Ethical Dilemmas in Crisis Settings

8:30 – 12:00

This presentation will provide an overview of professional boundary and other ethical issues encountered when delivering mental health services in a crisis setting. The focus is on ethical issues encountered in a variety of inpatient and outpatient settings. Discussion and examples will be included about HIPAA regulations, 43A, and psychotherapeutic relationships. Participants will earn 3 Continuing Education/Ethics credits upon completion of the class.

Presented by Ron Sims, M.A., LADC/MH, ODMHSAS Community Response Team.

Preparing for Court: Writing Reports and Taking the Stand

1:00 – 4:30

This workshop will discuss appropriate methods of writing reports for court and testifying in court based on those reports. Topics included in this training are rules of evidence, being articulate in a report, the legal process, ethical issues related to testifying against your client, confidentiality, subpoenas and cross examination. Presenter requests participants bring a report with confidential information removed. Participants will earn 3 Continuing Education/Ethics credits upon completion of the class.

Presented by Dewayne Moore, General Counsel, ODMHSAS
