OKLAHOMA STATE TREASURER

MONTHLY INVESTMENT
PERFORMANCE REPORT

FEBRUARY 2008

SCOTT MEACHAM
OKLAHOMA STATE TREASURER

April 2, 2008

To the People of Oklahoma:

I am pleased to issue the February monthly investment performance report for the Office of the State Treasurer. I trust you will find it thorough and in keeping with my commitment to provide full disclosure of all activities within my office. As always, my staff is available to answer any questions you might have.

Market Conditions

Except for the benchmark 30 year U.S. Treasury bond, yields fell across the yield curve during February. There was a slight inversion at the six month to two year range as the three month Treasury bill reported a yield of 1.84% while the two year Treasury note was 1.62%. The 30 year Treasury bond was up nine basis points to earn 4.40%. Two-year note yields have fallen 126 basis points since the first of the year. The Dow Jones Industrial Average (DJIA) fell 315 points on the last day of February, the second-worst day of the year after a 270-point drop on February 5th. The DJIA is down 7.5% for the year and 3% in February, its fourth straight losing month. The Standard & Poor's 500-stock index is down 9.4% for the year and the Nasdaq Composite is down 14% for the year. There were no meetings of the Federal Open Market Committee in February.

Economic Developments

The Institute for Supply Management reported that its index of manufacturing activity rose to a surprising 50.7 in January after posting 47.3 in December. The unemployment rate fell to 4.9% in January from a two year high of 5% in December. The average work week dipped to 33.7 hours in January from 33.8 the month before and hourly wage gains slowed to 0.2% from 0.4%. Higher food, fuel and drug costs drove the producer price index (PPI) up 1.0% in January. This was more than twice as much as forecast. Retail sales rose a seasonally adjusted 0.3% in January, however, part of the increase stemmed from higher gasoline sales. The consumer price index (CPI) was up 0.4% in January and is up 4.3% over the past 12 months. In January the trade deficit experienced its largest monthly decline since October 2006 as domestic consumer spending slowed and foreign demand for U.S. goods remained strong. The gap was $58.8 billion in December compared with $61.5 billion in November. The weaker dollar helped increase foreign demand for U.S. goods. The Index of Leading Indicators fell 0.1% in January and has tumbled 1.5% on a year-on-year basis. The Conference Board's consumer confidence index was 75.0 in February, the lowest level in five years. A weakened employment outlook and expectations for the next six months dropped to the lowest level since January 1991. Gross Domestic Product (GDP), a measure of all the goods and services produced in the U.S., rose at an unrevised rate 0.6% annual rate for the fourth quarter.

Portfolio Commentary: Performance, Diversification, and Strategy

Yield on the Treasurer's portfolio was 4.48% in February and the weighted average maturity was 433 days. There were no significant changes in asset weightings. There was minimal change in the year-to-date monthly average investable base at $3.625 billion. Portfolio diversification continues to be sound. U.S. Treasuries represented 14% of holdings, and U.S. government sponsored enterprises accounted for approximately 43%. Mortgage-backed securities were 9% and Commercial Paper was 5% of the portfolio. Certificates of Deposit represented 8% of assets, money market mutual funds 7%, and 9% was maintained in overnight repurchase agreements. Link deposits (at 1%), State Bond Issues (at 3%) and foreign bonds (at less than 1%) made up the balance of funds invested. In keeping with the State's statutory investment objectives, the portfolio strategy continues to seek safety, liquidity, and return on investment, in that order. Based on market conditions, portfolio strategy will consist of a combination of laddered maturities and market observation for investment opportunities.

Collateralization

All funds under the control of this office requiring collateralization were so secured at rates ranging from 102% to 110%, depending on the type of investment.

Payments, Fees, and Commissions

All securities were purchased or sold on a net basis utilizing competitive bidding where practicable, with no additional fees or commissions known to the State Treasurer. Bank fees, mutual fund operating expenses and fees charged by JPMorgan Chase for the Tri-Party Repurchase Agreement Program are detailed in the attached pages, as is the earnings split between the Treasurer and the master custodian bank on securities lending income.

Sincerely,

SCOTT MEACHAM, STATE TREASURER

Explanation of Performance Comparison

February 29, 2008

The following page presents market rates of return on the Securities portion of the General Account and of the State's aggregated State Agency Accounts. The figures, which are dollar- and time-weighted, where appropriate, are calculated using the percentage change in market value (inclusive of accrued income) from the end of the prior month to the end of the reporting month. To ensure the integrity of the data, this information is provided by the Treasurer's custodian bank acting in its capacity as an external third party. As such, performance measurement is presently confined to those investments which are custodied at Northern Trust ("Northern").

The Treasurer's office is trying to develop a method to report rates of return on all investment instruments in the State's portfolio. This is in an effort to report return data in a manner recommended on September 15, 1994, by the Working Group of the Cash Management and Investment Oversight Commission. However, there are technical and conceptual challenges to expanding performance measurement to other portions of the portfolio. Attempting to apply market-base pricing calculations to instruments which do not trade, such as Certificates of Deposit, presents difficulty which is both conceptual and technical in nature.

Benchmark data is also provided on the following page.
