Tips for Asking the Suicide Question

- If in doubt, don't wait, ask the question
- If the person is reluctant, be persistent
- Talk to the person alone in a private setting
- Allow the person to talk freely
- Give yourself plenty of time
- Have your resources handy; QPR Card, phone numbers, counselor's name and any other information that might help

Remember: How you ask the question is less important than that you ask it

QUESTION

Less Direct Approach:

- “Have you been unhappy lately?
Have you been very unhappy lately?
Have you been so very unhappy lately that you’ve been thinking about ending your life?”
- “Do you ever wish you could go to sleep and never wake up?”

QUESTION

Direct Approach:

- “You know, when people are as upset as you seem to be, they sometimes wish they were dead. I’m wondering if you’re feeling that way, too?”
- “You look pretty miserable, I wonder if you’re thinking about suicide?”
- “Are you thinking about killing yourself?”

NOTE: If you cannot ask the question, find someone who can.

How Not to Ask the Suicide Question

“You’re not suicidal, are you?”

P PERSUADE

HOW TO PERSUADE SOMEONE TO STAY ALIVE

- Listen to the problem and give them your full attention
- Remember, suicide is not the problem, only the solution to a perceived insoluble problem
- Do not rush to judgment
- Offer hope in any form

P PERSUADE

Then Ask:

- Will you go with me to get help?”
- “Will you let me help you get help?”
- “Will you promise me not to kill yourself until we’ve found some help?”

YOUR WILLINGNESS TO LISTEN AND TO HELP
CAN REKINDLE HOPE, AND MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE.

R

REFER

- Suicidal people often believe they cannot be helped, so you may have to do more.
- The best referral involves taking the person directly to someone who can help.
- The next best referral is getting a commitment from them to accept help, then making the arrangements to get that help.
- The third best referral is to give referral information and try to get a good faith commitment not to complete or attempt suicide. Any willingness to accept help at some time, even if in the future, is a good outcome.

REMEMBER

Since almost all efforts to persuade someone to live instead of attempt suicide will be met with agreement and relief, don't hesitate to get involved or take the lead.

For Effective QPR

- Say: “I want you to live,” or “I’m on your side...we’ll get through this.”
- Get Others Involved. Ask the person who else might help. Family? Friends? Brothers? Sisters? Pastors? Priest? Rabbi? Bishop? Physician?

For Effective QPR

- Join a Team. Offer to work with clergy, therapists, psychiatrists or whomever is going to provide the counseling or treatment.
- Follow up with a visit, a phone call or a card, and in whatever way feels comfortable to you, let the person know you care about what happens to them. Caring may save a life.

WHEN YOU APPLY QPR,
