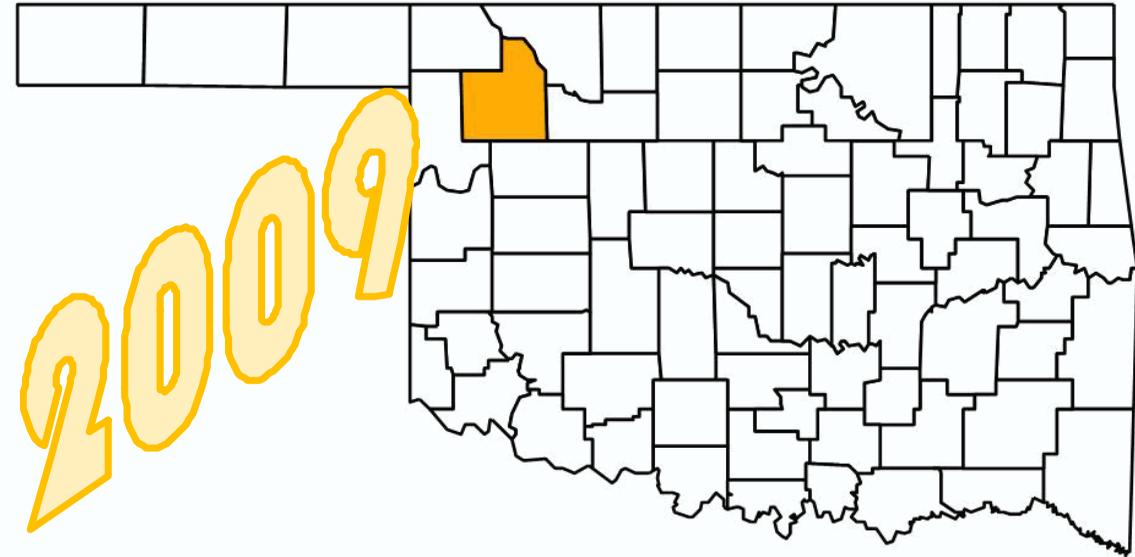

Sources:

1. US Census Population Estimates, 2007, www.census.gov
2. US Census, 2000, www.census.gov
3. US Census American Community Survey, 2007, www.census.gov
4. Oklahoma State Department of Human Services Annual Report, 2008, www.okdhs.org
5. Oklahoma Labor Force Statistics, 2009, Oklahoma Employment Securities Commission, www.oesc.state.ok.us/
6. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, 2009, www.odmhsas.org
7. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, 2008, www.osbi.state.ok.us
8. Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment, 2008, www.odmhsas.org
9. Oklahoma State Department of Health, Vital Statistics, 2007, www.health.state.ok.us
10. Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, Uniform Crime Report, 2007, www.osbi.state.ok.us

For more information contact:

Krista Rhoades
Sr. Data Analyst
Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services
N.E. 13th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73152
(405)522-8599
krhoades@odmhsas.org

oklahoma methamphetamine county profile

Woodward County Profile

Oklahoma Department of Mental Health
 and Substance Abuse Services

Woodward County Profile

FY = State Fiscal Year from July 1 through June 30.

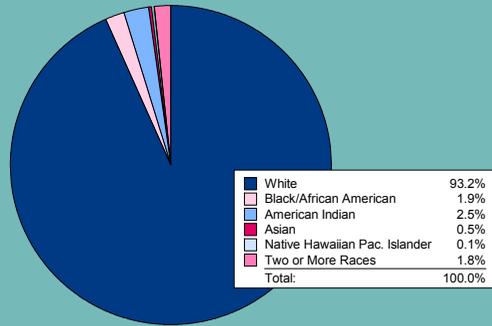

All rates per 10,000 people based on census estimates, unless otherwise noted.

Data from the previous year are listed in parentheses next to the current data where applicable.

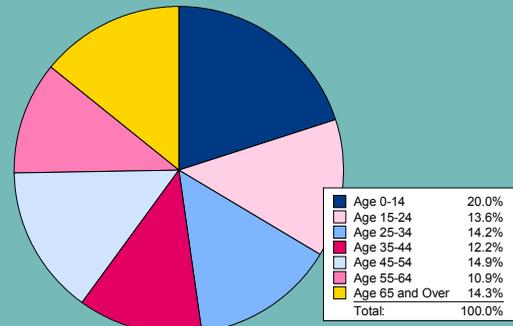

Population

- During 2007, an estimated 19,505 individuals lived in Woodward County and an estimated 3,617,316 lived in Oklahoma (1).
- Woodward County had an estimated population density of 14.9 persons per square mile in 2007, compared to the estimated statewide rate of 50.3 persons per square mile (1).
- In Woodward County, 51.0% of all residents were male and 49.0% were female according to 2007 population estimates (1).

Census Population Estimates for Race in 2007
For Woodward

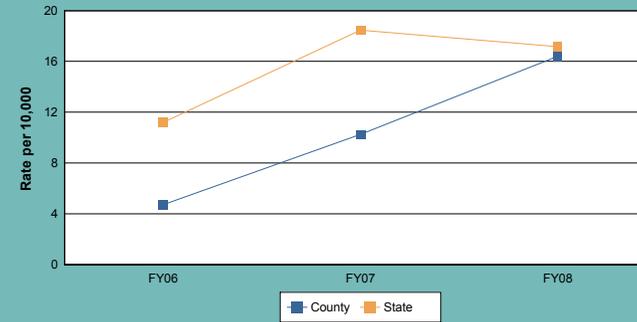

Census Population Estimates for Age in 2007
For Woodward

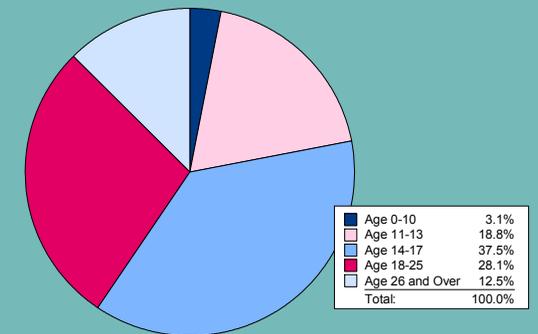

Methamphetamine and Other Drugs

- Woodward County ranked #56 in Oklahoma for residents entering ODMHSAS-funded treatment with methamphetamine as their primary drug of choice from FY06 to FY08. The Woodward County rate was 8.7 admitted consumers served per 10,000 in FY08, compared to the state rate of 6.8 (6).
- Alcohol was the number one drug of choice among Woodward County residents who were admitted to state-funded treatment from FY06 to FY08, while Methamphetamine was the second most common drug of choice and the third most common drug of choice was Marijuana/Hashish (6).
- The rate of meth labs reported to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) for Woodward County was 0.0 in 2008, compared to 2.2 in 2003 (7).
- According to the Oklahoma Prevention Needs Assessment (OPNA) in 2008, 1.7% (2.3%) of the Woodward County students surveyed said they had used methamphetamine at least once and 15.8% said meth was easy to obtain, compared to 2.0% and 16.8% respectively of those surveyed statewide (8).

Rate of Persons Admitted to Meth Treatment by FY
For Woodward

Age of First Use for Persons Entering Meth Treatment from FY06-FY08
For Woodward

Note: Treatment represents ODMHSAS-funded treatment where methamphetamine was the primary drug of choice.

Education, Employment and Housing

- Among Woodward County residents over age 25, 79.9% were high school graduates compared to 80.6% of all residents statewide, 15.2% were college graduates compared to 20.3% statewide (2).
- The median household income in Woodward County was $45,700 in 2007, compared to $41,551 in Oklahoma (3).
- During 2007, the percent of residents in Woodward County living in poverty was 13.3%, compared to 15.8% statewide (3).
- The rate of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF is a program of the Federal U.S. Department of Health and Human Services created by the Welfare Reform Law of 1996 and administered by the State Department of Human Services) cases in Woodward County was 46.9 (39.0) in FY08, compared to the state rate of 45.5 cases (4).
- Unemployment for Woodward County was 4.5% (2.6%) as of February, 2009, compared to 6.1% statewide (5).

Other Relevant Data

- Among all child abuse cases reported in Woodward County during FY07, the rate of confirmed abuse cases was 7.7 (21.5), compared to the state rate of 3.0 cases (4).
- Among all child neglect cases reported in Woodward County during FY07, the rate of confirmed neglect cases was 34.9 (101.0), compared to the state rate of 24.9 cases (4).
- The divorce rate in Woodward County was 7.0 (66.6) in 2007, compared to 5.2 statewide (9).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile alcohol-related arrests for Woodward County during 2007 was 183.0 (174.3), and the statewide rate was 129.6 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile drug-related arrests for Woodward County during 2007 was 46.1 (50.2), and the statewide rate was 61.7 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile index crimes (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft) for Woodward County during 2007 was 46.1 (35.4) and the statewide rate was 57.1 arrests (10).
- The rate of all adult and juvenile synthetic narcotics arrests for Woodward County during 2007 was 20.0 (22.9), and the statewide rate was 10.1 arrests (10).